The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

Ld Lieutenant preſent. The Houſe was reſumed: And his Excellency John Lord Carteret, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Roſcommon carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Kildare the Cap of Maintenance; three Sons of three Noblemen bearing the Train of his Excellency's Robe; His Excellency, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy, all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, until their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for: The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and then ſtanding on the right Hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant commanded their Attendance immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter; And the Houſe of Commons being come, were conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

Commons to chooſe a Speaker. "It is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's "Pleaſure, that you repair to your Houſe, "and chooſe a fit Perſon to be your Speaker, "and preſent him to his Excellency here im- "mediately, for his Excellency's Approbation."

Then his Excellency was pleaſed to withdraw into the Robing-Room, and the Commons went to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed: And his Excellency returned to the Chair of State; and being ſeated,

The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod acquainted his Excellency, that the Commons were at the Door, and being ordered to call them in, they were conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod with the uſual Ceremonies, where the Right Hon. William Conolly, Eſq; made a Speech, as follows, viz.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Speaker's Speech. THE Commons in Parliament aſſembled, having, in Obedience to your Excellency's Commands, proceeded to the Election of a Speaker, have been pleaſed, with great Unanimity, to make Choice of me.

My Duty, Loyalty and Affection to our moſt gracious Sovereign; my inviolable Attachment to his Sacred Perſon; the Memory of his royal Father; the high Honour the Commons have now a ſecond time conferred upon me, and my Zeal for the Good of my Country; do all lay me under the greateſt Obligations to exert my utmoſt Endeavours in every thing relating to the Service of his Majeſty, and this Nation.

Yet, my Lord, as I cannot but be conſcious, from my own Obſervation in the late Parliament, of many Defects that rendered me unequal to this weighty and difficult Charge, and at the ſame time have the Satisfaction to ſee myſelf ſurrounded by many worthy Members far ſuperior to me in all the Qualifications neceſſary for ſo great and important a Truſt; I muſt become an humble Suitor to your Excellency, to direct the Commons to return to their Houſe, and make Choice of a more able and ſufficient Perſon.

The Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

Mr. Conolly,

HIS Excellency has conſidered the Reaſons, which you have with great Modeſty offered, to excuſe your undertaking that important Office, to which the Commons have unanimouſly elected you: The Experience his Excellency has already had of your ſincere Loyalty and Affection to his Majeſty's royal Family, Perſon and Government; your known Love for your Country, and its happy Conſtitution; your perfect Knowledge in publick Buſineſs, and the Abilities you have ſhewn during ſeveral Seſſions in that honourable Chair, fully convince him, that the Commons have made a moſt wiſe and proper Choice.

approved of; His Excellency does therefore, with great Pleaſure and Satisfaction, approve of you to be their Speaker.

Then Mr. Speaker ſaid:

and again addreſſes the L^d Lieutenant YOUR Excellency having been pleaſed to approve the Choice of the Commons, I think it my Duty to lay hold of this Occaſion to aſſure your Excellency of the Loyalty, Affection and Duty of his Majeſty's Subjects of this Kingdom, to his royal Perſon and Government, of which they have given the fulleſt Proof, by the Election they have now made of their Repreſentatives to ſerve in Parliament; Gentlemen diſtinguiſhed in their reſpective Countries by their Zeal for the Proteſtant Succeſſion, in the moſt illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover; their firm Adherence to our preſent happy Eſtabliſhment in Church and State; and their true Love for their Country.

Theſe are all Preſages of a happy Parliament: And when we conſider his Majeſty's Goodneſs, and many royal Favours to this Kingdom, particularly that of continuing your Excellency in the Government of it; we have juſt Grounds to hope this Seſſion will produce all thoſe good Conſequences, which uſually attend the Deliberations of a dutiful and grateful People, when conducted by equal, juſt and able Governors. But that which ſtill adds to this Proſpect of a happy Seſſion, that we do not depend merely upon Hopes: The Experience we have had during the whole Courſe of your Government, of your eminent Zeal for his Majeſty's Service, and the Support of the Rights and Liberties of the Subject; of your Juſtice, Vigilance and great Abilities, in every Part of your Adminiſtration; and your particular Regard for the Proſperity of this Kingdom, ſhewn in your generous Endeavours, not only to preſerve, but to improve and advance it, becomes a Certainty to us, that we muſt be wanting to ourſelves, if we are diſappointed in theſe Expectations.

Thus, under the Influence of your Excellency, it is with the greateſt Pleaſure and Aſſurance I diſcharge the firſt Part of my Truſt, by demanding, in the Name and on the Behalf of the Commons, an intire Conſervation of all their Privileges: That they may have Freedom of Speech in their Debates, and not be moleſted in their Perſons, Goods or Attendants.

That the Miſtakes I ſhall commit, may meet with a favourable Conſtruction, and gracious Pardon.

And that when the publick Good ſhall require it, I may, by Direction of the Houſe, have free Acceſs to your Excellency's moſt noble Perſon.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's further Commands, ſaid:

Mr. Speaker,

HIS Excellency readily grants what you have deſired, in behalf of the Commons, and will preſerve to them all their Rights and Privileges, in the fulleſt and moſt effectual Manner: And you may be aſſured, that whatever you ſay or do in the Execution of your Office, ſhall always receive the moſt favourable Interpretation.

Then his Excellency was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech. HIS Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to call you together, as ſoon after the Deceaſe of his royal Father, our late moſt gracious Sovereign of glorious Memory, as the neceſſary Affairs of his Government would permit.

The Death of ſo good and great a King muſt, no Doubt, in a very ſenſible Manner, have affected the Subjects of this Kingdom, who during the whole Courſe of his Reign, ſo remarkably exerted themſelves in the Support of his Government, and the Succeſſion in his royal Houſe.

But that great Loſs has been repaired by his Majeſty's peaceable Acceſſion to the Throne of his royal Anceſtors; by which all the Bleſſings of the late Reign have not only been continued to us, but ſecured in their utmoſt Extent.

The Regard his Majeſty has ſhewn to the Religion, Laws and Liberties of his People; and the Aſſurances he has been pleaſed to give, that the Preſervation of the Conſtitution in Church and State, as it is now happily eſtabliſhed, ſhall be his firſt and always his chief Care; muſt make the deepeſt Impreſſion upon us; as they are known to proceed from the the Sincerity of his royal Heart, and from his Knowledge and Love of our Conſtitution.

Theſe gracious Inſtances of his Majeſty's Concern for the Happineſs of his People, and the good Opinion he has always had of the Loyalty and Affection of his Subjects of Ireland, will, I am perſuaded, engage you, with the greateſt Zeal and Unanimity, to ſupport his Government.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the proper Officers, to lay before you the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates; and have nothing in Command from his Majeſty to aſk, but the neceſſary Supplies for the Support of the Eſtabliſhment, and for the Defence and Security of this Kingdom: And his Majeſty doubts not, but you will give as great Teſtimonies of Duty and Affection to him, as have been given to any of his royal Predeceſſors.

The Neceſſity of the publick Service, having required that ſome of the Regiments upon this Eſtabliſhment ſhould be ſent abroad, his Majeſty has determined to replace them, as ſoon as the Exigency of his Affairs will permit: And I think myſelf obliged to take Notice on this Occaſion, that the ſeaſonable Reſolution of the laſt Houſe of Commons, to enable his late Majeſty to put this Kingdom, and the Forces on this Eſtabliſhment, into ſuch a Condition as might contribute to diſappoint all Attempts of his Enemies, hath greatly conduced to the Purpoſes for which it was intended.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I RECOMMEND to you to conſider of ſuch Laws, as may be neceſſary to be made or continued, for the Encouragement of your Manufactures, the Employment of the Poor, and the general Good of this Country; and to inforce the Execution of thoſe that relate to the Security of the Publick; and the preventing Popiſh Prieſts and Regulars from coming into this Kingdom.

The Experience I have already had of his Majeſty's Subjects of Ireland, makes my Return to this Government moſt agreeable to me. I doubt not, but the Behaviour of this Parliament will be ſuch as will recommend you, in the moſt effectual Manner, to his royal Favour: And, as I ſhall be glad of every Opportunity to promote the Welfare of this Kingdom, I ſhall repreſent, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, to his Majeſty, your Duty, Loyalty and Affection to his ſacred Perſon and Government.

His Excellency was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed.

The Earl of Meath preſented to the Houſe a Bill, intitled, An Act for allowing further Time to Perſons in Offices to qualify themſelves, purſuant to an Act, intitled, An Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery, which was received, and ordered to be read.

Hodie prima vicè lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for allowing further Time to Perſons in Offices to qualify themſelves, purſuant to an Act, intitled, An Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery. Qualification-Bill, Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be read a ſecond time on Saturday Morning next.

The Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table;

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to condole therein with his Majeſty upon the Demiſe of our late Sovereign of glorious Memory, and to congratulate with his ſacred Majeſty upon his moſt happy Acceſſion to the Throne; and to return his Majeſty our unfeigned Thanks for his graciouſly appointing my Lord Carteret to be his Lord Lieutenant of this his Majeſty's Kingdom of Ireland. Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Strabane and all the Lords preſent, be, and are hereby, appointed Lords' Committees, to prepare and draw up an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, condoling the Loſs of his late Majeſty, of glorious Memory; which could only be repaired by his Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne of his royal Anceſtors; and aſſuring his Excellency, that the ſame Zeal which we exerted for the Succeſſion of his royal Houſe, will make us always continue the ſame unſhaken Loyalty to his Majeſty, which we, on all Occaſions, manifeſted to his royal Father. And that his Majeſty's moſt gracious Declaration, That our Conſtitution in Church and State ſhall be his firſt and chief Care: and the gracious Senſe he is pleaſed to expreſs of the Loyalty of his Subjects of Ireland, are ſtill further Engagements to us, to proceed with the greateſt Chearfulneſs and Unanimity to ſupport his Government, to the utmoſt of our Power. Reſolution for Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant

That this Houſe will take into Conſideration, the making and continuing ſuch Laws, as ſhall be found neceſſary for the Encouragement of our Manufactures, the Employment of the Poor, and the general Good of this Country, and for the inforcing thoſe that relate to the Security of the Publick, and the preventing Popiſh Prieſts and Regulars from coming coming into this Kingdom: And alſo, that the Experience we have had of his Excellency's former Adminiſtration, makes his Return to the Government of this Kingdom highly acceptable to us, and leaves us no room to doubt of his Excellency's continuing to repreſent, in the ſtrongeſt Light, to his Majeſty, the Duty, Loyalty and Affection of his faithful Subjects of Ireland.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Allen and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed Lords' Committees to prepare and draw up an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as pleaſe, and report.

Lord Lieutenant's Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech made this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Speech, and that no Perſon preſume to print the ſame, other than ſuch as he ſhall appoint.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, with all Humility, lay hold of this firſt Opportunity to approach your Sacred Perſon, and condole with you upon the Death of your royal Father, our late moſt gracious Sovereign, of glorious Memory; at the ſame time beſeeching your Majeſty to accept our ſincereſt Congratulations upon your peaceable and happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

The Death of ſo great and good a Prince, could not but, in the moſt ſenſible manner, affect the Hearts of your faithful Subjects of this Kingdom, who had ſo long enjoyed an uninterrupted Courſe of many great and ſignal Bleſſings, under his mild and juſt Adminiſtration. But we muſt ever thankfully acknowledge, that the Divine Goodneſs has fully repaired this Loſs, by placing your Majeſty upon the Throne of your royal Anceſtors, which has not only continued and ſecured all thoſe Bleſſings to us, but given us the pleaſing Proſpect of ſtill greater, under your moſt auſpicious Reign.

The Regard your Majeſty has ſhewn to the Religion, Laws and Liberties of your People; your Knowledge and Love of our Conſtitution in Church and State, are, under God's good Providence, Providence, ſure Foundations of all that publick Happineſs, which we can hope for, from the undiſturbed Enjoyment of all our Religious and Civil Rights: But when we further conſider your Majeſty's royal Virtues, which ſo eminently qualify you for the Rule and Conduct of a great People; the diſtinguiſhed Merit of the Queen, your royal Conſort; and the promiſing Appearances of the ſame hereditary Virtues in your numerous and royal Iſſue, we juſtly inlarge our Hopes, and can ſet no Bounds to the growing Happineſs of theſe Nations, under your illuſtrious and royal Houſe.

Your calling us together, ſo ſoon after the Deceaſe of your royal Father, to conſider of ſuch Laws as may be found neceſſary to encourage our Manufactures, to employ our Poor, and provide for the Safety of the Kingdom, is ſo great an Inſtance of your early and paternal Care for it, as muſt ever beget in us a ſuitable Return of Duty and Zeal for your Sacred Perſon and Government.

Nor can we omit to acknowledge it as a further Inſtance of your Goodneſs to this Kingdom, that you have been pleaſed to continue the Government of it in his Excellency the Lord Carteret. The Confidence placed in him by two great Kings, and the Experience we have had of his conſtant Endeavours, equally to promote the Service of your Majeſty, and the Intereſt of your People, muſt ever make his Government moſt acceptable to us.

We want Words to expreſs the grateful Sentiments of our Hearts, for the good Opinion your Majeſty has been pleaſed to entertain of the Loyalty and Affection of your Subjects of Ireland. This and the many Inſtances you have given us of your tender Concern for your People's Welfare, call upon us for the higheſt Returns of Duty, Zeal and Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government: And we aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with the utmoſt Chearfulneſs and Unanimity, do every thing in our Power that may contribute to ſupport and defend your Government, and the Succeſſion in your royal Line.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, that the ſame may be tranſmitted to his Majeſty.

The Lord Viſc. Allen reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of Yeſterday, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read by the Clerk; and alſo read, Paragraph by Paragraph, and, with an Amendment, agreed to by the Houſe, and is as follows, viz.

To his Excellency JOHN Lord CARTERET, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble ADDRESS of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return our moſt ſincere Thanks for your excellent Speech, delivered from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

We take this firſt Opportunity of condoling with your Excellency on the Loſs of our late moſt gracious King, of glorious Memory, which could be only repaired by his Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne of his royal Anceſtors; and to aſſure your Excellency, that the Zeal which we have ever expreſſed for the Succeſſion of his royal Houſe, will make us always continue the ſame unſhaken Loyalty to his Majeſty, which we, on all Occaſions manifeſted to his royal Father. His Majeſty's moſt gracious Declaration, That our Conſtitution in Church and State ſhall be his firſt and always his chief Care; and the good Opinion he hath been pleaſed to expreſs of the Loyalty and Affection of his Subjects of this Kingdom, are ſtill further Engagements to us, to proceed with the greateſt Chearfulneſs and Unanimity, to ſupport his Majeſty's Government.

We ſhall take into Conſideration the making and continuing ſuch Laws as ſhall be found neceſſary for the Encouragement of our Manufactures; the Employment of the Poor; and the general Good of this Country: And for the inforcing thoſe that relate to the Security of the Publick, and the preventing Popiſh Prieſts and Regulars coming into this Kingdom.

The Experience we have had of your Excellency's former Adminiſtration, makes your Return to the Government highly acceptable. And, as we muſt always acknowledge it as a great Inſtance of his Majeſty's Grace and Favour to us, ſo, the being ſucceſſively employed by two great Kings, is your Excellency's pecular Honour.

Your known Goodneſs and Candor, leave us no room to doubt of your Excellency's continuing to repreſent, in the ſtrongeſt Light to his Majeſty, the Duty, Loyalty and Affection of his faithful Subjects of Ireland.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty; and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

Mr. St. Leger's Petition.

A Petition of Hayes St. Leger, Eſq; ſetting forth, that his Father the late Lord Viſcount Doneraile did, by his Laſt Will and Teſtament, in Writing, appoint the Petitioner his Executor; and, among other things, did thereby direct the Petitioner ſhould, out of Mortgage-Money due to his Lordſhip at his Death, lay out £600 Sterl. in Purchaſe of Lands for the Uſe of thirteen poor Children in the Pariſh of Doneraile, in the Co. Cork.

That by the ſaid Will, his Lordſhip alſo directed £500 more, which was due by Mortgage, to be laid out by the Petitioner in the Purchaſe of Lands, the Income whereof to be applied yearly by the Petitioner, and his Heirs, to the Relief of the Poor of the Pariſh of Doneraile aforeſaid.

That the Petitioner, intending to execute the ſaid Truſt, and other the Contents of the ſaid Will, lodged the ſame in the Prerogative-Office of this Kingdom, with Intent to prove ſaid Will, and get a Probat thereof, to intitle him to call in ſaid Money, to be laid out as aforeſaid, and the other Debts due to the Petitioner's Father.

That a Caveat was entered in the Prerogative, againſt proving ſaid Will, in the Name of the Petitioner's Brother, the preſent Lord Viſc. Doneraile.

That the Petitioner's Proctor will not proceed to the proving ſaid Will, leſt it may be deemed a Breach of the Privilege of this Hon. Houſe.

And humbly beſeeching their Lordſhips to take his Caſe into Conſideration, and to make ſuch Order therein, for the Petitioner's Relief, as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom, ſhould ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe and read.

And the Houſe of Commons, with their Speaker, being come, he, after a ſhort Speech to his Excellency, in relation to the Money-Bill, delivered the ſame to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought it to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Title of that, and the other Bills to be paſſed, as follows, viz.

Royal Aſſent given to three Bills.

1. An Act for granting and continuing to his Majeſty the additional Duties on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Tobacco, and other Goods and Merchandizes, and alſo upon all Sorts of Wine, ſtrong Waters and Spirits perfectly made, and upon all Spirits made and diſtilled of Wine; and alſo for granting and continuing continuing the ſeveral further additional Duties on Beer, Ale, Aquavitæ and ſtrong Waters, brewed and made in this Kingdom; and upon Brandy or Spirits above Proof; and on Tea, Coffee, Chocolate, and Cocoa-Nuts.

To this the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the royal Aſſent in theſe Words, viz.

"Le Roy remercie ſes bons Subjects, accepte leur Benevolence, et ainſi le veult."

2. An Act for allowing further Time to Perſons in Offices to qualify themſelves, purſuant to An Act, intitled, An Act to prevent the further Growth of Popery.

3. An Act for the more ſpeedy and effectual Repair of Bridges in the ſeveral Counties of this Kingdom.

To theſe Bills the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the royal Aſſent in theſe Words, viz.

Widow Daly's Pet.

A Petition of Catherine Daly, Widow, ſetting forth, that the Petitioner, on or about the 1ſt of April, 1722, was married to Denis Daly jun. laſt of Carrowne Kelly in the Co. Galway, Eſq; deceaſed, by the Conſent and Approbation of his Mother, and Guardian by Nature, Honora Daly alias Rice, and of James Daly, then of Dublin, and now of Loughrea, Eſq; the ſaid Minor's near Kinſman and Friend; and the Petitioner being, by the Articles made on the Intermarriage of her Father and Mother, intitled to a conſiderable Portion, which on her Intermarriage with the ſaid Denis Daly, was ſecured to be paid in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Minor's Mother, and the ſaid James Daly approved of; and the Petitioner being, at the time of the ſaid Marriage, but about fourteen Years of Age, was an utter Stranger to the ſaid Agreement and averſe to the ſaid Marriage, but ſubmitted therein to her Parents: That the Petitioner continued the ſaid Denis's Wife till the 23d Day of July, 1723, when the ſaid Denis died, ſeized of a conſiderable real Eſtate in the Counties of Galway, Clare and Mayo, which he enjoyed from the Death of his Grandfather Denis Daly ſen. which was about the Beginning of March, 1720, and ſet, let, and received the Rents, Iſſues and Profits thereof, and lived in the Manſion-Houſe of the Family.

That the Petitioner, being adviſed that ſhe was intitled to Dower out of the ſaid Eſtate, brought ſeveral Writs of Dower againſt Thomas Power alias Daly, Uncle to her ſaid Huſband, who poſſeſſed himſelf of the ſaid Eſtates in the Counties aforeſaid; and the ſaid Power, after many Delays by Bill in Equity and otherwiſe, pleaded, that the Petitioner's Huſband was under Age, and married without the Conſent of his Guardians; and alſo pleaded, that her ſaid Huſband never was ſeized of ſuch an Eſtate out of which ſhe could be endowed: To the former of which the Petitioner demurred, and had Judgment; but the ſame is removed by Writ of Error into the King's-Bench, and is there now depending. And, as to the Pleas of Non Seizin, the ſame were brought by three ſeveral Records of Niſi prius to the reſpective Counties aforeſaid, and the Petitioner obtained Verdicts in the ſeveral Counties of Clare and Mayo; but in the County of Galway, where the Bulk of the ſaid Eſtate lies, the ſaid Power challenged the Array, by reaſon that the Sheriff was related to the Petitioner, and gave ſome Proof of Kindred, tho' nigh ten Degrees removed, which diſappointed the Petitioner of her Trial.

That

That the Petitioner, in Lent Aſſizes, 1725, brought down the ſaid Iſſue to be tried; and though the Petitioner made full Proof of the ſole Seizin of her ſaid Huſband, which was notoriouſly known to the whole Country, and particularly to all, or moſt of the Jury; and no Evidence produced to the contrary: Yet it being inſiſted on by the ſaid Mr. Power's Counſel, that the ſaid Denis Daly ſen. was a Papiſt, and having four Sons, his Eſtate deſcended in Gavel-kind, and that therefore the ſaid Denis Daly jun. was intitled but to a fourth Part thereof. And the Jury, contrary to the Evidence, to their own knowledge, and the direction of the Court, found that the ſaid Denis Daly jun. died, ſeized only of a fourth Part of the ſaid Lands. By which Verdict the Petitioner would be intitled but to a twelfth Part of ſaid Lands for her Dower.

That upon Application to the Court of Common-Pleas, and the Report of Mr. Juſtice Gore and Mr. Attorney-General, before whom the ſaid Trial was had, the Court, with great Reſentment, ſet aſide the ſaid Verdict, as contrary to Evidence.

That on the Marriage of James Daly, Father to the Petitioner's Huſband, to the ſaid Honora the only Daughter of Sir Stephen Rice, then an eminent Barriſter at Law, the ſaid Denis Daly, the Grandfather, ſettled the ſaid Eſtate, in Conſideration of the ſaid Marriage, and of a Marriage-Portion of £2500 on the ſaid James for Life, with Remainders to his Sons in Tail-Male ſucceſſively, as is uſual, in Family-Settlements.

That George Aylmer of the Lyons, in the Co. Kildare, Eſq; being the only ſurviving Witneſs to the ſaid Settlement, and being a ſickly Gentleman, advanced in Years; and the Petitioner, having been adviſed, that on proving the ſaid Settlement, no Jury could diſagree in finding a Verdict for the Petitioner, the Petitioner did, at a conſiderable Expence, prevail with ſaid Mr. Aylmer to go to Galway, in Summer Aſſizes, 1726, to prove ſaid Settlement, which he proved accordingly.

That the Jury, though directed to find for the Petitioner, would not agree, but a Juror was forced to be withdrawn: Whereupon the Petitioner was obliged to apply to the Court of Common-Pleas for a Trial at Bar, which was ordered in Michaelmas Term, 1726. But the Petitioner, by reaſon of the great Faction made by the ſaid Thomas Power and his Friends againſt her in that County, could not get a Jury to appear at Bar, and was therefore obliged, at great Expence (ſhe having no Proviſion out of her ſaid Huſband's Eſtate real or perſonal) to bring down the ſaid Iſſue to be tried, the laſt Aſſizes, in the Co. Galway; where notwithſtanding that full and uncontradicted Evidence was given for the Petitioner, and that a full and direct Charge was given to the Jury by Mr. Juſtice Caulfeild and Mr. Prime Serjeant Singleton, before whom the ſaid Iſſue was tried, not only to find the Seizin of the Petitioner's Huſband, but likewiſe to find the Iſſues and Profits of her Dower for her, and the Damages for the Detention thereof: But the Jury, by reaſon of the Partiality of ſome of the Jurors, ſtood out to the laſt, and were brought to the Verge of the County, by Order of the ſaid Judges, and would not agree to find any Verdict. So that the Petitioner, by reaſon of the great and general Partiality of the Freeholders of that County, and the many Perſons who have and may be challenged for being related to the Petitioner (it being a Cuſtom in that County to call Couſins, though forty Degrees diſtant,) the Petitioner deſpairs of ever obtaining a Verdict in that County. And although Dower is the favourite Action of the Law, the Petitioner cannot have a Trial by Jurors out of any other County, unleſs relieved therein by the Legiſlative Power.

That ſaid Denis Daly, the Petitioner's Huſband, died, ſeized of a Territory or Parcel of Land, called Kilrateery, which lies in the Confines of the Counties of Clare and Galway, being a very ſpacious Tract of Land, containing ſix thouſand Acres, and conſiſting of ſeveral Sub-denominations.

That on the Trial had in the County of Clare, the ſaid Thomas Power produced Witneſſes to prove, that all the ſaid Kilrateery lay in the Co. Galway. But the Jury found three ſmall Denominations thereof to be in the Co. Clare, and on the Trials in the Co. Galway, the ſaid Thomas Power, or thoſe concerned for him, inſiſted, that no Part of it lay in the Co. Galway, but that all Kilrateery lay in the Co. Clare. By which Management and by reaſon of the Power and Influence that the ſaid Thomas Power hath in ſaid Co. Galway, and by reaſon of the ſeveral Pannels that have been returned, and the Challenges that have been made to them, beſides thoſe that lie to Jurors for Kindred, the Petitioner cannot poſſibly get an impartial or unexceptionable Jury in the ſaid County. And although the Petitioner hath, as ſhe is adviſed, a plain and undoubted Right to her Dower, yet the Petitioner, for the Reaſons aforeſaid, will never be able to recover either her Dower or Damages, unleſs relieved therein by the Clemency and Juſtice of a Legiſlative Power.

The Petitioner further ſets forth, that the ſaid Thomas, in order to oblige the Petitioner to come to his own Terms, gives out, that his Intereſt and Power in the ſaid County is ſo great, that the Petitioner will never be able to recover Dower againſt him.

The Petitioner further ſets forth, that it is generally reported in ſaid Co. Galway, that Joſeph Burke, Eſq; obtained a Leaſe of a Place called Colemanſtown in ſaid County, out of which the Petitioner was intitled to Dower, at about two Shillings ℔ Acre ℔ Ann. though the ſaid Lands are worth ſix or ſeven. And it is alſo reported in ſaid County, that ſaid Burke obtained ſaid Leaſe on Account of his being one of the firſt Jury that found againſt the Petitioner, and for being very active for the ſaid Thomas Power, againſt the Petitioner.

That ſaid Burke got the actual Poſſeſſion of ſaid Farm, ſince ſaid Verdict, which is a convincing Proof to the Petitioner, as ſhe humbly conceives, that ſuch a beneficial Leaſe was obtained for the Services aforeſaid.

The Petitioner further ſets forth, that ſaid Thomas Power was not contented to detain her Dower, as aforeſaid, but was likewiſe guilty of very unfair Practices, in blaſting the Petitioner's and her Family's Reputation, and procured Witneſſes to that Purpoſe; and is detected therein by the croſs Depoſitions of his own Witneſſes, which the Petitioner begs Leave to lay before their Lordſhips.

That Denis Daly and Peter Daly, Eſq'rs. Brothers and next in Remainder to the ſaid Thomas Power have ſupported and aſſiſted him in ſaid Proceedings, knowing ſaid Thomas to be only Tenant for Liſe, and that if he ſhould die, the Petitioner's ſaid Suit would abate, and thereby loſe the main Rates, and the ſame Faction continue to oppoſe her obtaining a Verdict in ſaid County.

And praying their Lordſhips to grant the Petitioner ſuch Relief in the Premiſes, as to their Lordſhips, in their great Clemency and Wiſdom, ſhould ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Mrs. Daly's Petition referred to Committee.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Petition ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to the Lords after-named, whoſe Lordſhips have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, and having conſidered the ſaid Petition, and heard ſuch Perſons concerning the ſame as they ſhall think fit, are afterwards to report ſpecially the Matter as it ſhall appear to them, with their Opinion thereupon, to the Houſe; and all Lords who are not of this Committee, and ſhall come, are to have Voices therein; and the Judges to aſſiſt, viz.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant had received his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe of the 29th of November laſt, which he directed him to lay before their Lordſhips, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follow, viz.

GEORGE R.

King's Anſwer to Addreſs.

"HIS Majeſty returns his Thanks to the "Houſe of Lords, for their very loyal Addreſs: "The Duty and Affection they expreſs for his "Majeſty's Perſon, and for his royal Family, "give his Majeſty the greateſt Satisfaction; "and they may always be aſſured of his Ma"jeſty's particular Regard for a Nation, ſo re"markable for their Zeal for the Proteſtant "Religion and Intereſt, and for our happy "Conſtitution."

Addreſs and Anſwer to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Majeſty of the 29th of November laſt, and his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer thereunto, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed; and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Addreſs and Anſwer.

Reſolved, that the humble Thanks of this Houſe be returned to his Majeſty, for his Majeſty's moſt gracious Anſwer to the Addreſs of this Houſe, of the 29th of November laſt.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Reſolution, and humbly deſire his Excellency will pleaſe to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

Upon reading the Order for the Day,

The Houſe reſumed the adjourned Debate on the Motion for addreſſing his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that the proper Officers do lay before this Houſe the publick Accounts of the Nation.

A Motion being made, and the Queſtion put, That the ſaid Debate be further adjourned to this Day eight Weeks;

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

DISSENTIENT:

Proteſt.

BECAUSE we are humbly of Opinion, that the addreſſing the Lord Lieutenant for any Accounts of Papers, relating to the Publick, is the undoubted and inherent Right of the Lords, and the poſtponing or delaying the ſame, tends, as we humbly conceive, to deprive the Lords from Inquiries, which may be for his Majeſty's Honour, and the Eaſe and Profit of his Subjects.

Rev. Mr. France's Petition.

A Petition of Nathaniel France, Clerk, ſetting forth his being Son and Heir and Executor to the Rev. Mr. Thomas France, deceaſed, who was the ſurviving Executor of the laſt Will and Teſtament of the Right Rev. Father in God, Dr. Nathaniel Foy, late Lord Biſhop of Waterford and Liſmore.

That his Lordſhip, by his ſaid Will, left the Reſidue of his Eſtate, after Debts, Legacies and Funeral Expences paid, to be laid out by his Executors in building a School-Houſe, and an Apartment for a Maſter, in the City of Waterford, and keeping the ſame in Repair; and for Payment of a yearly Salary of £40 to the ſaid Maſter, who was to teach gratis fifty poor Children of the Inhabitants of the City of Waterford, to read, write and caſt Accounts, and ſay their Catechiſm; and alſo for Payment of a Clergyman £10 yearly, for explaining the Catechiſm to the ſaid Children.

That the ſaid Lord Biſhop further appointed, that in Caſe his Eſtate ſhould be more than ſufficient to build the ſaid School and Apartment, and ſuch Salaries as aforeſaid, that the Overplus ſhould be applied by his Executors, to augment the ſaid Salaries; and the ſaid Maſter and Catechiſt were to inſtruct a proportionable Number of Boys, in Proportion to ſuch Increaſe.

That his Lordſhip's Eſtate hath proved much more conſiderable than he imagined it to be, at the Time of making ſaid Will, and that ſeveral Difficulties and Inconveniencies attend the Execution thereof, which can be only remedied by their Lordſhips.

And praying that Leave may be given to bring in Heads of a Bill for limiting the Salaries of the ſaid Maſter and Catechiſt, and for better regulating the ſaid School, and applying the Rents and Profits of the Eſtate, deviſed by the ſaid Will, in ſuch Manner as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom, ſhould think fit; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Petition be referred to the Lords under-named; whoſe Lordſhips are to have the Aſſiſtance of the Judges, and to prepare and bring in Heads of a Bill according to the Prayer of the ſaid Petition, viz.

Witneſſes ſworn.

William Henderſon, being by Order called in, was ſworn at the Bar, in order to give his Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees for Privileges, in the Caſe of Mr. Eſſington, on his behalf.

Edward Dudgeon and John Forſter, being by Order called in, were ſeverally ſworn at the Bar, in order to give their Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees for Privileges, in the Caſe of Mr. Eſſington, in behalf of Thomas Pitt and others.

William Hawkins, Eſq; Ulſter King of Arms, according to Order, attending at the Bar of this Houſe, was informed by the Lord Chancellor of the Miſtakes in the Liſt of Peers, returned by him to the Clerk of this Houſe.

And Mr. Hawkins, acquainting their Lordſhips, that the Order of this Houſe of the 12th of Auguſt, 1707, not having been complied with, he was incapable of returning a perfect Liſt of the Peers of this Kingdom.

Whereupon the ſaid Order was then read, and the Reſolutions of this Houſe, of the 16th of June, 1716, were likewiſe read.

Order to King of Arms concerning Liſt of Peers.

Ordered, that William Hawkins, Eſq; Ulſter King of Arms, do amend the Liſt of Peers by him returned to the Clerk of this Houſe, by inſerting the proper Names of the ſeveral Lords to their reſpective Titles, where they are miſnamed; and by eraſing the Names of the ſeveral Lords whoſe Titles are extinct; and that he does for the future attend the Lords, as Occaſion ſhall require, to have their ſeveral Entries, that he may be thereby capable of returning a correct Liſt of the Lords of Parliament, and Peers of the Realm, to this Houſe, from time to time.

Report concerning Paſſage to Houſe, &c.

The Earl of Cavan reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to conſider what Methods may be taken to make the Paſſage to the Houſe of Lords for Coaches and Chairs more eaſy and practicable; that they had conſidered thereof, and are come to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Area or Square be marked out before the Parliament-Houſe, by Lines to be made in the Pavement with Stones of a larger Size, in the Manner following, viz.

The firſt Line to begin at the Diſtance of fifty Feet Eaſtward of the Gate before the ſaid Houſe, and to run acroſs the Street, in the middle of the raiſed Cauſeway, that leads directly to the College.

The ſecond Line to ariſe at the ſame Diſtance from the ſaid Gate, Weſtward, and to determine as aforeſaid.

The third Line to run directly along the Crown of the ſaid Cauſeway, and to join the two firſt.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that when an Area or Square is thus formed, that three Openings or Outlets be made by parallel Lines, to be drawn after the ſame Manner; the firſt Opening to be of nine Feet, in that Side of the Area that fronts the Parliament-Houſe; the ſecond to be of the ſame Dimenſions, in ſome convenient Part of the Weſt-ſide of the Area, between parallel Lines, that ſhall be carried on to a proper Diſtance; the third Opening to be of the ſame Side; but immediately next to the Houſes, for the conveniency of Chairs and Foot-paſſengers, to paſs and repaſs in Safety; this will be beſt ſecured by Poſts to be erected in the Pavement, at the Diſtance of eight Feet from the Houſes.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Surveyor-General be ordered to ſee the above Work executed with all convenient Speed.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that during the Sitting of the Parliament, no Coach whatever ſhall ſtand within within the Area aforeſaid, any longer than ſhall be juſt neceſſary to ſet down or take up Paſſengers.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that every Coach that waits, ſhall ſtand in ſuch Manner as that the Heads of the Horſes ſhall be without the Lines, that form the ſaid Area.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that no Coach ſhall ſtand within the Lines of the ſaid Opening, to interrupt the Paſſage.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Coaches of the Lords, being ranged without the ſaid Area, ſhall not quit their Stations, and come forwards towards the ſaid Gate, till they are called by the Meſſengers of the Houſe, or by the Lords or their Servants; and then ſhall advance in order, as they happen to be called.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that Hackney-Coaches ſhall wait about the Weſt Part of the ſaid Area only; and ſhall not preſume to come within the Lines of the ſame till they are called as aforeſaid; and then ſuch Hackney-Coach only ſhall come, as is particularly called, and no other.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that no Chairman ſhall wait with his Chair within the ſaid Area, nor within the Openings to the ſame.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that two Lines ſhall be drawn in the Manner before deſcribed, in the Court leading to the Door of the Parliament-Houſe, at the Diſtance of twelve Feet from each other; and all Chairs that wait in common there ſhall be ranged in Order, behind the ſaid Lines: And no Chairman ſhall preſume to draw his Chair out of its Place, until a Chair be called; and when a Chair is called, that which is neareſt the Door of the Houſe, ſhall be drawn out, and no other, unleſs a particular Chair be called for.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that any Coachman or Chairman, who ſhall offend againſt the Rules abovementioned, be taken into Cuſtody.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Lord Mayor be directed to order four Conſtables to attend daily during the Sitting of Parliament, to ſee the ſaid Rules be duly executed.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that a Standing Committee be appointed to inquire into the Execution of the above Reſolutions.

Report agreed to.

To which Reſolutions, the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree.

And the Lords under-named were appointed a Standing Committee, purſuant to the laſt of the foregoing Reſolutions, viz.

Lord Primate
Earl of Kildare
Earl of Roſcommon
Earl of Cavan
Lord Biſhop of Kilmore
Lord Biſhop of Elphin
Lord Biſhop of Ferns

Their Lordſhips, or any two of them, to meet when, where, and as often as they pleaſe.

Meſſage to Commons for Conference.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Dr. Warburton and Dr. Reilly, to acquaint them, this Houſe deſires a preſent Conference with the Commons, in the Conference Chamber, upon Methods to be taken for making the Paſſage to the Parliament-Houſe for Coaches and Chairs more eaſy and practicable.

Ordered, that the Lords who were this Day appointed a Standing Committee, be appointed Managers at the ſaid Conference.

Whereas the Lords' Committees appointed to conſider of Mrs. Daly's Petition, were to meet To-morrow Morning; It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Lords' Committees ſhall meet on Thurſday Morning next, at Ten o'clock, and that all Perſons who are ſworn or ſummoned to appear before the ſaid Lords' Committees, ſhall then attend.

Defaulters to be called.

Whereas the Names of the Lords who made Default upon the Call of the Houſe, were by order to be called over on Monday Morning next; It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Names of ſuch Lords as made Default upon the Call of the Houſe, be again called over the firſt Monday after the Meeting of the Houſe, after the Receſs.

R. Baillie's Petition.

A Petition of Robert Baillie of the City of Dublin, Upholder, ſetting forth, that for ſome Years paſt conſiderable Sums of Money have been ſent out of this Kingdom for Tapeſtry, which was not to be had but at a very high Price, either from London, Bruſſels or Flanders.

That the Petitioner hath, at great Expence, brought into this Kingdom from Great Britain, France and Flanders a ſufficient Number of exceeding good Tapeſtry-Weavers, who ſince their Arrival, have made ſeveral Suits of Tapeſtry, excelling any that have yet been imported into this Kingdom, and at a lower Price, as by Specimens, ready to be produced, may appear.

That the Petitioner, underſtanding a new Parliament-Houſe is to be built, is emboldened, from the Encouragement this moſt Hon. Houſe has always given to the Manufactures of this Kingdom, to offer his Service for perpetuating the Particulars of the late glorious Revolution, and the remarkable Incidents in the Wars of Ireland, by preparing Suits of Tapeſtry for ſuch Parts of the Houſe of Lords as ſhall be thought proper, containing their Hiſtory; which the Petitioner will give ſufficient Security, ſhall be executed in the beſt Manner.

And praying their Lordſhips to take the Premiſſes into Conſideration, and to do therein as to their Lordſhips in their great Wiſdom ſhall ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Ordered,

Order thereon

Ordered, that all the Lords preſent be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to examine the Allegations of the ſaid Petition, and report to the Houſe their Opinion thereupon.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet on Thurſday Morning next, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, and adjourn as they pleaſe.

Ordered, that the ſaid Lords' Committees, appointed to conſider Mr. Baillie's Petition, have Power to receive Propoſals and Plans for building a new Parliament-Houſe, and for all Furniture and other Neceſſaries relating to the building and furniſhing the ſame.

Dr. Warburton and Dr. Reilly reported to the Houſe, that they had delivered their Lordſhips' Meſſage to the Houſe of Commons, and that they had agreed to a preſent Conference, as was deſired.

The Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod acquainted the Houſe, that the Managers from the Commons were in the Conference-Chamber.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and the Managers went to the Conference-Chamber; and being returned, Report on Conference.

The Houſe was reſumed: And his Grace the Lord Primate reported, that he, with the other Lords who were appointed Managers, went to the Conference-Chamber, and there met the Managers for the Commons, and that his Grace had delivered the ſeveral Reſolutions of this Houſe, relating to the Methods to be taken to make the Paſſage to the Houſe of Lords more eaſy and practicable, to Dr. Trotter, who managed the ſaid Conference for the Commons.

Complaint concerning Fees.

A Complaint being made, that ſeveral Perſons who have applied to this Houſe by Petition, and otherwiſe called before it, have and do refuſe to pay their Fees reſpectively due to the ſeveral Officers and Servants attending this Houſe;

Order thereon.

It was reſolved upon the Queſtion, nem. con. that if any Perſon or Perſons who have refuſed, or at any time hereafter ſhall refuſe to pay the Fees reſpectively due to the ſeveral Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo refuſing, ſhall, upon Application made to this Houſe, be taken into Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, until they ſhall diſcharge the ſame.

Report on Mr. Baillie's Petition concerning Tapeſtry for Houſe.

His Grace the Lord Primate reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Petition of Robert Baillie of the City of Dublin, Upholder, was referred, and who were appointed to receive Propoſals and Plans for the building and furniſhing a new Parliament-Houſe; that they have examined the Allegations of the ſaid Petition, and received the following Propoſals from the ſaid Mr. Baillie, viz.

The ſaid Mr. Baillie conceives there will be five or ſix Pieces of Tapeſtry wanting for the Houſe of Lords, in the New Parliament-Houſe, and propoſes to repreſent in the ſaid Work the following great Actions, viz.

Firſt Piece. The valiant Defence of Londonderry, from the Opening of the Trenches to the raiſing the Siege, by the Arrival of the Engliſh Army.

Second Piece. The Landing of King William and his Army at Carrickfergus.

Third Piece. To repreſent the glorious Battle and Victory of the Boyne, with the Rout of the Iriſh Army.

Fourth Piece. To repreſent the ſplendid and joyful Entry of King William into Dublin.

Fifth Piece. To repreſent the Battle of Aughrim.

Sixth Piece. The taking of Cork and Kinſale by the late victorious Duke of Marlborough.

The ſaid Mr. Baillie further propoſes to work in the ſaid Hanging the Effigies of the late glorious King William, Dukes of Marlborough and Schomberg, and General Ginckle, with any other of the Lords who were Inſtruments in the late happy Revolution, who will pleaſe to furniſh their Pictures after the Life, for that Purpoſe.

He further propoſes to make the ſaid Hangings equal in Goodneſs and Fineneſs with Alexander's Battles or thoſe of the late Duke of Marlborough, which were never ſold for leſs than three Guineas Engliſh ℔ Ell, and propoſes to ſell his at three Pounds Sterl. ℔ Ell, and alſo to furniſh the Drawings, which will be a conſiderable Part of the Expence, and adorn the Whole with a ſuitable Border of Trophies of War and Victory, with expreſſive Motto's to each Piece; and will oblige himſelf to finiſh the ſame in leſs than four Years, from the time of contracting: And the ſaid Baillie humbly conceives the above-mentioned great Events will be as ſuitable for the Houſe of Lords of Ireland, as the Defeat of the Spaniſh Armada is for that of Great Britain. All which he humbly ſubmits to your Lordſhips' great Wiſdom.

And as the ſaid Works are to be the intire Produce and Manufacture of this Kingdom, and the Propoſer has already been at a conſiderable Expence in bringing Artiſts over, to prevent the Money from going a-broad, humbly hopes for a ſuitable Encouragement.

The ſaid Lords' Committees, having conſidered the ſaid Mr. Baillie's Propoſals, are come to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that Mr. Baillie's Propoſal about the Tapeſtry to be put up in the New Houſe for the Lords, is reaſonable.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that Mr. Baillie, having, at great Expence, brought the making of Tapeſtry into this Kingdom, which may prevent the Exporting of Money out of the Nation, deſerves the Encouragement of this Houſe, by employing him in the making of Tapeſtry for the New Houſe of Lords.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the ſaid Baillie deſerves the further Encouragement, that he may provide what other Furniture ſhall be wanting, in the Way of his Trade, for the New Houſe of Lords.

And the ſaid Report, being afterwards read at the Table;

The ſaid Reſolutions were then ſeverally read and agreed to by the Houſe.

To the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

The Earl of Cavan, according to Order, reported as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Report on Mrs. Daly's Petition.

THE Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of the Petition of Catherine Daly, Widow, was referred, having heard Thomas Power Daly, Eſq; as well as the Petitioner, by their Counſel, and alſo ſuch Evidence as they thought proper to produce, do find:

By the Examination of Mr. Jeffrey French, (who was ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe) that a Marriage was ſolemnized on the 10th

Day of April, 1722, between Denis Daly, the Grandſon of Denis Daly, and the Petitioner Catherine Daly, at the Houſe of Sir Walter Blake, in Dublin, by the Rev. Mr. John Throp, according to the Rights and Ceremonies of the Church of Ireland as by Law eſtabliſhed, by Virtue of a Licence from his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin; and the ſaid Marriage was admitted by the ſaid Mr. Power Daly's Counſel.

The ſaid French being further examined, depoſeth, that the ſaid Denis Daly, at the time of his ſaid Marriage, was about fifteen Years of Age; and that the ſaid Daly's Mother was a Roman Catholick.

French did not remember to have heard of any Order in the High Court of Chancery, concerning the ſaid Marriage, nor did he know any Conſent of Guardians on ſaid Marriage; but that the ſaid Daly's Mother was conſenting thereto, and was preſent when the ſame was ſolemnized.

That by the Articles of Inter-marriage, between Sir Walter Blake, Bart. and Dame Agnes Blake, the Petitioner's Father and Mother, dated the 5th Day of October, 1706, and proved by Garret Bourke, Eſq; a ſubſcribing Witneſs, it appeared, that if the ſaid Sir Walter ſhould have but one Daughter by the ſaid Dame Agnes, ſhe ſhould be intitled to a Portion of £3000; and it appeared to the Lords' Committees, that the Petitioner was the only Daughter of the ſaid Marriage.

That by an Indenture Quadripartite, made the 18th Day of October, 1700, between Denis Daly ſen. and James Daly, Son and Heir apparent to the ſaid Denis Daly, of the firſt Part; Sir Stephen Rice, Knight, Sir Walter Blake, Bart. and Garret Moore, Eſq; of the ſecond Part; Maurice Fitzgerald and Thomas Power, Eſqrs. of the third Part; and John Huſſey and Charles Daly, Eſq'rs. of the fourth Part; upon a Marriage agreed upon between the ſaid James Daly and Honorah Rice, eldeſt Daughter of the ſaid Sir Stephen Rice, it appears, that all the Lands therein named, were ſettled to the Uſe of the ſaid J. Daly for Life, with Remainder to the firſt and every other Son of the ſaid James Daly, by the ſaid Honorah Rice, with other Remainders over; whereby the Petitioner's Huſband, Denis Daly the younger, became Tenant in Tail, and was ſeized of all the Lands in the ſaid Deed mentioned, which was admitted by Mr. Power Daly's Counſel.

That by Articles of Agreement (made between Honorah Daly, Mother of the ſaid Denis Daly the younger, and Sir Walter Blake, Bart. Father to the Petitioner, the ſaid Denis Daly jun. and Catherine Blake the Petitioner, upon the Petitioner's Inter-marriage with the ſaid Denis Daly, dated the 12th Day of March, 1721) it appears, that the ſaid Sir W. Blake was to pay the Sum of £5000, as a Marriage-Portion with the Petitioner (that is to ſay) £3000, when the Petitioner attained the Age of Eighteen; and £2000 after the Death of the Lady Blake, Wife to the ſaid Sir Walter.

That by the Depoſitions of James Daly, Eſq; taken in a Cauſe in the High Court of Chancery, wherein Thomas Power Daly, Eſq; is Plaintiff; and Catherine Daly alias Blake, Widow, and others, are Defendants; to Interrogatories exhibited on the Part of the Complainant: The ſaid James Daly, to the fourth Interrogatory, depoſes:

That he believes the Defendants Sir Walter Blake and Honorah Daly alias Rice, made up the Match between the ſaid Denis Daly jun. and the Defendant Catherine.

To the 7th Interrogatory, the ſaid Daly depoſes, that he knew that the Defendants Sir Walter Blake and Honorah Daly had, for ſeveral Years, very great Fallings-out which continued till about the time of making the ſaid Match: Depoſes, that the ſaid Honorah had a very bad Opinion of the ſaid Sir Walter, and of any Alliance with him; and had an Abhorrence to the ſaid Sir Walter, and believed it was one Laurence Hynes, Clerk, that reconciled the ſaid Sir Walter and the ſaid Honorah; but with what Deſign, the Deponent knew not, other than that the ſaid Hynes was a Clergyman, and intimate in both Families.

To the 8th Interrogatory, The ſaid Daly depoſed, that ſome time before the Match was concluded between the Defendant Catherine and her late Huſband Denis Daly jun. deceaſed, the Deponent was going out of his Houſe in Dublin, and met the ſaid Laurence Hynes, who aſked the Deponent, If he heard of a Match between the ſaid Denis Daly jun. and the ſaid Catherine? And the Deponent, anſwered, He had not.

That the next Morning, as the Deponent lay in Bed, the ſaid Honorah Daly, Mother to the ſaid Denis Daly jun. came to this Deponent; and the Deponent aſked her, If ſuch a Match was intended? for that the ſaid Laurence Hynes told the Deponent thereof. Upon which ſhe told the Deponent, There was ſuch a Match on Foot: The Deponent aſked her, If ſhe had conſulted the ſaid Denis Daly junior's Uncles? And ſhe replied, She would not conſult her Son's Uncles; and that they ſhould have no hand in any thing that belonged to her Son. And this Deponent knowing the ſaid Honorah's Circumſtances, told her, He believed it was to make herſelf eaſy, ſhe reſolved to make up ſaid Match. She replied, That ſhe expected to receive her Son's Portion, ſhe being a Parent; but the Deponent told her, She could not expect to get all the Portion; and that if ſhe could get £1000, or leſs, ſhe would be well off. And in the Evening of the ſame Day, the Defendant Sir Walter came to this Deponent, and told him, That he received a Propoſal of the ſaid Match by the ſaid Laurence Hynes: Said, that he had agreed or promiſed his Wife to give £6000 Portion with his ſaid Daughter, and believed the Perſon concerned in making ſaid Match would expect ready Money: But ſay'd, This Deponent knew his Condition, ſo as not to be able to advance that Sum in hand, though ſaid Sir Walter ſaid, He had good Securities, and other Effects to anſwer that Sum, and more.

The Deponent then told him, That the ſaid Honorah Daly was to get £1000 ready Money, Part of the ſaid Portion, and believed ſhe would not do without it. The ſaid Sir Walter replied, That he did not then know whether his Wife and Daughter would come into ſaid Match, but that he would conſult them therein.

The Deponent further depoſed, That the next Day the ſaid Sir Walter, Honorah and her Son, the ſaid Denis Daly, and the ſaid Laurence Hynes, came to the Deponent's Houſe, and the ſaid Match was diſcourſed of by the ſaid Parties, in the Deponent's Preſence: And it was then agreed between them, that £1000, Part of the £6000 Portion, ſhould be paid to the ſaid Honorah: And that the ſaid Denis Daly her Son ſhould not be told thereof, till he attained the Age of twenty-one Years; and that the Portion to be named before the ſaid Minor, her Son, ſhould be but £5000. The ſaid Daly the Minor and the ſaid Hynes, then coming into the Room, the ſaid Honorah ſay'd She would give the ſaid Sir Walter's Daughter £600 per Ann. Jointure, and the ſaid Sir Walter ſaid, He would give the ſaid Minor, her Son, £5000 with his ſaid Daughter.

The Deponent then, taking the ſaid Minor into his the Deponent's Garden, the ſaid Hynes went with them, and the Deponent aſked the ſaid Minor, How he came to think of an Affair of that kind? And deſired to know, Who put him upon it, being ſo very young, and particularly of the Match with the ſaid Sir Walter's Daughter? And told him, That if he went on with the ſaid Match, he would repent it, and the Deponent endeavoured to diſſuade the ſaid Minor from the ſaid Match: But the ſaid Minor replied, He would not be diſſuaded from it, for that he liked the Lady, and would marry her, if he could gain her, or Words to that Effect. And the Deponent then aſked the ſaid Minor, If he had conſulted his Uncles in ſaid Match? Who replied, He had not, nor never would. Depoſed, That Thomas Power, one of the ſaid Minor's Uncles, was then in Dublin, and his other two Uncles Denis and Peter Daly, were in the Country: And depoſed, that in about two or three Days, there was an Agreement, in the Nature of Marriage-Articles, entered into between the ſaid Sir Walter Blake and his Daughter Catherine; the ſaid Honorah Daly and her Son Denis Daly, the Minor; and ſays, That £5000 was all the Portion mentioned in the ſaid Articles, and that the other Thouſand Pounds was ſecured by two Bonds to the ſaid Honorah Daly, and was to be kept as a Secret; and ſaith, The ſaid Honorah afterwards received the ſaid Thouſand Pound from the ſaid Sir Walter Blake; and believes, if the ſaid Thouſand Pounds had not been paid to the ſaid Honorah, the ſaid Match would not have taken Effect, if the ſaid Honorah could have helped it.

To the 10th Interrogatory, the ſaid James depoſed, That after the ſaid Agreement for the ſaid Marriage was entered into, ſaid Sir Walter went into the Country, and afterwards wrote a Letter to Dublin, to the Defendant Honorah Daly, which ſhe ſhewed the Deponent, in which Letter, to the beſt of this Deponent's Memory, it was deſired, that ſhe ſhould ſee her Son, the ſaid Denis Daly married; and the Deponent going ſoon after into the Country, received a Letter from the ſaid Sir Walter, in which he intimated that he was then going to Dublin, to ſee his Daughter and the ſaid Denis Daly married.

The Deponent further depoſed, that he heard that after the ſaid Match was agreed upon, and before the Marriage of the ſaid Denis and Catherine Daly, the Deponent's Brother, Denis Daly, at the Inſtance of Sir Walter Blake, applied to the ſaid Minor's Uncles, Denis and Peter Daly, for their Conſent to the ſaid Match; but before ſuch Application was made, the Deponent heard there was a Contract of Marriage entered into between the ſaid Denis Daly jun. and the ſaid Catherine: And depoſed, that Laurence Hynes, he the Deponent Sir Walter Blake and the ſaid Honorah Daly, were preſent at the Sign of the Ship upon the Strand, at the perfecting the the ſaid Articles for the ſaid Marriage, and the ſaid Contract. But the Deponent did not know the Reaſon the ſaid Agreement and Contract were had at the ſaid Ship, rather than at the ſaid Sir Walter's Houſe, except it was to keep the ſame more private.

To the 11th Interrogatory, the ſaid James Daly depoſed, That he thought Sir Walter Blake was at the time of marrying his Daughter to the ſaid Denis Daly jun. able to pay ſaid Portion of £5000 with his ſaid Daughter, becauſe the ſaid Sir Walter gave the Deponent a Scheme of his Circumſtances, by which the Deponent believed him able to pay the ſaid Portion. Depoſes, That, for ſecuring the ſaid Portion, the ſaid Sir Walter perfected his Bond and Warrant to confeſs Judgment thereon, to this Deponent, in Truſt for the Uſes in the ſaid Articles of Intermarriage contained; upon which Bond, Judgment was entered.

To the 14th Interrogatory, the ſaid James Daly, depoſed, that a conſiderable time after the Intermarriage of the ſaid Denis Daly jun. with the ſaid Catherine, he heard the ſaid Honorah Daly, the Mother, making a Demand to her ſaid Son for the Maintenance of his Siſter; upon which Sir Walter Blake, who was then preſent, told the ſaid Honorah, that he had paid her £1000 already in Part: But the ſaid Honorah denied the ſame; and replied, She did not receive the ſaid £1000 on that account; and thereupon the ſaid Honorah and the ſaid Sir Walter came to an Agreement, whereby ſhe ſhe conſented, that if they would make it up £1500 or £1700, in full of the ſaid Maintenance, the ſaid Honorah would allow the ſaid £1000, in Part thereof; which was accordingly agreed to by the ſaid Sir Walter, in behalf of the ſaid Denis Daly jun. her Son.

To the 16th Interrogatory, the ſaid Daly depoſed, that ſome time after the Death of the ſaid Denis Daly jun. the ſaid Honorah told the Deponent that the ſaid Sir Walter had run her to an outlawry for the £1000, ſo paid her as aforeſaid: Whereupon the Deponent went to the ſaid Sir Walter, and aſked him, his Reaſon for doing, who replied, That he did not intend to execute the ſaid Outlawry then; but that he only did it to be before-hand with her other Creditors.

To the 17th Interrogatory, the ſaid Daly depoſed, that Mary Nugent alias Daly, Siſter to the ſaid Denis Daly jun. was a Child at Nurſe, to the beſt of his Memory, at the time of her Father's Death; and that ſoon after, ſhe was taken into her Mother the ſaid Honorah's Care; and knows, that the ſaid Honorah, before the Intermarriage of her Son, received from Denis Daly, the ſaid Mary's Uncle, £100, in Part of the ſaid Mary's Maintenance: And heard, that the ſaid Honorah hath received ſeveral other Sums on the ſame Account from other Perſons. Says, when the ſaid Mary was a Child, her Maintenance could not be much. But when ſhe grew up, her Maintenance was vaſtly expenſive; but what it was, the Deponent could not aſcertain.

To the 18th Interrogatory, the ſaid Daly depoſed, That he thinks he heard there was ſome Talk before the ſaid Minor's Intermarriage, That he ſhould be ſent abroad to travel. Saith, That Thomas Power, the Minor's Uncle, before the ſaid Minors Marriage, as aforeſaid, told this Deponent, that he intended to propoſe a Match for his ſaid Nephew with a Daughter of Col. Butler of Killcaſh, and deſired this Deponent to acquaint the ſaid Minor's Mother therewith, which he accordingly did.

To the 19th Interrogatory, the ſaid Daly depoſed, That ſoon after the Death of the ſaid Denis Daly, jun. Sir Walter Blake quitted his Houſe in Dublin, and went to live with his Son-in-law, Mr. Quin, in the Co. Limerick, which he believes he did to ſave Money. And ſays, He heard that after the Appeal went againſt Sir Walter, at the Suit of his Son, in England, he made an Affidavit of his Poverty, in order to be admitted in forma pauperis, but refers to the Record.

To the 20th Interrogatory, the ſaid Daly ſaith, That he does not know what the yearly Value of the ſaid Denis Daly junior's Eſtate was, from the Death of his Grandfather, to the time of his the ſaid Denis's Death; but believes the Eſtate to be of a conſiderable yearly Value; and thinks the ſaid Daly's Expence could not come to the Income of his Eſtate, if it were rightly managed. But ſaith, the ſaid Sir Walter told this Deponent, The ſaid Daly was much indebted: And ſaith, that he this Deponent was bound with the ſaid Sir Walter for the ſaid Denis Daly jun. And ſaith, that the ſaid Sir Walter told this Deponent, That the ſaid Daly owed ſeveral Tradeſmen, and others, Money, at the Time of his Death; beſides the ſaid Money for which this Deponent was bound, as aforeſaid.

The ſaid James Daly, being again examined in the ſaid Cauſe, on Croſs-Interrogatories, on behalf of the Defendants, proves ſeveral Letters laid before the ſaid Lords' Committees to be the Hand-writing and Subſcription of the ſaid Denis Daly jun. The Intent of which Letters was to ſhew the great Inclination the ſaid Daly had to the Petitioner: And that it was at his Interceſſion, the ſaid Contract and Marriage ſhould be kept ſecret; and for further Particulars, the ſaid Lords' Committees refer to the ſaid Croſs-Interrogatories in Lib. A.

That by the Depoſitions of the Hon. Mary Dame Levinge of the City of Dublin, Widow, taken in the ſame Cauſe, to the 2d Interrogatory, in Lib. C, it appears, that her Ladyſhip was ſent for by Dame Agnes Blake, who told the Deponent, that a Propoſal had been made for a Marriage between Denis Daly, in the Interrogatory mentioned, and the ſaid Lady Blake's Daughter, the Petitioner; but that ſhe was in Doubt whether ſhe ſhould conſent to it, for the two following Reaſons: Firſt, That ſhe thought her Daughter too young for Marriage; and the other was, on account of the Greatneſs of the Portion which was to be given, which would be very prejudicial to the ſaid Lady Blake, if Sir Walter ſhould not live to make it up to her.

Depoſed, That ſhe was frequently at Sir Walter Blake's, and obſerved that the ſaid Catherine was much averſe to the ſaid Marriage; and the Deponent and other of the ſaid Catherine's Acquaintance were deſired to prevail on ſaid Catherine to conſent to the ſaid Marriage; and after much Perſuaſion, ſhe the ſaid Catherine, with Reluctance, conſented thereto.

That by the Depoſitions of Mary Polexfen, Wife of Thomas Polexfen of the City of Dublin, Eſq; and alſo by the Depoſitions of Ann Murray, Wife of Major Murray, taken in the ſame Cauſe, it appears, as afore, in the Depoſitions of Lady Levinge.

Andrew Brown, being produced on the behalf of the Petitioner, before the ſaid Lords' Committees, after having been ſworn at the Bar, depoſed, that he was preſent when a Record in Dower was tried by Niſi prius, in the Co. Clare, wherein Catherine Daly, the Petitioner, was Demandant, and Thomas Power Daly, Eſq; was Tenant; and that at the ſaid Trial, the ſaid Power Daly produced three Witneſſes to prove, that the Lands of Kilrateery (except three ſmall Denominations, which were proved to be worth £45 a Year) lay in the Co. Galway, and that the whole Territory of Kilrateery was ſet for £330 a Year.

Depoſed,

Depoſed, That he received the Rents of the ſaid Lands, and the reſt of young Mr. Daly's Rents, from the time of his Marriage, to the time of his Death.

Depoſed, That he was at ſeveral Trials at Galway, between the ſaid Parties, for the ſaid Catherine's Dower, and it was there inſiſted on, that the whole Lands of Kilrateery lay in the Co. Clare.

The ſaid Brown further depoſed, that Deponent paid the Rents to Denis Daly jun. or his Order, and ſays he received £300 from Sir Walter Blake after the ſaid Daly's Death, which was due to ſaid Daly on Balance of Accounts.

Depoſed, That he knows no Guardian ſaid Daly had, and that the ſaid Daly was about ſeventeen Years of Age when he ſigned the Deponent's Accounts: And ſays, there were Leaſes ſet of the ſaid Daly's Eſtate, ſigned by himſelf, and witneſſed by Peter Daly, his Uncle, and Denis Daly of Raford, in the Preſence of Sir Walter Blake, and ſeveral others. And ſays, He paid no Money to any body but to young Mr. Daly or his Order, or to the ſaid Denis Daly, who, the Deponent heard, was his Guardian; only to Sir Walter Blake, when young Mr. Daly was in the Small-Pox.

The Order of the High Court of Chancery of the 11th of September, 1722, appointing Denis Daly of Raford, Eſq; Guardian to the ſaid Denis Daly jun. was then read.

The ſaid Brown, being further examined, depoſed, That he was at ſeveral Trials at Galway, between the ſaid Power Daly and the Petitioner, Catherine Daly.

At one of which Trials, it was inſiſted upon, that the Eſtate of the ſaid Denis Daly jun. deſcended in Gavel-kind, no Settlement being then produced, and Denis Daly ſen. having died a Papiſt.

At a ſubſequent Trial, the Settlement being produced, and proved the Gavel-kind, Deſcent was not further inſiſted upon.

The ſaid Brown further depoſed, that at a Trial between the ſaid Parties at Galway, the Summer Aſſizes, 1725, a Challenge was made to the Array for Kindred, between the Demandant and Patrick French, Eſq; the then High-Sheriff, which was allowed; and the Deponent being aſked, How near they were related? Anſwered, They were nine Degrees a-kin.

He depoſed alſo, That at the laſt Summer Aſſizes at Galway, ten or twelve Jurors were challenged for Kindred by the ſaid Power Daly; and ſaid, Some were challenged by Sir Walter Blake's Counſel, becauſe they declared before the Trial, They would find againſt the Demandant. Said, It is the Cuſtom of the County of Galway to call Couſin, though the Kindred be twenty Degrees Diſtance.

The ſaid Brown further depoſed, That there was a Jury lately ſummoned out of the County Galway, to try a Cauſe between the ſaid Parties in the Common-Pleas laſt Tueſday was ſe'nnight, and that the Deponent ſaw ſixteen of the ſaid Jury in Town, whom he named; and that only ſeven appeared in Court: Upon which the Trial was put off. But it appeared to the Lords' Committees, that ſeveral of the ſaid Jury were Members of the Houſe of Commons.

Upon which the Petitioner's Counſel cloſed the Evidence, in behalf of their Client.

The firſt Piece of Evidence produced on the Part of Thomas Power Daly, Eſq; was the third Clauſe in an Act of the 6th of Queen Anne, intitled, An Act for the more effectual preventing the taking away and marrying Children againſt the Wills of their Parents or Guardians; which was read: And alſo, the Anſwers of James Daly and the Petitioner Catherine Daly, by her Guardian Valentine Quin, Eſq; to the Bill of Complaint of Thomas Power Daly, Eſq; were ſeverally read. But the ſame being too prolix to be here inſerted, the ſaid Lords' Committees craved Leave to refer to the ſaid Anſwers.

It was admitted by the Petitioner's Counſel, that it was at the Requeſt of the ſaid Denis Daly jun. and his Mother Honorah Daly, that the Marriage between the ſaid Denis and the Petitioner was contracted, without the Privity or Conſent of his Uncles.

Sir Walter Blake, Bart. after having been ſworn at the Bar, and being examined before the ſaid Lords' Committees, depoſed, That before the Marriage of Denis Daly jun. with the Petitioner, he heard there was a Diſpute between Honorah Daly, the ſaid Denis's Mother, and the ſaid Minor's Uncles; and heard there were Guardians appointed by the High Court of Chancery for the ſaid Minor; but that it was agreed on all Sides, as well by the Uncles, as by the Mother, that the Letters of Guardianſhip ſhould not be taken out, for fear the Minor ſhould be bred a Proteſtant; and that the Minor was to be ſent beyond Sea, under the Tuition of one Lloyd, a Popiſh Prieſt, to be educated in that Religion by his ſaid Uncle's Privity.

The ſaid Sir Walter, being further examined, depoſed, That he heard from the ſaid Honorah Daly, the Mother, and the ſaid Denis Daly jun. himſelf, that he was to be ſent beyond Seas, without her Privity and Conſent, under the Tuition of the ſaid Lloyd, who was then his Tutor. But that ſaid Mrs. Daly was not willing he ſhould be ſent abroad, being her only Son; but believed ſhe would be very glad that her Son ſhould be bred in her own Religion.

Says, Peter Daly and Denis Daly, the Minor's Uncles, are Proteſtants, and have Children. And ſaid, He did not know that Laurence Hynes was the ſaid Denis Daly junior's Bedfellow, but believed he was, and that it was by the Appointment of his Mother.

He further depoſed, That his Daughter's Fortune was £6000, £4000 of which was to be paid when ſhe attained the Age of eighteen Years; and the remaining £2000 after Lady Blake's Death: He ſaid, The Sum mentioned in the Articles of Marriage, was only £5000; but that £1000 was paid to the ſaid Daly's Mother.

Sayed, He believed there were £1500 due to the Mother by her ſaid Son, on Account: And he thought it a Benefit to the Minor to compound with the Mother for £1000, for which ſhe was to give a general Releaſe.

Sayed, That after the Death of the ſaid Denis Daly, the Mother demanded £500 more. And then the Deponent ſued her for the £1000, which he had paid her, to oblige ſaid Mrs. Daly to give him an Aſſignment of it, or a Diſcharge, he the Deponent having paid upwards of £1000 for her Son, the ſaid Denis. And ſayed, The Minor knew of the £1000 being paid to his Mother, and made a further Agreement to give her £500 more, upon her giving him a general Releaſe.

Sir Walter acknowledged, That there was an Oath of Secrecy upon the Marriage-Contract, between the ſaid Denis and the Deponent's Daughter, fearing his Uncles ſhould have forced him away from his Mother.

The joint and ſeveral Anſwers of Sir Walter Blake, Bart. and Dame Agnes his Wife, to the Bill of Complaint of Thomas Power, Eſq; from Folio 60, was then read, to which the Lords' Committees refer.

That by the Depoſitions of Thady Nune of Bracklone in the Co. Galway, Farmer, taken in a Cauſe in the High Court of Chancery, wherein Thomas Power, Eſq; is Plaintiff, and Catherine Daly and others, are Defendants, to Interrogatories exhibited on the Part of the Complainant: It appeared, that the ſaid Nune was Servant to the ſaid Denis Daly jun. many Years before his Death, and that he knew Laurence Hynes of the City of Dublin, Clerk, about a Year before the ſaid Denis Daly was married to Mrs. Catherine Daly alias Blake.

That the ſaid Hynes, in the Deponent's Preſence, told his Maſter the ſaid Denis Daly, the October before his ſaid Maſter's Marriage, That he the ſaid Hynes was obliged to ſay Maſs every Sunday and Holiday at Sir Walter Blake's Houſe in Dublin, and that every Night the ſaid Hynes lay with his ſaid Maſter at his Mother's: And the Deponent heard, That after the Death of Denis Daly, his ſaid Maſter's Grandfather, the ſaid Hynes was taken into Sir Walter Blake's Family, as his Chaplain: And that his ſaid Maſter was put under the Care of the ſaid Hynes, and ſaw no other Perſon taking Care of him: And believed the ſaid Hynes came on Purpoſe to fix a Familiarity with his ſaid Maſter, to promote a Match between him and the Petitioner, the ſaid Sir Walter's Daughter, but does not know whether the ſaid Hynes was ſent on Purpoſe to make up the ſaid Match.

That at Nights, when the ſaid Laurence Hynes lay with the ſaid Deponent's Maſter, the Deponent always lay on a Pallate in the ſame Room: And the Deponent frequently heard the ſaid Hynes tell his ſaid Maſter, what a fine beautiful young Lady the Petitioner was, and that ſhe had a very great Portion; and heard his ſaid Maſter aſk the ſaid Hynes what her Portion was. And that the ſaid Hynes told him, it was £7000, and the Deponent frequently heard the ſaid Hynes recommending it to his Maſter to marry the ſaid Catherine; and depoſed, That at the time ſaid Hynes had the ſaid Diſcourſes with his ſaid Maſter, his ſaid Maſter was about fifteen Years and ſix Months old, but at the April following, he was ſixteen Years old, in which Month he married the ſaid Catherine.

The Deponent knew of no Caution given by any body to his ſaid Maſter, not to marry the ſaid Catherine, and did not know that any Pains were taken by any Perſon to give his ſaid Maſter an ill Impreſſion of his Friends: And that his ſaid Maſter's Mother threatened to turn the Deponent off, becauſe ſhe alledged, that there was not a Word that was ſpoke in her Houſe but what the Deponent told the Petitioner.

Mr. Denis Daly, after having been ſworn at the Bar, and examined before the ſaid Lords' Committees, on the Part of Mr. Thomas Power Daly, depoſed, That he was not employed by Sir Walter Blake in the Marriage of his Daughter with Denis Daly jun. But that the ſaid Sir Walter told him, The ſaid Denis and his Daughter were contracted: Upon which the Deponent replied, That the Uncles ought to have been acquainted with it; and that he, the Deponent, would acquaint them therewith, as if the Match had not been propoſed, and the Deponent propoſed ſuch a Match to them, but they would not have any thing to ſay to it. And ſayed, that Mr. Peter Daly would not come into the ſaid Match, becauſe he believed the Minor to be bought and ſold: And ſayed, Sir Walter told him £5000 was to be the ſaid Catherine's Portion, and told him it was too far gone, to look back.

The ſaid Daly further depoſed, that Sir Walter Blake had uſed all his Endeavours to make up all Differences with the Uncles and the Minor's other Relations; and that Sir Walter and the Minor's Uncles, Mr. Denis and Mr. Peter Daly, were made Friends, and dined together.

Upon his being further interrogated, the Deponent took nothing to be diſhonourable, which was done between Gentlemen. He knew that they were all Relations, and upon a Level.

Sayed, that Charles Daly, and ſome other of the ſaid Minor's Relations, were diſſatisfied at the Match; but being a thing agreed upon, they did not ſpeak againſt the Marriage.

The Depoſitions alſo of Denis Kelly and Patrick Lynch, taken in the ſame Cauſe, were ſeverally read, to which the Lords' Committees refer.

Mr. John Laurence, after having been ſworn at the Bar and examined before the Lords' Committees, on the behalf of Mr. Thomas Power

Power Daly, depoſed, That he was a Jury-Man at Galway, on the firſt Trial there, between the Petitioner and Thomas Power Daly, Eſq; for the Petitioner's Dower. And depoſed, that Sir Walter Blake offered him the Deponent £200, and told the Deponent, If that would not do, he would make it £500, if he, the Deponent, would recede from the private Verdict they had given in to the Judge, and withdraw, when the Jury was called in Court.

Depoſed, That he, the Deponent, was inclined to give the Demandant a Third of the whole Eſtate for a conſiderable time: But it being urged, that the Eſtate deſcended in Gavel-kind, and no Settlement having been proved to the Jury, and the Grandfather of the Demandant's Huſband dying a Papiſt, he the Deponent agreed to the Verdict, which gave the Demandant but a Third of a fourth Part of the Eſtate of the ſaid Denis Daly jun.

Depoſed, That he heard ſeveral ſay, there was a Settlement, whereby the Eſtate was ſettled upon the ſaid Denis Daly jun.

Sayed, That he told Sir Walter Blake, when he offered the ſaid Money upon the Account aforeſaid, that he had miſtaken his Man, and if he the ſaid Sir Walter had not been old, he the Deponent would have treated him in another Manner.

Sir Walter Blake, being then examined by the Lords' Committees, in relation to the Depoſitions given in by the ſaid Laurence and Sir Walter, acknowledged, That he did promiſe the ſaid Laurence a Preſent, but did not know what it was; but ſayed it was a cuſtomary thing ſo to do in the Co. Galway.

Mr. Terence Egan, after having been ſworn at the Bar, and examined by the Lords' Committees, on behalf of Thomas Power Daly, depoſed, That in laſt Trinity Term, Sir Walter Blake, by his Counſel, moved to ſet aſide the Proceſs againſt the Jury for Error in them, leſt the Error might, after Trial, prove fatal to him; and that the ſaid Motion was oppoſed by Mr. Power Daly's Counſel.

Depoſed, that he was Attorney for Sir Walter Blake, and ſued Mrs. Honorah Daly to an Outlawry, upon an Action on the Caſe for £1000, which Sir Walter alledged was due to him by the ſaid Mrs. Daly: And depoſed, that the ſaid Outlawry was obtained for Non-Appearance, but could not ſay how the £1000 became due to the ſaid Sir Walter, becauſe no Rule was put upon him to ſhew Cauſe of Bail.

The Lords' Committees, having the Aſſiſtance of the Judges, before whom the ſaid ſeveral Trials were had, between the Petitioner Catherine Daly, and the ſaid Thomas Power Daly, for the Recovery of the Petitioner's Dower.

Mr. Juſtice Caulfeild informed the ſaid Lords' Committees, That he attended two Aſſizes at Galway, where, upon the Trial between the Demandant and Tenant, he directed the Jury to find for the Demandant, becauſe he thought the Evidence produced was ſufficient for ſo doing; but no Verdict was given: And the Jury were carried to the Bounds of the County, and they not agreeing, they were there diſcharged.

Sayed, That no Settlement was proved, but that young Mr. Daly's Receiver proved the Seizin of the whole Lands in the ſaid Denis Daly jun.

Mr. Juſtice Gore likewiſe informed the Lords' Committees, That in Summer Aſſizes, 1725, he held the Aſſizes for the Co. Galway; and at Galway, a Record of Niſi prius for the Recovery of Dower, between Catherine Daly Demandant, and Thomas Power Daly, Eſq; Tenant, was to be then tried; but that a Challenge was taken to the Array for Kindred, between the Demandant and the Sheriff, which was allowed to be a good Challenge, and that Trial went off.

Sayed, That at the next Trial, it was inſiſted on by the Tenant, that the Eſtate of Denis Daly ſen. deſcended in Gavel-kind, and that no Settlement was then proved. But the Demandant ſayed, They had a Settlement, which they deſired to prove by a Truſtee; but the Court, being informed, that one of the ſubſcribing Witneſſes to the ſaid Deed of Settlement was then living, the Court were of Opinion, that the Perfection of the ſaid Deed ought to be proved by the ſaid Witneſs.

Sayed, That he had no Doubt but that the Demandant's Huſband was ſolely ſeized, and that the Demandant had a Right to her Dower.

Sayed, The Demandant, in Eaſter Term, 1726, did, upon Affidavit, move to ſet aſide the Verdict taken at Galway, as contrary to Evidence; but ſayed, That he did not think it to be intirely againſt Evidence, no Settlement made before the Popery Act having been proved to take off the Force of that Statute, but the ſaid Verdict was ſet aſide by the Court.

Mr. Baron St. Leger likewiſe informed the ſaid Lords' Committees, That in Summer Aſſizes, 1726, a Trial was had before him at Galway, between the ſaid Parties in Dower, and that a Settlement, made in the Year 1700, by Denis Daly ſen. was then proved by Col. Aylmer of the Lyons, a ſubſcribing Witneſs thereto; by which an Eſtate Tail was limited to the Minor Denis Daly jun. And ſayed, That Sir Walter Blake proved, on his Oath, that the Minor was ſeized of every Denomination in the ſaid Settlement, except Kilrateery.

Sayed, The Method taken to prove where Kilrateery lay, was by producing a Verdict given by a Jury of the Co. Clare, by which they found three Denominations of Kilrateery in that County: And the Settlement, ſaying thoſe Lands of Kilrateery lay in the Counties of Clare and Galway; it was argued, that the Remainder, above thoſe three Denominations of ſaid Lands, muſt lie in the Co. Galway.

Sayed, He directed the Jury to find for the Demandant, on full Evidence, as he apprehended.

Mr. Juſtice Bernard alſo informed the ſaid Lords' Committees, That there was no Trial at Bar between the ſaid Parties this laſt Term, by Reaſon of the Jury's not appearing.

It alſo appeared to the ſaid Lords' Committees, that Laurence Hynes, mentioned in the foregoing Report as Clerk and Clergyman, was a Popiſh Prieſt.

Upon the whole, the ſaid Lords' Committees, are come to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Petitioner Catherine Daly, Widow, has proved the Allegations of her Petition, ſufficiently to intitle her to Relief.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill to enable the Judges, if they ſhall think fit, to try the Cauſe between Catherine Daly the Petitioner, and Thomas Power Daly, Eſq; in relation to Dower, in the Co. Galway, by a Jury of any neighbouring County.

Reſolved, that it appears to this Committee, that an Order of the High Court of Chancery, appointing the Right Hon. George Lord St. George and Henry O'Brien, Eſq; Guardians to Denis Daly jun. then a Minor, was, by the Combination of his Mother and other Popiſh Relations, concealed from the ſaid Lord St. George, to prevent ſaid Daly's being bred a Proteſtant, according to the Laws of this Kingdom to prevent the further Growth of Popery.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill, the more effectually to provide for the Guardianſhip of Popiſh Minors, and to prevent their being bred Papiſts.

Reſolved, that it appears to this Committee, that Sir Walter Blake, Bart. in a Cauſe wherein Mrs. Catherine Daly, Widow, was Demandant, and Thomas Power Daly, Eſq; was Tenant, did endeavour to corrupt Mr. John Lawrence, a Perſon returned and ſworn as a Jury-man, by offering a Sum of £200 to the ſaid Lawrence; and to make it £500, if that would not do, provided he would recede from the private Verdict given in to the Judge, and withdraw when the Jury was called in Court.

Report agreed to,

The ſaid Report and Reſolutions, being then read at the Table, and the ſaid Reſolutions being again ſeverally read, were agreed to by the Houſe.

And the Lords after-named were appointed a Committee to prepare and bring in Heads of a Bill, to enable the Judges, if they ſhall think fit, to try the Cauſe between Catherine Daly, Widow, and Thomas Power Daly, Eſq; in relation to Dower in the Co. Galway, by a Jury of any neighbouring County, viz. Committee to prepare Heads of Bill thereon.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, the firſt Wedneſday after the Meeting of the Houſe after the Receſs, at Ten o'clock in the Forenoon, and adjourn as they pleaſe.

Ordered, that the ſaid Lords' Committees do alſo prepare and bring in Heads of a Bill the more effectually to provide for the Guardianſhip of Popiſh Minors, and to prevent their being bred Papiſts.

A Motion was made, and the Queſtion put, That his Majeſty's Attorney-General be directed to proſecute Sir Walter Blake, Bart. at the next enſuing Aſſizes to be held for the County of the Town of Galway, for his endeavouring to corrupt Mr. John Lawrence, a Perſon returned and ſworn as a Jury-man in a Cauſe wherein Mrs. Catherine Daly, Widow, was Demandant, and Thomas Power Daly, Eſq; was Tenant, by offering a Sum of £200 to the ſaid Lawrence; and to make it £500, if that would not do, provided he the ſaid Lawrence would recede from the private Verdict he had given in to the Judge, and withdraw when the Jury was called in Court? Motion for Sir W. Blake to be proſecuted.

It was reſolved in the Negative. negatived.

Ordered, that the Lord Biſhop of Waterford and Liſmore have the Leave of this Houſe to go into the Country for a Month upon extraordinary Occaſions, leaving his Proxy.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Houſe do adjourn itſelf till Tueſday the 12th Day of March next. Houſe adjourned.

The Queſtion of Adjournment being put,

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Upon reading the Order for the Day, for this Houſe to be called over; It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Call be adjourned till this Day Month.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon a Bill, intitled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Wine, Tobacco, and other Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned; and alſo a Tax on Salaries, Profits of Employments, Fees and Penſions; and for ſecuring the Re-payment of £50,000 Sterl. formerly advanced to his late Majeſty for the Uſe of the Publick, together with the Intereſt thereof; and, after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And his Grace the Lord Primate reported from the ſaid Committee, that they had gone through the ſame, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment, and think it fit to paſs; and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Money-Bill, Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Wine, Tobacco, and other Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned; and alſo a Tax on Salaries, Profits of Employments, Fees and Penſions; and for ſecuring the Re-payment of £50,000 Sterl. formerly advanced to his late Majeſty for the Uſe of the Publick, together with the Intereſt thereof.

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative. paſſed.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by the Lord Chief Juſtice Reynolds and the the Lord Chief Baron Dalton, to return the ſaid Bill, and acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſame, without any Amendment.

Complaint on Breach of Privilege.

A Complaint being made to the Houſe of a Breach of Privilege committed againſt the Lord Southwell, by William Smyth, Eſq; High-Sheriff of the Co. Dublin; Henry Conran, his Under-Sheriff; Hugh Connor and Patrick Goffe, Bailiffs; Robert Roberts, a Painter, and William Davys, an Attorney; by entering into his Lordſhip's Houſe at Clontarf in the ſaid County, where, under Colour of an Execution againſt the Honourable Meliora Lady Dowager Southwell, his Lordſhip's Mother, they ſeized the ſaid Houſe and Furniture, the ſame belonging to his Lordſhip; the ſaid Lady Dowager having no other Property therein, than a Uſe during the time of her Widowhood.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that the ſaid Matter of Complaint be, and it is hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, who are to conſider thereof, and hear all Perſons concerning the ſame that they ſhall think fit, and report their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe.

Witneſſes ſworn.

The Rev. Mr. Frederick Uſher and John Sparks, being by Order called in, were ſeverally ſworn at the Bar, in order to give their Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees for Privileges, on the ſaid Complaint.

Upon Motion made to the Houſe, the Opinion of the Judges was demanded upon the following Caſe, viz.

Caſes put to the Judges on Quakers Bill.

'If a Witneſs, knowingly, ſwears falſely in 'an eccleſiaſtical Court, does the Common or 'Statute Law call this Offence by the Name 'of wilful and corrupt Perjury? And is the 'Offender liable to an Indictment for the 'ſame, in any Temporal Court?'

To this Caſe, the Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of Common-Pleas gave his Opinion:

'That by the Common Law, falſe and 'corrupt ſwearing in an eccleſiaſtical Court, 'is indictable in a Temporal Court.'

The Lord Chief Baron of his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer was of the ſame Opinion.

Then the Opinion of the Judges was demanded in the following Caſe, viz.

'If a Quaker witneſs in an eccleſiaſtical 'Court, and ſhall upon his ſolemn Declara-'tion or Affirmation, knowingly, give falſe 'Teſtimony. Query, Will the Bill now de-'pending, if it paſſes into a Law, give Power 'to the Judges of ſuch Court, to proceed 'againſt him, and puniſh him in like Manner 'as if he had given ſuch his Evidence upon 'Oath?'

To this Caſe, the Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of Common-Pleas gave his Opinion:

Judges' Opinions.

'That if the eccleſiaſtical Courts have a 'Power to puniſh wilful and corrupt Perjury, 'they have the ſame Power as before the 'making this Law: But if ſuch Courts have 'any Power of puniſhing the Violation of an 'Oath, in any other Manner than as wilful

'and corrupt Perjury, he cannot anſwer what 'Operation this Act will have upon ſuch 'Power.'

The Lord Chief Baron of his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer was of the ſame Opinion.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon a Bill, intitled, An Act for accepting the ſolemn Affirmation or Declaration of the People called Quakers, inſtead of an Oath in the uſual Form; and, after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And his Grace the Lord Primate reported from the ſaid Committee, that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, and agreed to the ſame, without any Amendment, and think it fit to paſs; and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for accepting the ſolemn Affirmation or Declaration of the People called Quakers, inſtead of an Oath in the uſual Form. Quakers' Bill,

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative. paſſed;

DISSENTIENT:

Proteſt.

1. BECAUSE the Property of the King and his Subjects, is by this Act made leſs ſecure than it needed to have been: For however reaſonable it may be thought, to excuſe the Quakers frem taking an Oath, yet the Form of Words in which they are to affirm or declare might, and we think ought, to have been ſuch, as might be proper to awaken in their Conſciences, a preſent Senſe of the Obligation that lies upon them to ſpeak the Truth; and of the Sinfulneſs of ſpeaking falſely or deceitfully, which might have been done without impoſing an Oath upon them. And this, as we conceive, not being ſufficiently done by this Act; and the Quakers, having induſtriouſly ſolicited, that they ſhould not be obliged to the Uſe of any ſuch Form of Words, as might expreſly, even without an Oath, put them in mind of the Sin of ſpeaking falſely or deceitfully: If we ſhould give our Conſent to paſs this Bill into a Law, it would in us be to expoſe the Property of his Majeſty, and our Fellow-Subjects to too great an Uncertainty, there being many Men, as we believe, among the Quakers, as well as others, who, for their private Gain or Intereſt, will not much ſcruple to lie or equivocate, when no more but a bare Affirmation or Declaration is required from them.

2. Becauſe, if this Bill paſſes into a Law, it will thus affect the Rights and Properties of our Fellow-Subjects, in relation not only to the Time to come, but alſo to that which is paſt, againſt which it is impoſſible to guard: A Quaker's Evidence being thereby to be made as good in a Cauſe, already begun in any of the Courts, as in any Suit that ſhall hereafter be commenced; and concerning any Dealing or Tranſaction which formerly has been, as any that is yet to come: Which we take to be a Retroſpect that ought to be avoided in the making of a Law.

3. Becauſe the granting ſo high a Privilege to the Quakers, as that their Affirmation or Declaration, even without any Words therein inſerted, which may be ſufficient to awaken their Conſciences, ſhall, in all Civil Cauſes, be of equal Force with the Oath of any other Man, appears to us to be a tacit Acknowledgment, that they are Men of greater Honeſty and Probity, than all the reſt of Mankind; and conſequently, to be a Diſhonour to Men of all other Profeſſions. And a degrading even of thoſe, who are in the higheſt Station in the Kingdom, below the Rank of the meaneſt and moſt contemptible Quakers.

4. Becauſe we are of Opinion, that ſo great an Honour done to the Quakers will be a ſtrong Temptation to many weak and worldly Perſons to forſake their own Religion, and embrace that Profeſſion; and thereby not only to forfeit their eternal Salvation, but alſo to render themſelves incapable of ſerving the King and Country in the Office of Magiſtrates, Soldiers, Jury-men, High or Petty Conſtables, Church-Wardens, or any other publick Station in the Kingdom, in which, notwithſtanding this Act, we believe they will not be truſted upon their bare Affirmation, without an Oath.

5. Becauſe this Bill preſcribes no certain way of knowing who is a Quaker, nor gives any Rule to the Judges or Juries, who act upon their Oaths, how this Point is to be determined, in Caſe at any time Exception ſhould be made againſt the Teſtimony of this or that particular Man, as not being really a Quaker, although he takes that Name upon him: It being notorious, that many Perſons who have taken that Name upon themſelves, and for ſeveral Years have conſtantly aſſociated with the Quakers, have, upon Occaſion, been denied by them, as having never been really Quakers. Nor can the Certificate which this Bill requires to be produced of a Man's being a Quaker, be any ſufficient Evidence in the Caſe, except ſome certain Rule be preſcribed, whereby to know whether the Perſons who ſign the ſame, are not only in Name, but in reality Quakers. The want of which Rule, we conceive, muſt often lay conſcientious Judges and Juries under an inſuperable Difficulty; their Oaths obliging them to judge, and find according to Evidence; and, at the ſame time, the Law not ſufficiently declaring what that Evidence is, upon which a Jury ſhall find a Man to be a Quaker, or a Judge ſhall decree him ſo to be.

6. Becauſe it is plain, that the Quakers (whatever they may pretend) are not in their Conſciences perſuaded, that it is unlawful to anſwer upon Oath before a Magiſtrate; none of them having ever made the leaſt Scruple of producing other Witneſſes, ſo to anſwer in their behalf: And many of the ſobereſt of them, having anſwered Bills in Chancery upon their Oaths, before the late Statute was made to free them from it; it being alſo well known, that in Pennſylvania, where the Quakers are Magiſtrates, they often oblige Witneſſes to give their Evidence in this Manner.

"I ſpeak and promiſe it in the Preſence of "God:" Or, "As true as God is in Heaven:" Or, "As the Lord liveth."

Nor was the Declaration, which in Great Britain they for ſeveral Years ſubmitted to, any other than a very ſolemn Oath: And therefore we cannot but look upon the great Privilege granted them in this Bill (however otherwiſe intended) in reality to be, not ſo much an Indulgence to the Tenderneſs of their Conſciences, as a Gratification of their Vanity and Singularity, as well as a great promoting of their worldly Intereſt.

they enter; with Money-Bill.

And the Houſe of Commons, with their Speaker, being come, Mr. Speaker, after a ſhort Speech to his Excellency, in relation to the Money-Bill, delivered the ſame to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought it to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Title of that, and another Bill to be paſſed, as follow, viz.

Royal Aſſent given to two Bills.

1. An Act for granting to his Majeſty, an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Wine, Tobacco, and other Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned; and alſo a Tax on Salaries, Profits of Employments, Fees and Penſions; and for ſecuring the Repayment of £50,000 Sterl. formerly advanced to his late Majeſty for the Uſe of the Publick, together with the Intereſt thereof.

To this the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the royal Aſſent, in theſe Words, viz.

"Le Roy remercie ſes bons Sujets, accepte leur Benevolence, et ainſi le veult."

2. An Act for accepting the ſolemn Affirmation or Declaration of the People called Quakers, inſtead of an Oath in the uſual Form.

To this Bill, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the royal Aſſent, in theſe Words, viz. "Le Roy le veult."

Then his Excellency the L^d Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Lord Viſc. Allen reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, in relation to Reverſal of Outlawries for the Rebellions of 1641 and 1688, an Addreſs, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and, with an Amendment, agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, hold ourſelves indiſpenſably obliged humbly to lay before your Majeſty, the State of this Nation, in relation to Outlawries.

That after the Reſtoration of King Charles II. and in the Popiſh Reign that followed, many Perſons, and the Deſcendants of others attainted for the Rebellion in the Year 1641, did procure the ſaid Attainders to be reverſed, and themſelves reſtored to their Titles and Eſtates, and were thereby enabled and encouraged to raiſe a ſecond Rebellion in the Year 1688; which was not ſuppreſſed without vaſt Expence of Britiſh Blood and Treaſure, and the Deſolation of this Country.

That the Lands, forfeited by the ſaid Rebellions, being ſold for Payment of ſome Part of the Expence in the Reduction of this Kingdom, many Thouſand Proteſtant Families have laid out their whole Subſtance and Induſtry in purchaſing and improving the ſame, to the ſtrengthening the Proteſtant Intereſt, and the great Increaſe of your Majeſty's Revenue.

That the reverſing the ſaid Outlawries, may diſturb the Poſſeſſions of your Proteſtant Subjects, and weaken the Security of the Proteſtant Succeſſion, which muſt always be moſt dear unto us.

We therefore moſt humbly beſeech your Majeſty, that your Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed, not to permit any of the ſaid Outlawries to be reverſed.

And we beg Leave to lay hold of this Occaſion, again to aſſure your Majeſty, that your Majeſty may firmly depend, that the Lives and Eſtates of your Proteſtant Subjects will be ready, as they have always been, to be laid down for the Service of your Majeſty, and the Defence of the Proteſtant Succeſſion, eſtabliſhed in your royal Houſe.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with the ſaid Addreſs.

Meſſage from Commons to return Bill.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Dobbs and others, to return a Bill, intitled, An Act for repealing a Clauſe in an Act, intitled, An Act for real Union and Diviſion of Pariſhes, and for ſettling the Method of obtaining the King's Majeſty's Conſent for removing the Situation of Churches, the Patronage whereof is in the Crown; and to acquaint this Houſe, that they have agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

His

His Grace the Lord Primate preſented to the Houſe a Bill, intitled, An Act to perpetuate and better regulate the charitable Foundation of Dr. Nathaniel Foy, late Lord Biſhop of Waterford and Liſmore in the City of Waterford, which was received.

Ld Ranelagh takes the Oaths, &c,

Arthur Lord Ranelagh delivered his Writ, in the accuſtomed Manner, and came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

Report on Breach of Privilege.

His Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam reported from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, upon the Complaint of the Lord Viſc. Strabane, againſt Mrs. Peters and others, that they had come to ſeveral Reſolutions therein, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame were again read, as follow, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that John Kimberly, an Attorney, is guilty of a notorious Breach of Privilege, by his forceably entering into a Houſe of the Lord Viſc. Strabane's, in York-Street, on the 26th Day of March laſt.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that Elizabeth Peters, by employing the ſaid Kimberly, and others, forceably to enter into a Houſe of the Lord Viſc. Strabane's, in York-Street, on the 26th Day of March, is guilty of a notorious Breach of Privilege.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the ſaid Elizabeth Peters and the ſaid John Kimberly, for the ſaid Breach of Privilege, and alſo for their Contempt, in not attending the Lords' Committees, after having been duly ſummoned, be taken into the Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe.

To which Reſolutions, the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree.

Order for taking Perſons into Cuſtody.

WHEREAS, upon the Report made this Day by the Lords' Committees for Privileges, on the Complaint made by the Lord Viſc. Strabane againſt Elizabeth Peters, John Kimberly and others, and the Reſolutions thereon, being agreed to by the Houſe; It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Elizabeth Peters and John Kimberly ſhall (for the ſaid Breach of Privilege, and for their not appearing, after having been duly ſummoned to appear before the ſaid Lords' Committees) be taken into Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies; and them, ſo taken, in ſafe Cuſtody to keep, until further Order of this Houſe; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant on that behalf.

To the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

Defaulters called.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, proceeded to the Call of ſuch Lords as made Default upon the Call of the Houſe, and who were written to by the Lord Chancellor to attend the Service of the Houſe upon this Day.

Ordered, that the Names of ſuch Lords as have not attended this Day, according to Order, be again called over upon this Day Fortnight.

Upon reading the Order for the Day, for reading a ſecond time an ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for the further regulating the Election of Members of Parliament, and preventing the irregular Proceedings of Sheriffs and other Officers, in electing and returning ſuch Members; It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Bill be read a ſecond time To-morrow Morning.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon a Bill, intitled, An Act for preventing Inconveniencies that may happen by Privilege of Parliament; and, after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Biſhop of Clogher reported from the ſaid Committee, that they had gone thro' the ſaid Bill, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment, and think it fit to paſs; and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

The Queſtion was put, That the ſaid Bill be now read a third time:

And the Houſe dividing,

The Lord Chancellor declared the Contents to have it.

Proxies being then called for, and read over by the Clerk;

The Lord Chancellor declared, that the Contents with the Proxies were 24.

The Not-Contents with the Proxies were but 18.

Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for preventing Inconveniencies that may happen by Privilege of Parliament. Privilege-Bill,

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

And the Houſe dividing;

The Lord Chancellor declared the Contents to have it.

Proxies being again called for and read over by the Clerk;

Then the Lord Chancellor declared, that the Contents with the Proxies were 25.

The Not-Contents with the Proxies were but 19.

So that upon the Queſtion, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative. paſſed.

DISSENTIENT:

Proteſt.

1. BECAUSE this Bill takes away ſeveral ancient and legal Privileges, which the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Members of the Houſe of Commons, have hitherto had, and (as we conceive) have ſtill a Right to enjoy.

2. Becauſe

2. Becauſe, in our Opinion, the Privileges of both Houſes of Parliament, are a great and eſſential part of the very Conſtitution of Parliaments, which, we conceive, may be of dangerous Conſequence to alter or recede from; that Conſtitution being founded on Reaſons of State, which it may be difficult for any Perſon, at this time, to enumerate or ſhew.

3. Becauſe, in our Opinion, the Lords enjoying their Privileges in their full Latitude, hath hitherto been a great Strengthening and Security to the Dignity of this Houſe, and of the Reſpect due to the Members thereof; which, we conceive, will be leſſened, in proportion as our Privileges are abridged.

4. Becauſe no Witneſſes were produced, nor Proof on Oath given to this Houſe, that any Perſons had ſuffered by Peers or Lords of Parliament inſiſting on Privilege, in Delay of Juſtice; but, on the contrary, it doth appear by ſeveral Entries in the Journals of this Houſe, that the Peers and Lords of Parliament had frequently, from time to time, deſired Leave from the Houſe to wave the ſame; and no Inſtance was produced, that any of them, upon Requeſt made, ever declined ſo to do, altho' ſuch Inſtances were called for, if any ſuch could be given or proved.

5. Becauſe a Bill for preventing Lords of Parliament, for the future, from exerciſing their uſual and legal Privileges, ſeems to us to carry in it an Inſinuation as if an ill Uſe had been made of their Privileges by the Lords of this Houſe; and as if Peers and Lords of Parliament had formerly delayed Proceedings againſt them, in Courts of Juſtice, of which no Proof was made to the Houſe, nor any Witneſſes examined thereon: And we conceive, that no Allegation of any Perſon ought to be regarded or credited, without Proof thereof on Oath.

6. Becauſe this Bill is perpetual; and therefore as we conceive, a final Departure from, and a Bar to, the Lords and Peers of Parliament ever to reſume their Privileges, from the Enjoyment of which they are debarred by this Bill: Whereas, when the Heads of a Bill for preventing any Inconveniencies that may happen by Privilege of Parliament, were under the Conſideration of this Houſe, it was apprehended by ſeveral Lords, and expected, that the Bill to be formed on thoſe Heads, would have been temporary only, ſo as after the Expiration of the Time for which ſuch Bill was to continue, the Parliament might have it in their Power, either to perpetuate that Law, or let Things run in their ancient Channel, according as they ſhould, upon Experience, find it conduce to the Good of the Kingdom, or otherwiſe.

Under theſe Hopes and Expectations, the Lords who ſign this Diſſent, gave no Oppoſition to the laying the ſaid Heads of a Bill before the Lord Lieutenant, in order to be tranſmitted into Great Britain in due Form; which they otherwiſe might, and would, have done.

Meſſages from Commons with Bills. A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Dr. Coghill and others, with a Bill, intitled, An Act for the more effectual preventing ſeveral Frauds and Abuſes committed in his Majeſty's Cuſtoms and Exciſe; and for ſettling the Rates of certain Goods and Merchandizes, not particularly valued in the Book of Rates; to which they deſire the Concurrence of this Houſe.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Chaigneau and others, with a Bill, intitled, An Act for preventing Combinations to inhance the Prices, and for avoiding Exactions and Abuſes formerly practiſed in the Sale and Meaſure of Coals; to which they deſire the Concurrence of this Houſe.

The Lord Viſc. Allen reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of Monday laſt; that they had prepared an Addreſs, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King. WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return your Majeſty our moſt humble Thanks, for your gracious Anſwer to our Addreſs.

We do, with the utmoſt Security, depend upon your royal Care to prevent whatever may diſturb the Poſſeſſions of your Proteſtant Subjects of Ireland: And your Majeſty's aſſuring us, that you will diſcourage all Applications that ſhall be made for the Reverſal of any Outlawries, on Account of the Rebellions of 1641 and 1688, that may affect their Intereſts or Properties, intirely frees us from all Apprehenſions of Danger that may ariſe from ſuch Attempts for the future.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs the grateful Senſe we have of your Majeſty's gracious Acceptance of our Duty; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall endeavour, upon all Occaſions, to deſerve the Continuance of your royal Favour and Protection.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, to deſire the ſame may be laid before his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with the ſaid Addreſs.

Revenue Bill Hodie prima vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for the more effectual preventing ſeveral Frauds and Abuſes committed in his Majeſty's Cuſtoms and Exciſe; and for ſettling the Rates of certain Goods and Merchandizes, not particularly valued in the Book of Rates.

Meſſage to Commons with Concurrence. A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Stephens and Dr. Reilly, to acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

The Lord Newtown reported from the Lords' Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of Monday laſt, an Addreſs, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read and agreed to by the Houſe, with ſome Amendments, and is as follows, viz.

To his Excellency JOHN Lord CARTERET, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to L^d Lieutenant WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, think ourſelves obliged, with the utmoſt Gratitude, to acknowlege the great Regard your Excellency has ſhewn for the Welfare of this Kingdom, in the whole Courſe of your Adminiſtration, particularly in the Care you have taken to bring this Seſſion of Parliament to a Concluſion, equally happy with reſpect to his Majeſty's Service, and the Good of his People.

We are truly ſenſible of his Majeſty's royal Goodneſs to us, in ſending your Excellency at ſo important a Juncture into this Kingdom; who, by the perfect Knowlege you had acquired of its true State and Intereſt, were ſo well able to repreſent to him the real Wants of his People, and put in Execution his moſt gracious Purpoſes, to promote and eſtabliſh their Welfare.

We doubt not but it will be acceptable to his Majeſty, to find his gracious Intentions meet with the moſt grateful Returns of Duty, Loyalty and Affection from his People, and that your Excellency's Care to promote his Majeſty's Service and the Good of this Country, has been attended with ſo great Succeſs. Such Foundations having by this Parliament been laid, as promiſe that laſting Proſperity to this Nation, which his Majeſty, in his royal Goodneſs, intended.

We cannot think we indulge theſe pleaſing Expectations too far, when we obſerve Party Diviſions among the Proteſtants of this Kingdom to be much abated. Thoſe Laws againſt Popery (which by artful Men had been eluded) reſtored to their firſt Deſign, and ſuch Proviſion made for the real Converſion of the Popiſh Natives, as, by the Divine Aſſiſtance, may in Time make us one People.

As the Unanimity and Zeal of this Parliament, in providing for the Support of the Government, and preventing Abuſes in the Revenue, have been above all others remarkable, his Majeſty has been pleaſed to grant us every thing that hath been deſired for the Maintenance of the Poor, the Encouragement of Tillage, the Improvements of our Manufactures, and the Increaſe and Security of our Trade; and even our Zeal for theſe deſirable Ends, has been out-done by his tranſcending Goodneſs, in conſenting to a Diminution of his Hereditary Revenue, to promote the Wealth and Trade of his People.

Amongſt theſe Inſtances of his Majeſty's Goodneſs, we muſt, in a particular manner, acknowledge the Regard he has ſhewn to this Kingdom, in affording his royal Attention to our Affairs, in the midſt of ſo many others of the greateſt Importance, both at home and abroad; and remitting to us all the Publick Bills, that had been prepared this Seſſion.

Theſe will be laſting Monuments to Poſterity of your Excellency's wiſe and good Government; and we ſhould be wanting to ourſelves, if we, who have received the Firſt Fruits of them, did not lay hold of this Occaſion to expreſs that grateful Senſe we ſhall ever retain of your Excellency's tender Concern for this Nation, and your conſtant and ſucceſsful Endeavours, to promote the Intereſt and Welfare of it.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs ſhall be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when his Excellency will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with the ſaid Addreſs.

Work-Houſe Bill, Hodie ſecunda vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for the better regulating the Work-Houſe of the City of Dublin, and to regulate and provide for the Poor thereof; and to prevent Miſchiefs which may happen by keeping Gunpowder within the ſaid City.

committed, Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Bill ſhall be committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe To-morrow Morning; whoſe Lordſhips are alſo to compare the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and ſee that it exactly agrees therewith,

To theſe Bills the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

After which, his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

IT gives me great Satisfaction, at my coming to put an End to this Seſſion of Parliament, that I can obſerve to you, all the publick Bills, tranſmitted from hence, have been returned, under the Great Seal of Great Britain. This diſtinguiſhing Inſtance of his Majeſty's Regard for you is one of the happy Effects of that remarkable Application and Unanimity which have appeared in all your Proceedings.

His Majeſty's gracious Condeſcenſion in departing from his own Right, by leſſening his Hereditary Revenue for the Eaſe of the Subject and the Encouragement of Trade, ſhews his royal Concern for the Welfare and Happineſs of this Kingdom; and, together with many other ſignal Marks of his Majeſty's Goodneſs, muſt convince us, that his Majeſty has nothing more at heart, than the Intereſt and Proſperity of his People.

The Foundations laid for the Increaſe of Tillage, ſo neceſſary in this Country; the new Advantages given for the Improvement of the Linen Manufactures; the Care taken for regulating the Aſſize of Bread; the eſtabliſhing a Fund for the Work-Houſe, and for employing the Poor in this populous City; the Relief given to unfortunate Debtors; the Regulation made for future Elections; the reducing your Parliamentary Privileges for the Eaſe and Benefit of your Fellow-Subjects; and thoſe other excellent Laws, now paſſed, for erecting Churches, where they are moſt wanted; for the better Maintenance of the Clergy; and for preſerving and ſtrengthening the Proteſtant Intereſt of this Kingdom; will, I perſuade myſelf, be ſo many memorable Inſtances of the Worth, Honour and Wiſdom of this Parliament.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I am commanded by his Majeſty to return you Thanks for the Supplies, which, in the moſt chearful Manner, you have unanimouſly given for the Support of the Eſtabliſhment, and for proceeding in the Meaſures the late Houſe of Commons had begun, effectually to enable his Majeſty to continue the Forces in ſuch a Condition as may contribute to diſappoint all Attempts of his Enemies.

My

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE publick Buſineſs being now over, and your own Affairs calling you to your ſeveral Countries, I can make no Doubt but you will, in your reſpective Stations, exert yourſelves in promoting his Majeſty's Service, with the ſame Zeal and Spirit, which you have ſhewn in the Courſe of this Seſſion, and which ſo highly becomes a People truly ſenſible of the Happineſs they enjoy under his Majeſty's moſt gracious Government: I think myſelf obliged at this time, when Corn bears ſo exceſſive a Rate, to recommend to your particular Care, the preventing all Abuſes of Foreſtallers and others, which may enhance the Price of it, to the Detriment of the Kingdom, and the Oppreſſion of the Poor.

Nothing could be more acceptable to me, than to find, by the Addreſs of both Houſes, that my Endeavours for the publick Service have been to your Satisfaction. The many Marks of Loyalty and Affection, which you have ſhewn to his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and royal Family, during my Adminiſtration, leave me under the higheſt Obligations to promote the Good of this Kingdom, upon all Occaſions, to the utmoſt of my Power: And I ſhall, on my Return into his Majeſty's Preſence, make a faithful Repreſentation to his Majeſty of your moſt loyal and dutiful Behaviour.

Afterward, the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 4th Day of June next; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to meet here on Tueſday the 4th Day of June next. Parliament prorogued.

Then his Excellency was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

IT was with great Pleaſure I received his Majeſty's Commands to meet you again in Parliament, having already experienced your Duty and Affection to his royal Perſon, and your Regard to the Honour of his Government. His Majeſty's conſtant and unwearied Care to promote the Eaſe and Happineſs of his People, and the tender Concern he has ſhewn for the Proſperity of this Kingdom, give me good Reaſon to hope, that this Parliament, which at the Beginning of his Reign, acted with ſo much Zeal for his Service, in a juſt Expectation of that Security and Protection which they have ſince enjoyed, will now exert themſelves, in the moſt effectual Manner, to expreſs the due Senſe they have of his mild and gracious Government.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the Accounts and Eſtimates to be laid before you, by which you will obſerve, the Revenue has fallen ſhort of what it produced in the two former Years, and thereby a conſiderable Arrear is become due to the Eſtabliſhment: And I have not the leaſt Reaſon to doubt, but that you will grant ſuch Supplies as will be neceſſary to anſwer the Exigencies of the Government, in ſuch Manner as ſhall be moſt expedient, and may be leaſt burdenſome to the People.

His

His Majeſty has been pleaſed, ſince your laſt Meeting, to ſend three of thoſe Regiments to this Kingdom, which the publick Service had required to be employed abroad; and I can aſſure you, from his Majeſty, that the reſt ſhall be ordered back, as ſoon as the Circumſtances of Affairs will permit.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE plentiful Harveſt with which the Goodneſs of PROVIDENCE has this Year bleſſed us, will, I hope, put an End to the Diſturbances and other ill Conſequences that may have ariſen from a general Scarcity of Corn. It will, however, deſerve your Conſideration, whether ſome new Laws may not be requiſite to prevent the pernicious Practices of Ingroſſers, Foreſtallers and Regrators; and alſo tumultuary and riotous Proceedings for the future; and to provide for the Peace of this large and populous City; and for the Employment of the Poor of this Kingdom.

It is with great Satisfaction I obſerve the Succeſs with which the Linen Manufacture is carried on in this Kingdom; and I have his Majeſty's Commands to aſſure you, that in promoting a Trade ſo beneficial to this Nation, you may depend upon his royal Favour and Protection.

I muſt earneſtly deſire you to ſhew, on this Occaſion, ſuch Temper and Unanimity in all your Proceedings as appeared during the whole Courſe of the laſt Seſſion: That will certainly be the moſt effectual Method of ſerving the Kingdom, and of recommending yourſelves to his Majeſty's royal Favour.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed.

The Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read by the Clerk;

Reſolution for Addreſs to his Majeſty.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to congratulate his Majeſty on his happy Return to Great Britain: To expreſs our Senſe of his Majeſty's tender Concern for the Safety and Welfare of theſe his Kingdoms, by committing the Government, during his Abſence, to his royal Conſort the Queen; and the Part the Lords of Ireland took in the general Joy and Satisfaction of the royal Family and the Kingdom's, upon the Arrival of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales.

To declare the juſt Senſe the Lords have of his Majeſty's conſtant and unwearied Care to promote the Eaſe and Happineſs of his People, and of the tender Concern he has ſhewn for the Proſperity of this Kingdom.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that the Lords will uſe their Endeavours to improve this Opportunity, which his Majeſty has given them, of meeting in Parliament, by conſidering of ſuch Laws as may prevent, for the future, the pernicious Practices to inhance the Price of Corn; and the Diſturbances occaſioned by the late general Scarcity; and provide for the Peace of this populous City; and the Employment of the Poor throughout the Kingdom.

To return our humble Thanks to his Majeſty, for his gracious Aſſurance, given us from the Throne, of his royal Favour and Protection, in promoting a Trade ſo beneficial and neceſſary to the Support of this Kingdom, as that of the Linen Manufacture.

To acknowledge his Majeſty's great Goodneſs in continuing the Government of Ireland in the Hands of ſo able, vigilant and experienced a Miniſter.

And to aſſure his Majeſty, that by our Temper and Unanimity in all our Proceedings, and our Zeal for his Service, we ſhall endeavour to recommend ourſelves to his royal Favour.

Ordered, that all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee, to prepare an Addreſs upon the ſaid Reſolution, and report.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, and adjourn as they pleaſe.

Reſolution for Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs of Thanks be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, for his excellent Speech delivered to both Houſes of Parliament; expreſſing our grateful Senſe of his Excellency's wiſe and juſt Adminiſtration, under our good and gracious King; our Thankfulneſs for the Good which his Excellency has already done to this Kingdom; and our Dependence on his Goodneſs, that he will continue ſo to repreſent the Duty and Affection of the faithful Subjects of Ireland to his Majeſty, as may farther recommend us to his Majeſty's royal Favour.

Ordered, that all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, upon the ſaid Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Robing-Room, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Lord Lieutenant's Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, be forthwith printed and publiſhed; and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Speech.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

The Earl of Meath reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, to be preſented to his Majeſty; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read and agreed to, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Addreſs to the King,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty, on your happy Return to Great Britain: And to aſſure your Majeſty, we are truly ſenſible, that your Majeſty has, during your whole Reign, ſhewn the utmoſt Regard for the Proſperity of your People; and that your Majeſty could not have given a more manifeſt Inſtance of your tender Concern for the Safety and Welfare of theſe Kingdoms, than by committing the Government, during ſuch Time as the Peace and Tranquility of Europe required your Abſence, to your royal Conſort whoſe Wiſdom and Goodneſs are equally admired by your Subjects, and by the whole World.

As every thing which relates to your royal Houſe, does, in the moſt ſenſible manner, affect your faithful Subjects of Ireland; we beg Leave to take this Opportunity of expreſſing the great Share we have had in the univerſal Joy of your royal Family, and your People of theſe Kingdoms, upon the Arrival of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales. We aſſure your Majeſty, that having fully experienced your conſtant and unwearied Care to promote the Eaſe and Happineſs of your People, and the tender Concern you have ſhewn for the Proſperity of this Kingdom; we ſhall, with the greateſt Zeal for your Majeſty's Service, endeavour, in all our Actions, to manifeſt our juſt Senſe of your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government.

We ſhould be greatly wanting to ourſelves, if we did not improve this Opportunity, which your Majeſty has given us, of meeting, in Parliament, by conſidering of ſuch Laws as may prevent, for the future, the pernicious Practices made uſe of to enhance the Price of Corn; and the Diſturbances, occaſioned by the late general Scarcity; and ſuch as may provide for the Peace of this populous City; and the Employment of the Poor in all Parts of the Kingdom.

The gracious Aſſurances given us from the Throne, of your Majeſty's royal Favour and Protection, in promoting a Trade ſo beneficial and neceſſary to the Support of this Kingdom, as that of the Linen Manufacture, deſerve our utmoſt Thanks and humbleſt Acknowledgments; and we are highly ſenſible of your Majeſty's great Goodneſs to us, in continuing the Government of Ireland in the Hands of ſo experienced, able and vigilant a Miniſter.

We ſhall, by our Zeal for your Majeſty's Service, and by our Temper and Unanimity in all our Proceedings, endeavour to recommend ourſelves to the Continuance of your Majeſty's royal Favour.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

His Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and, with ſome Amendments, agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To

To his Excellency JOHN Lord CARTERET, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble ADDRESS of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to L^d Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly deſire your Excellency to accept of our moſt ſincere and hearty Thanks, for your excellent Speech, delivered from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

We think ourſelves bound, in a particular manner, to expreſs our grateful Senſe of your Excellency's Goodneſs, in declaring, That it was with great Pleaſure you received his Majeſty's Commands to meet us again in Parliament. We aſſure your Excellency, that we attend you with equal Pleaſure, and among the many Inſtances of his moſt gracious Majeſty's conſtant and unwearied Care to promote the Eaſe and Happineſs of his People, and of the tender Concern which he has ſhewn for the Proſperity of this his Kingdom, we look upon it as a very remarkable one, that he has been pleaſed to continue your Excellency in this Government, of whoſe wiſe and juſt Adminiſtration, we have had ſuch repeated Experience.

We eſteem it as a great Happineſs, that the Zeal for his Majeſty's Service, with which we acted at the Beginning of his Reign, has been approved of by your Excellency; and, as we have enjoyed that Security and Protection, of which his Majeſty's great Wiſdom and Goodneſs at that time gave us ſo juſt an Expectation, ſo we beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency, that our Zeal for his Majeſty's Service is not in the leaſt abated; and that we ſhall be ready, on all Occaſions, ſo to exert ourſelves, as in the moſt effectual manner to expreſs the true Senſe which we have of his mild and gracious Government.

With great Thankfulneſs, we acknowledge the Goodneſs of GOD to us, in relieving the preſſing Neceſſities of this Kingdom, by the late plentiful Harveſt: And, although the Occaſion of thoſe Diſturbances and other ill Conſequences, which of late have ariſen amongſt us, (chiefly from the general Scarcity of Corn) ſeem now in a great Meaſure to be removed; yet we look upon ingroſſing, foreſtalling, regrating, and above all, upon Tumults and Riots, to be at all Times ſuch pernicious Practices, and ſo deſtructive of the Peace and Welfare of this City and the Kingdom in general, that we ſhall readily concur in whatever Laws ſhall be found neceſſary to prevent them for the future; and, as one very proper Means to hinder our being expoſed to thoſe Calamities, under which we have ſo lately laboured, we ſhall be very ready to do our Part, in framing ſuch Laws as may be expedient and practicable, for the employing of the Poor.

The great Satisfaction which your Excellency is pleaſed to expreſs, upon the Succeſs of our Linen Manufacture, is a farther convincing Proof of your Excellency's Regard for the Intereſt of this Kingdom; nor do we doubt but that your Excellency has as great Pleaſure in giving, as we have in receiving, that moſt gracious Aſſurance from his Majeſty, on which we ſhall always moſt ſecurely depend, that in promoting a Trade ſo beneficial to this Nation, his Majeſty will give us his royal Favour and Protection.

We aſſure your Excellency, that we are met together with a full Reſolution to act in all our Proceedings with ſuch Temper and Unanimity, and to give ſuch Diſpatch to all publick Buſineſs, as may be moſt for the Service of his Majeſty, and the Good of this Kingdom: And that we ſhall be ready, upon all Occaſions, to ſhew the moſt dutiful Regard and inviolable Affection to his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government: Nor can we but be ſenſible, that this is the moſt effectual Method of doing Service to the whole Kingdom; and at the ſame time of recommending ourſelves to his Majeſty's royal Favour: And the many Proofs, which we hitherto have had of your Excellency's Goodneſs to us, leave us no room to doubt, but that your Excellency will continue to make the ſame favourable Repreſentation of our dutiful Behaviour and conſtant Zeal for his Majeſty's Service, as you always have been pleaſed to do.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty; and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

they preſent their Speaker.

And the Houſe of Commons being come, they were conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod with the uſual Ceremonies: And having the Day before received his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Commands to proceed to the Choice of a Speaker, in the Room of the Right Hon. William Conolly, Eſq; whoſe ill State of Health did not permit him to diſcharge that Office, preſented the Right Hon. Sir Ralph Gore, Bart. Chancellor of his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer, whom they had unanimouſly choſen to be their Speaker, for his Excellency's Approbation, where Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer made a Speech, as follows, viz.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

His Speech.

THE Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, are now before your Excellency upon an Occaſion, which, if their and my Wiſhes had prevailed, would not have happened: They ſee themſelves deprived of the Service of that great and valuable Perſon, who has hitherto preſided in their Chair, with ſo much Honour to himſelf and Advantage to the Publick; this they think to be a great Misfortune to them, and a general one to the whole Kingdom. But I want Words to expreſs the particular Concern I feel on this Occaſion; the private Friendſhip I have had with him, heightens my Senſe of the publick Misfortune; and I juſtly fear the Conſequences of it with regard to myſelf: For, my Lord, the Commons of Ireland have done me the Honour, unanimouſly, to elect me their Speaker; and they now, in Obedience to your Excellency's Command, wait on you to preſent me.

I am perſuaded, that their Candour towards me for my good Inclinations to his Majeſty's Service, and the publick Welfare, have prevailed upon them to overlook my Weakneſs and Incapacity for that important Truſt: But the true Senſe I have of my own Inſufficiency, puts me under a Neceſſity of intreating your Excellency, to interpoſe with the Commons in my Favour, and to direct them to chooſe out of ſo great a Number of worthy Perſons, one more equal to this honourable and difficult Employment.

The Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer,

Speaker approved of.

HIS Excellency is extremely concerned, that the long and faithful Services of the late Speaker, ſhould have ſo far impaired his Health, at this time, as to make him decline an Office, which he has filled for many Years with great Honour.

The Publick might have ſuffered very much on this Occaſion, had not the Commons choſe one to ſucceed him, whoſe Integrity and perfect Knowledge in Parliamentary Affairs, they had fully experienced: And the Unanimity they have ſhewn in this Election, ought to ſatisfy you, that what you mention of your own Inſufficiency ariſes only from a modeſt Diffidence, which uſually attends the greateſt Abilities.

Your known and conſtant Affection to his Majeſty and his royal Family; your Regard to the true Intereſt of the Kingdom, and the Capacity you have already ſhewn in publick Buſineſs, leave no room to doubt, but you will fill the Chair with Credit and Reputation; and the Eminence and Difficulty of the Poſt, which might be a Load on others, will only give you a better Opportunity of ſhewing thoſe great Talents, which you are Maſter of, and of executing them, in carrying on more effectually his Majeſty's and the publick Service.

It is therefore his Excellency's Pleaſure to confirm the Choice of the Commons, and to approve of you to be their Speaker.

Then Mr. Speaker ſaid,

Speaker's Reply.

SINCE your Excellency is pleaſed to approve the Choice of the Commons, it is now become my Duty to apply myſelf to the Diſcharge of the great Truſt repoſed in me; and I am very much encouraged in this difficult Undertaking, when I conſider the great Zeal and Unanimity with which this Houſe of Commons have, in a former Seſſion, acted for his Majeſty's Service, and the great Readineſs with which his Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed to conſent to every thing, which his faithful Commons propoſed, for the Welfare and Advantage of this Kingdom: While ſo happy an Union ſubſiſts between a Prince and his People, the Difficulties which attend the Station I have now the Honour to be placed in, muſt be conſiderably leſſened; and as this Union appeared in a moſt remarkable Manner in the late Seſſion, ſo there is not the leaſt room to doubt the Continuance of it in this: We have the ſame moſt gracious and excellent Prince on the Throne; we ſtill enjoy the Happineſs of your Excellency's wiſe and prudent Adminiſtration; and his Majeſty's faithful Commons, of whoſe Zeal for his and their Country's Service he has been graciouſly pleaſed to expreſs ſo great and juſt an Approbation, are now met together, with Hearts equally devoted to his Majeſty and the publick Good.

Theſe are ſure Preſages of a happy and proſperous Iſſue to the publick Councils. The only Concern I have, is, leſt I ſhould in no Sort anſwer the Expectations which your Excellency and the Commons have entertained of me: I am very ſenſible of my own Imperfections, and have great Reaſon to fear, that my utmoſt Care and Diligence will not prevent my falling into many Miſtakes; I therefore make it my humble Requeſt to your Excellency, that whatever Error or Fault I may commit, your Excellency will not impute it to the Commons; and, as I ſhall not commit any willingly, I humbly hope for your Excellency's Pardon.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

A Petition of Joſeph Auſtin of the City of Cork, Merchant, ſetting forth, that on the 13th of November 1707, the Petitioner intermarried with Mary Mitchell of the Co. of Cork, according to the Rights and Ceremonies of the Church of Ireland.

That ſeveral Years paſt, ſaid Mary, the Petitioner's Wife, lived in a ſcandalous and notorious Manner, in Adultery, with one William Owgan of the ſaid City of Cork, on which the Petitioner inſtituted a Cauſe of Divorce or Separation from Bed and Board in the Conſiſtorial Court of Cork; from whence the ſaid Cauſe was removed, by Appeal, to the Metropolitical Court of Caſhel; and from thence removed, by Appeal, to his Majeſty: And the Cauſe was fully heard, on all Parties, and Judgment given on full Proof, in his Majeſty's High Court of Delegates, by the unanimous Opinion of the Lord Biſhop of Meath, the Lord Biſhop of Kildare, the Rev. Edward Synge, Doctor in Divinity, and Thomas Staunton, Eſq; Doctor of Laws, Judges, who heard the Cauſe on the 23d of June laſt; and a Decree was then pronounced for Divorce or Separation from Bed and Board.

That pending ſaid ſeveral Suits, the Petitioner brought an Action in his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer, againſt ſaid William Owgan, for having carnal Knowledge of ſaid Mary, the Petitioner's ſaid Wife. And, upon a Trial had, in Lent Aſſizes, 1726, held before Mr. Juſtice Parnell and Robert Jocelyn, Eſq; his Majeſty's Juſtices of Aſſize for the County of the City of Cork, after a long Defence, the Petitioner obtained a Verdict, upon full Evidence, againſt ſaid William Owgan, and £200 Damages.

And humbly praying their Lordſhips to give Leave, that Heads of a Bill may be brought in, to diſſolve his ſaid Marriage with ſaid Mary Mitchell, and to enable him to marry again;

was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Call of Houſe adjourned.

Whereas this Houſe was this Day, by Order, to have been called over; It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that this Houſe ſhall be called over upon this Day fortnight.

Examinations againſt Popiſh Prieſts, &c. brought in.

William Sheil, Deputy Clerk of the Crown for the Co. Weſtmeath, attending, according to Order, delivered at the Bar the ſeveral Examinations taken againſt Luke Fagan alias Barry, a titular Popiſh Biſhop, and ſeveral other Popiſh Prieſts, and the Proceedings on the ſaid ſeveral Examinations, the laſt Aſſizes held for the ſaid County, at Mullingar.

The Titles of which were read.

Ordered, that the ſaid ſeveral Examinations and Proceedings be referred to the Committee of the whole Houſe, appointed to conſider of the preſent State of Popery in this Kingdom.

Witneſs examined.

Hans Widman, Eſq; one of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the Co. Weſtmeath, attending, according to Order, and being examined on Oath at the Bar, was aſked:

Whether

Whether he returned the ſeveral Examinations produced by the Deputy Clerk of the Crown of the Co. Weſtmeath, at the laſt Aſſizes held for the ſaid County?

Who anſwered, That he did; and that he was on the Grand Jury at the ſaid Aſſizes, and that Bills were found on the ſaid Examinations.

Ordered, that the ſaid Mr. Widman do attend the Committee of the whole Houſe, appointed to conſider of the preſent State of Popery in this Kingdom.

Witneſs examined.

William Sheil, Deputy Clerk of the Crown for the Co. Weſtmeath, being called upon, was aſked, Whether he had made any Entry in the Judges' Book of the Bills ſo found upon the ſaid Examinations?

Who anſwered, That he had not; becauſe the Perſons were extra.

Says, He never returns any Perſons to the Judges who are extra.

Sir John St. Leger, one of his Majeſty's Juſtices of Aſſize for the ſaid Circuit, being then called upon, declared, That it was the indiſpenſable Duty of the Clerk of the Crown to make a Return and Entries to the Judges of all Perſons, againſt whom Examinations are returned, eſpecially where Bills are found upon ſuch Examinations.

W. Sheil Clerk of the Crown, Co. Weſtmeath, ordered into Cuſtody:

Whereas it appears to this Houſe, that William Sheil, Deputy Clerk of the Crown for the Co. Weſtmeath, has miſbehaved himſelf in his ſaid Office;

IT is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Body of the ſaid William Sheil, for his ſaid Miſbehaviour, and keep him in ſafe Cuſtody, until further Order of this Houſe; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant on that behalf.

To the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall, on Monday next, be put into a Committee, to take into further Conſideration the preſent State of Popery in this Kingdom.

Ordered, that all Perſons who were ordered to attend the ſaid Committee this Day, do attend their Lordſhips on Monday Morning next.

Ld Forbes has leave to go to Caribbee Iſlands.

Ordered, that the Lord Forbes have the Leave of this Houſe to be abſent from the Service thereof, his Majeſty having appointed him Governor of the Leeward Caribbee Iſlands, to attend his ſaid Government.

The Earl of Cavan, from the Lords' Committees appointed to inſpect the Conveniencies made in the new Parliament-Houſe, for the Accommodation of the Houſe of Lords, reported as follows:

My Lords,

Report relative to Parliament-Houſe,

THE Lords' Committees appointed to inſpect the Conveniencies made in the new Parliament-Houſe, for the Accommodation of the Houſe of Lords, have inſpected the ſame, and are come to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that all the Conveniencies, Committee-Rooms, Robing-Rooms, Rooms for the ſafe keeping of the Parliamentary Records and Books, and the Clerks' Offices, as by a Plan hereunto annexed, delivered in by Captain Pearce, and altered by the ſaid Lords' Committees, are, with ſuch Alterations, ſufficiently provided for, and becoming the Dignity of, the Houſe of Lords.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Entrance and Approaches leading to the Door, through which the Chief Governor or Governors for the time being, muſt neceſſarily enter, and to the Houſe of Lords, are at preſent, in no ways provided for; being intirely obſtructed, by five ſmall Brick Houſes in the Front of the ſaid Building to College Green; the Reverſion of which, is in the Crown; and that the ſaid Houſes are neceſſary to be purchaſed and removed; without which, no convenient Paſſage can be had to the Houſe of Lords:

To which Reſolutions, the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree. agreed to.

Ordered, that the ſaid Reſolutions be laid before his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the Lord Chancellor.

Heads of Scavengers' Bill.

The Earl of Cavan from the Lords' Committees, appointed to examine into the Conduct and Behaviour of the ſeveral Church-Wardens and Directors of the Watch in this City, and Suburbs thereof; and likewiſe into the Management and Behaviour of the Scavenger or Scavengers of the ſame, preſented to the Houſe, Heads of a Bill for explaining and amending the ſeveral Laws now in Force for the paving and cleanſing the Streets of the City of Dublin, which were received, and read a firſt time.

Ordered, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be read a ſecond time on Friday next.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall, on Friday next, be put into a Committee, to take into further Conſideration the preſent State of Popery in this Kingdom; and that all Perſons, ordered to attend the ſaid Committee, do then attend their Lordſhips.

Ordered, that Mr. Baron St. Leger have the Leave of this Houſe to go into the Country, upon extraordinary Occaſions.

Complaint relative to Foundling Children.

The Earl of Cavan, from the Lords' Committees, appointed to inſpect into the Behaviour of the ſeveral Church-Wardens of the City, complained to the Houſe of a pernicious Practice which, on their Inquiry, their Lordſhips find is carried on throughout the ſame, by removing Foundling Children from one Pariſh to another, whereby many of them have been deſtroyed: And a circular Letter from the late Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, of the 23d of February, 1722, to the Miniſters of the City, in relation to the ſaid pernicious Practice, being then by Order read;

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to inquire into the ſaid pernicious Practice; whoſe Lordſhips have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, and are to report the ſame as it ſhall appear to them, to the Houſe.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, and adjourn as they pleaſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Altham do attend in his Place, on Friday Morning next.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, to take into further Conſideration, Heads of a Bill for explaining and amending the ſeveral Laws now in Force for the paving and cleanſing the Streets of the City of Dublin; and, after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Earl of Cavan reported from the ſaid Committee, that they had made ſome Progreſs in the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and that he was directed to move the Houſe for Leave to ſit again.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall, on Friday next, be put into a Committee to conſider further of the ſaid Heads of a Bill.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, to take into further Conſideration the preſent State of Popery in this Kingdom; and, after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Biſhop of Meath reported from the ſaid Committee, that they had made ſome Progreſs in the Matter to them referred, and that he was directed to move the Houſe for Leave to ſit again.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall, on Friday next, be put into a Committee to take into further Conſideration the preſent State of Popery in this Kingdom.

Ordered, that the Earl of Thomond have the Leave of this Houſe to petition the Houſe of Commons, in a Caſe there depending, wherein his Lordſhip is concerned.

Complaint on Breach of Privilege.

A Complaint being made to the Houſe, of a Breach of Privilege committed againſt the Earl of Mountrath by John Medley of Menkin, in the Co. Leitrim, by forcing and taking Fiſh and Nets, on the 11th and 12th of September laſt, from an Eell Weir in the River Shannon, near Jameſtown, in the ſaid County, which his Lordſhip has by himſelf and Anceſtors, poſſeſſed for many Years, in order to diſpoſſeſs his Lordſhip of the ſame;

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Matter of Complaint ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, who are to conſider thereof; and having heard and examined all ſuch Perſons concerning the ſame as they ſhall think fit, are afterwards to report their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe.

Meſſage to Commons to return Bill.

The Lord Biſhop of Meath, according to Order, reported to the Houſe, the Reſolutions of the Committee of the whole Houſe, appointed to conſider the preſent State of Popery in this Kingdom, as follow, viz. Report on State of Popery.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the not ſufficiently putting the Laws againſt Popery in Execution, has encouraged great Numbers of Popiſh Prieſts, particularly of Monks, Friars and Jeſuits to come into this Kingdom of late Years, to the great Danger of the Peace of this Kingdom, and to the great Oppreſſion of the Papiſts themſelves. Reſolutions thereon.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that ſeveral pretended Popiſh Archbiſhops, Biſhops and their Officials, have have of late exerciſed eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction within this Realm, in Defiance of the Laws.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Behaviour of the Papiſts within this Kingdom hath of late Years been very inſolent, in building many publick Maſs-Houſes, and erecting Convents of Friars and Nuns; and on many Occaſions, inſulting the Proteſtants.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Judges be directed, in their ſeveral Circuits, to give it in Charge to the Juſtices of the Peace and all other Magiſtrates more effectually to put the Laws againſt Popery in Execution, particularly thoſe againſt all Regulars and Perſons exerciſing eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction, contrary to the Laws of this Kingdom.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that every Convert from the Popiſh to the Proteſtant Religion, ought to take due Care, that his or her Child or Children be not ſuffered to be preſent at Maſs, nor within the hearing of it; and that ſuch Child or Children do reſort to the Church of the Pariſh where he, ſhe or they do reſide, or to ſome Place where Divine Service is performed, according to the Uſage of the Church of Ireland, in or near ſuch Pariſh; and that ſuch Child or Children be ſufficiently inſtructed in the Principles of the Chriſtian Religion, as ſet forth in the Catechiſm of the eſtabliſhed Church, and be duly ſent on Sundays or Holydays to ſuch Pariſh Church or other Place of Divine Worſhip, as is before mentioned, to be examined and inſtructed in the ſaid Catechiſm, by the Miniſter there officiating; and likewiſe that ſuch Child or Children ought to be brought to the Biſhop, to be confirmed by him, before he, ſhe or they ſhall arrive at the full Age of fifteen Years.

The ſaid Reſolutions being again read by the Clerk at the Table, and to which, the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree.

Reſolved, upon the Queſtion, nem. con. that whoever ſhall knowingly recommend any Convert to be of the Commiſſion of the Peace or High-Sheriff of a County, who breeds up his Child or Children a Papiſt or Papiſts, or who knowingly marries his Child or Children to a Papiſt or Papiſts; ſuch Perſon, ſo recommending, ſhall be deemed an Enemy to the Proteſtant Intereſt of this Kingdom.

Reſolutions to be laid before L^d^ Lieutenant

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Reſolutions, and lay the ſame before his Excellency, as the Reſolutions of this Houſe.

Ordered, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill for the better ſecuring the Proteſtant Religion and Intereſt of this Kingdom, againſt the further Attempts of Popery; and that the Lord Biſhop of Meath, the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam and the Earl of Cavan, do prepare and bring in the ſame.

The Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon Heads of a Bill for explaining and amending the ſeveral Laws now in Force for the paving and cleanſing the Streets of the City of Dublin; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Earl of Cavan reported from the ſaid Committee, that they had gone through the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and agreed to the ſame, with ſeveral Amendments, which he was ready to report, when the Houſe will pleaſe to receive the ſame.

Ordered, that the Report be made this Afternoon, at Two o'clock.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

His Excellency John Lord Carteret, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in royal Robes, entered the Houſe, with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Bellamont carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Roſcommon, the Cap of Maintenance; the Hon. John Allen, Eſq; eldeſt Son of the Lord Viſc. Allen; the Hon. Robert Butler, Eſq; younger Son of the Lord Viſc. Laneſborough, and the Hon. Henry Barry, Eſq; Son of the Lord Santry, bearing the Train of the ſaid Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy, all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter.

And the Houſe of Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies, where Mr. Speaker made the following Speech, viz.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Speaker's Speech.

THIS Day the Commons of Ireland attend your Excellency to give the ſtrongeſt and moſt convincing Proofs of the Sincerity of the Profeſſions they made at the Beginning of this Seſſion, of their moſt dutiful Affection to his Majeſty's royal Perſon, and moſt hearty Zeal to ſupport the Honour of his Government.

At their firſt Meeting, they found the Nation in very difficult Circumſtances: The Calamities of the Times, which no human Wiſdom could prevent or remedy, had occaſioned a great Deficiency in the Revenue, and thereby a conſiderable Arrear to the Eſtabliſhment; and theſe Calamities, which had been the principal Cauſe of the great Increaſe of the National National Debt, made it more difficult to find proper and effectual Means to diſcharge it.

But, great as theſe Difficulties were, his Majeſty's faithful Commons, with Chearfulneſs and Unanimity, reſolved to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours, to ſurmount them: They conſidered it as their own, and their Country's moſt important Intereſt, to ſupport that Government under which they enjoy ſo many and ſo great Bleſſings.

They thought themſelves alſo bound, in Duty and Gratitude, to anſwer the Expectations of ſo gracious and excellent a Prince, whom, tho' the Exigencies of his Government obliged to demand Supplies; yet his own innate Goodneſs and fatherly Concern for the Welfare of his Subjects, have moved to deſire this Proviſion to be made, in ſuch a Manner as might be moſt expedient, and leaſt burdenſome to the People.

Your Excellency now ſees the happy Effects of theſe good and dutiful Diſpoſitions, in the Minds of the Commons; they have given larger Supplies than ever granted in any former Seſſion; and they preſent the Bills thus early to your Excellency, to receive the royal Aſſent, though they have not been yet able to finiſh the many uſeful and neceſſary Laws depending before them for the Good of their Country.

Theſe, my Lord, are the greateſt and moſt undoubted Proofs they can give of their Zeal for his Majeſty's Service, and of an intire Confidence in his Goodneſs: Nor have they the leaſt Doubt, but that the Supplies they have granted, will be ſtrictly applied to the Uſes for which they intended them; and that his Majeſty will be alſo graciouſly pleaſed to tranſmit to them thoſe Bills, which may be proper to relieve this Kingdom from the Burdens under which it has hitherto laboured, and of which they have the Satisfaction to obſerve, that he has already ſo juſt and tender a Senſe.

Thus, by his Majeſty's Readineſs to concur with the Endeavours of his faithful Commons, for the Welfare of his People, by his great Goodneſs, in laying hold of every Opportunity to eaſe our Eſtabliſhment; and by the Continuance of your Excellency's Care and Concern for us, the good Effects of which we have ſo often experienced through the whole Courſe of your wiſe and prudent Adminiſtration, we have juſt Reaſon to hope, that we ſhall, in a ſhort Time, be eaſed of our preſent Debt, and reſtored to ſuch a Degree of Proſperity, as will add new Honour to your Excellency's Government, and make his Majeſty's Reign, if poſſible, more glorious, by what the beſt Princes have always thought their greateſt Glory, the Happineſs of the People.

Then Mr. Speaker read the Titles of the two Money-Bills, which, he acquainted his Excellency, the Commons had prepared, and which they humbly preſented to his Excellency for the Royal Aſſent.

And the ſaid Bills were then delivered at the Bar, by Mr. Speaker, to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought them to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Titles, as follow:

Royal Aſſent given to two Bills.

1. An Act for granting and continuing to his Majeſty, an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Wine, Tobacco, and other Goods and Merchandizes, therein mentioned.

2. An Act for granting to his Majeſty a further additional Duty on Wine, ſtrong Waters, Brandy and Spirits; and alſo a Tax of four Shillings in the Pound on all Salaries, Profits of Employments, Fees and Penſions, to be applied to pay an Intereſt at the Rate of £6 ℔ Cent. ℔ Ann. for the Sum of £200,000, and towards the Diſcharge of the ſaid principal Sum.

To theſe Bills the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

" Le Roy remercie ſes bons Sujets, accepte " leur Benevolence, et ainſi le veult."

Then his Excellency was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed.

Report on Foundling Children.

The Earl of Cavan reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to inquire into a pernicious Practice carried on in this City, by removing of Foundling Children from one Pariſh to another, whereby many of the ſaid Children have been deſtroyed; that they had conſidered of the Matter to them referred, and upon the Examination of Elizabeth Hyland, who had been ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe, do find:

That the ſaid Elizabeth Hyland, about the 3^{d} of September laſt was twelve Months, was hired and employed by Mr. Charles Fiſher, then a Church-warden in the Pariſh of St. John, to take up Foundling-Children in the ſaid Pariſh, and that by the ſaid Fiſher's Directions, ſhe the Deponent, ſince ſhe was ſo employed, took up twenty-ſeven Foundling Children, ſeven of whom died in the Deponent's keeping, and two others were taken away by their Mothers; and that the remaining eighteen Children, ſo found as aforeſaid, ſhe the Deponent lifted to other Pariſhes, particularly one of the ſaid Children, ſhe the Deponent left at the Door of Mr. Green, a Surgeon in St. Paul's Pariſh, and another at Mr. Tilſon's in the ſame Pariſh; and the Deponent always acquainted the ſaid Fiſher of her lifting the ſaid Children, and placing them as aforeſaid: and alſo acquainted the ſaid Fiſher, either at her going or at her Return, with what ſhe had done with the reſt of the Children, that ſhe had lifted out of the ſaid Pariſh of St. John, into the other Pariſhes of this City: And the Deponent had a Salary of three Pounds a Year from the ſaid Pariſh, as Pariſh-Nurſe.

The ſaid Elizabeth Hyland further depoſed, that at the Time ſhe lifted ſaid Children, ſhe frequently found Diacodium in their Mouths, by which they were ſtupified, but never put any into their Mouths herſelf: And depoſed, That ſhe never preſented the ſame Child twice to the Church-wardens; but that ſhe the Deponent lifted a Child into St. Paul's Pariſh near Mr. Worthington's Houſe, which the Nurſe of the ſaid Pariſh returned to the Deponent; and that ſhe the Deponent acquainted the ſaid Fiſher therewith, who told the Deponent that ſhe ſhould not go too often to one Place; and that thereupon the Deponent lifted the ſaid Child to St. Anne's Pariſh.

The ſaid Elizabeth further depoſed, That ſhe does not know what became of the ſaid Children, ſo lifted by her as aforeſaid, only that ſeven of them died in her Cuſtody, and were buried by the ſaid Fiſher's Directions, in St. John's Church-yard, but that none of the ſaid Children were baptized, though ſhe always gave Notice to the ſaid Fiſher, before their Death, of their Illneſs.

Balaam Dempſey (preſent Church-warden of the Pariſh of St. John, having alſo been ſworn at the Bar, and examined by the Lords' Committees) produced a Book, with an Account of the Times when the ſaid Children were found, and when they were lifted by the ſaid Hyland; and depoſed, that he received ſaid Book from ſaid Hyland's Huſband, and that the ſame has been ever ſince in the Deponent's Cuſtody, without any Alteration.

The ſaid Dempſey further depoſed, That a Boy and Girl were, about twenty-nine Weeks ago, left on the ſaid Pariſh of St. John, and that the ſaid Boy appeared, by Affidavit made before Sir Nathaniel Whitwell, to have been in the Cuſtody of the Bell-man of the Pariſh of St. Luke, the Day before he was found in St. John's Pariſh: The ſaid Dempſey further depoſed, That he believes it to be cuſtomary through the City, to convey Foundling Children from one Pariſh to another.

Pat. Aylmer, Eſq; (late a Church-warden in the Pariſh of St. Mary, after having been ſworn at the Bar, and examined, by the ſaid Lords Committees) depoſed, That upon his the ſaid Aylmer's being appointed a Church-warden of the ſaid Pariſh of St. Mary, he the Deponent deſired a Return from the Beadle of the Pariſh Officers and Servants, in which Return there was a Perſon, by the Name of a Lifter; and the Deponent being unacquainted with the nature of that Employment, deſired to know from the Beadle what it meant? who informed the Deponent, that it was a Woman appointed to take Care of Foundling Children, and to lift them out of the ſaid Pariſh into other Pariſhes: That the Deponent thereupon ſent for the ſaid Woman, and deſired to know her Name, and her Employment in the ſaid Pariſh? Who informed the Deponent, that her Name was Joan Newenham, and that ſhe was Pariſh-Nurſe: The Deponent replied, That from her Years and Appearance, he believed ſaid Joan incapable of giving Suck; but the ſaid Joan informed the Deponent, that, that was none of her Buſineſs; for that ſhe was employed to take Care of Foundling Children, and lift them out of that Pariſh into other Pariſhes: The Deponent then told the ſaid Joan, that it was a baſe and wicked Practice, and aſked ſaid Joan, if ſhe was not afraid, that ſhe ſhould be diſcovered and puniſhed: The ſaid Joan replied, That there was no Danger, for that ſhe took proper Opportunities of lifting the ſaid Children: And being aſked by the Deponent, How ſhe mnag'd that Affair? She replied, that ſometimes ſhe kept the ſaid Children a Night or two, and when ſhe lifted them, to prevent their crying, ſhe the ſaid Joan put Diacodium into their Mouths, and by the Aſſiſtance of a Man who uſed to go with her, left the ſaid Children at Gentlemen's Doors in other Pariſhes: And ſaid Joan, being aſked by the Deponent, Whether ſhe ever knew what became of ſaid Children, after ſhe had diſpoſed of them, as aforeſaid? The ſaid Joan replied, That ſhe did not; for, after ſhe had parted with them, ſhe had done with them: And being aſked by the Deponent, What ſhe had for ſo doing? The ſaid Joan replied, that for ſome time ſhe had four Shillings and Ninepence a Child, but was afterwards agreed with for Four Pounds Ten Shillings a Year.—The Deponent then informed the ſaid Joan, That it was a moſt wicked Practice, and that he the Deponent would not permit the ſame, during the time of his being Church-Warden, and diſmiſſed the ſaid Joan from her Employment; and thereupon hired a Wet-nurſe to take Care of the Foundling Children, until ſuch time as they could be provided for.

Gerald Atkinſon (Veſtry-Clerk of the ſaid Pariſh of St. Mary, after having been ſworn at the Bar, and being examined by the ſaid Lords' Committees) produced two Books; one of which contained the Orders of the Veſtry, and the other, the Church-Wardens' Accounts.

John Watſon (Beadle of the ſaid Pariſh of St. Mary, being alſo ſworn at the Bar, and examined by the ſaid Lords' Committees) depoſed, that he knew Joan Newenham, and that ſhe was Pariſh-Nurſe of the ſaid Pariſh of St. Mary, and that ſhe the ſaid Joan told the Deponent, That ſhe had Four Pounds Ten Shillings a Year for taking Care and lifting of the Foundling Children of the ſaid Pariſh, and for leaving them on other Pariſhes: and the Deponent further depoſed, That the ſaid Joan had lifted ſeveral Children out of the ſaid Pariſh into other Pariſhes.

The ſaid John Watſon further depoſed, that Catherine Mathews the Perſon at preſent employed as Pariſh-Nurſe for the ſaid Pariſh of St. Mary, told the Deponent, that ſhe the ſaid Catherine had lifted ſeveral Foundling Children out of the ſaid Pariſh into other Pariſhes, but does not know of her putting any Diacodium into their Mouths, but the Deponent was told by Joan Newenham, That ſhe had uſed that Practice. Says, the ſaid Mathews is now Pariſh-Nurſe of St. Mary's Pariſh.

All which is ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

The ſaid Report was then again read by the Clerk at the Table, and agreed to by the Houſe. Report agreed to.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Majeſty's Attorney-General do forthwith proſecute the ſaid Charles Fiſher, late a Church-Warden of the Pariſh of St. John, for his evil Practices contained in the foregoing Examinations and Report. Church-Warden of St. John's Pariſh to be proſecuted.

Ordered, that the Clerk of this Houſe do attend his Majeſty's Attorney-General with atteſted Copies of the foregoing Examinations and Report, in order to the immediate Proſecution of the ſaid Charles Fiſher.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the foregoing Examinations and Report ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Examinations and Report. Report to be printed.

The Houſe being informed by the Earl of Cavan, that Mr. James Browne had an Appointment from Mr. Sterne, the Clerk of the Parliaments, to be his Deputy, and his Lordſhip moving the Houſe, that the ſaid Browne may have Leave to take the Oaths, in order to qualify him to act in that Station; Mr. James Browne, appointed Deputy-Clerk of the Parliaments,

The ſaid James Browne was then called in, and produced a Copy of his Majeſty's Letters Patents granted to Enoch Sterne, Eſq; and Henry Baker Sterne his Son, whereby they are impowered to appoint a Deputy or Deputies, and the ſaid Browne, after having been ſworn at the Bar, depoſed, that the ſame was a true Copy of the ſaid Letters Patents, and by him compared with the original, on Record in the Rolls' Office, which Copy of the ſaid Letters Patents being read at the Table;

The ſaid James Browne, as Deputy to the ſaid Patentees, came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Houſe do adjourn itſelf to Tueſday the 10th Day of February next.

And the Queſtion of Adjournment being put,

The Houſe adjourned till Tueſday the 10th of February next, at Eleven o'clock in the Morning.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Viſcount Netterville takes the Oaths, &c.

This Day Nicholas Lord Viſc. Netterville ſat firſt in Parliament, and delivered his Writ in the accuſtomed Manner, and came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

His Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of Yeſterday, according to Order, reported an Addreſs, which he read in his Place, and was afterwards read at the Table, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows:

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King, on Peace with Spain.

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg leave to congratulate your Majeſty, upon the happy Concluſion of an abſolute Peace with the Crown of Spain.

Your Majeſty's faithful Subjects are filled with the higheſt Senſe of Duty and Gratitude for the particular Regard your Majeſty hath ſhewn for the Intereſt of theſe your Kingdoms; and conſider this happy Event as a Conſequence of the ſteady and uniform Meaſures purſued by your Majeſty; by which not only an open Rupture hath been prevented, but ſuch a Foundation is laid for eſtabliſhing the Tranquility of Europe, as affords the moſt reaſonable Hopes of ſeeing that great Work, by the ſame wiſe Meaſures, brought to a ſpeedy Concluſion.

When we behold your Majeſty, thus conducting the great Powers of Europe to a general Peace; reſpected abroad; at home, reigning in the Hearts of your People; and crowned with that Honour, which ariſes from their Proſperity: We can form no greater Wiſh, than that you may long enjoy the Fruits of thoſe Bleſſings, which your Wiſdom and Reſolution have procured to theſe Kingdoms.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that if any ill deſigning Perſons amongſt us ſhall endeavour, by groundleſs Inſinuations and Clamours, to miſrepreſent your Majeſty's Adminiſtration, and to diſunite the Hearts of your Subjects, we ſhall always, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, expreſs our juſt Indignation and Reſentment againſt them, as Enemies to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Honour, and to that Eaſe and Happineſs which all your Majeſty's faithful Subjects enjoy, under your gracious and wiſe Government.

Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Addreſs ſhall be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be waited upon by this Houſe with the ſaid Addreſs.

Upon reading the Order for the Day,

Bill for Reſidence of Clergy.

Hodie ſecunda vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for ſupplying a Defect in an Act, intitled, An Act for the better enabling the Clergy, having Cure of Souls, to reſide upon their reſpective Benefices; and for the Encouragement of Proteſtant Schools within this Kingdom of Ireland.

committed.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be ingroſſed, and that the Conſideration thereof ſhall be committed to a Committee of the whole Houſe, on Saturday next; who are to compare the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and ſee that it exactly agrees therewith.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and the Lord Chancellor withdrew, to wait on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he would be attended by this Houſe with their Lordſhips' Addreſs to his Majeſty.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor, reported, that he had attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he would be attended with their Lordſhips' Addreſs to his Majeſty; and his Excellency was pleaſed to appoint this Afternoon, at Two o'clock, at his Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin.

Adjourned till Saturday Morning next, at Eleven o'clock.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, with the ſaid Reſolution.

The Lord Biſhop of Elphin reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Saturday laſt; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency JOHN Lord CARTERET, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble ADDRESS of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſ. to L^d Lieutenant WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave, before you put an End to this Seſſion, to congratulate your Excellency upon the near Proſpect of its happy Concluſion; and to return our ſincere and hearty Thanks for the great Regard you have ſhewn for the Welfare of this Kingdom, in the whole Courſe of your juſt and wiſe Adminiſtration.

The Experience we had of your great Abilities, and of the perfect Knowledge you had acquired of the true State of this Kingdom, could not but give us the fulleſt Aſſurance of his Majeſty's gracious Intentions to his People of Ireland, in continuing your Excellency in this Government: Nor had we the leaſt Doubt, at the Opening of this Seſſion, but that (by your faithful Repreſentations of our Duty and Loyalty, and of the propereſt Meaſures to promote the real Intereſts of this Nation) the beſt Foundations would be laid to improve and in time carry it on to the greateſt Height.

And we already ſee the Effects of his Majeſty's Goodneſs, and of your Zeal for his Service, and for the Welfare of his People, by the many uſeful Bills tranſmitted from Great Britain for the Support and Honour of the Eſtabliſhment; the Relief of the Diſtreſſed; the Employment of the Poor; Increaſe of Tillage; and Improvement of the Trade, and Inland Navigation of the Kingdom. Nor can we omit, with the utmoſt Gratitude, to acknowledge, that his royal Bounty hath prevented even our Deſires, by remitting Part of his Hereditary Revenue, to encourage the Induſtrious, and make us Sharers in the Advantages of the Woollen Manufactures.

Theſe Things muſt tranſmit, this your third Seſſion, diſtinguiſhed to Poſterity; fill us with the higheſt Eſteem and Affection for your Perſon, and make us ſtill more ſenſible of the Happineſs we enjoy under your juſt and mild and prudent Adminiſtration.

And as the Lords have chearfully concurred in all Meaſures for the Honour and Support of his his Majeſty's Government, and for the Peace and Quiet of his People, we promiſe ourſelves, from your known Juſtice and Goodneſs, that you will continue to repreſent to his Majeſty, that Fidelity in which we glory, and that Zeal for the Good and Service of our Country, which we know are equally acceptable to him; and to aſſure his Majeſty, that we always ſhall endeavour to preſerve amongſt the People a juſt Senſe of the Bleſſings of his gracious Government.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs ſhall be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when his Excellency will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with the ſaid Addreſs.

Order to King's Printer about printing Acts.

Mr. Crook, his Majeſty's Printer, attending, according to Order, was called in; and ſtanding at the Bar of the Houſe, was by Order directed by the Lord Chancellor to print the Acts of Parliament for the future with more Expedition, and on better Paper, and to deliver them as they are printed, to the Clerk of this Houſe for the Uſe of the Lords, before they are publickly ſold.

To theſe Bills the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

After which his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

HAVING obeyed his Majeſty's Commands, in giving his Royal Aſſent to the Laws you have prepared, I ſhall now put an End to this Seſſion of Parliament, in which you have given moſt remarkable Proofs of your Duty and Affection to his Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and have ſhewn a true Care and Concern for the Eaſe and Proſperity of your Fellow-Subjects.

I make no Doubt but you have received the greateſt Satisfaction, in obſerving, that the Bill for Encouragement of Tillage, and better Employment of the Poor (ſo well calculated to increaſe the Trade and Riches of this Kingdom) hath received ſuch an Addition, by his Majeſty's having been graciouſly pleaſed to remit his Hereditary Duties upon the Exportation of Wool and Yarn, as muſt lay a Foundation to make the Effects of that Act ſtill more beneficial and extenſive.

This Inſtance of his Majeſty's Deſire to promote the Manufactures of his Kingdoms, cannot but produce the higheſt Returns of Duty and Affection from all his Subjects.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I AM commanded by his Majeſty to return you Thanks for the Supplies you have granted for the Support of the Eſtabliſhment, and for making ſo effectual a Proviſion for the National Debt. It muſt contribute very much to the Honour of this Parliament, that at a time when you were raiſing new Funds to make good the Deficiencies, you were able to reduce the Intereſt of the former Debt with a due Regard to Parliamentary Credit; and to raiſe the Money, which the publick Service required, at an eaſier Rate than hath hitherto been known in this Kingdom. And I am perſuaded, that the immediate Application of thoſe Sums to the Purpoſes for which they were intended, has been intirely to your Satisfaction.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I CAN make no Doubt, but on your Return into your ſeveral Countries, you will, in your reſpective Stations, act in ſuch a Manner as may moſt effectually promote his Majeſty's Service, and the publick Tranquillity.

I am glad to ſee the Condition of this Kingdom ſo much altered, that a Prohibition againſt the Exportation of Corn is become no longer neceſſary. And I hope, by a due Execution of the Law now paſſed, for encouraging of Tillage, ſuch a Scarcity of Corn as this Kingdom lately laboured under, may, by the Bleſſing of GOD, be prevented for the future.

I take this Opportunity, to renew to you my Thanks for the conſtant Regard and Zeal you have ſhewn for the Honour and Eaſe of his Majeſty's Government during the whole Courſe of my Adminiſtration. And, as I have had a long and repeated Experience of your Duty, Loyalty and Affection to his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Royal Family, I ſhall not fail, on my Return into his royal Preſence, to make a full and faithful Repreſentation of the loyal and dutiful Behaviour of his Subjects of Ireland.

Afterwards, the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Thurſday the 14th Day of May next; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to meet here on Thurſday the 14th Day of May next. Parliament prorogued.

Uſher of Black-Rod ſworn.

This Day Sir Multon Lambart, Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

His Grace Lionel Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Roſcommon carrying the Sword of State; and the Earl of Kildare, the Cap of Maintenance; three Noblemens' Sons bearing the Train of his Grace's Robe: His Grace making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State, all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

And the Houſe of Commons being come, they, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I SHOULD be far from deſerving the high Station in which his Majeſty hath placed me, and ill anſwer his royal Intentions, if I did not meet you here with the warmeſt Heart and ſtrongeſt Inclination, to do every thing in my Power that may contribute to the Honour, Welfare and Intereſt of this his Kingdom; and I have taken, and ſhall take, every Opportunity of giving the moſt ſolid Proofs of my Zeal for your Service.

The experienced Loyalty of this Parliament, leaves me no room to doubt but that all your Conſultations will be carried on with that Duty, Temper and Unanimity, which alone can make them ſucceſsful; and I have it in Command from his Majeſty to aſſure you, that you cannot do him a more acceptable Service than the preparing the Heads of ſuch Bills as may tend to continue, increaſe and eſtabliſh your own Happineſs and Proſperity.

I ſhall leave it to your Conſideration, whether any farther Laws may be neceſſary to prevent the Growth of Popery, and to ſecure you againſt all Dangers from the great Number of Papiſts in this Kingdom.

You will likewiſe conſider what farther Encouragement may be given to the Flaxen and Hempen Manufactures, Branches of Trade which not only employ the Poor, and may in time leſſen their Number; but by your conſtant Attention to them under his Majeſty's Favour and Protection (on which you may intirely depend) will prove a great and undiſputed Source of Riches to this Country.

At the ſame time I have it in Charge to recommend to you the finding out ſome more effectual Methods to prevent the illegal Exportation of Wool into foreign Parts: This pernicious Practice is highly injurious to the Trade and Manufacture of Great Britain, and of no real Advantage to yourſelves in its Conſequences; it very much encourages the clandeſtine running of Goods, to the great Diminution of the publick Revenue, and to the Ruin and Deſtruction of the honeſt and fair Trader.

Gentlemen

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

IT is with Concern, that I find ſo great a Deficiency in the publick Revenues: I have directed the proper Officers to lay before you the Eſtimates and Accounts in the plaineſt and cleareſt manner; and I doubt not but you will chearfully and moſt effectually make the neceſſary Proviſion for the Debt due to the Eſtabliſhment, and for the Support of his Majeſty's Government, under which your own Intereſt and Happineſs, Religion and Liberties, can alone be ſecure.

You may be aſſured, that I ſhall take the utmoſt Care, that the Supplies ſhall not only be moſt frugally applied to the Purpoſes for which they are intended, but that they ſhall, as much as is poſſible, be ſpent among yourſelves; to which End I can now with Certainty acquaint you, that his Majeſty hath been pleaſed to order two of the Regiments upon this Eſtabliſhment, in Service abroad, to be immediately brought back to this Kingdom; and from the happy Circumſtances of Affairs in Europe, I have the greateſt Reaſon to hope, that the other will be ſoon recalled.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is a great Satisfaction to me to be able, at my firſt Meeting you in Parliament, to acquaint you, that, from the juſt Succeſs with which the Wiſdom of his Majeſty's Councils and Negotiations hath been attended, we have now the moſt reaſonable Expectations of enjoying all the Advantages and Bleſſings of a general Peace, which by the Increaſe it will bring to your Trade, and the Encouragement it will give to your Manufactures, muſt neceſſarily contribute to the Removal of thoſe Difficulties you at preſent labour under.

His Majeſty, in his great Goodneſs, conſiders it as his higheſt Glory, to make all his Subjects happy; and in his tender Concern for this Kingdom, deſires nothing more earneſtly, than to ſee you in that Condition: And I ſhall eſteem it my greateſt Honour to obey his Majeſty's Commands, in concurring with you in every thing that may beſt promote that End, and the Accompliſhment of it will be the greateſt Satisfaction I can poſſibly receive from my Adminiſtration.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered, and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed.

Then his Lordſhip having at the Table taken and ſubſcribed the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, purſuant to the Statutes, he was conducted to, and took his Place at the lower end of the Barons' Bench, from whence he went to the upper end of the Earls' Bench, and ſat there as Lord High Chancellor and then returned to the Wool-ſack.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor reported his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read by the Clerk;

Lord Lieutenant's Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Speech.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented by this Houſe to his Majeſty, to thank him for the gracious Expreſſions of his tender Concern for this Kingdom, and his earneſt Deſires of our Happineſs, and for the Aſſurance he is pleaſed to give us, that we cannot do him a more acceptable Service, than the preparing the Heads of ſuch Bills as may tend to continue, increaſe and eſtabliſh that Happineſs.

To congratulate his Majeſty on the juſt Succeſs which hath attended the Wiſdom of his Councils and Negociations, whereby we have the moſt reaſonable Expectations of enjoying all the Bleſſings and Advantages of a general Peace.

To give his Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our Duty and Affection to his royal Perſon and Family, and of our Reſolution to promote the Proſperity of his People, and the Security of his Government, by a chearful Concurrence in the paſſing ſuch Laws as may be thought neceſſary to encourage the Linen Manufacture; to prevent the illegal exportation of Wool, and the clandeſtine running of Goods; and to ſtop the Growth of Popery; and that we will endeavour to carry on all our Conſultations with that Duty, Temper and Unanimity, which alone can make them ſucceſsful; and to expreſs our moſt ſenſible Acknowledgments of his Majeſty's Care and Favour, in committing the Government of us into the Hands of his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, whoſe known Character leaves us no room to doubt, but he will continue to do every thing in his Power that may contribute to the Honour, Welfare and Intereſt of this his Majeſty's Kingdom.

Ordered, that all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee, to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, upon the ſaid Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolved,

Reſolution for Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Lord Chief Baron takes the Oaths, &c.

The Right Hon. Thomas Marlay, Eſq; Lord Chief Baron of his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer, delivered his Writ in the uſual Manner, and came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

Yeoman-Uſher ſworn.

And alſo, Stephen Luſhington, Eſq; Yeoman Uſher of the Black-Rod, came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

His Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin reported from the Lords' Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, to be preſented to his Majeſty; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Addreſs to the King,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return our moſt humble Thanks to your Majeſty, for thoſe gracious Expreſſions we have received from the Throne, of your tender Concern and earneſt Deſire for the Happineſs of this your Kingdom, and for the Aſſurance given us, that we cannot do any thing more acceptable to your Majeſty, than the preparing the Heads of ſuch Bills as may tend to continue, increaſe and eſtabliſh that Happineſs.

And we take this Opportunity to congratulate your Majeſty on the juſt Succeſs, which hath attended the Wiſdom of your Councils and Negociations, whereby we have the moſt reaſonable Expectations of a general Peace, which by the Increaſe it will bring to our Trade, and the Encouragement it will give to our Manufactures, under your Majeſty's Favour and Protection, muſt neceſſarily contribute to the Removal of thoſe Difficulties we at preſent Labour under, and to the Accompliſhment of your Majeſty's gracious Deſires and Deſigns towards us.

We can, in grateful Return, only give your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt and moſt ſincere Aſſurances of our inviolable Duty and Affection to your Majeſty and your royal Houſe, and of our ſteady Reſolution to make uſe of the Opportunity your Majeſty hath put into our hands by the happy Circumſtances of Affairs in Europe, to promote the Proſperity of your Subjects, and the Security of your Government.

In purſuance of this, we ſhall heartily concur in the paſſing ſuch Laws as ſhall be found neceſſary to encourage our Flaxen and Hempen Manufactures, and employ and leſſen the Number of our Poor; to prevent the illegal Exportation of Wool, and the clandeſtine running of Goods, which tend to the Diminution of the publick Revenues, and to the Ruin and Deſtruction of the Fair Trader, and to ſtop the further Growth of Popery, and ſecure us againſt all Dangers from the Numbers and Inſolence of the Papiſts in this Kingdom.

Your Majeſty's good Subjects of Ireland, who muſt want that Happineſs which attends your immediate Preſence, cannot but expreſs their moſt ſenſible Acknowledgments of your Majeſty's extenſive Goodneſs, in committing their Affairs into the Hands of his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, whoſe known and approved Character leaves us no room to doubt, but that, in obedience to your royal Commands, he will juſtly repreſent your Majeſty, in continuing to do every thing in his Power that may contribute to the Honour, Welfare and Intereſt of this your Majeſty's Kingdom.

Your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects have nothing more or greater to add, than their moſt zealous Wiſhes and Prayers, that your Majeſty may long enjoy your true and deſired Glory, in the Proſperity of your People, under your moſt juſt and gracious Adminiſtration; and that our lateſt Poſterity may have the ſame Happineſs tranſmitted to them, under Princes of your Majeſty's illuſtrious and royal Family.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

The Lord Viſc. Maſſareene reported from the Lords' Committees appointed to draw up an Addreſs of Thanks to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his Grace's Speech delivered Yeſterday from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and, with ſome Amendments, agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace LIONEL Duke of DORSET, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to L^d Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to return your Grace our moſt hearty Thanks for your excellent Speech, delivered from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

It is with the greateſt Pleaſure and Satisfaction that we ſee your Grace placed over this Kingdom; and we eſteem it a ſignal Inſtance of his Majeſty's tender Care of us, that he has made Choice of a Perſon of your Grace's Wiſdom and Goodneſs, as well as Zeal, for the Proteſtant Religion, and hearty Affection to his Majeſty, and his royal Family, to intruſt with the Government of this Nation.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Gratitude for that Warmth of Heart and ſtrong Inclination you bring with you, to promote the Honour, Welfare and Intereſt of this Kingdom; and the many Benefits we have already received under your Grace's Adminiſtration, give us the ſtrongeſt Aſſurance of all future Advantages from the Continuance of your Government.

And we hope our well-known and moſt ſincere Loyalty to his Majeſty, will always diſpoſe us to carry on our Conſultations for his Honour, and the good of our Country, with that Duty, Temper and Unanimity, which are the moſt effectual Methods to render them ſucceſsful, and to make your Grace's Adminiſtration eaſy.

We moſt thankfully own our Obligations to your Grace, for the great Encouragement you give us from his Majeſty, to conſider what new Laws may be moſt likely to continue, increaſe and eſtabliſh our own Happineſs and Proſperity.

If any thing be ſtill wanting in our Laws, to prevent the Growth of Popery, and to ſecure us againſt all Dangers from the great Number and Inſolence of Papiſts in this Kingdom, it will now be our own Fault, if thoſe Defects are not ſupplied.

The Advantages we at preſent receive, and the greater we may hereafter hope for, from our Flaxen and Hempen Manufactures, are ſo truly laid before us by your Grace, and the Aſſurances you give us of his Majeſty's Favour and Protection, in carrying them on, are ſo full, that we ſhall be left without Excuſe, if we neglect to give every Encouragement in our Power to thoſe valuable Branches of our Trade.

And we ſhall, in purſuance of your Grace's Recommendation, ſhew our Readineſs to prevent the illegal Exportation of Wool to foreign Parts, which is ſo much to the Prejudice of Great Britain, without any real Advantage to ourſelves, by chearfully concurring in any Laws that may be thought proper to prevent ſo pernicious a Practice.

We beg Leave to ſhare with your Grace in that Satisfaction you expreſs at the juſt Succeſs with which the Wiſdom of his Majeſty's Councils and Negotiations has been attended, which gives us the Proſpect of a general Peace; ſo great a Bleſſing cannot but bring an Increaſe to our Trade, and make our Manufactures flouriſh, which muſt gradually remove thoſe Difficulties we at preſent labour under.

It is to us of this Nation a ſenſible Benefit ariſing from the happy Circumſtances of Affairs in Europe, that two of the Regiments on this Eſtabliſhment, now abroad, are ordered home; and we doubt not, but as ſoon as the State of Affairs will permit, his Majeſty will be graciouſly pleaſed, through your Grace's good Offices, to recall the other Regiment.

The Experience we have already had of his Majeſty's moſt mild and gracious Government, fully convinces us, that his Majeſty has a tender Concern for this Kingdom, and earneſtly deſires to make all his Subjects happy.

And it is with the utmoſt Pleaſure and Acknowledgment that we receive your Grace's Aſſurances, Aſſurances, that you ſhall eſteem it your greateſt Honour, in obedience to his Majeſty's Commands, to concur in every thing that may beſt promote our Happineſs: And we ſhall make it our Endeavour, that your Adminiſtration may procure the great Satisfaction you propoſe to yourſelves from ſo generous a View.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Grace.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Clonfert ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 23d inſt. being an anniverſary Thankſgiving for the Deliverance of the Proteſtants of this Kingdom from the Popiſh Maſſacre in 1641.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory ſhall be, and he is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 5th of November next, being appointed a Day of Thankſgiving for the happy Deliverance of the three Eſtates of England, from the intended Maſſacre by Gun-powder; and alſo for the happy Arrival of his late Majeſty King William of glorious Memory on this Day, for the Deliverance of our Church and theſe Nations.

Committees, for Religion; Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lords preſent be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee for Religion; and that all the Lords of this Houſe, who are not named of this Committee, and ſhall come, are to have Voices therein; and have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, in order to their proceeding on any Affair that ſhall come before them.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, on Friday next, at Four o'clock, in the Afternoon; and ſo on, every Friday, weekly.

Privileges; Ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lords preſent be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to conſider of the Cuſtoms and Orders of the Houſe, and the Privileges of Parliament; and that all the Lords of this Houſe, who are not of this Committee, and ſhall come, ſhall have Voices therein; and they have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, in order to their proceeding on any Affair that ſhall come before them.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Defaulters called.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, proceeded to call over the Names of ſuch Lords as made Default upon the Call of the Houſe, and ſeveral Lords were excuſed: And Miſtakes in Liſt of Lords returned to Clerk.

The Houſe taking Notice, that there were ſeveral Miſtakes in the Liſt of the Lords, returned to the Clerk of this Houſe by William Hawkins, Eſq; Ulſter King of Arms, this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, in the Names of ſeveral Lords to their reſpective Titles, and alſo in the Return of ſeveral Lords whoſe Titles are extinct;

Ordered, that all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed Lords' Committees to conſider of the Liſt of Lords returned by the King of Arms to the Clerk of this Houſe, this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, and report.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet on Monday Morning next, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers; whoſe Lordſhips have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein; and their Lordſhips are to adjourn as they pleaſe.

King of Arms to attend.

Ordered, that William Hawkins, Eſq; Ulſter King of Arms, do attend the ſaid Lords' Committees.

The Earl of Cavan, from the Lords' Committees appointed to inquire how far the Act made the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, for amending the ſeveral Laws now in Force for the paving and cleanſing the Streets of the City of Dublin, and Liberties of St. Sepulchre's, Thomas-Court and Donore, and how far the ſame have been complied with and put in Execution; that they find the ſaid Law to be defective, and directed his Lordſhip to move the Houſe for Leave to bring in Heads of a Bill for the explaining and amending the ſaid Act.

Ordered, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill for explaining and amending the ſaid Act, and that the ſaid Lords' Committees who are appointed to inquire how far the ſame had been complied with and put in Execution, do prepare and bring in the ſame.

Report on temporary Laws.

His Grace the Lord Primate reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to inquire what temporary Laws were expired or near expiring, and which of them may be thought fit to be revived, continued or made perpetual; that they find that the Act for Exchange of Glebes, made the 10th of King George I. expires this Seſſion of Parliament.

That the Act for the real Union and Diviſion of Pariſhes, and the Act for amending the ſame, made the 10th of King George I. expires next Seſſion of Parliament: One Clauſe of this Act is repealed by the firſt of King George II. Chap. 19.

That the Act for the more eaſy Recovery of Tythes and other eccleſiaſtical Dues of ſmall Value, made the 1ſt of King George II. expires this Seſſion of Parliament.

That the Act for ſecuring the Rights of Advowſon, made the 1ſt of King George II. expires in the Year 1733.

That the Act for the better regulating the Militia; The Act for the better regulating High-ways, Pariſh-Watches and Miſapplication of publick Money; The Act for preſerving Ships and Goods ſtranded; The Act for preventing the running of Goods, and Frauds in his Majeſty's Cuſtoms; The Act for regulating Abuſes in buying and ſelling Cattle; The Act for preventing fraudulent and clandeſtine running of Goods; The Act for regulating Barracks and Light-Houſes; and amending the Act to prevent Diſorders in marching Soldiers; And the Act for regulating the Watch of the City of Dublin, are continued, by an Act, made laſt Seſſion of Parliament, till the 25th of March, 1737.

That the Act for tranſporting Felons, made the 12th of King George I. expires in the Year 1737.

That

That the Act, made the 10th of King George I. for amending the Law in relation to Butter and Tallow-Caſks, and the curing of Hides, expires next Seſſion of Parliament.

That the Act for Amendment of the Law, in relation to Butter and Tallow-Caſks, and for preventing the Deſtruction of Salmon, by the Act of the 1ſt of King George II. expires this Seſſion of Parliament.

That the Act for the more ſpeedy and effectual Repair of Bridges, made the firſt of King George II. expires this Seſſion of Parliament.

That the Act for the more effectual preventing Frauds in the Cuſtoms and Exciſe, and for ſettling the Rates of Goods, not valued in the Book of Rates, made the 1ſt of King George II, expires in 1733.

That the Act for puniſhing Forgery and Perjury, made the 3d of King George II. expires next Seſſion of Parliament.

That the Act for aeccpting the ſolemn Affirmation or Declaration of the People called Quakers, inſtead of an Oath in the uſual Form, made the 1ſt of King George II. expires in 1734.

That the Act for the better Diſcovery of Judgments in the Courts of King's-Bench, Common-Pleas and Exchequer, at Dublin, and for the greater Security of Purchaſers, made in the 3d of King George II. expires next Seſſion of Parliament.

That the Act made the 3d of K. George II. for amending the ſeveral Statutes in relation to Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs and Sheriffs' Clerks, expires in 1733.

That the Clauſe in the Work-Houſe Act, made the 3d of King George II. which provides for Foundlings, expires next Seſſion of Parliament.

And it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Act for the Exchange of Glebes, made the 10th of King George I. The Act for amending the Act for the real Union and Diviſion of Pariſhes, made the 10th of King George I. The Act for the more eaſy Recovery of Tythes and other eccleſiaſtical Dues of ſmall Value, made the 1ſt of King George II. The Act for ſecuring the Rights of Advowſon, made the 1ſt of King George II. And the Act for the Diſcovery of Judgments in the Courts of King's-Bench, Common-Pleas and Exchequer, at Dublin, and for the greater Security of Purchaſers, made the 3d of King George II. are fit to be further continued.

To which the Houſe agreed.

Committee to prepare Heads of Bill.

Ordered, that all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed Lords' Committees, to prepare and bring in Heads of a Bill, purſuant to the foregoing Report.

Biſhop excuſed from preaching.

His Grace the Lord Primate acquainted the Houſe, that the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory, having been appointed to preach before this Houſe on the 5th Inſt. and that his Lordſhip being greatly indiſpoſed, deſired that he might be excuſed from that Service.

Ordered, that the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory ſhall be, and is hereby, excuſed from preaching before this Houſe the 5th Inſt. and that the Lord Biſhop of Down and Connor ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church on the 5th Inſt. being appointed a Day of Thankſgiving for the happy Deliverance of the three Eſtates of England from the intended Maſſacre by Gun-powder, and alſo for the happy Arrival of his late Majeſty King William of glorious Memory, on this Day, for the Deliverance of our Church and theſe Nations.

Committee on preſent State of Popery.

Ordered, that all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed Lords' Committees to inquire into the preſent State of Popery in this Kingdom, and to prepare ſuch Heads of Bills as they ſhall think moſt proper for explaining and amending the Acts to prevent the Growth of Popery, and to ſecure this Kingdom from any Dangers from the great Number of Papiſts in this Nation; whoſe Lordſhips are to adjourn as they pleaſe, and report their Proceedings, from time to time, to the Houſe.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet on Thurſday Morning next, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, and have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein, and the Judges are to aſſiſt.

E. of Mount Alexander takes the Oaths, &c.

This Day Hugh Earl of Mount Alexander ſat firſt in Parliament upon the Death of his Father Henry Earl of Mount Alexander, and delivered his Writ in the uſual Manner, and came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, proceeded to take into Conſideration the Report from the Lords' Committees, appointed to inquire into the preſent State of Popery in this Kingdom, in relation to the State of Popery within the Counties of Mayo and Galway, and the County of the Town of Galway, which was by Order read at the Table, and with ſome Amendments, agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Report on State of Popery.

THE Lords' Committees, appointed to inquire into the preſent State of Popery in this Kingdom, having, for their better Information therein, ordered the High-Sheriffs of the ſeveral Counties and the Chief Magiſtrates of every County of a City and County of a Town, within this Kingdom, to make Returns of the reputed Friaries and Nunneries in their reſpective Counties and Counties of Cities and Towns, and the Number of Friars and Nuns which were reputed to be in each of the ſaid Friaries and Nunneries reſpectively: And the ſaid Lords' Committees, having, at the ſame time, ordered the Lords the Archbiſhops and Biſhops to communicate the ſame to the ſeveral Pariſh Miniſters in their reſpective Dioceſes, thereby to be informed of the Number of Maſs-Houſes, Popiſh Chapels, and the Number of Prieſts officiating in each of the ſaid Maſs-Houſes and Chapels; and alſo the Number of reputed Friaries, Nunneries and Popiſh Schools, that were in their reſpective Pariſhes. Upon the Returns already made, their Lordſhips cannot omit obſerving, that the Inſolence of the Papiſts, throughout the Nation, is very great; in Defiance of the Laws, ſeveral pretended Popiſh Archbiſhops, Biſhops and their Officials exerciſe eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction: Great Numbers of Popiſh Prieſts, particularly Monks, Friars and Jeſuits, are every where diſperſed, to the great Danger of the Peace of his Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects; and many publick Maſs-Houſes, private Chapels, and Convents of Friars and Nuns, have been erected and ſupported. But the ſaid Lords' Committees, having received your Lordſhips' Inſtructions to make a particular Report of the State of Popery within the Counties of Mayo and Galway, and the County of the Town of Galway, have confined themſelves to the reſpective Returns from each of the ſaid Counties, and the ſaid County of the Town of Galway.

The Return made to the ſaid Lords' Committees by John Brown, Eſq; High-Sheriff of the Co. Mayo, ſets forth, that there are within that County, fifteen Friaries, which have their reſpective Abbots and Friars, appointed as Heads to each Fraternity or Society, who conſtantly reſide upon Farms, which they take from the Popiſh Inhabitants near their reſpective Abbeys and Friaries, and generally go by another Name than their own: The Return of the ſaid Abbeys and Friaries, and the ſeveral Orders to which they belong, is as follows, viz.

Roſſerick — — —	Order of St. Francis
Moyne — — —	Order of Minors of the Obſervance
Rathbran — — —	Friars Preachers
Burriſoole — — —	Predicants
Muriſk — — —	Auguſtinians
Strade — — — —	Dominicans
Ballyhaun — — —	Auguſtinian Hermits
Ballinſmale — — —	Carmelites
Mayo — — — —	Auguſtinians
Ballinrobe — — —
Ballintubber — — —
Congue Abbey — —
	☞ The Head of this laſt Abbey is called Lord Abbot.
Orlare — — — —	Predicants
Burriſcarra — — —	Auguſtinian Hermits.

That the Number of Abbots and Friars reſiding in the aforeſaid Abbeys and Friaries, are generally about 115, beſides Strolers and Vagabond-Friars, who are frequently in the Country: They have their Support by begging about, and plundering the poor People in the Country; and whatever they can get, they bring with them to the Houſe of their Abbot or Prior, to be diſpoſed of to the Uſe of their reſpective Fraternities: They likewiſe ſay Maſs, and procure themſelves to be Chaplains to Popiſh Families, and alſo get Money; and do a vaſt deal of Miſchief, by marrying Proteſtants to Papiſts, inſomuch that One-Third of the common People who are Proteſtants are married to Popiſh Wives, which is vaſtly prejudicial to the Proteſtant Intereſt of that Country, wherein there are at leaſt twelve Papiſts to one Proteſtant; and what is to be wondered at, the Papiſts themſelves confeſs, that there is neither Honeſty nor Morality among them.

The Return made by Stratford Eyre, Eſq; High-Sheriff of the Co. Galway, ſets forth, that in the ſaid County there are ten Friaries and a Nunnery; the Nunnery is in the Town of Loughrea, and the Friaries at the Places following, viz.

One at Loughrea
One at Meelick near Eyrecourt
One at Portumna
One at Kinnelehen near Loughrea
One at Athenry
One at Knockmoy near Athenry
One at Clare-Galway near Galway
One at Roſs near Headford
One at Dunmore
One at Kilconnell
And the other at Attycoffee near the Abbey of Clontooſkard, not far from Aughrim

Mr. Eyre, in his Return, informed their Lordſhips, that there are great Numbers of Regulars belonging to theſe Societies, and many more Regulars in the County at large, and that the Numbers daily increaſe.

They are generally ſupported as thoſe in the Co. Mayo, and many of them are Miſſionaries, and have a Fund from abroad for their Miſſion; but that he could not be particular as to the Number of the ſaid Regulars.

By the Return made from the Pariſh-Miniſters in the Dioceſe of Clonfert and Kilmacduagh to the Lord Biſhop of Clonfert (an Abſtract of which was returned by his Lordſhip to the ſaid Lords' Committees) it is ſet forth, that in his Lordſhip's Dioceſe of Clonfert, there are forty Pariſhes, and as many Maſs-Houſes; thirty-eight Prieſts who officiate in the ſaid Maſs-Houſes; eight or nine private Chapels; ſix Friaries; one Nunnery, and fifteen Popiſh Schools.

And his Lordſhip has been pleaſed to remark, that there are but eleven Churches in that Dioceſe, where Divine Service, according to the Uſage of the Church of Ireland, is performed.

It is alſo remarked, that at Killconnell, the Maſs-Houſe is a very good Building, where Viſitations and Chapters are ſaid to be held; and the Friary there is a very good Houſe, rebuilt about three Years ago; and that the Friary of Ballynakill is a large building, wherein there are ſeveral Eccleſiaſticks of the Franciſcan Order, and a ſplendid Chapel belonging to the Friary, and two Lay-Brothers, in whoſe Names the Abbey-Lands are held, and who beg about the Country for that Society; and all theſe Friars in general are ſaid to be Chaplains in Popiſh Families; and that there are but few Gentlemen of any Fortune among the Papiſts, who have not private Prieſts and private Maſſes: And this Opinion is grounded upon the great Numbers of itinerant Clergy, both ſecular and regular, which are in the Country, who are in perpetual Motion, and never ſtay long in a Place.

It is alſo remarked, that in his Lordſhip's Dioceſe of Kilmacduagh, there are thirteen Maſs-Houſes, fifteen Prieſts, four Popiſh Schools, and that there are but four Clergymen of the eſtabliſhed Church, who perform Divine Service in that Dioceſe.

The Return made by Walter Taylor, Eſq; Mayor of Galway, their Lordſhips have thought proper to report more particularly, viz.

IN obedience to your Lordſhips' Order, of the 6th of this inſt. November, to me directed, whereby I am ordered, to lay before your Lordſhips an Account of all the reputed Maſs-Houſes that are in the Town of Galway, and which of them have been built ſince the firſt Year of the Reign of King George I. and what Number of Prieſts officiate in each of the ſaid Maſs-Houſes; and alſo an Account of all private Maſs-Houſes; and alſo an Account of all private Popiſh Chapels; and all commonly reputed Nunneries and Friaries; and what Number of Friars and Nuns are reputed to be in each ſuch Nunnery and Friary reſpectively; and what Popiſh Schools are within the ſaid Town.

I called to the Sheriffs of the ſaid Town, for an Account of their Proceedings in the Execution of a Warrant, dated the 20th of October, 1731, to them directed, and ſigned by me, the Deputy Recorder and two more of his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace for the Town and County of the Town of Galway, whereby they were required to apprehend and commit all Popiſh Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Jeſuits, Friars and all other Popiſh eccleſiaſtical Perſons, which they ſhould find within the ſaid Town and County thereof; and likewiſe to ſuppreſs all Monaſteries, Friaries, Nunneries, and other Popiſh Fraternities and Societies.

Whereupon they returned, that they twice, ſince the Date of the ſaid Warrant, diligently ſearched in the ſaid Town and County for Popiſh Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Jeſuits, Friars, and other Popiſh eccleſiaſtical Perſons, but had found none ſuch: And that likewiſe, in as much as in them lay, they had ſuppreſſed all ſuch ſuſpected or reputed Monaſteries, Friaries, Nunneries and other Popiſh Fraternities or Societies, within the ſaid Town and County of ſaid Town, particularly a reputed Nunnery, called the Auguſtinian Nunnery in Middle-ſtreet; another in Lombard-ſtreet, called the Franciſcan; and another in Croſs-ſtreet, near the Fiſh-Shambles, called the Dominican; as alſo a reputed Friary in Back-ſtreet, called the Auguſtinian, in the ſaid Town; another in the Weſt-Suburbs of the ſaid Town, called the Dominican Friary; another in the Eaſt-Suburbs, called the Franciſcan; and a Chapel or Place of Worſhip in each of them; as alſo two large Rooms, with Altars, which ſeemed to be Places of Worſhip, in the Communion of the Church of Rome, in Middle-ſtreet in the ſaid Town. That, for further Information, I had the Members of the Common-Council of the ſaid Town aſſembled together, and examined ſeveral of the Mayors that preceded me, and many who had ſerved as Sheriffs; and they, not giving me any other Information but to the Purport aforeſaid, I iſſued my Warrant to the ſeveral High and Petty Conſtables to make further diligent Search and Inquiry, the better to enable me to make a Return as by your Lordſhips' Order I am commanded, who returned, that they ſearched the aforeſaid Nunnery, called the Auguſtinian Nunnery in Middle-ſtreet, but found no Perſon but Servants therein; but diſcovered in ſeven Rooms in the ſaid Houſe, ten Beds, which they apprehend to be the Beds ſaid reputed Nuns that kept the ſaid Houſe lay in, before their being diſperſed: And that they ſearched the reputed Nunnery aforeſaid in Lombard-ſtreet, called the Franciſcan Nunnery, and ſaw only ſome Servants there, but found therein twenty-ſix Beds in twelve Rooms, wherein they believe the reputed Nuns belonging to the ſaid Houſe, and and ſome young Gentlewomen (as they heard) lodged and boarded with them, before they diſperſed: That they alſo ſearched the ſaid reputed Nunnery in Croſs-ſtreet, called the Dominican, and ſaw ſome young Gentlewomen and Girls there, who alledged they lodged and boarded in the ſaid Houſe, and found therein twenty-ſeven Beds in eleven Chambers of the ſaid Houſe, in ſome of which they believed the ſaid young Women and Girls lay, and the ſaid reputed Nuns in the reſt, before they diſperſed. They alſo returned, that they ſearched the ſaid reputed Friary in Back-ſtreet, called the Auguſtinian Friary, wherein there was a Chapel with Forms, but the Altar and Pictures taken down; in which ſaid reputed Friary there are ſeven Chambers and nine Beds, wherein they apprehend the Friars uſed to lie, but could not find or diſcover any of the ſaid Friars; which ſaid Houſe they believed was converted to a Friary many Years ago, and before the Reign of King George I. and that they alſo ſearched the ſaid Friary in the Weſt-Suburbs, called the Dominican Friary, wherein is a large Chapel with a Gallery, ſome Forms, and an Altar-piece defaced, in which ſaid reputed Friary there are ten Chambers and eight Beds, wherein they believe the Friars belonging to the ſaid Friary uſually lay, but could find none of them. That it is a very old Friary, but ſome Repairs lately made in it. And that they likewiſe ſearched the ſaid Friary, called the Franciſcan Friary, in the Eaſt-Suburbs, wherein there is a large Chapel, with an Altar laid out and adorned with Pictures, in which ſaid reputed Friary there are fifteen Chambers, and nine Beds, wherein they ſuppoſed the Friars belonging to the ſaid Friary uſually lay, but could not find or diſcover any of them. It is an old Friary, but the Chapel enlarged and repaired about the Year 1723 or 1724. They alſo gave me an Account of a reputed Popiſh Chapel in Middle-ſtreet aforeſaid, in which Chapel there is an Altar, a Canopy and ſome Forms; and informed me, that one Gregory French and Robert Skerrett, two Popiſh Prieſts, uſually officiated therein; and another Popiſh Chapel in the ſaid Street, in a Ware-houſe belonging to Anthony Bodkin, Merchant, with ſome Forms, and that one Patrick Bermingham, Titular Warden, and ſome other Prieſts or Friars, whoſe Names I could not learn, officiate therein, and which ſaid Ware-houſe was converted into a Chapel about five or ſix Years ago: And that one Patrick Skerrett, a regiſtered Popiſh Prieſt, a very old Man, officiates and ſays Maſs (as they heard) in his Chambers in Skinners-ſtreet; and that one Patrick Hoobane, an old regiſtered Prieſt, officiates and ſays Maſs in the Pariſh of Rahoon, in the Weſt-Suburbs of Galway; and that one Gregory French (but whether he is a Prieſt or Friar cannot learn) is ſaid to officiate in the Houſe of the Widow Skerrett, lately deceaſed, in Lombard-ſtreet, near the Lower Barrack; and that one Bodkin and one Banks (of whoſe Chriſtian Names I have not been informed, or whether Prieſts or Friars I am not informed) officiate in ſome of the ſaid Chapels or private Houſes: And they giving no Account, but as aforeſaid, and finding it not practicable, without examining on Oath, ſome of the Popiſh Inhabitants, to get an Account of any other or what Maſs-Houſes in the ſaid Town, or what Number of Prieſts officiate in each of the ſaid Maſs-Houſes, or of the private Popiſh Chapels, or of the Number of Friars or Nuns in each Friary or Nunnery reſpectively, I cannot be particular therein.

I am alſo to acquaint your Lordſhips, that ſome time ago, on the Information of Mr. Garnett, Maſter of the Free-School, I gave him my Warrant againſt one Gregory French, whom he alledged to be a Popiſh School-Maſter, and to keep a Latin School: And having called upon Mr. Garnett, to know what he had done in the ſaid Warrant, he ſaid French had dropp'd his School; and being further examined by me, in relation to Popiſh Schools, he declared, he knew of no other Latin School, and that he could give no Account of any other, or of any Engliſh or Writing-Schools, but that ſome of his Scholars went out of School, daily, to learn to write; but could not tell from whom; but referred me to a licenſed School-Maſter, who returned to me the Names of Lally Bermingham, Thomas Adams, Nicholas Cox, William Caſeberry, Thomas Burke, George Foſter, Denis Creaghane and Bryan Hynes, who are Popiſh School-Maſters and Teachers of Reading, Writing and Arithmetic. I made all the Inquiry the Time would afford me, to enable me to lay before your Lordſhips a full and exact Account of the ſeveral Matters I am by your Lordſhips' Orders commanded, but find it impoſſible for me to give any other in the time limited, but what is herein before ſet forth: Poſts coming in very late, and returning early, being myſelf a Stranger, and not able to get further Information, but am of Opinion, though I cannot give an Account what Number of Friars and Nuns are reputed to be in the ſaid Friaries or Nunneries, or in any of them, that their Numbers are conſiderable, and that from the Numbers of Chambers and Beds in each of them, herein before ſet forth, and alſo by the common Reputation of the Proteſtant Inhabitants of this Town.

All which is humbly offered and ſubmitted to your Lordſhips, this 12th Day of November, 1734.

WALTER TAYLOR, Mayor.

The Lords' Committees have thought it neceſſary alſo to acquaint your Lordſhips, that the Peace and Safety of this Kingdom, and the Welfare of his Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects thereof, greatly depending on the Security of the City of Limerick, and Town of Galway, being conſiderable Garriſons and on the ſaid City and Town being in the Poſſeſſion of his Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects; by an Act made in the 2d Year of the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne,

Anne, it is enacted, that, " no Perſon or Perſons that are, or ſhall be, Papiſts, or profeſs the Popiſh Religion, ſhall or may, after the 24th Day of March, in the Year of our Lord 1703, take or purchaſe any Houſe or Tenement or inhabit within the ſaid City of Limerick or Suburbs thereof, or within the Town of Galway or Suburbs thereof; that every Perſon of the Popiſh Religion, there inhabiting within the ſaid City or Suburbs of Limerick, or within the ſaid Town or Suburbs of Galway, ſhould, before the ſaid 24th Day of March, before the Chief Magiſtrate of the ſaid reſpective City or Town, become bound to her Majeſty, her Heirs and Succeſſors, with two ſufficient Sureties, in a reaſonable penal Sum, to be aſcertained by the Chief Magiſtrate, Recorder and Sheriffs of the ſaid City and Town reſpectively, or any two of them, with Condition for his or her faithfully bearing themſelves towards her Majeſty, her Heirs and Succeſſors; or, in default of giving ſuch Security, ſuch Perſons ſhould depart out of the ſaid City, Suburbs and Town aforeſaid, on or before the 25th Day of March, in the Year of our Lord 1705."

And the ſaid Lords' Committees, having ordered the Mayor of Galway to make a Return to their Lordſhips of the Names of the Popiſh Inhabitants of the ſaid Town and Suburbs thereof, who gave the Security, as required by the ſaid Act; and alſo ordered a Return to be made of the Popiſh Inhabitants now inhabiting in the ſaid Town of Galway and Suburbs thereof, who have not entered into Security purſuant to the ſaid Act. By theſe Returns, it appears to the ſaid Lords' Committees, that the Popiſh Inhabitants, now living in the ſaid Town of Galway and Suburbs thereof, who gave Security, as required by the ſaid Act, are 176; and that the Heads of Popiſh Families now living in the ſaid Town of Galway, who have not entered into Security, as required by the ſaid Act, are 861.

Total Heads of Popiſh Families, Inhabitants of the Town and Suburbs of Galway, 1037.

Which is ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the foregoing Report ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Report. Report to be printed.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day;

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall, To-morrow Morning, be put into a Committee upon Heads of a Bill to prevent the illegal Exaction of exorbitant Toll or Cuſtom in Markets and Fairs.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall, To-morrow Morning, be put into a Committee upon Heads of a Bill more effectually to enable the Clergy, having Cure of Souls, to reſide upon their reſpective Benefices, and to build upon their reſpective Glebe-Lands.

Resolution for Address to Ld Lieutenant

Resolved, that an humble Address be presented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to return him the Thanks of this House for his wise and just Administration, and for his Zeal for his Majesty's Service, and the Welfare of this Kingdom; and all the Lords present are hereby appointed a Committee to prepare an Address, pursuant to the foregoing Resolution.

Their Lordships, or any five of them, to meet immediately in the Committee-Chamber near the House of Peers, adjourn as they please, and report.

His Grace the Lord Primate, from the Lords' Committees appointed to consider of the State of Popery in this Kingdom, made the following Report, viz.

My Lords,

General Report on State of Popery.

THE Lords' Committees appointed to inquire into the present State of Popery in this Kingdom, &c. having already laid before your Lordships a particular Report, relating to the Counties of Mayo and Galway, and the County of the Town of Galway, beg leave now to make a further and more general Report of the State of Popery, through the whole Kingdom.

At the Entrance of which, they think it proper to observe, that besides the Report already made and agreed to by your Lordships, they have from time to time, offered to your Lordships, their Thoughts upon particular Points, of which your Lordships were pleased so far to approve, as to make them the Foundation of several Heads of Bills, the fate of which is already determined.

Upon these Points, the Lords' Committees humbly conceive, that your Lordships are already fully informed of their Sense, and have declared your own; and therefore they think it neither necessary nor proper to enter further into them. The Chief Point therefore which the Lords' Committees apprehend to be now before them, and to which they think it their Duty to apply themselves, is to lay before your Lordships an Account of the Numbers and State of the Romish Ecclesiasticks and of Popish Schools, as they appear to them, upon the several Returns made, pursuant to the Orders issued by the Lords' Committees for that Purpose; in doing whereof, if they shall, upon any Occasion, repeat or refer to any thing that has been taken Notice of in the former Report, it is because they think it their Duty to endeavour to lay this important Matter before your Lordships in one View, the better to enable your Lordships to judge of the Danger that may arise to the Protestant Religion, to his Majesty's Government, or to the publick Peace, from the Number and Influence of these their inveterate Enemies among us.

As the Returns, made by the Archbishops and Bishops, are much more full and particular than those which the Lords' Committees have received from the Magistrates of the Kingdom, except those which have been already reported, and that from the Lord Mayor of Dublin; the Lords' Committees have chosen to form their Report chiefly from them, and to lay their Returns before your Lordships in the annexed Abstract.

The Lords' Committees beg Leave here to observe to your Lordships, that though there are no Returns made of the Dioceses of Ardfert and Aghadoe and though the Returns of some of the Bishops are plainly defective, as giving no Account at all of several Parishes in their respective Dioceses; yet taking the Numbers, as they stand upon their Returns, made and now reported, it appears to the Lords' Committees, that the Number of Mass-Houses in this Kingdom (besides Huts, Sheds and moveable Altars, of which above One Hundred are returned) is Eight Hundred and Ninety-two; the Number of private Chapels is Fifty-four; the Number of Priests officiating in them and in private Houses, is One Thousand Four Hundred and Forty-five, the Number of Friaries is Fifty-one; Friars, Two Hundred and Fifty-four; Nunneries, Nine; and the Number of Popish Schools, is Five Hundred and Forty-nine.

And ſince, in many of the Returns, Notice is taken of Numbers of itinerant Prieſts and Friars, beſides thoſe whoſe Reſidence is fixed, and conſequently better known, ſince in ſome of them Popiſh Schools are ſaid to be very numerous, though the Number of them be not ſpecified; when all theſe things are taken into the Account, together with the Defects already obſerved, the Lords' Committees are humbly of Opinion, that the Diſproportion between Maſs-Houſes and Churches, Romiſh Eccleſiaſticks and Proteſtant Miniſters, and Popiſh and Proteſtant Schools, is ſo great as to give your Lordſhips the moſt juſt and reaſonable Apprehenſions of the Continuance and Increaſe of the Popiſh Intereſt in Ireland.

As a further Argument whereof, the Lords' Committees muſt obſerve to your Lordſhips, that of the Maſs-Houſes returned to them, above Two Hundred and Twenty-nine are found to have been erected ſince the Reign of King George I. of bleſſed Memory, and that ſome of them appear to be large and pompous Buildings, particularly one in Tipperary, returned by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Caſhel; one in Mullingar, returned by the late Biſhop of Meath; and one in the Pariſh of St. Mary Shandon, in the City of Cork, which by the Examination of the Rev. Mr. Dean Ward, Miniſter of the ſaid Pariſh, the Lords' Committees find to be a large and expenſive Building, raiſed in one of the moſt conſpicuous Places of that great City. Tho' the Returns, now reported, may enable your Lordſhips to make ſome Judgment of the Number of Maſs-Houſes, Prieſts and Popiſh Schools, yet the Lords' Committees are of Opinion, that they do not give the ſame Light into the Number or State of the Regulars.

In the Courſe of their Inquiries, the Lords' Committees have had frequent Occaſion to obſerve, that the Pariſh-Prieſts, even unregiſtered ones, appear every where with little Reſerve, and that the Papiſts frequent their Maſs-Houſes as openly as the Proteſtants do their Churches. It was therefore no difficult Matter for the Clergy, in their reſpective Pariſhes, to return an Account of their Number.

But the Regulars may live more retired, and it is more their Intereſt to conceal themſelves, at leaſt in ſome Parts of this Kingdom, becauſe though ſubject to the ſame Penalties only, that unregiſtered Seculars are, they are uſually and juſtly accounted the moſt dangerous and inveterate Enemies to our preſent happy Settlement in Church and State.

The Lords' Committees therefore do not at all wonder, that the Returns ſhould here be defective; but that they are defective, their Lordſhips are humbly of Opinion does moſt plainly appear, from the Papers ſent to his Grace the Lord Primate, the Lord in the Chair of the Committee, by Stratford Eyre, Eſq; late High-Sheriff of the Co. Galway.

Your Lordſhips will be pleaſed here to obſerve, that after the late High-Sheriffs of the Counties of Mayo and Galway, and the preſent Mayor of the Town of Galway, had made the Returns which are ſo particularly ſet forth in the former Report, the Lords' Committees thought it proper to order Letters to be written to each of them, to expreſs their Lordſhips' Satisfaction, in what they had done, and to order them to proceed to make ſuch further Inquiries as they thought might be of Uſe.

And it appears to the Lords' Committees, that in Obedience to theſe Orders, Stratford Eyre, Eſq; then High-Sheriff of the Co. Galway, proceeded to ſearch the reputed Friaries, Nunneries and Seminaries in that County, and having in them found ſeveral Papers which he judged to be of Importance, he ſent, at different times, three Parcels to the Lord Primate, and by Letter informed his Grace of the Places where he had found them.

The 1ſt Parcel contained Papers found in the Friaries of Boulay near Portumna; of Kilconnell near Aughrim; and of Kinalehen or Kinalfehin near Loughrea: The Second contained Papers found in the Nunnery and Friary of Loughrea, in the Convent near Athenry, and in thoſe of Meelick, Clare-Galway and of Dunmore: And the Laſt contained Papers found in the Houſe of Thady Glynne, a Romiſh Prieſt, whom the ſaid Stratford Eyre, Eſq; reports to live in the Neighbourhood of Dunmore, to be the reputed Prieſt of that Pariſh, and to keep a Seminary for the Education of Youth.

Theſe Papers the Lords' Committees found to give great Light into the State and Numbers of the Popiſh Regulars, and ſhew them to be much more formidable, than by any other Information, before given, they had juſt Reaſon to apprehend.

They therefore think it their Duty to give your Lordſhips an Account of what they have obſerved upon theſe Heads and from theſe Papers; and that your Lordſhips may better judge what Ground there is for their Obſervations, they chooſe to lay the Papers, on which they are principally grounded, before your Lordſhips, with this Report.

The Papers, N° I, II, III, IV, V, VI, are Copies of the Acts of Chapters of Friars Minors, held at Dublin at different Times, from the Year 1717 to the Year 1729, both incluſive, for the Election of Guardians and other Officers: By theſe it appears, that in the Year 1717, there were in this Kingdom Guardians choſen for ſixty-one Convents of this ſingle Order; that in the Year 1724, the Number increaſed to ſixty-two; in the Year 1727, to ſixty-five; and continued the ſame in the Year 1729. Upon theſe Papers, the Lords' Committees beg leave to obſerve: Firſt, that many of theſe Convents have lain concealed from the Clergy, no Notice being taken of them in the Returns made by the Archbiſhops and Biſhops: Secondly, that fourteen of theſe Convents are found to be in the Province of Ulſter, the Part of Ireland which is beſt planted with Proteſtants, and where Popery is thought to be in the moſt languiſhing Condition: And, Thirdly, that the Number of Convents

Convents of this one Order exceed the whole Number of Convents of every Order, taken Notice of in all the Returns by fourteen: And yet, of the fifteen Convents, returned in the Co. Mayo by John Brown, Eſq; the late High-Sheriff, and of the three, returned in the Town of Galway by Walter Taylor, Eſq; the preſent Mayor (who are the only Perſons that have remarked what Order the Convents are of) there is but one mentioned of this Order.

As theſe Papers ſhew the Number of Convents of this Order to be very great, ſo the Paper N° VII, proves the Number of Friars belonging to them to be very conſiderable, 'tis the Copy of a Reference from Cardinal Imperiali, Protector of the Kingdom of Ireland, (as he is there ſtyled) to the Superior of the Order of Minors, of a Complaint made by many of the Iriſh Biſhops, that, " ſeveral of " the Regulars in this Kingdom admit young " Men to be Novices, without obliging them " to wear religious Habits or confining them " to any regular Place or Diſcipline; that, " after the Year of their Noviciate, they are " admitted into the Profeſſion, and promoted " to Holy Orders, and wander about the " Country, without either Learning or Piety: " That every Guardian or Superior keeps " about himſelf two or three ſuch Novices; " whence it happens that this Miſſion abounds " with diſſolute and ignorant Subjects, which " is a great Grievance to the laborious Ca- " tholicks, and their poor Pariſhioners; theſe " running in Troops to the Chapels to demand " Charity, not without giving Scandal to the " Hereticks themſelves." This Order is dated Auguſt 27, 1724, and it is probable that the Number of Friars of that Order is not ſince leſſened, becauſe that of their Guardians and Convents is increaſed.

But this is not the only Order which the Lords' Committees find to be very numerous in this Kingdom.

It appears, by the Return of Walter Taylor, Eſq; which has been already reported to your Lordſhips, that there is in the Town of Galway a Convent of Auguſtinians; and by the Papers N° VIII, IX, found in the Convent near Dunmore, it alſo appears, that that Convent is of the ſame Order, and that the ſame Perſon, Patrick Brehon or Brehony (whom the Lords' Committees find, by theſe Papers, to go alſo under the Name of Johnſon) has been, at different times, Guardian of both.

To this Brehon or Johnſon, Father Edmund Byrne, the Provincial of this Order, writes two Letters, ſignifying to him the Complaints from abroad of the Numbers they ſend out, and ordering him, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, not to admit any more Novices.

In one of theſe, N° X, dated Dublin, September 7, 1722, Byrne ſays, " I had an Account and " Orders, this Day, from beyond Seas, that " we muſt receive no more Novices in this " Kingdom, till further Orders, by reaſon we " have too many young Men already abroad, " which renders them odious, wherever they " are, and us very ridiculous, in receiving ſo " many of them here: Our Friends and Maſ- " ters abroad think us to be altogether mad, " for ſending ſo many of them."

In the other, N° XI, dated October 18, 1722, he expreſſes himſelf thus, " If you have ſent " any of the young Men to the Province of " Andaluſia, they will not be taken, by reaſon " of the great Number of our's that is there " already; all Spain complains of us, for re- " ceiving ſo many in this Kingdom, and ſo " does all other Countries."

The Lords' Committees beg Leave here to obſerve, that theſe great Numbers ſent out are a ſtrong Evidence of great Numbers in the Kingdom, it being the conſtant Courſe, that the Novices go abroad to Study; and when they have finiſhed their Studies, return home. There are ſeveral Papers now in the Poſſeſſion of the Lords' Committees that prove this; but they conceive it not neceſſary, in ſo plain a Caſe, to trouble your Lordſhips with Particulars. Your Lordſhips will now be pleaſed to reflect how vaſt the Number of Popiſh Regulars, in and belonging to this Kingdom, would probably appear, if by the Zeal and Diligence of other Magiſtrates, or in any other way, the Lords' Committees had been enabled to make the ſame Diſcoveries of the other Orders that they have done of theſe two.

As theſe Papers have enabled the Lords' Committees to go thus far, in making their Obſervations on the Number of Popiſh Regulars now in this Kingdom, ſo do they alſo give great Light into many Particulars of their State and Condition, ſuch as, that ſome of them, thoſe particularly from whom theſe Papers were taken, live together in common; that they have lately built, or are building, new Houſes in ſome Places, particularly at Clare-Galway (See N° 12) and at Meelick (N° 13) and at this laſt Place intended a pompous Houſe, (N° 14) that they have Leaſes in Truſt for them of Land, even on the Eſtates of Proteſtants, for the moſt Part, Converts from the Romiſh Religion (ſee N° 15, 16, 17, 18 and particularly that Thady Glynne, already mentioned, who is a Prieſt, as appears by his Letters of Orders (N° 19) and, by the Date of them, cannot poſſibly be a regiſtered one, has a Leaſe ſet to him of Land near Dunmore, by a Proteſtant, (N° 20) ſee alſo (N° 21) that theſe Friars go about the Country for Alms, and have warm Diſputes, among themſelves, about the Privilege of begging in certain Pariſhes, to which Purpoſe, there are Abundance of Papers with which the Lords' Committees think it needleſs to trouble your Lordſhips. That they demand and receive Charity, even from Proteſtants (ſee N° 22) that they are well known in the Country, and have a free and friendly Intercourſe even with Proteſtant Gentlemen, ſome of them Magiſtrates (Vide N° 23, 24) and, in one Inſtance, have engaged a Gentleman, whom Mr. Eyre, obſerves to be a practiſing Lawyer at the Bar, to to manage their Concerns (Vide N° 25) in another, have the ſuperſtitious Charity of their Votaries conveyed to them by the eſtabliſhed Poſt-Maſter (Vide N° 26.)

All theſe Particulars, the Lords' Committees are of Opinion will appear very plain, from the Papers annexed to this Report; and there are ſeveral other Papers, from which their Lordſhips humbly apprehend that more Particulars of ſome Importance may fairly be collected: But the chief Aim of the Lords' Committees being to lay before your Lordſhips a fair Account of the Number of Popiſh Regulars, as it appears from theſe Papers, they think it not neceſſary to mention every thing, even of ſome Conſequence, that occurs in or may be proved from them.

But there is one thing which the Lords' Committees think they ought not to paſs over in Silence, which is, that through the whole Courſe of theſe Papers, as well as from other Evidence, it very plainly appears, that there are in this Kingdom Popiſh Archbiſhops and Biſhops and Vicars General, who regularly exerciſe eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction, and particularly that from two Papers found in the Convent of Meelick (Vide N° 27, 28.) It is moſt evident, that theſe Popiſh Vicars-General are applied to for, and actually do grant, Diſpenſations to Converts and their Children, to marry Papiſts, without Banns, or within the Degrees of Conſanguinity, prohibited by the Church of Rome. UPON which the Lords' Committees are come to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Number of Popiſh Prieſts, Monks and Friars and of publick Maſs-Houſes and Convents, has of late Years greatly encreaſed in this Kingdom, to the manifeſt Danger of the Proteſtant Religion, of his Majeſty's Government, and of the Peace and Welfare of this Kingdom.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that ſeveral pretended Archbiſhops, Biſhops and other Officials, continue to exerciſe eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction within this Realm, in Contempt and Defiance of the Laws.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that to remedy thoſe great and growing Evils, and prevent the dangerous Conſequences that may follow from them, to our preſent happy Settlement in Church and State, it is abſolutely neceſſary, that the Magiſtrates of this Kingdom, particularly thoſe of the City of Dublin, do immediately enter upon a more ſteady and vigorous Execution of the Laws againſt Popery, eſpecially thoſe againſt all Regulars and Perſons exerciſing eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction, contrary to the Laws of this Kingdom.

Reſolved, that Stratford Eyre, Eſq; late High-Sheriff of the Co. Galway, (in ſearching the reputed Friaries, Nunneries, Seminaries and other ſuſpected Places in that County, and tranſmitting the Papers found in them to his Grace the Lord Primate) hath behaved himſelf with becoming Reſpect and Duty to the Orders of the Lords' Committees, and with commendable Zeal for the Service of his Majeſty, and the Proteſtant Intereſt of this Kingdom.

Reſolved, that one Bryan O'Gara, the reputed Popiſh Archbiſhop of Tuam, hath, by a pretended Letter, dated the 6th of June, 1726, to the Right Hon. the Lord Athenry, inſolently and ſcandalouſly miſrepreſented his Lordſhip.

The ſaid Report and Reſolutions, being afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, were ſeverally agreed to by the Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Report, and the three firſt Reſolutions, and lay the ſame before his Grace. — L^d Lieuteant to be attended with Report and Reſolutions.

ORDERED, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Body of Bryan O'Gara, the reputed Popiſh Archbiſhop of Tuam, who by a pretended Letter, dated the 6th of June, 1726, to the Right Hon. the Lord Athenry, inſolently and ſcandalouſly miſrepreſented his Lordſhip; and keep him in ſafe Cuſtody, until further Order of this Houſe; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant in that behalf. — Orders for taking Bryan O'Gara, and

To the Serjeant at Arms, attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

ORDERED, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Body of Thady Glynne, in whoſe Houſe the ſaid pretended Letter was found, and keep him in ſafe Cuſtody, until further Order of this Houſe; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant in that behalf. — Thady Glynne, into Cuſtody.

To the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that if any Perſon or Perſons ſhall proſecute, aſſault or moleſt Stratford Eyre, Eſq; late High-Sheriff of the Co. Galway, for any thing by him done, in ſearching for, and ſecuring, the Papers by him tranſmitted to the Lords' Committees, in Obedience to their Orders, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſhall be deemed guilty of a Breach of the Privilege of this Houſe. — Reſolution of Houſe in Favour of Mr. Eyre.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

Hodie ſecunda vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act to explain and amend an Act, intitled, An Act for the better regulating the Work-Houſe of the City of Dublin, and to regulate and provide for the Poor thereof; and to prevent Miſchiefs which may happen by keeping Gunpowder within the ſaid City; and alſo for explaining and amending one other Act, intitled, An — Work-houſe Bill.

An Act for the better enabling the Governors of the Work-House of the City of Dublin to provide for and employ the Poor therein; and for the more effectual Punishment of Vagabonds, and also for the better securing of, and providing for, Lunaticks and Foundling Children.

Ordered, that the Consideration of the said Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole House To-morrow Morning; whose Lordships are to compare the said Bill with the original Transmiss, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and see that it exactly agrees therewith.

Temporary Statutes Bill,

Hodie secunda vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act for continuing several temporary Statutes made in this Kingdom, and now near expiring, and for the Amendment of the Statutes therein mentioned.

committed.

Ordered, that the Consideration of the said Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole House To-morrow Morning; whose Lordships are to compare the same with the original Transmiss, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and see that it exactly agrees therewith.

The Lord Visc. Duncannon reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Address to be presented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, pursuant to the Resolution of this House, that they had prepared an Address accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the same was again read, and agreed to by the House, as follows, viz.

To his Grace LIONEL Duke of DORSET, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

Address to L^d Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, humbly beg Leave, on the approaching End of this Session, to express to your Grace our grateful Sense of the Blessings we have enjoyed under your just and wise Administration, and our Hope of their being yet further extended, by the good Bills, which, by your Grace's Influence, are now ready to be passed into Laws.

By the Reduction of Interest, at the same time that a Provision hath been made for a large Part of the National Debt, and by the Precautions taken for the better securing the publick Revenue, and thereby preventing the Decrease of it, we have the agreeable Prospect of sharing the Advantages which his Majesty's generous and successful Labours for the Peace of Europe, cannot fail of diffusing through every Part of his Dominions.

Your Grace's unknown Vigilance, the tender Regard you shewed for the Interest of this Kingdom, before your Arrival in it, and the Experience of those great and amiable Qualities which have gained you the Hearts of a whole People since you appeared among us, leave us no Room to doubt, but your Grace will favourably represent to his Majesty our Zeal and Fidelity to his most Sacred Person and Government: And, as we have chearfully concurred in every Provision for the Benefit and Quiet of our Country, shall think ourselves obliged, on the same Principles, by a due Execution of the Laws, to preserve the Continuance of his Majesty's Favour, and the Protection of a Chief Governor, for whose Wisdom, Honour and Integrity, we profess the highest Veneration.

Ordered, that the said Address shall be presented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole House.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will please to be attended by this House with the said Address.

Kilworth Turnpike-Bill

Hodie secunda vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act for repairing the Road leading from the City of Cork to the Brook which bounds the Counties of Cork and Tipperary, near the foot of Kilworth Mountain.

Ordered, that the Consideration of the said Bill shall be committed to a select Committee, and that all the Lords present be the said Committee; who are to compare the same with the original Transmiss, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and see that it exactly agrees therewith.

Their Lordships, or any three of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the House of Peers, adjourn as they please, and report.

Maryborough Turnpike-Bill

Hodie secunda vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act for repairing the Road leading from the Town of Naas in the Co. Kildare, to the Town of Maryborough in the Queen's County.

Ordered, that the Consideration of the said Bill shall be committed to a select Committee, and that all the Lords present be the said Committee, who are to compare the same with the original Transmiss, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and see that it exactly agrees therewith.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that, in obedience to their Order of Yeſterday, he had waited upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he would be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs; and his Grace was pleaſed to appoint this Day, at Two o'clock, at his Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin.

His Lordſhip alſo acquainted the Houſe, that he had laid before his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, the Reſolutions of this Houſe in favour of the Officers and Servants attending this Houſe; and his Grace was pleaſed to give this Anſwer, viz.

"I WILL lay theſe Reſolutions of the "Houſe of Lords before his Majeſty."

And alſo his Lordſhip acquainted the Houſe, that he had laid before his Grace the Lord Lieutenant the Report and Reſolutions of this Houſe, in relation to the preſent State of Popery in this Kingdom.

Committee on Work-houſe Bill,

Upon reading the Orders for the Day, the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon a Bill, intitled, An Act to explain and amend an Act, intitled, An Act for the better regulating the Work-houſe of the City of Dublin, and to regulate and provide for the Poor thereof; and to prevent Miſchiefs which may happen by keeping Gun-powder within the ſaid City; and alſo for explaining and amending one other Act, intitled, An Act for the better enabling the Governors of the Work-houſe of the City of Dublin to provide for and employ the Poor therein, and for the more effectual Puniſhment of Vagabonds, and alſo for the better ſecuring of, and providing for Lunaticks and Foundling Children; and, after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And his Grace the Lord Primate reported from the ſaid Committee, that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment, and think it fit to paſs; and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be read a third time To-morrow Morning.

Committee on Temporary Statutes Bill

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act for continuing ſeveral temporary Statutes made in this Kingdom, and now near expiring, and for the Amendment of the Statutes therein mentioned; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Viſc. Charlemont reported from the ſaid Committee, that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, and agreed thereto, without any Amendment, and think it fit to paſs, and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be read a third time To-morrow Morning.

Reſolution againſt Perſons who refuſe to pay Fees to Officers of Houſe.

The Houſe being informed, that ſeveral Perſons who have applied to this Houſe by Petition and otherwiſe, have neglected or refuſed to pay the Fees due to the ſeveral Officers and Servants attending this Houſe; It is reſolved by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nem. con. that if any Perſon or Perſons, who have refuſed to pay, or at any time hereafter ſhall refuſe to pay, the Fees reſpectively due to the ſeveral Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, ſuch Perſon or Perſons ſo refuſing, or neglecting, ſhall, upon Application made to this Houſe, be taken into Cuſtody, until they ſhall ſeverally pay and diſcharge the ſame.

His Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Armagh has obſerved, that two of the private Popiſh Chapels returned by his Grace, which lie at Carlingford, are not uſed; and one, ſituated at Dunleer, but for a Burying-Place: And that, beſides the officiating Prieſts returned by his Grace, there is an Aſſiſtant to the Prieſt of Drumiſkin, who is a Friar. The Rev. Mr. James Hacket, who makes the Return from Killeny, ſays, that being at the Houſe of a Roman Catholick Gentleman, in order to get the beſt Information he could of the ſeveral Particulars which he was ordered to inquire into, he met one Lawſon, who had formerly been a Clergyman of the eſtabliſhed Church; but was, on Account of his Extravagance and Vice, forced to take Refuge in the Church of Rome; and now goes about as a Miſſionary, perverting as many as he can. That this Lawſon expreſſed great Hopes of ſeeing Popery flouriſh again in this Kingdom; and ſaid, That he was acquainted abroad with about three hundred Engliſh and Iriſh Jeſuits; and that no Endeavours would be wanting to bring Perſons back to, what he called, the true Religion.

The Lord Biſhop of Meath has obſerved, That the Maſs-Houſe of Mullingar, built in the Year 1730, is remarkably large; has an Aiſle, three Galleries and a ſpacious Altar-piece, painted and ſet off with Images, Flower-pots and gilded Candleſticks, and has a ſettled Prieſt, who has got Tythes. His Lordſhip has likewiſe remarked, that the Titular Biſhop of Meath exerciſes Juriſdiction, and inſiſts upon his Right of Nomination, notwithſtanding the Oppoſition given him by the Magiſtrates. His Lordſhip has alſo obſerved, that beſides the officiating Prieſts and reſident Friars, he has returned, there are Numbers of both kinds who ſtroll about the Country, and that there are ſeveral private Popiſh Tutors, whoſe Numbers cannot be exactly returned.

The Lord Biſhop of Clogher has obſerved, That there are in his Dioceſe, Forty-four Altars; and Numbers of itinerant Friars, that are Aſſiſtants. That the Number of Friars reſident in one of the Friaries, his Lordſhip has returned, being lately built, is not known; and that the Number of Nuns, in the Nunnery returned by his Lordſhip, is not known: And ſays, There is an old Friar in his Dioceſe, one Owen O'Gallagher, who is thought to inſtruct a great many Students. His Lordſhip has obſerved, that in his Dioceſe, there are Thirty-three Proteſtant Incumbents.

The Lord Biſhop of Raphoe has returned two Sheds where Maſſes are ſaid, and Numbers of itinerant Friars, who preach and aſſiſt the Prieſts; and that one James Gallagher, a reputed Friar, has lately endeavoured to pervert ſome of the Proteſtant Inhabitants of Killygarvan, but on the Application of the Miniſter of that Pariſh to the Magiſtrates to have him taken, he has diſappeared.

The Lord Biſhop of Derry obſerves, That there are Numbers of vagrant Friars, who ſtroll about his Dioceſe, and preach in the Fields, and that there are ſome moveable Sheds where Maſſes are ſaid.

The Lord Biſhop of Dromore obſerves, That there are two old Forts in his Dioceſe, where Maſſes are conſtantly ſaid.

The Lord Biſhop of Down obſerves, That ſome of theſe Prieſts ſay Maſſes in private Houſes, and that one Dr. Armſtrong is reputed Biſhop of Down, and holds Viſitations, at which great Numbers appear.

The Lord Biſhop of Kilmore and Ardagh obſerves, That there are in his Dioceſe three Maſs-Houſes building, and one intended to be built at Roſenver, towards which they offered, at Maſs, to contribute five Pounds, and that there is one much inlarging. That there are Thirty-eight Huts, uſed as Maſs-Houſes, and many moveable Altars; and in ſome Pariſhes, Maſſes ſaid in the Fields. And that in Longford, private Maſſes are ſaid, every Sunday, by itinerant Friars, who are ſubſiſted by that Means, and by clandeſtine Marriages, by which laſt Article, his Lordſhip obſerves, that Popery inſenſibly gains Ground: And further, that there are Multitudes of Monks and Friars who ſwarm from the Friary of Multifernam into that Part of the Dioceſe of Ardagh that borders on the Co. Weſtmeath; and that the Popiſh Chapel his Lordſhip has returned, which is in the Pariſh of Street, is only uſed on ſolemn Occaſions, ſuch as Confirmations, Jubilees, granting Indulgences, &c. His Lordſhip has alſo obſerved, that the Proteſtant Clergy of theſe two Dioceſes, including Non-Reſidents and Curates, are Fifty-nine.

Several itinerant Prieſts and Regulars, beſides thoſe already mentioned.

The Lord Biſhop of Ferns and Leighlin obſerves, That, beſides the Maſs-Houſes returned by his Lordſhip, there are in his Dioceſe of Ferns, eleven moveable Altars in the Fields. That the two Friaries are ſituated in two very conſiderable Towns, viz. Wexford and Roſs: That the Friary of Roſs has been built within ſix Years, and within two Years a large Chapel has been built to it. His Lordſhip alſo obſerves, that in the Return made to his Lordſhip, it is ſaid, that one Eſmund, and one Roach, two Prieſts lately deceaſed, in their Life-time remitted £1200 to the Colleges abroad, and made no Proviſion for a great Number of poor Relations at home, a Practice frequent among thoſe of any Subſtance. And further obſerves, that there are Numbers of itinerant Prieſts in this Dioceſe. His Lordſhip has returned in this Dioceſe Twenty-ſeven Proteſtant Clergy.

His Lordſhip obſerves, that in the Dioceſe of Leighlin, Maſſes are ſaid in ſeveral private Houſes. That Numbers of itinerant Seculars and Regulars officiate in this Dioceſe, and that ſeveral titular Archbiſhops, Biſhops and other Popiſh Clergy aſſembled daily, laſt Summer, for above a Month together, at or near the Church of Killtennill, under Pretence of drinking a Spa-Water, where they convened ſeveral Perſons before them, and exerciſed eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction. His Lordſhip has returned the Proteſtant Clergy of this Dioceſe to be Twenty-ſix.

The Lord Biſhop of Oſſory obſerves, That there are Numbers of vagrant Regulars, and from the Return made to his Lordſhip by the Incumbent of Roſbercon, obſerves, that there are Numbers of Perſons married there, without the proper Certificates; and that one White, a Popiſh Prieſt that lurks thereabouts, gets his Living by clandeſtine Marriages.

It is obſerved by the Incumbent of the Pariſh of Kill, that one of the Prieſts in his Pariſh is reputed to be a Jeſuit, and that three of them go about the Country marrying Proteſtants to Papiſts; and Popiſh Biſhops held Confirmations publickly laſt July. Alſo, that the Proteſtants in that Pariſh are Eighty; the Papiſts, eight Hundred, according to a Computation he made two Years ago, by viſiting every Family. It likewiſe is obſerved, that there are Numbers of vagrant Friars in this Dioceſe.

His Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Caſhel obſerves, That there are three Maſs-Houſes building, one of them at Tipperary, (very remarkable being 92 Feet by 72, in the Figure of a Croſs:) that there are ſome Itinerants who aſſiſt at Feſtivals and extraordinary Occaſions: and his Grace has obſerved, that the Proteſtant Clergy in the Dioceſe of Caſhel, including Dignitaries, are Thirty-one; and the Churches in repair, Twenty-ſeven.

It is remarked, that there is a Maſs-Houſe now building at Kinſale, and that of the Pariſh of Chriſt-Church hath been vaſtly inlarged of late; and that one of the Maſs-Houſes, in the Union of Killbonane (lately built) is large, has a ſpacious Yard to it, well incloſed, and planted with Trees; and that, on particular Occaſions, twenty Prieſts have appeared there at one time: Alſo, that in this Dioceſe there are Numbers of Itinerants. It is alſo obſerved, that in the Union of Killaconenagh, there are ſix hundred Families, but twelve of which are Proteſtants. There are alſo eleven Sheds or Huts where Maſſes are ſaid.

It is obſerved, that eight of theſe are Latin Schools, in two of which, it is ſaid, Philoſophy is taught.

The Lord Biſhop of Killaloe obſerves, That Philoſophy is taught in one of theſe Schools; and Latin in two of them; and that there is an old Abbey in the Union of Nenagh, where they bury, notwithſtanding the Penalty of the Statute; and his Lordſhip adds, that there are ſeveral Itinerants in this Dioceſe.

It is remarked, that there are Numbers of Vagrants in this Dioceſe, who go about marrying the People, and that there is a new Maſs-Houſe building in the Union of Allace.

The Lord Biſhop of Cloyne ſays, That Numbers of vagrant Friars ſtroll into his Dioceſe, and do much Miſchief there, particularly by marrying Proteſtants to Papiſts, and haunting the ſick Beds of the poor Proteſtants, and endeavouring to pervert them. His Lordſhip obſerves, the Proteſtant Clergy are Forty-ſeven; Churches in Repair, Forty-four; Proteſtant Engliſh Schools, Fifty-three; Popiſh Children educated therein Five Hundred and Thirty: That the Proteſtants allowing ſix to a Family, are Fourteen Thouſand Two Hundred; and that the Papiſts, allowing the ſame Number to a Family, are Eighty Thouſand Five Hundred.

His Grace the Archbiſhop of Tuam thinks it probable, that Grammar is taught in ſome of theſe Schools; and obſerves, that there is a Maſs-Houſe building in the Pariſh of Killmanagheen; and that Twelve of the old Maſs-Houſes, returned in his Dioceſe of Kilfenora, have been repaired ſince the firſt of King George I.

His Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Tuam obſerves, that ſome of theſe Maſs-Houſes have been built ſince the 1ſt of King George I. and ſome later, although the particular Number of ſuch is not known to his Grace. That there are ſeveral private Chapels, though his Grace cannot tell the exact Number. Maſſes are often ſaid in private Houſes. There are ſome Coadjutors, beſides the Number of Prieſts returned: Itinerant Friars in ſuch Numbers, that even the Papiſts complain of them; and they frequently marry Proteſtants to Papiſts. There are young Men under the Canonical Age often ordained here, and then go into foreign Countries, to proſecute their Studies, and, after a few Years, come back as Miſſionaries whereby the Number of Prieſts is greatly increaſed in this Country: Beſides the Friars returned by his Grace, there are many that he could not get an exact Account of, though they are reſident in ſome of theſe Friaries his Grace has returned. The Nuns in the Nunneries are ſuppoſed to be a conſiderable Number, though it is not known exactly what the Number is. Several of the Schools returned, teach Philoſophy and Divinity, and many Papiſts keep private Tutors in their Houſes. One Bryan O'Gara is reputed to be Popiſh Archbiſhop of Tuam, and accordingly exerciſes eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction.

The Lord Biſhop of Elphin returns ſome Huts, where Maſſes are ſaid: Numbers of itinerant Friars, who aſſemble at certain Times at Bride's-Well, and on St. Dominick's Day, at Cloonſhanville, where formerly there was a Friary.

The Lord Biſhop of Killala and Achonry remarks, That the Popiſh Schools are ſo numerous, that a Proteſtant School-Maſter cannot get Bread; and that there are Numbers of vagrant Friars complained of, who go about propheſying to the poor People for Handsful of Flax or Pecks of Barley; and others who profeſs a kind of Pilgrimage. His Lordſhip obſerves, the reſident Clergy of the eſtabliſhed Church are nine.

His Lordſhip obſerves, that Philoſophy is taught in one of theſe Schools; Maſs ſaid in moſt private Houſes; the Country ſwarms with a new ſet of Prieſts, ſo that the Country groans under their Burden. Reſident Clergy of the eſtabliſhed Church, ſeven.

The Lord Biſhop of Clonfert obſerves, That there are in this Dioceſe, eleven Churches, wherein Divine Service is performed.

The Clergy of the eſtabliſhed Church, who perform Divine Service in this, are four.

LETTER from BYRN to BREHON.

" DEAR SIR,

" I HAD an Account and Orders, this Day, from " beyond Seas, and that we muſt receive no more " Novices in this Kingdom, until further Orders; " by reaſon we have too many young Men already " abroad, which renders them odious wherever they " are, and us very ridiculous, in receiving ſo many " of them here: Our Friends and Maſters abroad " think us to be altogether mad, for ſending ſo many " to them. I ſhall therefore deſire and command " you, in virtute Spiritus Sancti, et in meritum ſalutaris " Obedientiæ, necnon ſub pœna ſuſperſionis ipſo facto " incurrendæ, That you muſt not receive any more " Novices, upon any Account or Pretext what- " ſoever, till further Orders. I admire you did not " let me know, what became of both the Patricks " ſince I ſent you what you deſired for them. Pray " give my kind Service to our dear Siſters, to Mr. " Kearn and to all the reſt of our Friends there. " Mr. M'Daniel alˢ Peter Mulig, ſalutes you, and " ſo does the reſt of your Friends here. LETTER from BYRN to BREHON.

" DEAR SIR,

" THE incloſed you will be pleaſed to give our " Siſter Lynch, which is what you both deſired in " your laſt. And as for the Agreement you and the " Community make, concerning the Pences you get " upon Sundays and Holidays, I will be well ſatisfied; " for I leave all that Matter to yourſelves, that you " may do in it as you think fit: You gave no Ac- " count of the old Courtier Mr. Fahy; I hope he is " ſent about his Buſineſs long ago, for the Almighty " forbid, you ſhould receive ſuch a rotten Member " into the Order. If you have ſent any of the young " Men into the Province of Andaluſia, they will not " be taken, by reaſon of the great Number of ours " that is there already. All Spain complains of us, " for receiving ſo many in this Kingdom, and ſo does " all other Countries. To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the royal Aſſent ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

After which his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I COME with great Satisfaction to cloſe a Seſſion of Parliament, in which his Majeſty's Expectations have been anſwered by evident Proofs of your Duty and Affection; and your Loyalty to him recompenſed by his gracious Approbation of many good Laws, prepared by you for the Benefit and Advantage of the Kingdom.

The preſent Peace of Europe ſo happily preſerved and eſtabliſhed by the Wiſdom of his Majeſty's Councils, cannot fail of contributing to your particular Welfare, by enabling you to improve and extend thoſe Branches of Trade and Manufactures, which are properly your own; and in which you may rely on his Majeſty's royal Protection and Encouragement. This would effectually prevent all Deſigns and diſappoint all Attempts to carry on a clandeſtine and illegal Trade, in its Conſequences highly prejudicial to Great Britain, injurious to Ireland and beneficial only to the Rivals of both.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I AM commanded by his Majeſty, to return you his Thanks for the Supplies you have given for the Support of the Eſtabliſhment, and toward the Diſcharge of the National Debt. You are ſenſible, that the Meaſures you have taken with ſo much Juſtice and Honour, can never bring about that deſirable End, without a ſtrict Execution of the Laws, and particularly of that framed by you this Seſſion, for the better ſecuring his Majeſty's Revenue.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I MAKE no Doubt, but what hath appeared ſo neceſſary to you, when aſſembled together, will be zealouſly promoted by each of you in your ſeveral Stations: And that you will look upon it as a Matter of the greateſt Importance to this Kingdom, to countenance and protect thoſe employed in the Collection of his Majeſty's Revenue, in the Diſcharge of their Duty; that the Commerce of the Kingdom may not be impaired, the fair Trader injured, and an Increaſe of the publick Debt brought upon you by the Fraud, Injuſtice and Violence of a few who build their Fortunes upon the Ruin of their Country.

I am fully perſuaded, that on your Return into your ſeveral Countries, you will continue your Endeavours to maintain the publick Peace and Proſperity, with the ſame Zeal you have ſhewn in your Deliberations here.

My earneſt Deſire to promote the Welfare of Ireland, my Regard to Juſtice, and my Duty to the King, lay me under the ſtricteſt Obligations faithfully to repreſent to his Majeſty, your Affection and Loyalty to his ſacred Perſon and Government; and whilſt I have the Honour to remain in his royal Preſence, I ſhall recommend to his Grace and Favour, thoſe who diſtinguiſh themſelves in advancing the true and real Intereſt of this Kingdom.

Afterwards, the Lord Chancellor, by his Grace's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 18th Day of April next; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to meet here on Tueſday the 18th Day of April next. Parliament prorogued.

they enter.

And the Houſe of Commons being come, were conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies, where the Right Hon. Henry Boyle, Eſq; made a Speech, as follows, viz.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Commons' Speaker's Speech to Ld Lieutenant

THE Commons, in obedience to your Grace's Commands, have proceeded to the Choice of a Speaker, in the room of a Perſon, whoſe irreparable Loſs is but too evident, by their Election of me to that Chair, which he filled with the greateſt Abilities.

Their Experience of my Love to my Country, which they always thought beſt manifeſted in my conſtant and ſteady Attachment to the Succeſſion in his Majeſty's royal Family, will be conſidered by your Grace, as ſome Excuſe for their deſigning me ſo undeſerved an Honour.

But though the Commons may perſuade themſelves, from your Grace's diſtinguiſhed Zeal in the ſame Cauſe, that your Grace, like them, may, on that Account alone, overlook all other Defects in the Perſon they now preſent, yet the beſt Return I can make the Houſe for this ſignal Favour is humbly to decline it; and give them an Opportunity, by your Grace's Permiſſion, to confer upon ſome worthier Perſon that great Charge, ſo honourable in its Truſt, and ſo difficult in its Execution.

The Lord Chancellor, by his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Command, ſaid:

Mr.

Mr. Boyle,

Lord Chancellor's Reply.

HIS Grace is truly ſenſible, that by the Death of the late Speaker, his Majeſty has been deprived of a moſt faithful and loyal Subject, and the Country of an able and uſeful Repreſentative.

It is a Misfortune that the Place of Sir Ralph Gore, as a particular Member, cannot yet be ſupplied out of his own Family: But the Commons, by electing you to ſucceed him in the Chair, have ſo well filled that Vacancy, that they will perceive no other Change than the Perſon of their Speaker; they will ſtill find in that Chair the ſame inviolable Affection to his Majeſty's royal Perſon and Government, the ſame ſincere Regard for the real Intereſt of their Country, the ſame Application, Integrity and Honour, and the ſame open and univerſal Civility.

Thoſe amiable Qualities, which have ſtrengthened the extenſive Influence of your Family, and often made you the unrivalled Favourite of the greateſt County in this Kingdom, could not fail of recommending you to the unanimous Choice of the Commons of Ireland for their Speaker: And though his Grace ſets the higheſt Value upon your Modeſty, yet he cannot allow it to be indulged, to the Prejudice of the Publick.

Speaker approved of;

His Grace therefore confirms the Choice of the Commons, and approves of you to be their Speaker.

Then Mr. Speaker ſaid:

and again addreſſes the Ld Lieutenant

AS it is my indiſpenſible Duty, in Submiſſion to the general Voice of my Country, and your Grace's Approbation from the Throne, no longer to excuſe myſelf from taking upon me the Office of Speaker, I ſhall uſe my beſt Endeavours faithfully to diſcharge that Truſt, though I have Reaſon ſtill to fear, that no ſmall Degree of Diffidence will always accompany me in that Chair, which the ſuperior Judgment of others, rather than my own Inclination, now compels me to accept. I have however theſe Encouragements, that the Commons, perſuaded of my good Intentions, will conſider my Failings with Indulgence; and that your Grace, not more conſpicuous by your high Station, than your Candour and Humanity, will, on every Occaſion, favourably receive the Servant of that Houſe, whoſe Duty and Affection always had, and I am confident ever will have, the Approbation of his moſt Sacred Majeſty.

His Grace the Lord Lieutenant was then pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

IT is with the greateſt Satisfaction I return to meet a Parliament, ready on all Occaſions to give freſh Proofs of their Zeal and Affection to his Majeſty's Perſon and Government; and have the Commands of a moſt gracious Sovereign, to give you the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of his tender Regard and Concern for your Happineſs, and to recommend to you the Conſideration of whatever may beſt contribute to the Welfare of this his Kingdom.

In ſo happy a Situation, I may with Reaſon expect, that all your Proceedings will be carried on with Temper and Unanimity, and that this Seſſion will end to the Advantage of the Nation, and to the mutual Satisfaction of his Majeſty, and all his faithful Subjects. The Linen Manufacture is ſo beneficial to this Kingdom, and ſo capable of being further extended, that it ſhould be your conſtant Endeavour to improve and inlarge that moſt valuable Branch of Trade, which well deſerves, and will amply reward, all the Care and Attention you can poſſibly beſtow upon it.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE directed the proper Officers to prepare the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates, in order to be laid before you, and I have nothing from his Majeſty to aſk, but ſuch neceſſary Supplies as may ſupport the Eſtabliſhment, and provide for the National Debt, in ſuch Manner as may be moſt expedient, and leaſt burdenſome to his Subjects. As a frugal Management of the Revenue, hath been the principal Object of my Adminiſtration, ſo it will be my greateſt Pleaſure, if thoſe publick Services can be effectually provided for with Honour to his Majeſty, and with Security and Eaſe to his People, without raiſing new Taxes, or increaſing the National Debt. And this I perſuade myſelf can only be effected, by finding out ſome Means to prevent the great Diminution of the Revenue, by the fraudulent Importation of Goods.

I muſt therefore recommend to you the preparing ſuch Heads of a Bill as may be moſt likely to attain that deſirable End.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Treaty of Marriage concluded between the Princeſs Royal and the Prince of Orange, muſt be agreeable to all his Majeſty's good Subjects, and particularly to thoſe of this Kingdom. The great Share they had in the ineſtimable Advantages procured to us by the ever-glorious King William III. cannot fail of making them participate largely of the Joy which is ſo univerſal upon this happy Occaſion.

As the eminent Virtues and Accompliſhments of her Royal Highneſs, could not but make an Alliance with her earneſtly ſought for, ſo his Majeſty, ſolicitous for the future as well as preſent Good of his People, could not give a more endearing Proof of his Reſolution to perpetuate their Happineſs, than by yielding to the Inſtances of that Houſe, which hath ſo glorioufly diſtinguiſhed itſelf in the Cauſe of Liberty and the Proteſtant Religion.

You are now in Poſſeſſion of thoſe invaluable Bleſſings, under the mild Government of a moſt gracious King, who eſteems it his chief Glory

Glory to protect us in the full Enjoyment of all our Civil and Religious Rights, an inviolable Attachment to his royal Perſon and Family, and a firm Union amongſt all Proteſtants, who have one common Intereſt and the ſame common Enemy, will be the ſureſt Means (under God) of ſecuring theſe Bleſſings to our lateſt Poſterity.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered, and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed:

The Houſe being informed, that the Lord Biſhop of Clonfert waited to be introduced, but that his Lordſhip had not his Patent, in which Caſe it was uſual to have the Inrollment thereof read, and was done in the Caſe of the Lord Biſhop of Derry and others; whereupon it is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Lordſhip ſhall be introduced by the original Roll of his Lordſhip's Patent out of the Rolls' Office.

Biſhop of Clonfert introduced.

The Rev. Mordecai Cary, Doctor in Divinity, being by Letters Patents, dated created Lord Biſhop of Clonfert, was in his Robes introduced, between the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Dromore and the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and Ulſter King of Arms in his Coat of Arms carrying the original Roll of his Lordſhip's Patent preceding; his Lordſhip preſented the ſame, on his Knee, to the Lord Chancellor at the Wool-ſack, who gave the ſaid Inrollment to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which was read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place at, the lower end of the Lords the Biſhops' Bench.

The Lord Chancellor reported his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, and the ſame afterwards being read by the Clerk at the Table;

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to return our moſt humble Thanks to his Majeſty, for the tender Regard and Concern he has always ſhewn for the Happineſs and Welfare of this Kingdom, and for continuing us under the wiſe and prudent Adminiſtration of his Grace the Duke of Dorſet.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we will apply ourſelves to the finding out proper Methods for improving and inlarging the Linen and Hempen Manufactures, the moſt valuable Branch of our Trade, which cannot but flouriſh under his Majeſty's royal Favour and Encouragement.

To expreſs the Pleaſure and Satisfaction we of this Nation muſt have in the Treaty of Marriage concluded between the Princeſs Royal and the Prince of Orange, whereby his Majeſty has honoured with his royal Alliance, a Prince of the Houſe of the late ever-glorious King William III. by whoſe victorious Arms the Proteſtants of this Kingdom were reſtored to their Religion, Liberties and Eſtates; and to whoſe Councils we owe the Proſpect we have of ever enjoying thoſe great Bleſſings, under his Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Family.

And to aſſure his Majeſty, that this Houſe will ſhew ſuch Temper and Unanimity in all their Proceedings, as becomes faithful Subjects, truly ſenſible of the Happineſs they enjoy under a moſt gracious Sovereign, who eſteems the Good of his People to be his greateſt Glory, and has always made Uſe of his royal Power to protect his Subjects, in the full Enjoyment of their civil and religious Rights.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Mountjoy and all the Lords preſent be, and are hereby appointed Lords' Committees, to prepare and draw up an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolution for Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs of Thanks be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his Grace's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

Ordered, that the Lord Biſhop of Ferns and all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee, to prepare the ſaid Addreſs.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Lord Lieutenant's Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Dromore ſhall be, and he is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 23d Inſt. being an Anniverſary Thankſgiving for the Deliverance of the Proteſtants of this Kingdom from the Popiſh Maſſacre in 1641.

It

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory ſhall be, and he is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe, at Chriſt-Church, on the 5th of November next, being appointed a Day of Thankſgiving for the happy Deliverance of the three Eſtates of England from the intended Maſſacre by Gunpowder, and alſo for the happy Arrival of his late Majeſty King William III. of glorious Memory, on this Day, for the Deliverance of our Church and theſe Nations.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Viſc. Mountjoy reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, to be preſented to his Majeſty, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, Paragraph by Paragraph, and, with ſome Amendments, agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and humble Thanks, for the tender Regard and Concern your Majeſty hath always ſhewn for the Welfare and Happineſs of this Kingdom, and for continuing us under the wiſe and prudent Adminiſtration of his Grace the Duke of Dorſet.

Your Majeſty may be aſſured, that we ſhall apply our utmoſt Care and Attention to find out proper Methods for improving and enlarging the Linen Manufacture, the principal Branch of our Trade, which cannot but flouriſh under your Majeſty's royal Favour and Encouragement.

Your Majeſty's faithful Subjects of this Kingdom have the utmoſt Joy and Satisfaction, from the Treaty of Marriage concluded between the Princeſs Royal and the Prince of Orange, and acknowledge your Majeſty's Goodneſs in giving a Princeſs of ſuch eminent Virtues and diſtinguiſhed Accompliſhments to a Prince of the Houſe of our late great Deliverer King William of glorious Memory; by whoſe victorious Arms the Proteſtants of Ireland were reſtored to their Religion, Liberties and Eſtates; and to whoſe wiſe Councils they owe the happy Proſpect of having theſe invaluable Bleſſings continued to their lateſt Poſterity, under your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Family.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall, on all Occaſions, manifeſt ſuch Duty, Zeal and Loyalty to your Majeſty, and ſhew ſuch Temper and Unanimity in all our Proceedings, as become Subjects truly ſenſible of the Happineſs they enjoy under a moſt gracious Sovereign, who eſteems the Good of his People his greateſt Glory, and hath made Uſe of his royal Power to protect his Subjects in the full Enjoyment of their Civil and Religious Rights.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

The Lord Biſhop of Ferns and Leighlin reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and, with ſome Amendments, agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace LIONEL Duke of DORSET, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND:

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to L^d Lieutenant.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to return our moſt ſincere Thanks to your Grace, for your excellent Speech from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

Among the many repeated Inſtances of his Majeſty's tender Regard and Concern for our Welfare, we ſhall ever eſteem it a moſt convincing one, that his Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to continue the Government in the Hands of a Perſon from whoſe known Honour, Integrity and great Abilities, we may promiſe ourſelves the Continuance of that Happineſs, which we have hitherto enjoyed under your Grace's wiſe and prudent Adminiſtration.

We are truly ſenſible, that the Linen Manufacture deſerves our utmoſt Care and Attention, and thankfully acknowledge your Grace's Concern for our Intereſts, in recommending to us the Improvement of a Branch of Trade ſo neceſſary to the Support of this Kingdom.

As his Majeſty has, on all Occaſions, taken the moſt juſt and prudent Meaſures to preſerve the Proteſtant Religion and the Liberties of Europe, ſo his great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, in yielding to the Inſtances of the Prince of Orange, and giving him a Princeſs ſo eminent for her Virtues and Accompliſhments, educated under the Care, and influenced by the great Example, of the Queen her royal Mother, ſhew, that his Majeſty extends theſe his moſt noble and generous Views to Poſterity.

The Proteſtants of Ireland, who have ſuffered more than any others of his Majeſty's Subjects, from Popery and arbitrary Power, and who have the greateſt Senſe of the Bleſſings they derive from the late happy Revolution, have a large Share in the univerſal Joy occaſioned by ſo near an Alliance between his Majeſty, and a Prince of the Houſe of their ever-glorious Deliverer King William.

With grateful Hearts we ſee theſe moſt invaluable Bleſſings ſecured to us, under his Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign: Give us Leave, therefore, humbly to aſſure your Grace, that it ſhall be our conſtant Care, as it is our indiſpenſible Duty, to deſerve them. We ſhall, on all Occaſions, ſhew an inviolable Attachment to his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Family, to the Proteſtant Religion, and the true Intereſt of our Country; and, by our Temper and Unanimity in all our Proceedings, endeavour to make this Seſſion end to the Advantage of the Nation, the Satisfaction of his Majeſty and his faithful Subjects, and to the Honour of your Grace's Adminiſtration.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Grace.

Prayers.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Thanks of this Houſe ſhall be, and are hereby, given to the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory, for his Sermon preached before this Houſe on Monday laſt, at Chriſt-Church; and his Lordſhip is hereby deſired to print and publiſh the ſame.

Upon reading the Order for the Day, the Houſe was called over, and the Names of ſuch Lords as made Default to appear, were noted down.

Defaulters to be called.

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Names of ſuch Lords who made Default to appear this Day, be again called over upon this Day fortnight.

Complaint on Breach of Privilege.

A Complaint being made to the Houſe of a Breach of Privilege, committed againſt the Lord Howth by George Weſton, Eſq; George Bonnell, William Rourke, Thomas Bryen and James Mooney, in the forceably entering upon his Lordſhip's Poſſeſſions and Lands in the County of Dublin, within the time of Privilege;

Order thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Matter of Complaint ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges; whoſe Lordſhips are to meet on Saturday Morning next, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers.

Report concerning Offices of Houſe.

The Earl of Cavan reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to inſpect the ſeveral Offices of the Clerk of the Parliaments, and the other Clerks belonging to this Houſe, and to inquire if any thing neceſſary be wanting for the better preſerving the Parliamentary Records and Books, during the Seſſion of Parliament; that they had viewed the ſaid ſeveral Offices, and are come to the following Reſolution, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that if Preſſes were made the breadth of the Room, now the Clerk's-Office, it would be ſufficient to contain the Parliamentary Records and Books during this Seſſion of Parliament.

The ſaid Reſolution, being afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, was agreed to by the Houſe.

Adjourned till Friday Morning next, at Eleven o'clock.

Report on temporary Statutes.

The Earl of Cavan reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to inquire what temporary Laws are expired or near expiring, and which of them may be thought fit to be revived, continued or made perpetual; that they had conſidered of the Matter to them referred; and find:

That the Act for the real Union and Diviſion of Pariſhes, made in the ſecond Year of the Reign of King George I. (one Clauſe of which is repealed by an Act made in the 1ſt Year of his preſent Majeſty) and alſo the Act, for amending the ſaid Act for the real Union and Diviſion of Pariſhes, made in the 10th Year of King George I. expires at the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, after the ſecond Day of February, 1733.

That the Act for the more eaſy Recovery of Tythes and other eccleſiaſtical Dues of ſmall Value, made the 1ſt Year of King George II. and continued with ſome Alterations and Amendments, by an Act made in the 5th Year of his Reign, for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, expires this Seſſion of Parliament.

That the Act for ſecuring the Rights of Advowſon and Preſentation to eccleſiaſtical Benefices, expires next Seſſion of Parliament.

That the Act for the more effectual preventing Frauds in the Cuſtoms and Exciſe, and for ſettling the Rates of Goods not valued in the Book of Rates, made in the 1ſt Year of his preſent Majeſty, expires this Seſſion of Parliament.

That the Act for puniſhing Forgery and Perjury, made in the third Year of his preſent Majeſty, expires this Seſſion of Parliament.

That the Clauſe in the Act, made in the 3d Year of his preſent Majeſty, for amending the ſeveral Statutes, in relation to Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs and Sheriff's Clerks, which impowers Informers to file Bills of Diſcovery againſt Perſons offending, contrary to the ſaid Acts, expires next Seſſion of Parliament.

That the Act for the better ſecuring and collecting his Majeſty's Revenue, made in the 5th Year of his preſent Majeſty, expires the next Seſſion of Parliament.

To

To the Right Hon. the Earl of CAVAN and the Committee of the Houſe of Lords.

My Lords,

Mr. Barnewall's Letter.

I REFLECT with the deepeſt Concern on the Misfortune of having given your Lordſhips Cauſe of Offence, by my Letter to Mr. Hawkins: But as it did not proceed from any Diſregard of your Lordſhips' Order of 1716, to which I ſubmit myſelf with all Deference; and ſhall, for the future, punctually obſerve; I hope your Lordſhips, in your great Indulgence, will be pleaſed to pardon,

My Lords,

Your Lordſhips' moſt obedient humble Servant.

Nov. 17th 1733. JOHN BARNEWALL.

Which their Lordſhips ſubmitted to the Houſe.

Communicating Heads of Bills further conſidered.

The Houſe, according to Order, proceeded to the further Conſideration of the Motion made in the Houſe on Monday laſt, in relation to the communicating Heads of Bills prepared in this Houſe to the Houſe of Commons for their Conſideration and Concurrence, before the ſame be laid before the Government.

A Motion being made, and the Queſtion put, That the further Conſideration of the ſaid Motion be adjourned for a Fortnight;

It paſſed in the Negative.

The Journals of this Houſe of the 3d of October, the 24th of October and 25th of October, 1695, were then, by Order, ſeverally read:

Alſo, the Journals of this Houſe, of the 4th of October, the 6th of October, the 9th of October the 12th and the 13th of October, 1703, were likewiſe read:

Alſo the Journals of this Houſe of the 9th and 14th of June, 1716, were ſeverally read:

Alſo, the Statute of the 28th of Henry VIII. for the Repeal of Poynings' Act:

And the Statute of the 3d and 4th of Philip and Mary, declaring how Poynings' Act, ſhall be expounded and taken:

And the Statute of the 11th of Queen Elizabeth, authorizing Statutes, Ordinances and Proviſions to be made in this Parliament, concerning the Government of the Commonweal, and the Augmentation of her Majeſty's Revenues, notwithſtanding Poynings' Act, were ſeverally read.

Journals read.

And alſo, the Journals of this Houſe of the 26th of July and the 2d of Auguſt, 1634, with the Lord Deputy's Proteſt, were then likewiſe ſeverally read.

The main Queſtion was then read by the Lord Chancellor, as follows, viz.

Reſolved, that communicating Heads of Bills, prepared in this Houſe, to the Houſe of Commons for their Conſideration and Concurrence, before they are laid before the Government, in order to their being tranſmitted to Great Britain, will very much facilitate the paſſing of Bills.

The previous Queſtion was put, Whether the ſaid Queſtion ſhall be now put?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

The ſaid Queſtion was then put;

Queſtion put.

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

DISSENTIENT:

Proteſt.

1. BECAUSE, as the Uſage of Parliament hath all along been, this Houſe may at any time, by a Conference, know the Senſe of the Houſe of Commons touching any Point of Doubt or Difficulty, which makes it, in our Opinion, unneceſſary to communicate our Heads of Bills to them.

2. Becauſe, we conceive that ſuch Communication of Heads of Bills to the Houſe of Commons will be ſo far from facilitating the paſſing of Bills, that it will very much retard and obſtruct it, by the Time that muſt neceſſarily be taken up in the Methods of paſſing thoſe Heads of Bills, with all their Amendments in both Houſes, and in the Diſputes that may ariſe upon them.

3. Becauſe, the preſent Manner of preparing Heads of Bills hath, by a long Cuſtom, been fixed and eſtabliſhed, and the received Cuſtom and Uſage of Parliament being reputed to be the Law of Parliament, we conceive ceive that it is dangerous, without great Neceſſity and ſure Grounds, to alter it by a Reſolution of this Houſe.

Reſolved, that this Houſe will communicate Heads of Bills, prepared in this Houſe, to the Houſe of Commons for their Conſideration and Concurrence, before they lay them before the Government to be tranſmitted to Great Britain.

DISSENTIENT:

Proteſt.

1. BECAUSE we conceive it not to be agreeable to the Dignity of this Houſe, to enter into ſuch a Reſolution (if free from all other Objections) before any Aſſurance given to them, that the Houſe of Commons will do the ſame.

2. Becauſe this Reſolution, if it ſhould take Place, ſeems to deprive this Houſe of a moſt valuable Privilege, which they have hitherto enjoyed, of laying ſuch Heads of Bills as they themſelves ſhould prepare, before the Government and Privy-Council for their Approbation, which, according to this Reſolution, they cannot do, without the Conſent and Concurrence of the Houſe of Commons.

3. Becauſe the Conjunction of both Houſes of Parliament may, upon ſome Occaſions, lay the Government and Privy-Council under great Difficulties, in rejecting or altering Heads of Bills ſent to them, as by Law they are impowered to do, and by their Oaths they are obliged to do, in Caſe they judge it to be for the publick Good, and his Majeſty's Service.

The Lord Viſc. Boyne reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and alſo read, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Moſt Sacred Majeſty on the Marriage of the Princeſs Royal with his Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

We want Words to expreſs the Joy and Satisfaction we have in ſeeing a Prince of the Houſe of our late glorious Deliverer King William, diſtinguiſhed by your Majeſty's honouring him with your royal Alliance, and made happy in ſo accompliſhed a Princeſs.

From ſuch an Union, we cannot but indulge ourſelves in the pleaſing Proſpect of a Race of Princes, who, by their Zeal in the Cauſe of Liberty, and firm Adherence to the Proteſtant Religion, may, like their Anceſtors, be a Bleſſing to Mankind.

Your Majeſty's tender Regard for the Rights and Proſperity of your People, and your unwearied Endeavours to ſettle the Peace of Europe, by a juſt Balance of Power, muſt always command the moſt chearful Obedience from your Subjects, and give them the greateſt Confidence in your Majeſty's Adminiſtration. But when we ſee your royal Care extending itſelf to future times and ſecuring the Religion and Liberties of your People, and the Repoſe of Europe, againſt the moſt diſtant Accidents, by firm and experienced Alliances, we cannot but rejoice for our Poſterity, in a juſt Hope of their enjoying thoſe moſt valuable Bleſſings, for many Ages, under the Government of your Majeſty's royal and auguſt Family.

We who daily enjoy the Benefits of your Majeſty's mild and prudent Adminiſtration, ſhould be wanting in our Duty, if we did not take this happy Opportunity of aſſuring your Majeſty, that we will all in our ſeveral Stations, with the greateſt Chearfulneſs and Zeal, do every thing in our Power for ſupporting your Majeſty's Government with Honour, and for making your Reign eaſy and glorious to your Majeſty, as it is happy to your People.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with the ſaid Addreſs.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

To his Grace Lionel Duke of Dorset, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland:

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, lay hold of this Opportunity, before the Concluſion of the Seſſion, to expreſs our ſincere Thanks for the many good Bills which have, by your Grace's Influence, been procured, to the great Benefit and Advantage of this Kingdom; and at the ſame time we cannot, without Ingratitude, be unmindful of the univerſal Happineſs which this Addreſs to L^d Lieutenant Nation has enjoyed, during the whole Courſe of your Grace's Adminiſtration.

We beg Leave to acknowledge the grateful Senſe we bear in our Minds of the Confidence your Grace has repoſed in our Univerſity, and of the many Inſtances you have given of that hereditary Virtue by which your Anceſtors have been ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed, for their generous Encouragement of uſeful Learning and polite Literature.

The Splendor and great Dignity, with which your Grace has ſupported the Government of this Kingdom, do likewiſe demand our juſt Acknowledgments; and as it is our Intereſt, ſo is it our Inclination, which urges us to hope, that his Majeſty's Subjects, whoſe Welfare and Proſperity his Majeſty hath always eſteemed his greateſt Happineſs, may long continue to reap the Benefits of ſo wiſe and prudent an Adminiſtration.

The Zeal with which this Kingdom has always diſtinguiſhed itſelf for the Proteſtant Succeſſion, in the illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, cannot but be acceptable to a Perſon of your Grace's known Affection for his Majeſty's Service and Government. We therefore depend upon your Grace's Goodneſs for repreſenting us to his Majeſty, as moſt dutiful Subjects to the beſt of Kings.

Lord Lieutenant's Answer to Address.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that the House did Yesterday attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with their Address; to which his Grace was pleased to give this Answer, viz.

" My Lords,

" THE best Return I can make for this " very obliging Address, will be to represent " truly to his Majesty your Duty and Af- " fection to his sacred Person and Govern- " ment. The kind Manner in which you " express your Sense of my Endeavours for " the Service of the Kingdom, gives me the " greater Pleasure, as I am confident, that " whatever may promote the Welfare of " Ireland, cannot be more agreeable to your " Lordships than it will be to his Majesty."

Address and Answer to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that the Address of this House to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, of Yesterday, and his Grace's Answer thereunto, shall be forthwith printed and published; and that the Clerk of this House do appoint the printing of the said Address and Answer.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

After which his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

NOTHING can give me more Satisfaction, than to ſee this happy Concluſion of a Seſſion of Parliament, which has given ſo many Inſtances of Affection and Duty to his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government.

His Majeſty's paternal Care and tender Concern for the Safety and Happineſs of his People, his ſteady and unwearied Application to protect the Proteſtant Religion, to preſerve the Balance of Power, and to reſtore the Peace of Europe, have juſtly gained him the intire Confidence of all his Subjects, and muſt procure him all poſſible Returns of Duty and Gratitude.

Tho' this Seſſion hath been neceſſarily carried to an unexpected Length, by the Difficulties you have met with, in giving an adequate and ſeaſonable Relief to many, who muſt have greatly ſuffered without your Interpoſition, and whom publick Credit hath rendered proper Objects of your Attention, yet the good Laws which have now received the Royal Aſſent, fully recompenſe ſo long an Attendance and will be laſting Monuments of the Vigilance and Wiſdom of this Parliament.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I AM commanded to thank you, in his Majeſty's Name, for the Supplies you have granted, to ſupport the Eſtabliſhment, and to diſcharge the Intereſt of the National Debt.

Your Endeavours to make thoſe Supplies effectual, by Laws to prevent the infamous and deſtructive Practices of defrauding the Crown, and robbing the Publick, are ſtrong and convincing Proofs of your unalterable Zeal for the Good of your Country, and his Majeſty's Service.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

UPON your Return into your ſeveral Countries, it will be highly incumbent on you, at a time when all Europe is in Arms, to preſerve the Peace and Safety of the Kingdom, by promoting a perfect Agreement and firm Union among Proteſtants; and by exerting yourſelves to prevent and ſuppreſs all Deſigns againſt his Majeſty's Government.

As I have always had the Intereſt of this Kingdom at Heart, it gives me a particular Pleaſure to find that my Adminiſtration is agreeable to you: And I think myſelf happy, that on my return to his Majeſty's royal Preſence, I can juſtly repreſent his People of Ireland, as moſt dutiful, loyal and affectionate Subjects.

Afterwards, the Lord Chancellor by his Grace's Command ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 4th Day of June next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 4th Day of June next. Parliament prorogued.

Viſc. Mountgarrett, and Alſo, this Day Richard Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett ſat firſt in Parliament, and delivered his Writ, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

Lord Santry take the Oaths, &c.

And alſo, this Day, Henry Lord Santry ſat firſt in Parliament upon the Death of his Father Henry Lord Santry, and delivered his Writ, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

Biſhop of Derry introduced.

The Rev. Thomas Rundle, Doctor of Divinity, being by Letters Patents, dated 17° Die Julii, 9° Georgii Secundi Regis, created Biſhop of Derry, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Right Rev. Lord Biſhop of Meath, and the Right Rev. Lord Biſhop of Ferns and Leighlin, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the ſaid Letters Patents preceding; his Lordſhip preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place at, the lower end of the Lords the Biſhops' Bench.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

Lord Lieutenant preſent.

His Grace Lionel Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Thomond carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Kildare, the Cap of Maintenance; the Lord Viſc. Strangford, a minor Peer, ſupported by the Lord Ophaly, eldeſt Son to the Earl of Kildare, and Mr. Butler, Son to the Lord Viſc. Laneſborough, bearing the Train of the ſaid Robe: His Grace, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

And the Houſe of Commons, being come, they, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

FROM the Experience of your former Behaviour, I make no doubt but you are met together with Hearts full of Duty, Affection and Loyalty to his Majeſty, and zealouſly diſpoſed to do what is neceſſary for the Safety, Honour and Happineſs of this his Kingdom, which is all I have to recommend to you.

Since therefore the Service of the King, and the Good of the Country, are the Ends we all aim at, I hope we ſhall agree in the Means of attaining them; and purſue them with that Temper and Wiſdom, which Conſiderations of ſuch Importance require.

The Improvement of the Linen and Hempen Manufactures, will be always uppermoſt in the Thoughts of thoſe who wiſh well to this Kingdom; and I can therefore never omit any Opportunity of recommending them to your particular Care and Attention.

Great Room ſtill remains for inlarging theſe beneficial Branches of Trade, and the extending and ſpreading them over thoſe Provinces, where they have not yet prevailed, will be of the higheſt Advantage to yourſelves, and tend to remove all Occaſions of Jealouſy and Complaint, with regard to the Woollen Manufacture.

Theſe are Matters of the greateſt Conſequence to the Welfare of this Kingdom; and nothing will be a more acceptable Proof of the Wiſdom and Prudence of your Deliberations than the preparing ſuch Laws as may increaſe your own Trade, and at the ſame time prevent all illegal Incroachments upon that of Great Britain.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the proper Officers to lay before you the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates which I have Reaſon to think will meet with your Approbation, and am perſuaded you will moſt chearfully and effectually raiſe the neceſſary Supplies to ſupport his Majeſty's Government with Honour, and provide for the National Debt.

If a Stop were put to that moſt pernicious Practice of the clandeſtine running of Goods, I make no doubt but that the publick Revenues would fully anſwer the Expence of the preſent Eſtabliſhment.

Let it therefore be your Care to frame ſuch Heads of a Bill as may guard and ſecure the juſt Payment of the Duties you ſhall think proper to grant; and you may be aſſured, they will be always applied to the Purpoſes for which they were intended.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I HAVE taken all Occaſions to repreſent to his Majeſty, the Circumſtances of this Kingdom, and your Zeal for his Service; and his great Goodneſs in laying hold of every Opportunity to promote your Proſperity, leaves no Room to doubt the good Effects of ſuch Repreſentations.

You cannot but be ſenſible of the ſingular Happineſs we enjoy, that whilſt the greateſt Part of Europe is oppreſſed with the Calamities of War, his Majeſty's royal Care and Councils have hitherto preſerved to his Subjects all the Benefits of Peace and Tranquillity, I am perſuaded, that this will not fail to excite in you the moſt grateful Acknowledgments of the Bleſſings of Peace; and at the ſame time, the utmoſt Readineſs to take that Part upon all Occaſions, which the Honour of his Majeſty and the Intereſt of this Country ſhall require.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed.

The Lord Chancellor reported his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read by the Clerk;

Lord Lieutenant's Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed; and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing of the ſaid Speech.

Reſolution for Addreſs to his Majeſty.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented by this Houſe to his Majeſty, aſſuring him, that we are truly ſenſible of the Happineſs we enjoy under his Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign; and that we ſhall, on all Occaſions ſhew, by our Actions, the inviolable Loyalty and Affection we have for his royal Perſon and illuſtrious Family: And that we will prepare ſuch Laws as may beſt promote his Majeſty's Service, and the Happineſs of this Nation, with Diſpatch, Temper and Unanimity.

That as we are convinced, the Linen and Hempen Manufactures are the moſt improvable Branches of our Trade, we will do whatever lies in our Power to extend the Benefit of them throughout the whole Kingdom; and that we deſire, and ſhall make it our Care, that the Trade in general of this Kingdom may be ſo carried on, as to preſerve a perfect Harmony between us and Great Britain.

That

That we gratefully acknowledge his Majeſty's Goodneſs, in continuing us under the prudent Adminiſtration of his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, whoſe conſummate Experience in the Circumſtances of this Kingdom, we are ſenſible, has been ſucceſsfully employed for his Majeſty's Honour, and the publick Welfare.

That we are perſuaded it has been wholly owing to his Majeſty's Vigilance and wiſe Councils, that we ſtill enjoy the Bleſſings of Peace, while moſt of the neighbouring Nations are involved in the Calamities of War.

That we ardently wiſh, that theſe his Majeſty's royal Endeavours for the general Tranquillity, may always have the deſired Succeſs; but beg Leave to aſſure his Majeſty, that in all Events we ſhall chearfully take that Part which ſhall be for his Majeſty's Honour, and the Intereſt of this Kingdom.

Committee to prepare Addreſs.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Moleſworth and all the Lords preſent be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare and draw up an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs of Thanks be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his Grace's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the Lord Lieutenant.

Ordered, that the Lord Biſhop of Ferns and Leighlin, and all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

and Committee appointed to prepare Addreſs,

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at half an Hour after Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe and report.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Viſc. Moleſworth reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, to be preſented to his Majeſty; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, being truly ſenſible of the Happineſs we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Reign, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty that we ſhall on all Occaſions ſhew, by our Actions, the inviolable Loyalty and Affection we have for your royal Perſon and illuſtrious Family; and that we will prepare ſuch Laws as may beſt promote your Majeſty's Service and the Happineſs of this Nation, with Diſpatch, Temper and Unanimity.

Being convinced, that the Linen and Hempen Manufactures are the moſt improveable Branches of our Trade, we will do whatever lies in our Power to extend the Benefit of them throughout the whole Kingdom: And as it is our Deſire, ſo we ſhall always make it our Care, that our Trade in general may be ſo carried on, as to preſerve a perfect Harmony between us and Great Britain.

We gratefully acknowledge your Majeſty's Goodneſs, in continuing us under the prudent

Adminiſtration of his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, whoſe great Experience and Knowledge in the Affairs and Circumſtances of this Kingdom, we are ſenſible have been ſucceſsfully employed for your Majeſty's Honour, and the publick Welfare.

We are perſuaded, it has been owing to your Majeſty's Vigilance and wiſe Councils, that we ſtill enjoy the Bleſſings of Peace, while moſt of the neighbouring Nations are involved in the Calamities of War.

May your Majeſty's Endeavours for the general Tranquillity, always have the deſired Succeſs! But permit us to aſſure your Majeſty, that in all Events we ſhall chearfully take that Part, which ſhall be for your Majeſty's Honour, and the Intereſt of this Kingdom.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

The Lord Biſhop of Ferns and Leighlin reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace LIONEL Duke of DORSET, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to return your Grace our ſincereſt Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne, and to expreſs the great Satisfaction we have in your Grace's Return to the Government of this Kingdom.

We juſtly eſteem it a very remarkable Inſtance, among many others, of his Majeſty's Favour to us his moſt dutiful Subjects, that he has been graciouſly pleaſed to continue to us the Happineſs of your Grace's Adminiſtration, who, by an exact Knowlege of the State of this Kingdom, are ſo well qualified to judge rightly of its true Intereſts; and have, upon all Occaſions, ſhewn ſo good Inclinations to promote them.

As the Service of his Majeſty and the Good of our Country, are the great Ends we have in View, ſo we think ourſelves highly obliged to your Grace for declaring, that they are the Ends which your Grace aims at; nor is there any Reaſon to doubt, but that we ſhall intirely agree with your Grace in the Means of attaining them. The Improvement of the Linen and Hempen Manufactures, and the putting an effectual Stop to that moſt pernicious Practice of clandeſtine running of Goods, are ſo evidently the beſt Means which, in our Circumſtances, human Wiſdom can contrive, to work a happy Change in the State of this Kingdom; that we ſhould be greatly wanting to ourſelves and our Country, if we did not comply with your Grace, in making them the Objects of our particular Care and Attention.

'Tis a great Satisfaction to us, that your Grace approves of our former Behaviour; and as you have taken all Occaſions to repreſent to his Majeſty the Circumſtances of this Kingdom, and our Zeal for his Service, ſo we have no doubt, but that we ſhall every Day, more and more, feel the good Effects of ſuch Repreſentations.

We have a moſt grateful Senſe of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under his Majeſty's Government, particularly that invaluable one, that whilſt the greateſt Part of Europe labours under the Calamities of War, his Majeſty's royal Care and Councils have, by the Bleſſing of GOD, preſerved his Subjects in Peace and Tranquillity. We humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Grace, that it ſhall be our conſtant Study to deſerve the Continuance of his royal Favour, by a chearful and hearty Concurrence in every thing which may be for the Service of his Majeſty, and may give the moſt convincing Proofs of the ſame Duty, Affection and Loyalty, which we have upon all Occaſions ſhewn to his Majeſty, and his royal Houſe.

We ſhall take Care to proceed with the utmoſt Temper and Unanimity in all our Deliberations; and by this and every other Method in our Power, endeavour to make the Continuance of your Grace's Government as eaſy and honourable to your Grace, as we are ſure it will be happy and advantageous to this Kingdom.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Grace.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, being ſenſibly affected with every Inſtance of your Majeſty's Goodneſs to us, beg Leave to return our moſt humble Thanks to your Majeſty, for your moſt gracious Anſwer to our late Addreſs: And as we obſerve with great Pleaſure the Satisfaction with which your Majeſty accepted the Aſſurances therein given of our inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and royal Family, and of our Zeal for the Honour of your Majeſty's Government, ſo ſhall we always endeavour, by our future Conduct, to intitle ourſelves to the Continuance of your royal Favour, Protection and Support.

Your Majeſty will graciouſly permit us, on this Occaſion, to claim our Share in the general Joy for your Majeſty's ſafe and happy Return to Great Britain. We are truly ſenſible how neceſſary your Majeſty's late Abſence has been for the Repoſe of Europe, which we hope ſoon to ſee reſtored and eſtabliſhed by your Majeſty's unwearied Endeavours for the general Tranquillity, and the Happineſs of your People.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with the ſaid Addreſs.

Report on temporary Statutes.

The Earl of Cavan reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to inquire what temporary Statutes are expired or near expiring, and which of them may be thought fit to be revived, continued or made perpetual; that they have conſidered thereof, and are come to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Act paſſed in the 7th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, for the buying and ſelling all Sorts of Corn and Meal, and other things in the ſaid Act mentioned, by Weight. And for the more effectual preventing the Frauds committed in the buying and ſelling thereof, and for regulating the Price and Aſſize of Bread, and for better regulating the Markets (which expires this Seſſion of Parliament) is fit to be continued.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Act paſſed in the 5th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, for the better Regulation and Government of Seamen in the Merchant's Service (which expires this Seſſion of Parliament) is fit to be continued.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Act paſſed in the 5th Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, for accepting the ſolemn Affirmation or Declaration of the People called Quakers, inſtead of an Oath in the uſual Form (which expires this Seſſion of Parliament) is fit to be further continued.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the ſeveral Acts for the better ſuppreſſing Tories, Robbers and Rapparees, and for preventing Robberies, Burglaries and other heinous Crimes (which are now near expiring) are fit to be further continued.

And the Houſe of Commons, with their Speaker being come, were conducted to the Bar with the uſual Ceremonies; where Mr. Speaker, after a ſhort Speech to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, in relation to the Money-Bills, delivered them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought them to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Titles, as follow, viz.

Royal Aſſent given to 2 Bills.

1. An Act for granting and continuing to his Majeſty an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Wine, Tobacco and other Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned.

2. An Act for granting to his Majeſty a further additional Duty on Wine, Silk, Hops, China, Earthen, japanned or lacquered Ware, and Vinegar; and alſo a Tax of four Shillings in the Pound on all Salaries, Profits of Employments, Fees and Penſions, to be applied to pay an Intereſt of £5 ℔' Cent. ℔' Ann. for the Sum of 300,000, or ſuch Part thereof as ſhall remain unpaid on the 25th Day of December, 1735, and towards the Diſcharge of the ſaid principal Sum.

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the royal Aſſent in theſe Words, viz.

" Le Roy remercie ſes bons Sujets, accepte leur " Benevolence, et ainſi le veult."

Then his Grace was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

Hodie ſecunda vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for repairing the Road leading from the Town of Antrim in the Co. Antrim, through the Towns of Ballymenagh and Ballymony in the ſaid County, and to the Town of Coleraine in the Co. Londonderry. Coleraine Turnpike Bill

A Petition of William Hawkins, Eſq; Ulſter King of Arms of all Ireland, ſetting forth, that by Order of this Houſe of the 12th of Auguſt, 1707, for Entries poſt Mortem in the Petitioner's Office, of the Deceaſe of any Nobleman or Noblewoman, together with the Matches and Iſſues of their Family, to be made by their Heirs or Executors, whereby the Petitioner would be enabled to keep an exact Liſt of the Peers, and return the ſame for the Service of this Houſe, as often as there ſhould be Occaſion. King of Arms' Petition.

That laſt Seſſion of Parliament, the Petitioner printed a Liſt of Lords, and alſo returned a written one, on Vellum, to the Clerk for the Service of this Houſe; but for want of ſuch Entries poſt Mortem being made in the Petitioner's Office, there were many Faults found in ſaid Liſt, Lords being returned by the Chriſtian Names of their Fathers or Grandfathers, and ſome Honours that were extinct. Whereupon the Petitioner, with great Diligence and Trouble, wrote to ſeveral in England to get the beſt Informations they could for him (ſeveral Lords of this Kingdom reſiding in England, whoſe Anceſtors died there) by which the Petitioner got the ſaid Liſt of Lords greatly amended, and re-printed the ſame: After which, ſeveral Faults appearing in the ſaid Liſt, the Petitioner wrote again to his Friends in London, and particularly to ſome of the Heralds, to make further Inquiries for the Petitioner's Information, and for more Certainty therein, the Petitioner got Advertiſements publiſhed in the London Gazette and St. James's Evening Poſt, whereby the Petitioner brought the ſaid Liſt to a much greater Exactneſs, by altering the Chriſtian Names of ſeveral Lords, and leaving out ſeveral Titles, whoſe Honours were extinct, and printed the ſame, ſo amended, which was the third time of his printing thereof laſt Seſſion.

That

That the Petitioner thereupon petitioned this moſt Hon. Houſe, ſetting forth, his ſaid Services, and praying ſome Reward for the ſame; but the ſaid Petition coming in too late in the Seſſion, he was not conſidered nor rewarded.

That this preſent Seſſion, the Petitioner, by his great Diligence, hath made ſome further Amendments, and by ſome accidental Alterations during the Seſſion, he has been obliged to print the ſaid Liſt three times; and hath returned a fair written Liſt, on Vellum, to the Clerk for the Call of the Houſe, ſo amended, the ſame being now more correct, than it has been ſince the Revolution.

And praying their Lordſhips to take the Premiſes into Conſideration, and to grant him ſuch Reward for his ſaid Services and Expences, as their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom, ſhould think fit;

was preſented to the Houſe and read.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Petition ſhall be, and it is hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees, to whom the Petition of the Clerk of the Parliaments, Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and the other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, is referred.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

The Earl of Thomond reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace LIONEL Duke of DORSET, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to L^{d} Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave, before a Period is put to this Seſſion, to congratulate your Grace upon the remarkable Unanimity and Temper with which it has been carried on: And the happy Concluſion to which it now approaches, which we doubt not will be as agreeable to his Majeſty, as it is beneficial to his faithful People.

We ſhould not deſerve this Happineſs, if we did not, with the ſincereſt Gratitude, acknowledge it to be owing to the ſteady Wiſdom and Juſtice of your Grace's Adminiſtration, through the whole Courſe of which you have ſhewn, that you have had no other Views than his Majeſty's Service and the real Intereſt of this Kingdom: ſo diſintereſted, ſo juſt and prudent a Conduct, could not but produce that univerſal Eſteem and Affection for your Grace, which this whole Nation, upon every Occaſion, expreſſes.

The Benefits which by your Grace's Influence have been derived to us from his Majeſty's royal Goodneſs, are ſo many and ſo known, that it would be as needleſs as it is difficult, to enumerate them. But we cannot omit returning our particular Thanks to your Grace, for the late eminent Inſtance of royal Favour which you have obtained for us, whereby private Property is more effectually ſecured, and the Laws become a more certain Rule, by which every Man's Right may be determined.

It will ever diſtinguiſh your Grace's Government, that from the Beginning of it, we have ſeen the reaſonable and juſt Demands of the Crown, always anſwered by the moſt chearful and ready Compliance of the People: And, in return, the moſt gracious Conceſſions made to the People, of whatever they judged neceſſary, to ſecure and increaſe their Welfare and Happineſs. You, my Lord, who are ſo happy as to be employed in conveying theſe mutual Advantages, have a Right to, and can never fail of that Reward, which your Grace (like other great Benefactors of Mankind) ſeems to have moſt in view, to be beloved and reſpected by the preſent Age, and remembered with Honour by Poſterity.

We muſt ever acknowledge his Majeſty could not have given us a more deſirable Proof of his gracious Acceptance of our Duty and Loyalty to his ſacred Perſon, and of our inviolable Zeal and Attachment to his royal Houſe, than by continuing your Grace in the Government of this Kingdom, the Intereſt of which you have, in ſo diſtinguiſhed a manner, promoted. And we firmly rely upon your Grace's Goodneſs, that when you return to his royal Preſence, you will make ſuch Repreſentations of the ſteady Loyalty and Affection of his Subjects of Ireland, as may incline his Majeſty to think us not unworthy of the Continuance of his royal Favour and Protection.

Ordered,

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe, with the ſaid Addreſs.

Viſcount Mountgarrett to wave Privilege.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Mountgarrett have the Leave of this Houſe, at his own Requeſt, to wave his Privilege, at the Suit of John White, Eſq;

Message from Commons to return Bill

A Message was brought from the House of Commons, by Dr. Trotter and others, Members of the said House, to return a Bill, intitled, An Act for explaining an Act for real Union and Division of Parishes; and to acquaint this House, that they have agreed to the said Bill, without any Amendment.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the House, that in obedience to their Order, he had waited upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he would be attended by this House with their Address to his Grace; and he was pleased to appoint this Day at Two o'clock, at his Majesty's Castle of Dublin.

His Lordship also acquainted the House, that he had laid the Resolutions of this House, in favour of the Officers and Servants attending this House before his Grace; and he was pleased to give this Answer, viz.

Lord Lieutenant's Answerr

"I WILL take Care to lay these Resolu"tions of the House of Lords before his Ma-
"jesty."

Then the House, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleasure, and put into a Committee, to take into further Consideration a Bill, intitled, An Act for the more effectual preventing clandestine Marriages; and after some time spent therein,

The House was resumed: And the Lord Bishop of Meath reported from the Committee, that they had gone through the said Bill, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment; and also compared the same with the original Transmiss, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

A Petition of the Right Hon. John Lord Viſc. Liſburn, ſetting forth:

That John Vaughan of Troſcod in the Co. Cardigan, Eſq; the Petitioner's Father, was by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, dated the 29th Day of June, in the 7th Year of the Reign of his late Majeſty King William III. (of Glorious Memory) created a Peer of this Kingdom of Ireland, by the Stile and Title of Baron of Feathard and Viſcount Liſburn in the ſaid Kingdom.

That the Petitioner's ſaid Father died before he had an Opportunity of taking his Seat in Parliament; and the Honour deſcending to the Petitioner, he came into this Kingdom, in order to attend the Service of this Houſe, this preſent Seſſion of Parliament.

That the Petitioner, having miſlaid his Writ of Summons, which was ſent to him into Great Britain, on the Calling of this preſent Parliament, the Petitioner applied to the Right Hon. the Lord High Chancellor, for a Renewal of the ſaid Writ, ſo miſlaid; but could not obtain the ſame, from an Objection made by his Lordſhip, that the ſaid Letters Patents had not been inrolled in the High Court of Chancery, purſuant to a Clauſe therein contained.

That the Petitioner, being a Minor at the time of his ſaid Father's Death, and living in Great Britain ever ſince he came of Age, and having had the ſaid Writ of Summons ſent to him as aforeſaid, did not expect to have any Objection made againſt the Renewal of his ſaid Writ of Summons.

And humbly praying their Lordſhips, to take the Premiſes into Conſideration, and to grant him ſuch Relief as their Lordſhips, in their great Juſtice and Wiſdom, ſhould think fit; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Petition ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, to conſider thereof, and report their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe. Order thereon.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I COME with great Satisfaction to put an End to your Attendance this Seſſion, which, notwithſtanding the remarkable Temper and Unanimity of your Proceedings, hath been drawn into an unavoidable Length by bringing to Perfection ſo many uſeful and prudent Laws, as have now received his Majeſty's Royal Aſſent. If there have been few Parliaments wherein the Expectations of the Crown were anſwered with more Chearfulneſs and reſpect; on the other Side, there have ſeldom appeared greater Inſtances of a tender Regard for the Privileges of the Subject. His Majeſty's royal Aſſurances, that he will diſcourage all Attempts to reverſe any Outlawries of Perſons attainted for the two laſt Rebellions in this Kingdom, will remain a laſting Monument of his Vigilance over the Proteſtant Intereſt of Ireland: And his gracious Condeſcenſion, in giving a firmer Security to your Rights and Properties, by the Act for regulating Juries, will convince your Poſterity, that his paternal Care extended itſelf to all his People.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE his Majeſty's Commands to return you Thanks for the Supplies granted this Seſſion with ſo much Readineſs and Unanimity. I am willing to hope, that this good Diſpoſition aroſe not only from your former Experience of the juſt and frugal Application of the publick Money, but from a Confidence which I ſhall always endeavour to deſerve, that the like Care would, as far as poſſible, be taken of it for the future.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Differences that threatned the general Peace of Europe, in which this Nation muſt have been unavoidably involved, being now ſo far compoſed by his Majeſty's Wiſdom and Influence, that a Proſpect of Tranquillity is opened to us; nothing can be more ſeaſonably recommended to you, than the extending your moſt valuable Manufacture; an Attention to your Trade within its legal and juſt Bounds, and an impartial and ſtrict Execution of the Laws, which will be conſidered only as a dead Letter, if they are not as faithfully executed, as they have been wiſely framed and enacted.

I HAVE received too much Satisfaction from the Addreſſes of both Houſes, not to repeat my Acknowledgments for the obliging Manner in which you have expreſſed yourſelves, with regard to my Adminiſtration. I ſhall continue my beſt Endeavours to preſerve your Eſteem; and when I return to his Majeſty's royal Preſence, I will moſt faithfully repreſent to his Majeſty, the Loyalty, Affection and Zeal of his Parliament of Ireland.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Grace's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 4th Day of May next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 4th Day of May next.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Viſcounts' Bench.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

Ld Lieutenant preſent.

The Houſe was reſumed: And his Grace William Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Antrim carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Kildare the Cap of Maintenance; three Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Grace the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and then ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

And the Houſe of Commons being come, they, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

NOTHING could be more agreeable to me, than to receive his Majeſty's Commands to meet you in Parliament. The Firmneſs and Zeal which you have ſhewn for the Support of the Proteſtant Religion, and your ſincere and conſtant Attachment to his Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government, give me the Proſpect of an eaſy Adminiſtration: And as his Majeſty's Service and the Proſperity of this Kingdom, are the only Points I have in View, I am fully perſuaded that this Seſſion cannot fail of proving to the Advantage of the Publick.

I obſerve with great Pleaſure, how much the Exportations of your Linen Manufactures have increaſed of late Years: And aſſure you, that nothing ſhall be wanting on my Part, which may contribute to the improving and extending that valuable Branch of your Trade.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the proper Officers to prepare the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates to be laid before you; and have nothing in Command from his Majeſty to aſk, but the uſual and neceſſary Supplies for the Support of the Eſtabliſhment. If any further Law could be framed to put an effectual Stop to that pernicious Practice of running of Goods, the beneficial Conſequences of it would be found in raiſing the publick Revenues, in leſſening the National Debt, and in giving Encouragement to the fair and honeſt Trader.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is the peculiar Diſtinction of his Majeſty's Subjects, that they have frequent Opportunities of preparing and offering ſuch Laws as they think for the general Good of their Country: This Privilege can never be of greater Advantage than at this Time, when we have a Prince upon the Throne, who conſiders the Intereſts of his Subjects as inſeparable from his own, and is always ready to give his Royal Aſſent to every Act that may promote the Happineſs of his People.

His Majeſty, by chooſing a Princeſs of the moſt eminent Virtues and Accompliſhments, and of an Houſe foremoſt in the Proteſtant Cauſe, to be Conſort to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, hath given a Proof of his royal and paternal Care to continue the Bleſſings of his Reign to our lateſt Poſterity; and the Earneſt which we have already received from Providence by the Birth of a Princeſs, opens to us a new Proſpect of a laſting Succeſſion in his Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Family.

You may depend upon my moſt hearty Inclinations, and beſt Aſſiſtance, to ſerve you in every thing that may contribute to the Security and Welfare of Ireland. And from the full Enjoyment you have had of your religious and civil Rights, under his Majeſty's mild and moſt gracious Government, I have no Room to doubt, but you will proceed in all your Deliberations, with ſuch Temper and Unanimity, as may be expected from a People, who have at all Times ſhewn themſelves moſt affectionate and loyal Subjects.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered, and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech; and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table;

It is ordered by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed; and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to return our moſt humble Thanks to his Majeſty, for the tender Regard he has always ſhewn for the Welfare and and Happineſs of this his Kingdom; and for his royal Protection of us, in the full Enjoyment of all our religious and civil Rights, under his mild and moſt gracious Government: To congratulate his Majeſty on the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, with a Princeſs of the moſt conſummate Virtues and Accompliſhments, and of a Family earlieſt diſtinguiſhed in the Proteſtant Cauſe; and to expreſs the further Proſpect Providence has already given us, by the Birth of a Princeſs, that our lateſt Poſterity will be governed by a Prince of his Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Family.

To give his Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our inviolable Loyalty and Affection to his royal Perſon and Family: And that we will uſe our utmoſt Care and Diligence, in preparing ſuch Laws as may moſt effectually tend to the Support of his Majeſty's Government, the improving of our Linen Manufacture, and preventing that moſt pernicious Practice of running of Goods, ſo highly prejudicial to the publick Revenue, and ſo diſcouraging and detrimental to the fair Trader.

To acknowledge how truly ſenſible we are of his Majeſty's Readineſs to concur in every thing that may promote the Good of his People; and to aſſure his Majeſty, that he may depend upon our proceeding with the utmoſt Temper and Unanimity, as the beſt Means to render our Conſultations ſucceſsful.

To expreſs our grateful Senſe of his Majeſty's Goodneſs, in appointing his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, whoſe Anceſtors have always eminently diſtinguiſhed themſelves in the Cauſe of Liberty, and more particularly at the late happy Revolution, under our great Deliverer King William, of ever-glorious Memory: And from his Grace's known Character and eminent Virtues, we promiſe ourſelves every Advantage which can be wiſhed for, or deſired by a moſt loyal and dutiful People.

Ordered, that the Earl of Inchiquin and all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee, to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein. Committees

Their Lordſhips, or any two of them, to meet when, where and as often as they pleaſe.

The Earl of Inchiquin reported from the Lords' Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to a Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return our moſt humble Thanks to your Majeſty, for the tender Regard you have always ſhewn for the Welfare and Happineſs of this your Kingdom, and for your Majeſty's royal Protection of us, in the full Enjoyment of all our religious and Civil Rights, under your mild and moſt gracious Government.

We take this firſt Opportunity, to expreſs our grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's royal and paternal Care, in the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, with a Princeſs of the moſt conſummate Virtues and Accompliſhments, and of the illuſtrious Houſe of Saxe-Gotha, which ſo early diſtinguiſhed itſelf in the Proteſtant Cauſe; and by the Birth of a Princeſs, with which PROVIDENCE hath already bleſſed us, we have the pleaſing Proſpect inlarged, of our lateſt Poſterity being governed by a Prince of your Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Family.

We beg Leave to give your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our inviolable Loyalty and Affection to your royal Perſon and Family; and that we will uſe our utmoſt Care and Diligence, in preparing ſuch Laws, as may moſt effectually tend to the Support of your Majeſty's Government, the improving of our Linen Manufacture, and preventing that moſt pernicious Practice of running of Goods, ſo highly prejudicial to the publick Revenue, and ſo diſcouraging and detrimental to the fair Trader.

We are moſt truly ſenſible of your Majeſty's Readineſs to concur in whatever may promote the Good of your People; and your Majeſty may depend upon our proceeding, in all our Deliberations, with the utmoſt Temper and Unanimity, as the beſt Means to render our Conſultations ſucceſsful.

We

We cannot but moſt thankfully acknowlege your Majeſty's Goodneſs and tender Concern for us, in appointing his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom; whoſe Anceſtors have always ſo eminently diſtinguiſhed themſelves in the Cauſe of Liberty, and more particularly at the late happy Revolution, under our great Deliverer King William of ever-glorious Memory: And from his Grace's known Character and eminent Virtues, we promiſe ourſelves, under his Adminiſtration, every Advantage which can be wiſhed for, or deſired, by a moſt loyal and dutiful People.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

The Lord Viſc. Valentia reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs of Thanks to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his Grace's Speech delivered Yeſterday from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace WILLIAM Duke of DEVONSHIRE, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to return your Grace our moſt hearty Thanks for your excellent Speech delivered from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

It is with the moſt intire Satisfaction to ourſelves, and the greateſt Thankfulneſs to his Majeſty, that we ſee the Government of this Kingdom committed to the Care of your Grace, whoſe illuſtrious Anceſtors had ſo great a Share in that happy Revolution, to which we owe our preſent Eſtabliſhment; and who, by your Wiſdom, Integrity and Goodneſs, as well as firm and zealous Adherence to the Proteſtant Religion, together with your Affection to his Majeſty, and his royal Family, have gained univerſal Eſteem.

As the Proteſtants of Ireland have from the Revolution, under King William of glorious and immortal Memory, to this Day, given manifeſt Proofs of a ſteady Attachment to their civil and religious Rights; his Majeſty may be aſſured, that we ſhall continue to uſe our utmoſt Endeavours, to deliver down to our Poſterity thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings, of which, he (under GOD) is the ſupreme Guardian. And as your Grace has no other Points in View but his Majeſty's Service and the Proſperity of this Kingdom, we beg Leave to aſſure your Grace, that nothing ſhall, on our Part, be wanting to make the Adminiſtration of the Government eaſy to your Grace, and of Advantage to the Publick.

It is a great Pleaſure to us, as well as to your Grace, to obſerve how much the Exportations of our Linen Manufactures have increaſed of late Years: And we rely upon your Grace's Countenance and Goodneſs in contributing to the improving and extending that Branch of our Trade, which, we are ſenſible, is the moſt valuable of any, to our Country.

We, amongſt the reſt of his Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, have a true and moſt grateful Senſe of our Happineſs, in living under the Government of a Prince, who by his Readineſs to give his Royal Aſſent to every Act, that may promote the Happineſs of his People, ſecures to us the full Benefit of thoſe frequent Opportunities we have, of preparing and offering ſuch Laws as we think for the general Good of our Country.

Our Hearts are filled with the moſt ſincere Gratitude, and the deepeſt Senſe of Duty and Affection, when we reflect on his Majeſty's royal and paternal Care for the future Good of his People, by chooſing a Princeſs of the moſt eminent Virtues and Accompliſhments to be Conſort to his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales; and one who is deſcended from a Houſe remarkably diſtinguiſhed in the Proteſtant Cauſe: And it gives us the higheſt Joy, that Providence has, by the Birth of a Princeſs, opened to us a new and pleaſing Proſpect of the Continuance of the Bleſſings of his Majeſty's Reign to our lateſt Poſterity, by a laſting Succeſſion, in his Majeſty's moſt illuſtrious Family.

We can never too thankfully acknowledge the Aſſurances your Grace is pleaſed to give us, of your moſt hearty Inclinations, and beſt Aſſiſtance, to promote the Welfare of this Kingdom, under his Majeſty's mild and moſt gracious Government: And, in Return for ſo great Goodneſs, we ſhall think ourſelves indiſpenſably obliged to carry on all our Proceedings with ſuch Temper and Unanimity, as may give the greateſt Eaſe to your Grace's Adminiſtration, and at the ſame Time ſhew, that we are moſt affectionate and loyal Subjects, to the beſt of Kings.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Grace.

Truſtees of Mr. Knight's Charities;

Alſo, a Petition of the Truſtees of the Charitable Foundation of Mr. James Knight, in the Little Cloſe of St. Patrick's, Dublin, erected for the Education of Popiſh Children in the Principles of the Proteſtant Religion; and of the ſaid Truſtees for Support of four poor Proteſtant Widows, in an Alms-Houſe erected by the ſaid James Knight, near Mercer's Hoſpital, and of the ſaid Truſtees, for perpetuating among the Poor of this City the Remembrance of the Mercies vouchſafed to the Proteſtants of this Kingdom, by ſending the great King William III. of glorious Memory, to deliver them from Popery and Slavery.

Praying an Exemption from the ſaid Heads of a Bill, to reſtrain the Diſpoſitions of Lands, whereby the ſame may become unalienable; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Governors of Mercer's Hoſpital;

Alſo, a Petition of the Governors of Mercer's Hoſpital in Stephen-Street, Dublin, for the Relief of the Poor Sick and Wounded: Praying an Exemption from the ſaid Heads of a Bill, to reſtrain the Diſpoſitions of Lands, whereby the ſame may become unalienable; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

And

Bishop of Down, &c. against Heads of Mortmain Bill.

And also, a Petition of the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Down and others of the Clergy of the said Diocese, praying, for the Reasons therein contained, that the Endowment of the Alms-Houses in the Town of Downpatrick, for the Use and Benefit of poor Clergymen's Widows, may be exempted in the said Heads of a Bill, to restrain the Dispositions of Lands, whereby the same may become unalienable; was presented to the House, and read.

Order on said Petitions.

Ordered, that the said several Petitions be, and are hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees of the whole House, to whom the further Consideration of Heads of a Bill to restrain the Dispositions of Lands, whereby the same may become unalienable, are committed.

Heads of a Bill for Church-Lands, &c.

Heads of a Bill, to explain and amend an Act, passed in the 10th and 11th Years of the Reign of King Charles I. intitled, An Act for the Preservation of the Inheritance, Rights and Profits of Lands belonging to the Church and Persons ecclesiastical, were, according to Order, read a second time.

A Motion being made, and the Question put, That the said Heads of a Bill be committed to a Committee of the whole House;

It was resolved in the Negative.

DISSENTIENT,

DARNLEY.

Not to be committed.

BECAUSE we conceive, that these Heads of a Bill, if passed into a Law would greatly have contributed to the Improvement of a very considerable Part of the Lands of this Kingdom, now in the Possession of Persons ecclesiastical. Protest.

Judges to lay before the House a List of Acts of Parliament affected by Heads of Mortmain Bill.

The Judges, according to Order, laid before the House a List of the several Acts of Parliament, which may be affected by Heads of a Bill to restrain the Dispositions of Lands, whereby the same may become unalienable.

Ordered, that the said List be referred to the Lords' Committees of the whole House, to whom the Consideration of the said Heads of a Bill is committed.

Lord Santry to attend.

Ordered, that the Lord Santry do attend in his Place, in this House, on Wednesday Morning next.

A Message

Meſſage from Commons, for Conference.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Arthur Hill and others, Members of the ſaid Houſe, to acquaint this Houſe, that the Commons deſire a Conference with their Lordſhips on a Matter, touching the Privileges of their Houſe; and then the Meſſengers withdrew.

Conference agreed to.

The Meſſengers from the Commons were again called in: And the Lord Chancellor acquainted them, that this Houſe hath agreed to a Conference, as deſired; and hath appointed the ſame immediately, in the Conference-Chamber.

Then the Meſſengers withdrew.

Managers appointed.

Ordered, that Managers be appointed to meet at the Conference with the Commons, in the Conference-Chamber on the Subject-matter of the Meſſage of that Houſe.

And the Lords under-named were appointed Managers at the ſaid Conference, viz.

Earl of Cavan	Viſc. Allen
Earl of Darnley	Viſc. Limerick
Viſc. Valentia	Viſc. Duncannon
Viſc. Boyne	Viſc. Galway

The Houſe, being acquainted by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, that the Managers for the Commons were in the Conference-Chamber; the Lords who were appointed Managers were called over.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and the Managers went to meet the Commons, in the Conference-Chamber.

The Managers being returned,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Earl of Cavan acquainted the Houſe, that he, with the other Lords who were appointed Managers, went to the Conference-Chamber, and there met the Managers for the Commons, and that Mr. Arthur Hill, who managed the ſaid Conference for the Commons, delivered in a Paper, which his Lordſhip read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, as follows, viz.

" My Lords,

Paper from Conference.

" THE Commons in Parliament aſſembled, " being always inclined to preſerve a good " Correſpondence with the Houſe of Lords, " have deſired this Conferenee, to acquaint " your Lordſhips, that whereas a worthy " Member of their Houſe hath complained to " them of a Breach of Privilege committed " by Henry Purdon, Eſq; one of his Majeſty's " Serjeants at Law, an Aſſiſtant of your Lord- " ſhips' Houſe.

" The Commons being tender of your " Lordſhips' Privileges, as of their own, have " avoided the uſual Courſe of Proceeding, " not doubting of your Lordſhips' good Diſ- " poſition and Readineſs to order the ſaid " Henry Purdon to attend the Committee of " Privileges and Elections, upon the ſaid Com- " plaint, when duly ſummoned thereto."

Committee to inſpect Journals, &c.

Ordered, that the Lords who were Managers at the ſaid Conference, be appointed a Committee to inſpect the Journals of this Houſe, and ſearch Precedents upon the Subject-matter of the Paper, delivered in by the Commons to the Lords, at the ſaid Conference.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Manner of holding Conferences.

Ordered, that it be an Inſtruction to the ſaid Lords' Committees, to inquire into the Manner of holding of Conferences.

Petition of Biſhop of Down, &c. againſt Heads of Mortmain Bill.

A Petition of the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Down and Connor, and the Rev. Richard Daniel, Dean of Down, ſetting forth, that there is a large Hoſpital built and endowed in the Town of Downpatrick, for the Support of old decayed Houſe-keepers, and ſuch as are incapable of getting their Bread by their Labour; and ſeveral Additions being likely to be made to the ſaid Charity, and fearing the ſame be affected by Heads of a Bill now depending before their Lordſhips, commonly called the Mortmain Bill: And praying that the ſaid Hoſpital may be exempted, by a Clauſe in the ſaid Heads of a Bill, from being comprehended within the Force thereof; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that the ſaid Petition be referred to the Lords' Committees of the whole Houſe, to whom the Conſideration of Heads of a Bill to reſtrain the Diſpoſitions of Lands, whereby the ſame may become unalienable, is committed.

Bp of Down's Petition.

Ordered, that the Petition of Francis Lord Biſhop of Down and Conner be received; and the ſaid Petition was then read.

Upon reading the Order of the Day for the Houſe to be put into a Committee, to take into further Conſideration Heads of a Bill to reſtrain the Diſpoſitions of Lands, whereby the ſame may become unalienable;

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall be put into a Committee upon this Day ſe'n-night, to take the ſaid Heads of a Bill into further Conſideration.

Houſe called.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, proceeded to the Call of the Houſe, and the Names of ſuch Lords as made default to appear, were noted down.

Ordered, that the Names of ſuch Lords who made default to appear this Day, be again called over upon this Day fortnight.

Ordered, that Mrs. Catherine Daly, Widow, do attend this Houſe on this Day ſe'n-night.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Santry, according to Order, attending in his Place, Petition againſt Lord Santry.

A Petition of Benjamin Burton, Eſq; Reſiduary Legatee of Charles Campbell, Eſq; deceaſed, and John Moor and William Colvill, Executors of the ſaid Charles Campbell, ſetting forth that the Petitioners, in Trinity Term, 1732, filed their Bill of Complaint in his Majeſty's High Court of Chancery againſt the Right Hon. Henry late Lord Santry, deceaſed, to be decreed to the Balance of an Account due by his Lordſhip to the ſaid Charles Campbell, and for other Matters in the ſaid Bill contained: To which his Lordſhip put in his Anſwer; but before any further Proceedings were had, departed this Life.

That ſaid Lord Santry, having duly made and publiſhed his Laſt Will and Teſtament, in Writing, did thereby appoint his Wife Bridget, now Lady Dowager Santry, ſole Executrix.

That ſaid Lady Santry, having renounced the Execution of ſaid Will, Adminiſtration was granted to the Right Hon. Henry Lord Santry, only Son and Heir of the ſaid Lord.

That the Petitioners, being informed ſaid Lord inſiſted on his Privilege of Parliament, the Petitioners Counſel, Six-Clerk and Agent abſolutely refuſe to proſecute their Suit, by Means whereof the Petitioners are greatly prejudiced, and may be in Danger of loſing their Debt, ſhould the perſonal Eſtate of the ſaid late Lord be miſapplied.

And praying their Lordſhips to take the Premiſes into Conſideration, and to grant the Petitioners ſuch Relief, as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom, ſhall ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

An Act of the 6th of Queen Anne, for explaining and limiting the Privileges of Parliament being then, by Order, read;

Lord Santry leave to wave Privilege.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Santry have the Leave of this Houſe, at his own Requeſt, to wave his Privilege, in a Suit depending in his Majeſty's High Court of Chancery, wherein Benjamin Burton, Eſq; and others, are Plaintiffs; and his Lordſhip and others, are Defendants.

Heads of Bill for Church-Lands, &c.

The Lord Viſc. Limerick, according to Order, preſented to the Houſe, Heads of a Bill to repeal Part of an Act paſſed in the 10th and 11th Years of King Charles I. intitled, An Act for the Preſervation of the Inheritance, Rights and Profits of Lands belonging to the Church and Perſons eccleſiaſtical; which were read a firſt time.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be read a ſecond time on Friday next.

Heads of Game-Bill.

The Earl of Cavan preſented to the Houſe, Heads of a Bill for the better Preſervation of the Game; which were received, and read a firſt time.

Ordered, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be read a ſecond time on Friday next.

Report on Precedents at Conference.

The Earl of Cavan reported from the Lords' Committees appointed to inſpect the Journals of this Houſe and ſearch Precedents upon the Subject-matter of the Paper, delivered in by the Commons to the Lords, at a Conference, on Monday laſt, relating to Privilege; that they had inſpected the Journals, and upon Search for Precedents, do find, That by the Journal of this Houſe of the 2d of November, 1697, the Commons, by Mr. Thomas Brodrick, ſent a Meſſage to this Houſe, to deſire a Conference, in relation to the Privilege of their Houſe; and an immediate Conference was agreed agreed to, at which the Managers for the Commons delivered a Paper, importing, That the Earl of Barrymore had diſtrained Lands in the Poſſeſſion of Robert Rogers, Eſq; a Member of their Houſe, as Tenant to Mr. Solicitor General and Major Clayton, alſo Members of their Houſe, during that Seſſion of Parliament, in violation of the Privilege of that Houſe: Which Matter they ordered them to lay before their Lordſhips; and deſired, that their Lordſhips would redreſs the ſame.

Another Complaint had been made to them, that the ſaid Earl of Barrymore came in Perſon on Lands belonging to Mr. Worth, a Member of their Houſe, and broke open the Door of a Houſe, where ſome Corn lay that was diſtrained by the ſaid Mr. Worth; which he took away, and which they deſired might alſo be redreſſed.

But the Lords' Committees obſerve, that the Commons, in the ſaid Writing, did not preſcribe to the Lords any particular Method of redreſſing the ſame.

The Lords' Committees do alſo find, by the Journal of this Houſe, of the 18th November, 1698, that the Lords deſired a Conference with the Commons which was agreed to; at which Conference their Lordſhips delivered a Paper, importing: That they were informed by a Right Rev. Prelate of this Houſe, that John Campbell, a Servant of David Cairns, Eſq; a Member of the Houſe of Commons, had committed a Breach of Privilege of this Houſe; but that the Lords did not doubt their good Diſpoſition and Readineſs to do them Right in ſo high a Violation of their Privileges; but did not preſcribe, therein, any particular Method of redreſſing the ſame, but left it to the Commons, to do therein as they thought proper, as the Commons had done to the Lords in the Precedent before-mentioned.

The Lords' Committees take Leave to obſerve, that in the Writing delivered by the Commons, at the laſt Conference with this Houſe, in the Caſe of Henry Purdon, Eſq; an Aſſiſtant of your Lordſhips, the Commons deſire that your Lordſhips will order the ſaid Henry Purdon to attend the Committee of Privileges and Elections, upon the ſaid Complaint when duly ſummon'd thereunto, which the Lords' Committees conceive to be unprecedented.

The Lords' Committees have alſo ſearched the Journals relating to the Manner of holding Conferences, and do not find any Rule or Method for holding Conferences, other than what is particularly ſpecified in the Standing Orders of this Houſe.

The Standing Orders of this Houſe, in relation to Conferences, being then read;

Lords' Committees to prepare Anſwer.

Ordered, that the Lords who managed at the laſt Conference with the Commons, be and are hereby appointed a Committee to prepare an Anſwer in Writing, to the Paper delivered by the Managers for the Commons, at the ſaid Conference; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips or any three of them, to meet on Friday Morning next, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Adjourned till Friday Morning next, at Eleven o'clock.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

A Petition of Nathaniel Bland, Doctor of Laws, William Armſtrong and Thomas Lumm, Eſq'rs. and the Rev. William Gore, in behalf of themſelves and their Wives, Co-heireſſes of Francis Heaton, late of Ballyſkenagh alias Mount-Heaton, in the King's County, Eſq; deceaſed, ſetting forth: That the ſaid Francis Heaton died, poſſeſſed of a conſiderable real Eſtate in Lands, ſubject to ſome Incumbrances; and leaving four Daughters, the now reſpective Wives of the Petitioners, who were each of them intitled to one Fourth-part thereof, and poſſeſſed the ſame, as Tenants in common.

That the Petitioners, to avoid Diſputes, entered into an Agreement for making a Partition of the ſaid Eſtate, ſo as each Party might ſeverally hold their reſpective Fourth-part; and the ſame was accordingly divided into four Shares.

That it will be greatly for the Benefit of all Perſons intereſted in the ſaid Lands, to have the ſaid Partition eſtabliſhed and confirmed; which cannot be done without the Aid of Parliament.

And praying their Lordſhips may give Leave, that Heads of a Bill be brought in, for confirming and eſtabliſhing the ſaid Partition, ſubjecting the ſame to an equal Proportion of the Incumbrances affecting the ſaid Lands; was preſented to the Houſe and read.

Ordered, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill, according to the Prayer of the ſaid Petition. Order thereon.

Perſons ſworn in relation to the Work-Houſe.

Nicholas Grubere, John Hodgſon, William Hawker, the Rev. Laurence Norton, Richard Wilding, Thomas Robinſon, Mary Carleton, Anne Bayly, and Elizabeth Quaile, were by Order called in, and ſeverally ſworn at the Bar, in order to give their Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees, appointed to inquire into the State of the Work-Houſe in this City, and how the ſeveral Acts of Parliament relating thereunto, have been executed.

Heads of Dr. Bland's, &c. Bill.

The Lord Tullamore, according to Order, preſented to the Houſe, Heads of a Bill for eſtabliſhing and confirming a Partition of certain Lands, late the Eſtate of Francis Heaton of Ballyſkenagh alias Mount Heaton, in the King's County, Eſq; deceaſed, and to ſubject the ſaid Partition to an equal Proportion of the the Incumbrances affecting the ſaid Lands; which were read a firſt time.

Ordered, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be read a ſecond time on Friday next.

Lords' Committees to inſpect Priſons.

Ordered, that Lords' Committees be appointed to inſpect into the State of the ſeveral Priſons in the City of Dublin, and the Liberties thereunto adjoining, and that the Lord Viſc. Valentia and all the Lords preſent be the ſaid Committee; whoſe Lordſhips have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet in the Committee-Chamber To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

The Earl of Cavan reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Anſwer, in Writing, to the Paper delivered by the Managers for the Commons, at the laſt Conference: That they had prepared an Anſwer accordingly, which he read in his Place, and the ſame was afterwards read at the Table, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

Anſwer to Commons.

THE Lords having read your Paper, delivered at the laſt Conference in the Conference-Chamber, are apprehenſive, that ſome Words therein ſeem to aſſert a Right of ſummoning an Aſſiſtant of their Lordſhips, to attend the Committee of Privileges and Elections; and likewiſe ſeem to preſcribe to their Lordſhips, the Method in which they are to proceed, which they conceive to be unprecedented, and of which they deſire to be ſatisfied by the Houſe of Commons.

Meſſage to Commons thereon.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Juſtice Ward and Mr. Juſtice Roſe, to acquaint them, that the Lords deſire a preſent Conference with the Commons, in the Conference-Chamber, upon the Subject-matter of the laſt Conference.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

Heads of Bill for Church-Lands,

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and and put into a Committee, upon Heads of a Bill to repeal Part of an Act, paſſed in the 10th and 11th Years of King Charles I. intitled, An Act for the Preſervation of the Inheritance Rights and Profits of Lands belonging to the Church and Perſons eccleſiaſtical; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Viſc. Limerick reported from the Committee, that they had made ſome Progreſs therein, and that he was directed to move the Houſe for Leave to ſit again.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall be put into a Committee at Three o'clock, to take the ſaid Heads of a Bill into further Conſideration, and that the ſaid Committee ſhall have Power to receive a Clauſe or Clauſes.

Mr. Juſtice Ward and Mr. Juſtice Roſe, being returned from the Commons, reported, that in Obedience to the Order of this Houſe, they acquainted the Commons, that their Lordſhips deſired a preſent Conference with them in the Conference-Chamber, upon the Subject-matter of the laſt Conference, and they have agreed to a Conference, as deſired.

Report on Meſſage to Commons for Conference, and Ordered, that the Lords who managed the laſt Conference, be appointed Managers to manage the preſent Conference.

Managers inſtructed.

Ordered, that the Lords who are appointed Managers at the ſaid Conference, do deliver to the Managers for the Commons, the Anſwer to their Paper, delivered at the laſt Conference, this Day agreed to by the Houſe.

Ordered, that the Earl of Barrymore ſhall have the Leave of this Houſe to go into the Country for a Month, upon extraordinary Occaſions, leaving his Proxy.

Ordered, that the Lord Kingſton ſhall have the Leave of this Houſe to go into the Country for two Months, upon extraordinary Occaſions, leaving his Proxy.

Committee on Heads of Bill for Church-Lands.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, to take into further Conſideration, Heads of a Bill to repeal Part of an Act, paſſed in the 10th and 11th Years of King Charles I. intitled, An Act for the Preſervation of the Inheritance, Rights and Profits of Lands belonging to the Church and Perſons eccleſiaſtical; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Viſc. Limerick reported from the Committee, that they had gone through the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and made ſeveral Amendments thereunto, which he was ready to report, when the Houſe will pleaſe to receive the ſame.

Ordered, that the Report be made To-morrow Morning.

Heads of Mortmain Bill.

Upon reading the Order for the Day, for the Houſe to be put into a Committee, to take into further Conſideration, Heads of a Bill to reſtrain the Diſpoſitions of Lands, whereby the ſame may become unalienable;

A Motion was made, and the Queſtion put, That this Houſe ſhall be put into a Committee upon the firſt Day of March next, to take the ſaid Heads of a Bill into further Conſideration;

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall, To-morrow Morning, be put into a Committee upon Heads of a Bill for the better Preſervation of the Game.

Mrs. Catherine Daly, being by Order to attend this Day upon the Complaint of the Clerk of the Parliaments; and the Houſe being acquainted, that ſhe had ſatisfied him in the Affair complained of;

Ordered, that the ſaid Mrs. Daly be diſcharged from further Attendance.

A Motion being made, and the Queſtion put, That the Minutes be now read;

It paſſed in the Negative.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Arthur Hill and others, which which was delivered to the Lord Chancellor, and then the Meſſengers withdrew.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that the Meſſengers had delivered to him a Meſſage from the Houſe of Commons, in Writing, as follows, viz.

Paper from Commons.

" YOUR Lordſhips, having deſired a preſent " Conference with the Commons, in the Con- " ference-Chamber, on the ſubject-matter of " the laſt Conference; and the Commons " having agreed thereto, appointed Mana- " gers, who immediately repaired to the " Conference-Chamber, and having found " the Bar ſhut down, and the Table placed " ſo cloſe to the Rail, that they could not " ſtand within the Rail, according to the " Right of the Commons, returned to the " Commons' Houſe, and informed the Com- " mons thereof.

" The Commons, deſirous of preſerving a " good Correſpondence with your Lordſhips, " have thought proper to acquaint you there- " with, not doubting your Lordſhips' Readi- " neſs to give them Satisfaction therein."

The Meſſengers from the Commons being called in,

The Lord Chancellor acquainted them, that this Houſe have conſidered of their Meſſage, and will ſend an Anſwer by Meſſengers of their Houſe.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Arthur Hill and others, which which was delivered to the Lord Chancellor, and then the Meſſengers withdrew.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that the Meſſengers had delivered to him a Meſſage from the Houſe of Commons, in Writing, as follows, viz.

Paper from Commons.

" YOUR Lordſhips, having deſired a preſent " Conference with the Commons, in the Con- " ference-Chamber, on the ſubject-matter of " the laſt Conference; and the Commons " having agreed thereto, appointed Mana- " gers, who immediately repaired to the " Conference-Chamber, and having found " the Bar ſhut down, and the Table placed " ſo cloſe to the Rail, that they could not " ſtand within the Rail, according to the " Right of the Commons, returned to the " Commons' Houſe, and informed the Com- " mons thereof.

" The Commons, deſirous of preſerving a " good Correſpondence with your Lordſhips, " have thought proper to acquaint you there- " with, not doubting your Lordſhips' Readi- " neſs to give them Satisfaction therein."

The Meſſengers from the Commons being called in,

The Lord Chancellor acquainted them, that this Houſe have conſidered of their Meſſage, and will ſend an Anſwer by Meſſengers of their Houſe.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to condole with him on the Death of our late gracious Queen Caroline, and to aſſure his Majeſty of our ſincereſt Wiſhes, that his Majeſty may long and happily reign over us.

Ordered, that the Earl of Kildare and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee, to meet immediately in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and the Lords withdrew to the Committee-Chamber, to prepare the ſaid Addreſs.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Earl of Kildare reported from the Committee, that they had prepared the ſaid Addreſs to his Majeſty, which he read in his Place, and after delivered the ſame in at the Table, where the ſaid Addreſs was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty, in the deepeſt Sorrow, on the Death of your Royal Conſort.

Her late Majeſty's Wiſdom, Goodneſs and extenſive Knowledge, will perpetuate and diſtinguiſh her Name to all future Ages; and her firm Adherence to the true reformed Religion, will make her Memory to be for ever honoured by all Proteſtants.

As the Conſtitution, eſtabliſhed upon the Principles of the late happy Revolution, was always the Object of her Eſteem and Affection; ſo was it always the ſteady Rule of her Actions, when ſhe exerciſed the Authority delegated by your Majeſty. And her Behaviour on thoſe Occaſions ſhewed, that ſhe highly deſerved to be the Partner of your publick as well as private Cares.

That the DIVINE PROVIDENCE may ſupport and comfort your Majeſty, and that the long Continuance of your ineſtimable Life may repair the univerſal Loſs! Are the united and fervent Prayers of us, and of all your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs ſhall be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

First Money-Bill,

Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for granting and continuing to his Majeſty an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Wine, Tobacco, and other Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned.

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

paſſed;

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Meſſage to Commons, with Concurrence.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by the Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of King's Bench and the Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of Common Pleas, to acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

Second Money-Bill,

Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for granting to his Majeſty a further additional Duty on Wine, Silk, Hops, China, Earthen, japann'd or lacquer'd Ware, and Vinegar; and alſo a Tax of four Shillings in the Pound on all Salaries, Profits of Employments, Fees and Penſions, to be applied to pay an Intereſt of £5 ℔ Cent. ℔ Ann. for the Sum of £300,000, or ſuch Part thereof, as ſhall remain unpaid on the 25th Day of December, 1737, and towards the Diſcharge of the ſaid Principal Sum.

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

paſſed;

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Meſſage to Commons with Concurrence.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by the Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of King's-Bench, and the Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of Common-Pleas, to acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Sir Richard Cox, Bart. and others, which was delivered to the Lord Chancellor, and then the Meſſengers withdrew.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that the Meſſengers had delivered to him a Meſſage from the Houſe of Commons, in Writing, as follows, viz.

" My Lords,

Paper from Commons,

" THE Commons having, on the 29th of " November laſt, ſent your Lordſhips a Meſ- " ſage, to acquaint you with an Alteration " made in the Place appointed by your Lord- " ſhips for a Conference, by ſhutting down " the Bar, and placing the Table ſo cloſe to " the Rail, that the Managers could not ſtand " within the Rail, according to the Right of " the Commons; and having as yet received " no Anſwer, have thought it neceſſary to " remind your Lordſhips of the ſaid Meſſage."

The Meſſengers from the Commons being called in, the Lord Chancellor acquainted them, that this Houſe will ſend an Anſwer to their Meſſage by Meſſengers of their own.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And his Grace William Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Drogheda carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Kildare the Cap of Maintenance; the Right Hon. the Lord Villiers, eldeſt Son of the Earl of Grandiſon, the Hon. Mr. Skeffington, Son to the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene, and the Hon. Mr. Bermingham, Son to the Lord Athenry, bearing the Train of the Robe of State: His Grace the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats. L^d Lieutenant preſent.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, ſaid,

" Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod,

" HIS Grace the Lord Lieutenant com- " mands you to repair to the Houſe of Com- " mons, and acquaint them, that it is his " Grace's Pleaſure they attend him imme- " diately in the Houſe of Peers."

Who being returned, acquainted his Grace, that the Commons were at the Door:

And being ordered to call them in, they, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar by the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Speaker makes a Speech with Money-Bill

And Mr. Speaker, after a ſhort Speech to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, in relation to the two Money-Bills, delivered them at the Bar to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought them to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Titles of the Bills to be paſſed, as follow, viz.

Royal Aſſ given to Money-Bi

1. An Act for granting and continuing to his Majeſty, an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Wine, Tobacco and other Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned.

2. An Act for granting to his Majeſty, a further additional Duty on Wine, Silk, Hops, China, Earthen, japann'd or lacquer'd Ware, and Vinegar; and alſo a Tax of four Shillings in the Pound on all Salaries, Profits of Employments, Fees and Penſions, to be applied to pay an Intereſt of £5 ℔ Cent. ℔ Ann. for the Sum of £300,000, or ſuch Part thereof as ſhall remain unpaid on the 25th Day of December, 1737, and towards the Diſcharge of the ſaid Principal Sum.

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent in theſe Words, viz.

" Le Roy remercie ſes bons Sujets, accepte leur " Benevolence, et ainſi le veult."

Then

Then his Grace was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed.

Meſſage from Commons, Ordered, that the Meſſage ſent up this Day by the Commons, be referred to the Lords' Committees, appointed to ſearch Precedents, and prepare an Anſwer, in Writing, to the Meſſage ſent up by the Commons, to this Houſe the 29th of November laſt.

Prayers.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Earl of Cavan reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to ſearch Precedents, and prepare an Anſwer in Writing to a Meſſage ſent up by the Commons of the 29th of November laſt; that they had prepared an Anſwer accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and with an Amendment, agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

THE Lords, having on the 29th of November laſt, deſired a preſent Conference with the Commons, in the Conference-Chamber, on the Subject-matter of a former Conference; and the Commons, having agreed thereto, the Lords expected for a conſiderable time the Attendance of the Commons, in the Conference-Chamber; but at length received a Meſſage from the Commons, wherein the Commons aſſert a Right for their Managers at Conferences to ſtand within the Bar.

The Lords, being always deſirous to keep up a good Correſpondence with the Commons, are ready to revive the ſaid Conference, but cannot comply with the Commons, in admitting their Managers to ſtand within the Bar, contrary to the ancient Rights and Privileges of the Lords.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by the Lord Chief Baron and Mr. Juſtice Lindſay, to carry down the Anſwer agreed to this Day by the Lords to their Meſſage, of the 29th of November laſt.

Judges return a Liſt of temporary Statutes. The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that the Judges, in Obedience to their Lordſhips' Order, had prepared a Liſt of the ſeveral Statutes that are expired, or near expiring, which was read at the Table.

Committee to prepare Heads of Bill Ordered, that all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to inſpect the ſaid Liſt, and to prepare ſuch Heads of a Bill thereupon as they ſhall think proper.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet in the Committee-Chamber, on Thurſday Morning next, at Ten o'clock, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Adjourned till Thurſday Morning next, at Eleven o'clock.

Complaint againſt R. Boland relative to Work-Houſe

The Lord Tullamore acquainted the Houſe, that it appeared to the Lords' Committees, appointed to inquire into the State of the Work-Houſe in this City, and how the ſeveral Acts of Parliament relating thereunto have been executed; that two Warrants were iſſued by Richard Boland, one of the Coroners of the County of Dublin, under his Hand and Seal, one dated the 8th and the other the 14th of this inſt. February, for levying Money on ſeveral Inhabitants of the Town of Kilmainham, and the Towns adjacent, for holding Inqueſts on ſeveral Children belonging to the Work-Houſe, which were ſuppoſed to be murdered; which Warrants were directed to Daniel Pye, Conſtable of Kilmainham and his Aſſiſtants, in order to levy the ſame; and the ſaid Warrants being afterwards read by the Clerk, at the Table:

Depoſition of Dan. Pye.

Daniel Pye was by Order called in, and ſworn at the Bar, who depoſed, that he had received the ſaid Warrants from the ſaid Rich. Boland, and that he had levied the moſt Part of the ſaid Money as he was directed by the ſaid Warrants; and being ordered to withdraw,

Upon Motion made to the Houſe, the Opinion of the Judges was demanded, Whether the ſaid Warrants, iſſued by the ſaid Richard Boland, were according to Law?

Opinion of Judges.

To which Mr. Juſtice Lindſay gave his Opinion, That the ſaid Warrants, as iſſued by the ſaid Richard Boland, were intirely illegal.

Mr. Baron St. Leger was of the ſame Opinion.

Reſolution thereon.

Reſolved, that the raiſing of Money by the ſaid Richard Boland, in manner as by his ſaid Warrants is directed, is illegal.

Order to proſecute R. Boland.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Majeſty's Attorney-General do proſecute Richard Boland, for iſſuing of two Warrants under his Hand and Seal, one dated the 8th and the other the 14th of this inſt. February, for levying Money on ſeveral Inhabitants of the Town of Kilmainham, and the Towns adjacent, as Coroner of the Co. Dublin, for holding Inqueſts on ſeveral Children belonging to the Work-Houſe, which were ſuppoſed to be murdered; which Warrants were directed to Daniel Pye, Conſtable of Kilmainham and his Aſſiſtants, in order to levy the ſame, and which was accordingly levied by the ſaid Daniel Pye.

Ordered, that the Clerk of this Houſe do deliver to his Majeſty's Attorney-General the ſaid Warrants, in order to the Proſecution of the ſaid Richard Boland.

Ordered, that Daniel Pye do attend his Majeſty's Attorney-General to give in his Examinations, in relation to the intended Proſecution of the ſaid Richard Boland.

Witneſſes ſworn.

Daniel Pye, Edward Moſely, Patrick Regan and Hannah Needham, being by Order called in, were ſeverally ſworn at the Bar, in order to give their Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees appointed to inquire into the State of the Work-Houſe in this City, and how the ſeveral Acts of Parliament relating thereunto, have been executed.

Lord Duncannon and Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Duncannon ſhall have the Leave of this Houſe, at his own Requeſt, to wave his Privilege, in a Suit commenced in his Majeſty's High Court of Chancery, in a Cauſe wherein the Lord Tullamore is Plaintiff, and his Lordſhip is Defendant.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that the Meſſengers had delivered to him a Meſſage from the Houſe of Commons, in Writing, as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Paper from Commons.

"THE Commons are ſurpriſed, that the "Lords ſhould at this Time diſpute the "hitherto unconteſted Right of the Commons, "that their Managers ſhould go within the "Rail, at all Conferences.

"The Commons, ever deſirous to preſerve "a good Correſpondence with the Lords, are "as careful not to infringe the Rights and "Privileges of the Lords, as they are deter-"mined to maintain their own. Wherefore, "the Commons hope, that the Lords, on re-"conſidering this Matter, will not inſiſt on a "Point never before drawn into Queſtion; "and from which the Commons cannot "depart.

"The Commons, though not diſpoſed to "animadvert on Words, cannot paſs by, un-"obſerved, the Stile of your Lordſhips' laſt "Meſſage, in the Words, 'Gentlemen of the "Houſe of Commons;' and the extraordinary "Expreſſion, 'that the Lords expected for a "conſiderable Time the Attendance of the "Commons, in the Conference-Chamber.' "The Commons do not attend, they meet the "Lords at Conference."

The Meſſengers from the Commons, being called in,

The Lord Chancellor acquainted them, that this Houſe will ſend an Anſwer to their Meſſage, by Meſſengers of their own.

Maiming Bill — Hodie tertia vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act to prevent malicious maiming and wounding, and to prevent carrying secret Arms.

The Question was put, Whether this Bill shall pass?

Message to Commons with Concurrence. — A Message was sent to the House of Commons, by Mr. Cuffe and Mr. Smith, to acquaint them, that this House hath agreed to the said Bill, without any Amendment.

Bill against inlisting for foreign Service. — Hodie tertia vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act for the more effectual preventing the inlisting of his Majesty's Subjects to serve as Soldiers in foreign Service, without his Majesty's License.

The Question was put, Whether this Bill shall pass?

passed; — It was resolved in the Affirmative.

Message to Commons, with Concurrence. — A Message was sent to the House of Commons, by Mr. Cuffe and Mr. Smith, to acquaint them, that this House hath agreed to the said Bill, without any Amendment.

The Earl of Cavan reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Answer in Writing, to the Message sent up by the Commons, the 21st of February last; that they had prepared an Answer accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the same was again read.

The Proceedings of both Houses upon their several Messages and Answers, were then by Order read.

The said Answer was then read, Paragraph by Paragraph, and with some Amendments, agreed to by the House, as follows, viz.

Answer to Paper from Commons. — THE Commons must have been surprised, otherwise they could never have insisted on that as an uncontested Right, which has been contested at Conferences, and denied by the Lords.

If the Commons had been pleased to offer any Reasons or Authorities, to shew that their Managers ought to stand within the Bar at all Conferences, the Lords would have given them their due Consideration and Weight; but whilst Assertions only are offered, the Lords cannot recede from what they have Reason to think has been the Usage.

The Commons may observe any Mistake in the Style of the Lords, which the Lords are always ready to amend; but the Commons should not animadvert; the Term is injurious.

That the Commons do attend the Lords at Conferences, their own Votes testify.

Message to Commons therewith. — It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that a Message be sent to the House of Commons, by Mr. Cuffe and Mr. Smith, with the Answer agreed to this Day by the House, to their Message of the 20th of February last.

Ordered, that all Orders for the Day, not proceeded upon, be adjourned till To-morrow Morning.

The Earl of Granard reported from the Lords' Committees for Religion appointed to examine into the Cauſes of the preſent notorious Immorality and Profaneneſs, as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Report from Lords' Committees for Religion, &c.

THE Lords' Committees for Religion, appointed to examine into the Cauſes of the preſent notorious Immorality and Profaneneſs, beg Leave, before they report to your Lordſhips what Progreſs they have made in that Inquiry, to obſerve, that an uncommon Scene of Impiety and Blaſphemy appeared before them, wherein ſeveral Perſons muſt have been concerned; but by reaſon of their meeting late in the Seſſion, they have not been able to prepare a full and ſatisfactory Account thereof for your Lordſhips: However, they think it their Duty to lay it before your Lordſhips, as it hath appeared to them, that before the Concluſion of this Seſſion, ſome Meaſures may be taken to put a Stop to the ſpreading of theſe Impieties, which it is to be hoped, in the next Seſſion of Parliament, your Lordſhips will be able, by proper Laws and Remedies, wholly to extinguiſh and prevent for the future.

The Lords' Committees have ſufficient Grounds to believe (though no direct Proof thereof upon Oath hath yet been laid before them) that ſeveral looſe and diſorderly Perſons have of late erected themſelves into a Society or Club under the Name of Blaſters, and have uſed Means to draw into this impious Society ſeveral of the Youth of this Kingdom.

What the Practices of this Society are, (beſide the general Fame ſpread through the whole Kingdom) appears by the Examinations of ſeveral Perſons, taken upon Oath before the Lord Mayor of this City, in relation to Peter Lens, Painter, lately come into this Kingdom, who profeſſes himſelf a Blaſter.

By theſe Examinations, it appears, that the ſaid Peter Lens profeſſes himſelf to be a Votary of the Devil; that he hath offered up Prayers to him, and publickly drank to the Devil's Health; that he hath at ſeveral times uttered the moſt daring and execrable Blaſphemies againſt the ſacred Name and Majeſty of GOD; and often made uſe of ſuch obſcene, blaſphemous, and, before unheard-of, Expreſſions, as the Lords Committees think they cannot even mention to your Lordſhips; and therefore chooſe to paſs over in Silence.

As Impieties and Blaſphemies of this kind were utterly unknown to our Anceſtors, the Lords' Committees obſerve, that the Laws framed by them muſt be unequal to ſuch enormous Crimes, and that a new Law is wanting, more effectually to reſtrain and puniſh Blaſphemies of this kind.

The Lords' Committees cannot take upon them to aſſign the immediate Cauſes of ſuch monſtrous Impieties; but they beg Leave to obſerve, that of late Years there hath appeared a greater Neglect of Religion and all things ſacred, than was ever before known in this Kingdom; a great Neglect of Divine Worſhip, both publick and private, and of the due Obſervance of the Lord's Day; a Want of Reverence to the Laws and Magiſtrate; and of a due Subordination in the ſeveral Ranks and Degrees in the Community; and an Abuſe of Liberty, under our mild and happy Conſtitution; a great Neglect in Education; and a Want of Care in Parents and Maſters of Families, in training up their Children in Reverence and Awe; and keeping their Servants in Diſcipline and good Order; and inſtructing them in moral and religious Duties; a great Increaſe of Idleneſs, Luxury and exceſſive Gaming; and an Exceſs in the Uſe of ſpirituous and intoxicating Liquors.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that his Majeſty's Attorney-General be ordered to proſecute Peter Lens with the utmoſt Severity of the Law.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, that he would be pleaſed to order that a Proclamation may iſſue with a Reward for apprehending the ſaid Peter Lens, and that he would be further pleaſed to give it in Direction to the Judges in their ſeveral Circuits, to charge the Magiſtrates, to put the Laws in Execution againſt Immorality and profane Curſing and Swearing and Gaming, and to inquire into atheiſtical and blaſphemous Clubs.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Biſhops be deſired, at their Viſitations, to give it in particular Charge to their Clergy to exhort their People to a more frequent and conſtant Attendance on Divine Service.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Viſitors of the Univerſity, and of all Schools, do exhort and require the Fellows and Maſters, carefully to inſtruct the Youth committed to their Care in the Principles of Religion and Morality; and to inculcate a due Reverence to the Laws and Religion of their Country.

Ordered, that the further Conſideration of the ſaid Report be adjourned till Monday Morning next.

Meſſages from Commons, to return Bills

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Sir Thomas Prendergaſt and others, to return an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act that all Proceedings in Courts of Juſtice, within this Kingdom, ſhall be in the Engliſh Language; and to acquaint this Houſe, that they have agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment,

Alſo,

Alſo, a Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Sir Thomas Prendergaſt and others, to return an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act to explain and amend an Act, intitled, An Act for preventing Inconveniencies that may happen by Privilege of Parliament; and to acquaint this Houſe, that they have agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

Alſo, a Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Arthur Hill and others, with an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing, explaining and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned; to which they deſire the Concurrence of this Houſe.

And alſo, a Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Flood and others, with an Anſwer to the Meſſage of this Houſe of the 2d Inſt.

And the Meſſengers being withdrawn,

The Lord Chancellor reported the Meſſage from the Houſe of Commons, as follows, viz.

Paper from Commons.

" THE Commons cannot avoid taking No" tice, that the Diſpute between the Lords
" and Commons has been managed, on the " Part of the Lords, in a Manner not ſo well
" ſuited to the Dignity of either Houſe, as the " Commons could have wiſhed.

" The Turn upon the Word " ſurpriſed"
" (not to mention the unbecoming Inſinuation
" it carries) is ſo far beneath the Gravity of " an auguſt Body, that the Commons cannot " enough wonder how the Lords could de-
" ſcend to it.

" The Commons are ſurpriſed, that the " Lords ſhould expect Reaſons from them for " their oppoſing this Attempt on their Privi-
" leges, or ſhould require Authorities for the " Support of an Uſage, of which many of the " Lords have been Witneſſes, and of which " Right, being drawn into Queſtion between " the two Houſes, the Commons cannot find " any Trace.

" The Commons are not inclined to take " Notice of Miſtakes, but have a Right to " animadvert upon the Stile or Expreſſion of
" the Lords, when either is injurious to the " Commons.

" The unprecedented Claim the Lords
" make, to the Attendance of the Commons
" upon the Lords at Conferences, is the " higheſt Indignity to the Commons, and ut-
" terly inconſiſtent with the Independency of " the Commons on the Lords.

" The Commons do inſiſt it is their un-
" doubted Right, that their Managers ſhould
" go within the Rail when they meet the " Lords at Conference, and are determined to " maintain that Right."

The Meſſengers being again called in, the Lord Chancellor acquainted them, that this Houſe will ſend an Anſwer to the Houſe of Commons by Meſſengers of their own.

A Motion being made, and the Queſtion put, That the Conſideration of the ſaid Meſſage be referred to a ſelect Committee;

It was reſolved in the Negative.

Reſolved, that the Houſe ſhall be put into a Committee immediately, to take the ſaid Meſſage into Conſideration.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee thereupon; and after ſome time ſpent therein, Committee on Paper from Commons.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Earl of Cavan reported from the Committee, that they had made ſome Progreſs therein, and that he was directed to move the Houſe for Leave to ſit again.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall be put into a Committee To-morrow Morning, to take the ſaid Meſſage into further Conſideration, and nothing to intervene. Committee adjourned.

Ordered, that all the Lords in and about the Town be ſummoned to attend the Service of the Houſe To-morrow, preciſely at Twelve o'clock, upon Matters relating to the Privilege of the Houſe.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Committee on Paper from Commons.

Upon reading the Order for the Day, for the Houſe to be put into a Committee, to take into further Conſideration, the Meſſage of Yeſterday ſent up by the Commons.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Commitee thereupon; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Earl of Cavan reported from the Committee, that they had prepared an Anſwer to the ſaid Meſſage, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and is as follows, viz.

Anſwer to Commons.

THE Commons, in their late Meſſages to the Lords, having made uſe of ſeveral unprecedented, and, as the Lords apprehend, unparliamentary Expreſſions, new Queſtions have from thence ariſen, intirely foreign to the firſt Diſpute.

The Lords, though diſpoſed to come into a proper Agreement upon the ſeveral Points in Diſpute, think it not conſiſtent, either with their own Dignity or with a juſt Regard to the Conſtitution of Parliament (which cannot ſubſiſt, unleſs a due Balance be preſerved between the ſeveral Parts) ever to acquieſce under the Treatment which they have received, until the Commons think fit to explain themſelves upon the Style, as well as Matter, of their ſeveral Meſſages.

In the mean time, the Lords are reſolved, that the publick Buſineſs of the Seſſion ſhall, on their Part, ſuffer no Delay or Interruption.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Recorder and others, with an Anſwer to the laſt Meſſage, ſent down by this Houſe: And the Meſſengers being withdrawn, the Lord Chancellor reported the ſame, as follows, viz.

Paper from Commons.

" THE Commons are not conſcious, that " they have, in their Meſſages to the Lords, " made uſe of any unprecedented or unparliamentary Expreſſions, nor had they it ever " in their Intention.

" The Commons will always endeavour to " act with a juſt Regard to the Conſtitution " of Parliament, and to ſupport, as far as in " them lies, the Dignity and Privileges of both " Houſes; and conceive, that a due Balance " can no longer be preſerved between the " ſeveral Parts, than while the Rights of each " are equally maintained.

" The Commons, as they apprehend, have " already fully explained themſelves on the " Matter of their ſeveral Meſſages; and muſt " ſtill inſiſt on their undoubted Right, that " their Managers ſhould go within the Rail, " when they meet the Lords at Conferences."

The Meſſengers being then called in,

The Lord Chancellor acquainted them, that this Houſe will ſend an Anſwer by Meſſengers of their own.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

The Houſe proceeded to take into further Conſideration the Report made by the Lords' Committees, appointed to inquire into the State of the Work-Houſe in this City, and how the ſeveral Acts of Parliament relating thereunto have been executed, together with the Papers referred to in the ſaid Report, which, with ſome Amendments, was agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Report on State of the Work-Houſe &c. THE Lords' Committees, appointed to inquire into the State of the Work-Houſe of this City, and how the ſeveral Acts of Parliament relating thereto have been executed, have met, purſuant to your Lordſhip's Order, and having ſat, de Die et Diem, during the Receſs, as your Lordſhips gave them Leave, they now, in obedience to your Lordſhips' Commands, lay their Obſervations before your Lordſhips, in a ſpecial Report, the Defects of which, if any ſhould appear, the Lords' Committees hope your your Lordſhips will impute not to any Want of Diligence in them, but to the Variety and Intricacy of the Inquiry, and to the unexpected Difficulties which they often meet with in obtaining due Information.

The Lords' Committees find, that this Work-Houſe was originally founded in the 2d Year of Queen Anne; but, by an Act paſſed the 1ſt of King George II. Chap. 27, the old Corporation was diſſolved, and a new one was erected, called "The Governors of the Work-"Houſe of the City of Dublin."

This Corporation conſiſts of ſeveral Perſons of the higheſt Station and Quality; of a great Number of Gentlemen of the beſt Character and Fortune; of ſeveral Perſons poſſeſſed of certain Offices; and, among theſe laſt, of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Clergy of this City for the time being; and they have Power, inter alia, to chooſe annually out of their own Body, a Court of Aſſiſtants, to be the acting Governors to execute the Powers with which they are veſted, either by the Act or by the General Court.

It appears by this Act, that this Work-Houſe was at firſt principally deſigned for the Reception of common Beggars and of Children of ſix Years old and upwards, expoſed in this City, who were, till that Age, to be ſupported by and in the ſeveral Pariſhes, to whom Power is given by the ſaid Act to aſſeſs themſelves, in Veſtry, for that Purpoſe.

And among other Funds granted for the Support of this Work-Houſe, one was a Tax of three Pence ℔ Pound, according to the Valuation made for Miniſters' Money, on all the Houſes in the City and Liberties adjoining.

But the Method of ſupporting Foundlings, under the Age of ſix, in the ſeveral Pariſhes, being found very inconvenient, and to have occaſioned particularly the Deſtruction of a Multitude of Children, by the infamous Practice of lifting and running them from one Pariſh to another: For Remedy of this great Evil, an Act paſſed in the 3d Year of King George II. Chap. 17. That the Governors of the Work-Houſe ſhould, from the 25th of March 1730, receive all expoſed and Foundling Children, of whatever Age they were, into the Work-Houſe.

And becauſe the Support of theſe Children did neceſſarily require a new Fund; becauſe alſo, the ſeveral Pariſhes, before bound to ſupport each their own Foundlings, by particular Aſſeſſments, were by this Act intirely freed from that Burden; and yet it was highly reaſonable, that Children, expoſed in this City, ſhould be provided for, by the Inhabitants of it: For theſe Reaſons, this laſt Act lays an additional Tax of three Pence ℔ Pound on the ſeveral Houſes or Inhabitants, in the ſame Manner, and under the ſame Regulations, with the former.

The Lords' Committees obſerve, that this laſt Act has not only inlarged the Fund, but has almoſt intirely changed the Deſign, of the Work-Houſe, and made it in effect an Hoſpital for Foundlings.

Their Lordſhips are far from thinking, that this Houſe may not, in this way be as uſeful to the Publick, as in the former, perhaps more ſo: But they think it proper to make this Obſervation, becauſe it furniſhes the only tolerable Reaſon, which their Lordſhips think can be given, why the Streets continue infeſted with ſuch Numbers of vagrant and ſturdy Beggars, and others, whoſe real or pretended Maladies make them offenſive to Sight, notwithſtanding ſo large a Fund originally given for their Support and Maintenance in the Work-Houſe.

The Lords' Committees think it not neceſſary to trouble your Lordſhips with diſtinct Accounts of the two Funds; though a Diſtinction is made between them in the Accounts of the Work-Houſe; by which it appears, that a large Proportion of the original Fund for the Work-Houſe, has been applied to the Support of the Foundlings: But their Lordſhips think it will fully anſwer all the Ends of this Inquiry, and ſave much of your Lordſhips' Time, if they report only the general State of the Whole.

This Fund the Lords' Committees find to conſiſt partly of Rents; partly of a Tax on Coaches, Chairs and Carriages of all Kinds, plying for Hire; partly of the Tax already mentioned on Houſes; and partly of Fines for Licenſes, Forfeitures and other Contingencies: And the groſs Amount of the Whole, upon a Medium ſtruck of the laſt four Years, the Lords' Committees find to be ℔ Ann. £4087 : 18*s.* 6½*d.* The Particulars will appear from a Paper delivered into your Lordſhips with this Report N° I.

The Lords' Committees think it proper here to obſerve, that though this Fund appears very great, yet it is, in its Nature, liable to conſtant conſiderable Deficiencies.

The Rents amount to no more than £113 : 2*s.* ℔ Ann. and they are the only Branch of the Fund, that will anſwer Computation; yet even a Part of theſe has been, unhappily, ſubject to Difficulties in the Collection.

It appeared to the Lords' Committees, that the Rev. Mr. Henry Echlin, Miniſter of St. Catherine's, one of the Tenants, had, from time to time, neglected to pay his Rent, and had been ſued for it: And that, at the time when this Inquiry was begun, he owed above £63, which is near three Years' Rent; the Lords' Committees, upon this, thought it proper to ſend three ſeveral Summonſes for him; which though he ventured to diſobey, as your Lordſhips have been informed, by the Lord in the Chair, yet he thought fit to depoſite his Rent with the Clerk of the Parliaments.

In

In this Inſtance, the Lords' Committees think the Arrear to be owing to the Perverſeneſs of the Tenant; but in others it has been occaſioned by the groſs Neglect of the Treaſurers; as appeared particularly in the Caſe of Joſeph Fade, a conſiderable Banker of this City, who owed ſeven Years Rent, and when ſummoned and aſked the Reaſon, gave this, That it was never demanded.

The next Branch of the Fund, is the Tax on Coaches, Chairs and other Carriages; a Part of which, viz. the Tax for fifty Coaches and forty Chairs, the Act 1ſt King George II. Chap. 27, directs to be paid over to the Governors of the Blue-Coat Hoſpital: The Deficiencies on this Branch, the Lords' Committees think muſt from the Nature of it, be always very conſiderable.

The Number of Coaches, and Chairs or Sedans, is limited by the Act 1ſt King George II. Chap. 27, to 200 each; and though this Limitation appears to be much for the Advantage of the Owners of the Licenſes; yet the Lords' Committees find, that the Number of Hackney-Coaches, which actually ply in the City, is often conſiderably leſs than the Law allows; which muſt of Neceſſity occaſion a proportionable Deficiency on this Part of the Fund.

The Number of other Carriages of every kind, which are ſubject to a Tax, is not limited by the Act; and this the Lords' Committees think to have been one Cauſe of a very great Deficiency, as well as Uncertainty, in this Branch of the Fund: Becauſe in the Courſe of the Examination, it plainly appeared, that at certain Seaſons of the Year, when there is much Work, new Licenſes for Cars of ſeveral kinds are taken out, which, when the Seaſon of Buſineſs is over, are either returned or dropped; and thus the Value on theſe Branches appears greater in Computation, and yet is leſs in actual Receipt, than otherwiſe it would be; for the Owners of old Licenſes, being deprived by this Increaſe of Cars, of Part of their Profit, are often diſabled from paying their Tax; and thoſe who take occaſional ones, being of low Condition and uncertain Habitation, eaſily withdraw themſelves, and pay nothing at all.

But great as theſe Deficiencies are, the Lords Committees cannot but obſerve, that they have been vaſtly increaſed by the Remiſſneſs of the Officers, particularly of the Treaſurer of the Work-Houſe; as this Tax is paid by People for the moſt Part of a very low Rank, ſo it muſt be levied with Exactneſs and Care, or it will never be paid: This is one Part of the Buſineſs of the Treaſurer; and the Governors, to enable him more effectually to do it, have appointed proper Officers, called Drivers, to diſtrain for Non-Payment.

The other great Branch of the Fund of the Work-Houſe, is the Tax of Six-Pence ℔ Pound on Houſes, which has already been mentioned; and this the Lords' Committees obſerve, is alſo, in its Nature, liable to great Deficiencies, where Houſes are empty, or the Inhabitants inſolvent.

It appeared, by Returns which the Lords' Committees ordered to be made by the ſeveral Miniſters of this City, that the Difference between the groſs Charge, and Net Produce upon their Valuations, was to them conſiderable; and of Conſequence, it muſt be ſo, upon the Tax to the Work-Houſe; but this Deficiency alſo the Lords' Committees obſerve, has been very greatly increaſed by the confuſed and careleſs Manner of Collection. By the Act of the 1ſt King Geo. II. Chap. 27, the Church-Wardens were to collect this Tax, and pay it over to the Treaſurer of the Work-Houſe: But this Method being found, or apprehended to be inconvenient, an Act paſſed the 5th King Geo. II. Chap. 14, to enable the Governors to appoint Collectors, and to allow them Six-Pence for every twenty Shillings they ſhould actually receive; in Purſuance of which, Collectors have been appointed: But the Lords' Committees do not find, that this Change in the Method of Collection, has yet had the deſired Effect; they think, that the Deficiencies on this great Branch of the Fund, are much larger than they ought to have been; but the Shortneſs of their Time and the Variety of other Matter, would not allow them thoroughly to examine them; and they more eaſily diſpenſed with themſelves from doing it, becauſe by a Memorial lately preferred to the Governors by Beſt Pakenham, one of the Collectors, and approved of by them, their Lordſhips ſee great Reaſons to hope, that all Errors and Miſmanagements, which have hitherto happened in the Collection of this Part of the Fund, will, for the future, be effectually remedied.

The Lords' Committees, having examined as fully as they could, into the Nature and groſs Amount of the Work-Houſe Fund, proceeded next, to inquire into the Net Receipt, and the Application of it.

At firſt, they propoſed to carry their Inquiry back to the Foundation of the preſent Corporation: But they ſoon found this to be for many Reaſons impracticable, and therefore reſolved to confine themſelves to the Time ſince the preſent Treaſurer Nicholas Grubere, was appointed, which was in Auguſt, 1734.

The Lords' Committees muſt here obſerve to your Lordſhips, that by the Act 1ſt King George II. Chap. 27, the Governors of the Work-Houſe are impowered to appoint a Treaſurer, at a Salary not exceeding £60 ℔ Ann. and that they alſo have a diſcretionary Power to appoint other Officers; in Purſuance of which they, finding that the Buſineſs of the Treaſurer was too much for any one Man, reduced the Salary of the Treaſurer from £60 to £40, and appointed another Perſon at £20 ℔ Ann. to be his Aſſiſtant: And this Regulation the Lords' Committees think was very proper, and much for the Service of the Houſe; but the Choice of the preſent preſent Aſſiſtant, the Lords' Committees cannot but think to have been very unfortunate, as well as that of the Treaſurer.

It appears to the Lords' Committees, that from the time when Nicholas Grubere was choſen Treaſurer, he employed George Grubere his Son, to tranſact Buſineſs for him; and that he was after appointed Aſſiſtant; and the actual Management of the Work-Houſe, being chiefly in their Hands, particularly as to all Receipts and Diſburſements; the Lords' Committees ordered them, after they had been ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe, to lay before them a State of their Accounts in the Method appointed by their Lordſhips; the Lords' Committees ſoon found, that they were either unable or unwilling to comply properly with theſe Orders; and though a time very ſufficient, and even all which they deſired, was at firſt given, yet they made ſeveral Applications for more, with which the Lords' Committees were pleaſed to comply.

At length, they laid before the Lords' Committees a Paper, containing a State of their Accounts, which their Lordſhips ſoon found to be very defective and unſatisfactory, and calculated rather to deceive, than inform.

The Lords' Committees, obſerving this, aſked Nicholas Grubere ſome Queſtions; by his Anſwers to which, they plainly perceived, that he was almoſt intirely unacquainted with his own Buſineſs; he ſcarce ever gave a pertinent one; but upon all Occaſions, referred to his Son, whom therefore the Lords' Committees thought it neceſſary to examine with more Exactneſs; and he, finding that the Careleſſneſs or Art, with which that Paper was drawn up, could no longer be concealed, thought it adviſable, though he had given it in upon Oath, to own ſeveral Miſtakes, and to beg a little time to rectify them.

Time was accordingly given, and then he produced another Paper, differing indeed, in many material Articles, from the former, but not more ſatisfactory.

One very great Defect in both theſe Papers, the Lords' Committees obſerve to be, that there was no certain Charge made of the groſs Amount of the Fund; and their Lordſhips have Reaſon to apprehend, that the Treaſurer and his Aſſiſtant, have not, for ſome time paſt, made this Charge in the Accounts which they laid before the Court of Aſſiſtants: Their Lordſhips apprehend this to be a very great Defect, which may open a Door to the groſſeſt Impoſitions; and therefore think it their Duty to make the Obſervation, particularly to your Lordſhips.

The Lords' Committees, finding it thus impoſſible, to obtain a true State of the Accounts from the proper Officers (and yet, being determined, if poſſible, to have one) gave Orders to William Hawker, one of the Under-Clerks in the Parliament-Office, who was ſworn on this Occaſion, to prepare a State of an Account from their own Books. The Method in which this Account has been made up, will beſt appear by the Account itſelf, which the Lords' Committees have therefore annexed to this Report, N° II. And beg Leave here, to obſerve upon it, That though the Treaſurer had Credit given him for all Diſburſments of every Kind, for which he could produce any Voucher; yet the Balance ſtruck upon it, to which the Lords' Committees do not find that he can object, is much greater, than that with which his Son charged him in either of his Accounts; in theſe, the Balance is £134 : 10*s.* 4*d.* but in the Account made up by the Clerk, and examined both by Father and Son it is found to be £242 : 13*s.* 6¼*d.*

Upon a View of this Account, your Lordſhips may probably be ſurpriſed to obſerve ſo great an Arrear on the two main Branches of the Fund, the Tax on Carriages and Pariſhes; but, beſides the Reaſons already aſſigned for this, from the neceſſary Deficiencies which muſt happen on ſuch Funds, and the very blameable ones which have happened by the Miſmanagement of Officers, the Lords' Committees think it proper to give your Lordſhips this further and more agreeable one, that the Collection of the Tax for the laſt Year is not yet near compleated; when it is, the Lords' Committees hope, that theſe great and offenſive Articles of Arrears will be very conſiderably diminiſhed.

The ſtating of this Account, the Lords' Committees found to be a Work of great Intricacy and Difficulty; and in the Progreſs of it, their Lordſhips had Occaſion to make ſeveral Obſervations very little to the Advantage of the Treaſurer or his Aſſiſtant; but as the Miſtakes or Frauds (for the Lords' Committees are in ſome Caſes at a Loſs to ſay which) were generally in Matters of leſs Moment, they chooſe not to trouble your Lordſhips with every Particular.

But this the Lords' Committees think it neceſſary, particularly to obſerve, that it appears by the Evidence of Beſt Pakenham and Jerome Smith, Collectors of the Tax upon Pariſhes, who were both ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe; that Nicholas Grubere has given them Receipts for Money, which he has afterwards altered to a later Date, and ſome of theſe altered Receipts they actually produced; and being aſked concerning the Reaſon of this, their Anſwer, was, that they believed or apprehended the Reaſon to be, that when he has received the Money a little before the Cloſe of a Quarter, he has changed the Date to a Day paſt the Quarter, that he might avoid the bringing the Money to account, as early as he ought.

With the Account of Receipts and Diſburſements, the Lords' Committees ordered the Treaſurer and his Aſſiſtant, to lay before them a State of the Debts due from the Work-Houſe to the 25th of December, 1737. And finding upon a general Return, that they were conſiderable, they gave new Orders for a more particular one. A Return was accordingly made made by George Grubere, which the Lords' Committees thinking not particular enough, he, in ſome Days after, made another differing, in many conſiderable Articles, from the firſt: As they both differ in ſome Articles from the real Debts, particularly in that of Meal, which in both Papers is returned £79, and now appears to be £158: The Lords' Committees, for a full Account of theſe Differences, beg Leave to refer your Lordſhips to the Paper annexed to this Report, N° III.

This Return of Debts gave the Lords' Committees a View of the Prices paid for Proviſions; which they found exceſſively dear in almoſt every Article, particularly in the very great ones of Meal for Bread, and Malt; it appearing, by the Evidence of William Brooks, Meal-Man; and Walter Mooney, Baker; that the Meal which is bought at 20*s.* ℔ Barrel, weighing 20 Stone, would not ſell elſewhere for above 14 or 15*s.* And by the Evidence of the Brewer of the Work-Houſe, that the Malt uſed there is bad, and ſuch as the Brewers would not uſe; when yet the Lords' Committees find, that the Price paid for it is greater than ſome of the Lords preſent knew to be paid for the very beſt Malt made in or near this City: And, which is a further Miſchief, this Malt has ever ſince September, 1736, been furniſhed from Wicklow, which occaſions the additional unneceſſary Charge of 14*d.* ℔ Barrel for Carriage.

Your Lordſhips may ſee, by this Account, how very expenſive this great Article of Drink muſt have been for ſome time paſt: But this Expenſe is further raiſed upon the Houſe, by the immoderate Price paid for Hops, no leſs than £11 : 3*s.* ℔ Hundred; and by the ſmall Quantity of Beer produced: It appearing, by the Teſtimony of the Brewer, that only 26 Barrels of Beer are now brewed, out of eleven Barrels of Malt: Whereas, in Mr. Cook's time, ten Barrels of Malt produced 30 or 31 Barrels of Beer, and in Mr. Ormſby's time, 40.

The Lords' Committees think it not neceſſary to make particular Obſervations on the Price of other Proviſions; the Dearneſs, in almoſt every Article, will appear upon a View of them, which therefore, they beg Leave to lay before your Lordſhips in the Paper annexed to this Report, N° IV.

From theſe great Prices of Proviſions and other Matters, which occurred in the Courſe of this Inquiry, the Lords' Committees thought there was Reaſon to ſuſpect a Combination between ſome of the Perſons who furniſhed them and the Treaſurer or his Aſſiſtant: But after examining this Matter as exactly as they could, the Lords' Committees cannot make any Diſcovery of this Nature; ſo far otherwiſe, that ſeveral Perſons examined upon this Point, ſome of them on their Oaths, utterly denied their having ever given or promiſed to give Mr. Gruebere any Premium, Preſent or Poundage, on account of the Money, which they had received or were to receive from him.

But though the Lords' Committees think themſelves obliged in Juſtice to report this to your Lordſhips, they muſt, at the ſame time, obſerve, that the Want of Care or Skill or Honeſty in the Treaſurer and his Aſſiſtant have been the principal Cauſe of the great Debts now due from the Houſe, and of the exceſſive Prices paid for Proviſions, which have chiefly occaſioned them.

Among other Reaſons for this Opinion, the Lords' Committees think this to be a conſiderable one, that during the time in which Mr. John Cooke was Treaſurer, no Abuſes of this Kind appear: Payments were then regularly made; Wheat, Malt and other Proviſions, were uſually bought at the beſt hand, and the Fund was ſo managed, that ſeveral Debts, contracted before his time, were paid: And when he choſe, after four Years, to reſign his Employment, he made up a fair Account, and did not, as far as appears to the Lords' Committees, leave the Houſe in Debt five Pounds (except £100 to his Grace the Lord Primate, who was content to let this Debt lie with the ſame good Deſign, with which his Grace appears to the Lords' Committees to have, on ſeveral other Occaſions, lent and given much larger Sums for the Service of the Work-Houſe.) Whereas, in the Space of four Years and a half, under the Management of Charles Spranger for eleven Months, and of Nicholas Gruebere and his Aſſiſtant for the Remainder of the time, great Debts have been contracted, and bad Payment has raiſed the Prices, paid or to be paid, for Goods and Proviſions; the Badneſs of the Payment appears by the times for and in which the Debts have been contracted: And that this has raiſed the Prices, appears in two Inſtances by the Evidence of Francis Courtney, who furniſhed the Work-Houſe with Butter and Cheeſe, and of Anthony Allen, Grocer, who furniſhed Hops and other Groceries, who both owned, that they had charged an higher Price to the Work-Houſe, than they would ſell at to other Cuſtomers, and gave the bad Payment, as a Reaſon for their doing ſo; the Dealings with both have commenced ſince Mr. Grubere was Treaſurer.

But great as the Evils are, which have ariſen from the exceſſive Prices of Proviſions, the Lords' Committees obſerve them to be conſiderably increaſed by a moſt improvident Conſumption and Imbezzlement in the Work-Houſe.

Their Lordſhips find, that the Court of Aſſiſtants have, from time to time, made many excellent Orders and Regulations, for Prevention or Remedy of theſe Abuſes; that they have fixed an Allowance for all Perſons in the Houſe, according to their Stations or Age; that they have ordered a weekly Return to be made, according to the Method in the Paper, N° V. of the Number of Perſons of each Claſs; and made this the Rule or Standard for iſſuing Proviſions, and taking Credit for them; that they

they have directed regular Books to be kept by the ſeveral Officers, with proper Cheques; by the Baker, of Meal; by the Brewer, of Malt; and by the Butler, of Bread, Drink, Beef and other Proviſions committed to his Care: And yet, notwithſtanding all theſe Precautions, nay though for ſome time paſt the Court of Aſſiſtants have appointed two of their Body, every Week, to be Viſitors of the Work-Houſe; the Lords' Committees find there has been very great Abuſes in the Management of the Proviſions, ſo dearly bought for the Uſe of it.

Formerly the Treaſurer did not uſe to buy Meal, but Wheat, to make Bread; and it appears by his Books, that from the 9th of Auguſt 1734, to the 24th of June 1736, 986 Barrels and 19 Stone of Wheat were bought for that Purpoſe. It alſo appears by the weekly Returns of the Numbers in the Houſe, and their Allowances, and by a Computation of the Quantity of Bread, which a Barrel of Wheat would make, that the Wheat bought was ſufficient, after all Allowances, which he could demand for waſte, completely to furniſh Bread for all that Time with a Surplus of four Barrels and a half: And yet the Lords' Committees find, that the Treaſurer has charged in his Accounts four additional Sums, amounting, in all, to £29 : 1*s*. 1*d*. for Wheat uſed within that Time, of which neither he nor his Son could give the Lords' Committees a ſatisfactory Account.

But this is not the only Inſtance of Miſmanagement, which the Lords' Committees obſerved; they found very great ones in the Articles of Bread and Beer, actually delivered by the Baker and Brewer to the Butler, upon inſpecting the Butler's Books, a conſiderable Balance of both appeared againſt him: And when he was aſked, Whether he actually had the Quantities, with which he was charged in his Poſſeſſion? He anſwered, He had not: Being further aſked, How this came to paſs? He ſaid, That the Bread and Beer were often ſtolen; and that the Treaſurer and Regiſter over-drew their Allowances; and had Bread and Drink as much and as often as they pleaſed, which they durſt not refuſe.

This Examination of the Butler brought to light a Tranſaction, which happened the 22d of February, 1735, which the Lords' Committees think themſelves obliged particularly to report.

At that Time it was diſcovered, that two Boys, John Caſey and James Byrn, had found ways to rob the Pantry and Cellar of the Work-Houſe: The Boys were tried, convicted and tranſported: The Quantities of Bread and Drink which they ſtole do not appear, but it plainly appears, that George Grubere, conſcious (as the Lords' Committees think) that no ſmall Part of the Deficiency on theſe Articles, was occaſioned by the Officers, juſt now named, having overdrawn their Allowances, artfully laid hold of the Opportunity to cover this, by charging the whole Deficiency to the Account of the Thieves. It appears, by an Entry in his own Hand in the Butler's Books, that he has done this; and when he was examined upon it, he could neither deny what he had done, nor give a ſatisfactory Account of it. Upon a ſecond Examination, he ſaid indeed, that the Butler had made an Affidavit, that all was ſtolen by the Boys; but this Fact ſubſiſts intirely on his Credit.

The two Thieves, the Lords' Committees find, were convicted on the Evidence of two other Boys in the Work-Houſe, Dan. Murphy and Patrick Ferrall: And they alſo find, that the ſaid Murphy and Ferrall, in ſome time after they had given their Evidence, were carried off to the Weſt Indies, whether by Force and Compulſion, the Lords' Committees, after a moſt exact Inquiry into this Matter, cannot certainly determine; but their Lordſhips think it very probable, that theſe Boys could have made Diſcoveries not very convenient to the Officers; and that therefore they had Reaſon to wiſh them removed: And John Hodgſon, the Regiſter, confeſſed, That he had ſupported them from the time of the Trial, either in the Work-Houſe or in Bridewell, to which Place they were not committed for any Miſdemeanor, but at the deſire of the ſaid Hodgſon, who ſaid, The Keeper would have done more than that for him; and applied to Mr. John Hornby, a Merchant, to take them, and had them carried to the Tholſel to ſign their Indentures.

The Lords' Committees, finding that the ſcandalous Miſmanagement of the principal Officers of the Work-Houſe had been the great Cauſe of the low and diſtreſſed State to which it is reduced; thought it proper, for this and other Reaſons, to inquire into the Salaries and other Perquiſites of theſe Officers, and of all other Officers and Servants employed in the Management of it.

Their Lordſhips have before had Occaſion to obſerve, that by the Act 1ſt King Geo. II. Chap. 27, the Governors have a diſcretionary Power of appointing Officers; nor does it appear, that they have appointed any unneceſſary ones; and yet the Charge of Officers and Servants, according to the Eſtimate, made by Order of the Lords' Committees, and annexed to this Report, N° VI, amounts to £739 : 7*s*. 5¼*d*. ℔ Ann. Of this perhaps there would have been no Reaſon to complain, if the principal ones had not, for ſome Years paſt, greatly failed in the Execution of the Truſt repoſed in them.

After all theſe Obſervations on the Fund, on the neceſſary and blameable Deficiencies incurred; on the groſs Abuſe committed by ſome Officers, and on the great Charge at which they, and the other Officers and Servants are ſupported, your Lordſhips will be leſs ſurpriſed to find, that the Number of Poor, annually ſupported in and by the Work-Houſe, is much ſmaller, than from a general View of the Fund, might reaſonably be expected. The Lords' Committees find the Numbers to be as ſet down in the Papers annexed to this Report, N° VII. and VIII. for for the Years therein ſpecified: In which they have alſo laid before your Lordſhips, an Eſtimate of the annual Expence for a grown Perſon, for a Child under fifteen Years, and above ſix, and for an Infant, in Diet and Clothes; and a Computation of the Expenſe of the whole Number of each, which appears to have been admitted, in thoſe Years into the Houſe.

As the Work-Houſe was at firſt deſigned to provide for the aged and infirm Poor, and to oblige ſturdy Beggars to labour, there was Reaſon to hope, that many Perſons received into it might be ſo employed, as to contribute, in Part at leaſt, to their own Support. Accordingly, the Lords' Committees obſerve, that in the Act of the 1ſt Year of King George II. Chap. 27, proper Proviſions are made for the buying Materials, and carrying on Works in the Houſe: They alſo find, that ſeveral Attempts of this Sort have, from time to time, been made by the Governors, which ſome unforeſeen Accidents have rendered unſucceſsful.

The Lords' Committees think it not neceſſary to trouble your Lordſhips with particular Accounts of theſe abortive Schemes: But they are much pleaſed to find, that a very uſeful one is now formed for employing all Hands in that Houſe, in a Way in which their Lordſhips think too many Hands cannot be employed, in the Linen Manufacture.

Though this Manufacture has been but lately ſet on Foot, yet ſome Profit has already ariſen from it; and the Lords' Committees do not doubt but the Profit will every Day increaſe, as the Manufacture improves, and be of great Advantage to the Houſe, as well as a publick Benefit to the Nation: They therefore hope, that the Governors and Court of Aſſiſtants will have a watchful Eye on the Management thereof; they think that ſome further good Regulations may be made, in relation to it; particularly, that it may be proper to have ſome better Cheques on the Maſter, Thomas Robinſon, to prevent Frauds in the Management of the Flax, or the Clothes made up; and to obviate an Evil, which, without due Care, may be a great one, the ſelling the coarſe Clothes, to the Work-Houſe, at too high a Price; a third Part of the Profit whereof, by his Contract, is to go into his own Pocket. The Lords' Committees are the more inclined to obſerve this, becauſe it appeared to them, on the Evidence of the Houſe-keeper, Mrs. Bayly, that the Linen bought from Robinſon, for the Uſe of the Work-Houſe, was not ſo good as what was formerly bought at the Shops, and yet the Lords' Committees do not find that it coſt a leſs Price.

The Lords' Committees have already obſerved to your Lordſhips, the great Change made by the Act of the 3d Year of King George II. Chap. 17, in the Conſtitution of the Work-Houſe, and the Reaſons of it. They muſt now beg Leave further to obſerve, that, in their Opinion, this Change has not anſwered the juſt and reaſonable Expectations of thoſe who contrived it. The Deſign, moſt certainly, was to ſave the Lives of helpleſs, expoſed Children; but the Event, as far as the Lords' Committees can judge, has been, that greater Numbers have periſhed than before.

The Lords' Committees cannot impute this to want of Care in the Governors, or the Court of Aſſiſtants; ſo far otherwiſe, that they think them to have here done, or attempted, every thing which could be expected from wiſe and prudent Men, zealous for the Publick Good: At firſt, they ordered Children under two Years old, to be nurſed abroad, and received the reſt into the Work-Houſe: When they found that this Method laid them open to ſeveral Impoſitions, particularly this great one, that many Mothers expoſed their Children, in Hopes of being employed and paid as their Nurſes: They tried the Method of rearing them by Hand in the Houſe; and when this proved unſucceſsful, they applied to ſeveral Ladies and Gentlewomen of this City for Advice and Aſſiſtance, who readily gave it; and for a time met frequently at the Work-Houſe, and made ſeveral good Regulations: By their Advice, they again put out the Children to Nurſes; and, to prevent Frauds and Impoſitions, they contrived Badges, to be put round the Children's Necks, marked them in the Fleſh of the Arm, numbered them, and ordered the Clerk of the Foundlings to enter their Names in a Book, together with thoſe of the Nurſes, and the Places of their Abode: Finding that a ſmall Advance of 3*s*. 4*d*. given to Nurſes when they received the Children, had probably been a Temptation to ſome to receive and deſtroy them, they took it off. In ſhort, they appear to have made Uſe of the beſt Methods to preſerve theſe poor Children, and to prevent all Frauds and Impoſitions which can well be imagined; but all this Care has hitherto proved ineffectual: A late Diſcovery of thirteen of theſe Infants thrown into a Pit, gives the Lords' Committees but too juſt Cauſe to ſuſpect, that much greater Numbers have, from time to time, been deſtroyed, by the ſavage Cruelty of Nurſes, than are, or probably ever will be, diſcovered. Mr. Stone, Surgeon to the Work-Houſe, of whoſe Skill and Diligence the Lords' Committees ſee no Reaſon to doubt, being examined, ſays, That Marks of Violence appeared upon ſome; that others were ſo mangled, that he could make no Judgment of them; and that as to the reſt, they might have been murdered, though no Marks of Violence appeared.

But whether they died a natural or violent Death, this appears plainly by the annexed Paper, N° IX. that of 4025 Children, which have been received into the Work-Houſe ſince the 25th of March, 1730, 3236 have died; the reſt are either now in the Houſe, or with their Nurſes, or have been diſpoſed of in a Way, which the Lords' Committees cannot approve of. If after Children have been reared in the Work-Houſe, their Parents or Relations can contrive to beg them out, their Lordſhips think theſe two Inconveniencies muſt follow; one, that the Houſe, which has borne the Expenſe of rearing them, is deprived of the Advantage of their Labour, when they grow up; the other, that by theſe Means the greateſt Encouragement is given to the infamous Practice of expoſing Infants, already too common in this City.

The Lords' Committees, being themſelves greatly alarmed, and finding the whole City alarmed with the Diſcovery of the thirteen Children in the Pit, reſolved to inquire into that Matter with particular Care: But after two or three Days ſpent in examining ſeveral Perſons, whom they ſummoned before them, they received ſo little Satisfaction, that they thought it to no Purpoſe to go any further. Some of the Perſons ſuſpected of this Villainy are fled; the reſt are in the Hands of the Law: If they appear to be guilty, the Lords' Committees have no Doubt but that they will receive the Puniſhment juſtly due to ſuch infamous Crimes.

But their Lordſhips are clearly of Opinion, that the Neglect or Corruption of ſome of the Perſons employed in the Management of theſe poor Foundlings, has unhappily put it in the Power of profligate, barbarous Nurſes to contrive and accompliſh their Deſtruction. Rich. Wilding, the Clerk of the Foundlings, appears to have diſcharged himſelf, for the ſhort time that he has been employed, with great Honeſty and Diligence; but Elizabeth Quayle, called the Out-Matron, whoſe chief Buſineſs it was to provide Nurſes, and to viſit the Children, appears to be faulty in many Reſpects: And yet the Lords' Committees have great Reaſon to believe, that her Character was very well vouched to the Governors, when they appointed her to that Office; as the Account which ſhe gave the Lords' Committees, upon her Examination, is long, and yet may give ſome Satisfaction to your Lordſhips, both with reſpect to her own Neglects and the general Management of the Foundlings, the Lords' Committees have thought it proper to annex it to this Report, N° X.

An Account being brought to the Lords' Committees, whilſt they were ſitting, that two more Children had been juſt diſcovered by one Pat. Conolly, they ſent for him: He immediately came and brought with him the Numbers as marked on their Arms, and ſaid he had found them both wrapped up in one Cloth: Upon this the Lords' Committees ordered the Clerk of the Foundlings and the Out-Matron to produce their Books, that they might know the Nurſes' Names and Habitations, to whom thoſe Children had been delivered: Their Books ſhewed, that the Children had been given out on different Days; one to be nurſed at Ringſend, and the other at Caſtleknock: The Lords' Committees were extremely puzzled to account for theſe being found in one Cloth; but upon cloſe Inquiry, found, that they had been given by the Out-Matron to one of the Room-keepers, who had promiſed to ſend them out to the Nurſes before-mentioned, which Practice of the Out-Matron's giving Children to Room-keepers, to deliver to Nurſes, and not ſeeing the Nurſes themſelves, whoſe Names and Habitations ſhe enters in her Book, the Lords apprehend to be greateſt the Cauſe of ſo many Children being deſtroyed.

Before the Lords' Committees cloſed their Examination, they thought it requiſite to inquire what Regulations were made for the orderly Government of the Houſe; for Attendance on publick Prayer, and for the Inſtruction of the Children in the Principles of the Chriſtian Religion: In Anſwer to which Queſtions, the Regiſter delivered, in Writing, a Copy of the Regulations ſettled for theſe Purpoſes, which the Lords' Committees have annexed to this Report, N° XI. Their Lordſhips think the Regulations to be very good, and the Officers examined ſay, that they are duly obſerved.

Their Lordſhips, in examining the Books of the Court of Aſſiſtants, found ſeveral very proper Regulations relating to other Matters, from time to time, occaſionally made; which the Lords' Committees think it would be much for the Service of the Houſe to have digeſted into Method, in a ſeparate Book: Their Lordſhips find, that formerly there was a Book kept for this Purpoſe, but among other late Miſmanagements, this Book has been loſt or neglected.

The Lords' Committees beg Leave now to cloſe this Report with one ſhort Obſervation, which their Lordſhips think to ariſe from the Whole of it, That Want of Care or Skill or Honeſty, in the Officers and Servants of the Work-Houſe, muſt ever defeat the Labours of the Governors and Court of Aſſiſtants, and make this Houſe, which, with a proper Management, might be a very great publick Benefit, every Day more and more a publick Nuiſance.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

N° X.

ELIZABETH QUAYLE, Out-Matron to the Foundlings, ſays, that the Nurſes, when they received a Child out, received 3*s.* 4*d.* and two Yards of Flannel, but the 3*s.* 4*d.* is now ſtopped; the Nurſe's Wages is 40*s.* ℔' Ann. and ſhe uſed to employ City Nurſes, but was afterwards ordered to get Country Nurſes; that ſhe then applied to Room-keepers in Town to procure her Nurſes in the Country; and when ſhe had any Children to put out, ſhe gave them to ſuch Perſons as they brought her in Country Dreſſes: When ſhe had not Children, at the time that the Country Women were brought to her, ſhe afterwards ſent the Children (as they happened to come in) to the Room-keepers, to be ſent by them to the Women in the Country, ſome of whom live twenty Miles from the Town: Says, She ſees the Children nurſed in Town, weekly; and that there are about fifty in Town, and that ſhe has ſeen twenty of them this Week.

Elizabeth Quayle, having by Order returned an Account in Writing, was aſked, How many of thoſe, returned to be living, are at Nurſe in Town? She anſwered, Sixty-one: Says, She includes the thirteen Children that were lately found in the Sand-Pit in the Number ſhe returned to be dead: Says, When a Child dies in Town, it is produced at the Work-Houſe, and the Badge taken off there, and the Day of the Month ſet down; and when a Child dies in the Country, a Certificate is brought from the Miniſter of the Pariſh or a Juſtice of the Peace, of the Death of the Child, which is lodged with the Clerk of the Foundlings: Says, She gave ſeveral Children to Margaret Malkin and Ann Bryan, and they gave them to other Women that ſhe did not ſee or approve of, before the Children were delivered to them: Says, She had no Order from the Court of Aſſiſtants to employ other Women to provide Nurſes for the Children: Says, That Margaret Malkin and Ann Bryan have given Children to Nurſes, that the Court of Aſſiſtants have ordered ſhould not be employed: Says, Margaret Malkin and Ann Bryan are Two of Eight that are now in Newgate, for the Murder of the Children found lately in the Sand-Pit.

N° XI.

RULES and ORDERS, directing the Regulation of the WORK-HOUSE, Dublin.

1. ORDERED, that Perſons of each Sex, Age and Condition, be lodged together, in diſtinct Wards of the Houſe.

2. Ordered, that the Nurſes and Servants of the Houſe do bring the ſeveral Perſons under their reſpective Care, into the Hall, to attend Morning Prayer, immediately after the Toll of the ſecond Bell; and that the ſaid Nurſes, during the Time of Prayers, ſhall kneel, each, at the End of the Line or Form, to keep the Children quiet and attentive: And that, after Prayers are over, the ſaid Nurſes ſhall attend their reſpective Children under their Care, till they have eat their Breakfaſt; and after Breakfaſt, that each Nurſe ſhall deliver up their reſpective Children to the Care of the Taſk-Maſters or School-Miſtreſſes, as they ſhall be employed.

3. Ordered, that a Roll be called over immediately after Morning-Prayer; and that Inquiry be made, by the ſenior Officer in the Hall, after the Abſentees, and the Reaſon of their Abſence; that, if under an Indiſpoſition, they may be committed to the Care of the Surgeon; if ſlothful and idle, they may be corrected.

4. Ordered, that the School-Maſters and School-Miſtreſſes, Taſk-Maſters and Taſk-Miſtreſſes, be not permitted to be abſent from the Children and Perſons committed to their reſpective Care during the Hours appointed for Inſtruction and Work.

5. Ordered, that the Nurſes and Servants attend their reſpective Children at Dinner-time, and keep them orderly and quiet at their Meals. That, after Dinner, the ſaid Nurſes again deliver up their Children to the School-Maſters and Taſk-Maſters, as in the Morning: And afterwards, that the Officers, Nurſes and Servants take their Dinner in the Hall, according to former Orders.

6. Ordered, that the Nurſes and Servants obſerve the ſame Rules at Evening-Prayer and at Supper, as before, in the Morning.

7. Ordered, that the Children ſhall not play promiſcuouſly, but the Boys play on one Side of the Houſe; and the Girls on the other.

8. Ordered, that the Nurſes ſhall lodge in the Wards, with the Children committed to their Care; and lock them up every Night, at Hours appointed for the Children to go to Bed. And that ſome one Servant, or Officer of the Houſe, ſhall lodge in the other Wards, where Boys and elder Perſons are lodged; and ſhall lock up the Doors of each Ward every Night, at the Hours appointed.

9. Ordered, that the Servants and Nurſes ſhall not, upon any Pretence, go out of the Houſe, without the expreſs Leave of the ſuperior Officer at that time in the Houſe; and that the ſaid Officer ſhall not give Leave, but upon very neceſſary Occaſions.

10. Ordered, that the Nurſes bring their Children down clean and in decent Order, at Eight o'clock in the Morning every Lord's Day: That their Breakfaſt ſhall be ready at that Hour; and after Breakfaſt, that the Children who can read, ſhall, under the Care of their School-Maſters and School-Miſtreſſes, in the Publick Hall, read the Pſalms, the Leſſons, the Collect, Epiſtle and Goſpel for the Day; and ſo prepare themſelves to attend the Publick Morning-Service: Likewiſe after Dinner, that the Children who can read, ſhall, under the Care aforeſaid, prepare for the Afternoon Service: And after Evening Service, the Chaplain ſhall catechiſe as many Children as conveniently he can, in one Hour; and afterwards ſhall read ſome Expoſition of the ſaid Catechiſm, for Half an Hour, for the Benefit of elder Perſons.

11. Ordered, that all Perſons, as well Officers and Servants as others, do, in their ſeveral Stations, diligently and carefully attend to the Execution and Obſervance of the above Rules, under the Penalty of the high Diſpleaſure of the Governors: And in Caſe of Obſtinacy or repeated Diſobedience, of being removed from their Employments.

Committee on Tomivarah Turnpike-Bill

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon an ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for repairing the High Road from the Town of Tomivarah in the Co. Tipperary, to the Town of Silver Mines; as alſo to the Town of Nenagh, and from the ſaid Towns of Nenagh and Silver Mines, by Shally Orchard, through the Town of Tulla in the ſaid County, to the City of Limerick; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Biſhop of Killala reported from the Committee, that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment; and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Meſſage from Commons.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Sir Richard Mead, Bart. and others, Members of the ſaid Houſe, with an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act for the Relief of inſolvent Debtors; to which they deſire the Concurrence of this Houſe.

Hodie prima vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for the Relief of inſolvent Debtors.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be read a ſecond time To-morrow Morning.

The Lord Viſc. Duncannon reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and, with ſome Amendments, agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace WILLIAM Duke of DEVONSHIRE, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave, before this Seſſion is concluded, to expreſs our grateful Senſe of the Benefits we have already received under your Grace's wiſe and indulgent Adminiſtration; the Confidence his Majeſty hath in your Grace's Zeal for his Service, and your accounting it your higheſt Glory to make the Nation intruſted to your Care, happy and proſperous, leave us no room to doubt, but that they will be continued and increaſed to us.

Addreſs to L^d Lieutenant

Your Grace's known Love of Liberty, and your hereditary Steadineſs to the Principles of the Revolution under King William, of ever-glorious Memory (to which this Nation owes its Quiet and Felicity) gave us the moſt joyful Hopes when we heard that his Majeſty's Goodneſs had placed your Grace in the Government of this Kingdom; and our Experience of thoſe Virtues hath anſwered our warmeſt Hopes, and demands our ſincereſt Gratitude.

We think ourſelves under the higheſt Obligations to your Grace, for having obtained his Majeſty's Conſent to thoſe Laws, which we judge will ſecure the Peace, and contribute to the Welfare, of this Nation: and it ſhall be our conſtant Endeavour, by inforcing a due Execution of the Laws, to promote the Induſtry and Quiet of the People; to ſtrengthen and unite the Proteſtant Intereſt; to reſtrain all Profaneneſs and Licentiouſneſs; and to maintain the Honour of GOD and Religion; from whence alone we can expect any laſting Bleſſing on this Kingdom.

And we humbly hope your Grace will favourably repreſent to his Majeſty, our Duty and Affection for his Sacred Perſon, and our inviolable Fidelity to his Government: And that you will aſſure his Majeſty of our conſtant Wiſhes and Prayers for the Continuance of his moſt precious Life, upon which the Security and Happineſs of his Kingdoms do ſo greatly depend.

Ordered, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with the ſaid Addreſs.

Revenue-Bill,

Hodie ſecunda vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for continuing and amending ſeveral Laws heretofore made relating to his Majeſty's Revenue, and the more effectual preventing the running of Goods.

committed.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall be put into a Committee To-morrow Morning, to take the ſaid Bill into Conſideration, and compare the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and ſee that it exactly agrees therewith.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Morgan and others, Members of the ſaid Houſe, to return a Bill, intitled, titled, An Act to enable Charles Coote of Cootehill in the Co. Cavan, Esq; to charge his Estate settled on his Inter-marriage, with a further Sum of £8000, for the Portions and Provisions of three or more younger Children, whether Sons or Daughters, or both, so as the same, with the Sum of £4000, charged thereon by the said Settlement, do not amount to more than £2000 a-piece, for such younger Children, if equally divided upon the Considerations therein mentioned, and to acquaint this House that they have agreed to the same, without any Amendment.

Mr. Rainey's Bill

Hodie secunda vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act for rendering the Charity devised by the Will of Hugh Rainey, late of Magherafelt in the Co. Londonderry, Gent. more effectual, and to enable the Devisees under the said Will to make Fee-farm Leases, and Leases for Lives renewable for ever.

committed.

Ordered, that the Consideration of the said Bill shall be committed to a select Committee, and that his Grace the Lord Primate and all the Lords present be the said Committee; whose Lordships are to inquire, whether all Persons concerned in the Consequences of the said Bill have consented thereto; and compare the same with the original Transmiss, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and see that it exactly agrees therewith.

Their Lordships, or any three of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the House of Peers, adjourn as they please, and report; the Lords the Judges to assist.

Witness sworn.

Then William Ware was, by Order, called in, and sworn at the Bar, in order to give his Testimony before the said Lords' Committees.

Fishery Bill,

Hodie secunda vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act for the further Improvement and Encouragement of the Fishery of this Kingdom.

committed.

Resolved, that this House shall be put into a Committee immediately, to take the said Bill into Consideration, and compare the same with the original Transmiss, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and see that it exactly agrees therewith.

Then the House was adjourned during Pleasure, and put into a Committee thereupon; and after some time spent therein,

The House was resumed: And his Grace the Lord Primate reported from the Committee, that they had gone through the said Bill, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment, and also compared the same with the original Transmiss, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the said Bill be read a third time To-morrow Morning.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place at, the lower end of the Barons' Bench.

Report on Breach of Privilege.

The Earl of Cavan reported from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, to whom the Complaint of the Right Hon. the Lord Howth, againſt William Nugent and others, was referred; that they had examined into the Matter of the ſaid Complaint, and find, by the Evidence of Martin Grady, who was ſworn at the Bar of the Houſe; that the ſaid Grady, who is Butler to the Lord Howth, having proper Powers given him by his Lordſhip, was in quiet and peaceable Poſſeſſion of the Houſe of Pallaiſe in the Co. Galway and the Lands thereto belonging: That on Friday the 17th Day of this inſt. March, William Nugent of Harwood in the Co. Galway, Eſq; came to the ſaid Houſe, and in a peaceable manner ſpoke to the ſaid Grady, who informed him to whom he belonged, and offered to ſhew him his Powers, which the ſaid Nugent refuſed to read; but declared that he would not uſe any violent Methods to get the Poſſeſſion. And yet the Lords' Committees find, that on Sunday the 19th following, the ſaid William Nugent, together with Miles Bourke Patrick French, Richard Power, Thomas Fahy, all of Reaghan; Henry Puxley of Beerhaven in the Co. Cork, Edmond Malone Dog-boy to Anthony Daly, Eſq; of Callagh in the Co. Galway, and Warren Davis, moſt of them Papiſts, came to the ſaid Houſe, armed with Piſtols, Swords, and Halberds, and as ſoon as they got over the Wall of the Yard, made ſeveral Shots, and with Sledges broke open the Fore-Door, and got into the Houſe, where they made ſeveral more Shots, and that one of them cocked a Piſtol at ſaid Grady's Breaſt, which he ſhewed him was loaded, while another gave him a Blow with the But of a Piſtol, which hurt him, and ſtruck off his Wig: All which the Lords' Committees think to be a notorious Inſult upon the Laws, and the publick Peace, as well as a high Violation of the Privilege of this Houſe. Upon which the Lords' Committees came to the following Reſolution, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the ſaid William Nugent, Miles Bourke, Patrick French, Richard Power, Thomas Fahy, Henry Puxley, Edmond Malone and Warren Davis, be, for the ſaid Breach of Privilege, taken into the Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe.

The ſaid Report and Reſolution being again read at the Table, was agreed to by the Houſe.

W. Nugent, &c. ordered into Cuſtody.

IT is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy, or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Bodies of the ſaid William Nugent, Miles Bourke, Patrick French, Richard Power, Thomas Fahy, Henry Puxley, Edm. Malone and Warren Davis, and bring them in ſafe Cuſtody to the Bar of this Houſe; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant in that behalf.

To the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

Meſſage from Commons.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. John Bourke and others, Members of the ſaid Houſe, with an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act for the Relief of the Creditors of Daniel Reddy, Eſq; and of Dudley Reddy his Brother, deceaſed, by Sale of their real and perſonal Eſtates, for Payment of their Debts; to which they deſire the Concurrence of this Houſe.

Mr. Reddy's Bill.

Hodie prima vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for the Relief of the Creditors of Daniel Reddy, Eſq; and of Dudley Reddy his Brother, deceaſed, by Sale of their real and perſonal Eſtates, for Payment of their Debts.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be now read a ſecond time.

Hodie ſecunda vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for the Relief of the Creditors of Daniel Reddy, Eſq; and of Dudley Reddy his Brother, deceaſed, by Sale of their real and perſonal Eſtates, for Payment of their Debts.

committed.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Bill ſhall be committed to a ſelect Committee, and that his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, and all the Lords preſent be the ſaid Committee, whoſe Lordſhips are alſo to compare the ſaid Bill with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and ſee that it exactly agrees therewith.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Further Conſideration of Work-Houſe Report.

Then the Houſe proceeded to take into further Conſideration the Report made from the Lords' Committees appointed to inquire into the State of the Work-Houſe of this City, and how the ſeveral Acts of Parliament relating thereunto, have been executed, and came to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that Nicholas Grubere, not being qualified to execute the Office of Steward of the Work-Houſe, ought not to be employed any more therein.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that George Grubere, John Hodgſon and Elizabeth Quayle, for their ſeveral Miſmanagements in their Employments in the Work-Houſe, ought never to be employed any more therein.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that whoever ſhall hereafter be appointed Steward of the Work-Houſe, ought to publiſh in one or more of the publick News-papers, once every Year, viz. within fourteen Days after the Accounts of the Work-Houſe, ending the 25th of December, ſhall be ſettled by the Governors thereof, or the Court of Aſſiſtants, the general State of their Accounts, as to Debts and Credits, the Number of Perſons under the ſeveral Denominations, that have been maintained there, for the Year preceding, together with an Account of what Foundlings have been received; what died; how many kept in the Houſe, and how many ſent out; and the Totals of the yearly Arrears due on each particular Branch of the Fund, with the Profit or Loſs, on the different Manufactures.

Report, &c. to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Report from the Lords' Committees, appointed to inquire into the State of the Work-Houſe of this City; and how the ſeveral Acts of Parliament relating thereunto have been executed, and the Reſolutions of the Houſe thereupon; together with the Papers referred to, in the ſaid Report, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Meſſage from Commons to return Bill.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Dr. Trotter and others, Members of the ſaid Houſe, to return a Bill intitled, An Act to repeal Part of an Act paſſed in the 10th and 11th Years of King Charles I. intitled, An Act for the Preſervation of the Inheritance, Rights and Profits of Lands belonging to the Church and Perſons eccleſiaſtical; and alſo for the more eaſy Recovery of Arrears of Rent due to Archbiſhops and Biſhops, upon their Tranſlation; and to acquaint this Houſe, that they have agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

His Grace the Lord Primate reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of a Bill, intitled, An Act for rendering the Charity deviſed by the Will of Hugh Rainey, late of Magherafelt in the Co. Londonderry, Gent. more effectual, and to enable the Deviſees under the ſaid Will, to make Fee-farm Leaſes, and Leaſes for Lives renewable for ever, was committed; that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, and that all Perſons concerned in the Conſequences thereof had conſented thereunto, and have agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment; and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be read a third time To-morrow Morning.

Ordered, that an ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for repairing the High-Road from the Town of Tomivarah in the Co. Tipperary, to the Town of Silver Mines;

Mines; as alſo to the Town of Nenagh, and from the ſaid Towns of Nenagh and Silver Mines, by Shally Orchard, through the Town of Tulla in the ſaid County, to the City of Limerick; be read a third time To-morrow Morning.

Committee on Mullingar Turnpike Bill.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee upon an ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act to explain and amend an Act, intitled, An Act for repairing the Road leading from the Town of Mullingar in the Co. Weſtmeath, through the Towns of Rathcondra and Mevore in the ſaid County; and through the Town of Ballymahon in the Co. Longford, to Laneſborough in the ſaid County; and for the repairing the Road from the ſaid Town of Laneſborough, to the Town of Roſcommon in the Co. Roſcommon; and alſo for amending one other Act of the 7th Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for the repairing the Road leading from the Town of Kinnegad in the Co. Weſtmeath, to the Town of Athlone in the ſaid County; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Biſhop of Meath reported from the Committee, that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment; and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be read a third time To-morrow Morning.

Ordered, that all Orders for the Day, not proceeded upon, be adjourned till To-morrow Morning. Orders adjourned.

19. An Act for rendering the Charity deviſed by the Will of Hugh Rainey, late of Magherafelt in the Co. Londonderry, Gent. more effectual; and to enable the Deviſees under the ſaid Will to make Fee-farm Leaſes, and Leaſes for Lives renewable for ever.
20. An Act for the Relief of the Creditors of Daniel Reddy, Eſq; and of Dudley Reddy his Brother, deceaſed, by Sale of their real and perſonal Eſtates, for Payment of their Debts.

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I HAVE, with great Satisfaction, given his Majeſty's Royal Aſſent to the ſeveral Laws prepared by you, during the Courſe of this Seſſion, and hope they will very much promote the general Good of this Kingdom, and thereby anſwer the gracious Intentions of his Majeſty, who hath always in view the true Intereſts of his People.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE his Majeſty's Commands to thank you for the Readineſs and Unanimity you have ſhewn in granting the uſual Supplies, which ſhall be laid out for the Service of the Publick with all poſſible Frugality.

The Law now paſſed, to prevent the pernicious Practice of running Goods, cannot fail, when fully executed, of having a good Effect, as well with regard to the due Collection and Increaſe of the Revenue, as to the Encouragement of the fair Trader.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I HAVE nothing in particular to recommend to you, on your Return to your ſeveral Countries, being well ſatisfied, that you will, in your reſpective Stations, put the Laws ſtrictly and impartially in Execution; encourage an hearty Union among Proteſtants, and diſcountenance and puniſh Profaneneſs and Immorality. I need not mention to you, that your maintaining the Dignity of the Crown, and a due Submiſſion to the Magiſtrate, will be the ſureſt Means to preſerve the publick Peace and Tranquillity.

I am very glad my ſincere Intentions to ſerve this Kingdom, have proved acceptable to both Houſes: The obliging Notice you have taken of my Conduct, will greatly encourage me to purſue the ſame Methods and uſe the ſame Endeavours I have hitherto done, for advancing the Welfare and Happineſs of this Nation. And I aſſure you, that on my Return into his Majeſty's royal Preſence, I will faithfully report to his Majeſty the many Inſtances you have given of your Loyalty and Affection to his Perſon and Government.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Grace's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 25th Day of April next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 25th Day of April next.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

His Grace William Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Drogheda carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Thomond, the Cap of Maintenance; three Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Grace the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

Commons ſent for;

And the Houſe of Commons being come, they, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

They enter.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is with the greateſt Satisfaction that I obey his Majeſty's Commands to meet you again in Parliament; and, from the Experience I have had of your Zeal for the pucblick Service, I perſuade myſelf, that his Majeſty's gracious Intentions of promoting the Welfare and Happineſs of this Kingdom, will be effectually anſwered.

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

The preſent Situation of Affairs in Europe hath made it neceſſary for his Majeſty, ſtrongly to exert his Power for the Protection of our Trade and Commerce abroad: It will highly become us to ſhew our utmoſt Zeal at home for the Support of his Majeſty's Government, and the Proteſtant Religion, againſt ſuch as ſhall dare to diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity, we ſo happily enjoy.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the proper Officers to prepare the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates to be laid before you. I have nothing in Command from his Majeſty to aſk, but the uſual Supplies: And you may be aſſured, that they ſhall be be frugally managed, and applied to the Support of the Eſtabliſhment, and the Defence and Security of this Kingdom.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I THINK myſelf obliged to take Notice to you, that an Act has been paſſed in Great Britain, for taking off (after the firſt Day of May 1740) the Subſidies payable to his Majeſty, upon Woollen or Bay-yarn imported into Great Britain from this Kingdom; and for giving Liberty of carrying Wool and Woollen-yarn and Manufactures into certain Ports of Great Britain, from ſeveral Ports of this Kingdom, from whence they could not formerly be exported. That this Act may have its full Effect for the Advantage of both Kingdoms, it will deſerve your moſt ſerious Conſideration, what Methods will be moſt likely to prevent the clandeſtine and illegal Exportation of thoſe Commodities to foreign Parts, which muſt, in the end, prove detrimental both to Great Britain and Ireland, whoſe true Intereſts are inſeparable.

I am likewiſe to acquaint you, that his Majeſty obſerves, with much Satisfaction, the Increaſe of your Linen and Hempen Manufactures; and to aſſure you, that you may depend upon his royal Favour and Protection, in the improving and extending to the utmoſt, a Trade ſo beneficial to this Nation.

I hope it is unneceſſary for me to give you further Aſſurances of my Readineſs to concur with you in every thing that may conduce to the Publick Good.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech; and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed; and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to return our moſt ſincere and hearty Thanks for his Majeſty's gracious Intentions of promoting the Happineſs and Welfare of this Kingdom, which we have experienced upon every Occaſion; and at the ſame time earneſtly to intreat his Majeſty to believe, that we will uſe our beſt Endeavours that they may, on our Part, be effectually anſwered.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that the preſent Situation of Affairs in Europe, having made it neceſſary for his Majeſty ſtrongly to exert his Power for the Protection of our Trade and Commerce abroad, our Lives and Fortunes are not ſo dear to us, as the Support of his Majeſty's Government, and the Preſervation of the Proteſtant Religion: And that his Majeſty may, with Confidence, depend upon our utmoſt Zeal at Home, in Caſe any Perſons can be ſo daring as to attempt to diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity, we at preſent ſo happily enjoy. Addreſs reſolved.

To declare, that being ſenſible of the Advantage we have a Proſpect of receiving from an Act of Parliament lately paſſed in Great Britain, in relation to exporting Wool and Woollen Manufactures from this Kingdom into ſeveral Ports of Great Britain, we think it incumbent upon us to endeavour, as far as in us lies, that this Act may have its full Effect for the Advantage of both Kingdoms; and for that Purpoſe, that we will take into our moſt ſerious Conſideration, what Methods will be moſt likely to prevent the clandeſtine and illegal Exportation of thoſe Commodities into foreign Parts, which, in the End, muſt prove detrimental to Great Britain and Ireland, whoſe true Intereſts are moſt certainly inſeparable.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that the Encouragement he has been graciouſly pleaſed to give to our Linen and Hempen Manufactures, and his Majeſty's kind Aſſurance of his royal Favour and Protection, in improving and extending to the utmoſt, a Trade ſo beneficial to this Nation, ſhall ever meet with all the Acknowledgments that are due from the moſt grateful People, to a Prince ſo deſirous of the Welfare of his Subjects.

And to expreſs our Obligation to his Majeſty, for continuing his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire in the Government of this Kingdom, ſince the Experience we have already had of his Grace in that Station, gives us the ſtrongeſt Aſſurance of all the Bleſſings this Nation can enjoy under a wiſe and juſt Adminiſtration.

Ordered, that the Lord Tullamore and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee, to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein. Committee to prepare Addreſs.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs of Thanks be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his Grace's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

Ordered, that the Lord Biſhop of Derry and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee, to prepare the ſaid Addreſs;

Addreſs; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at half an Hour after Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

V. Doneraile takes the Oaths, &c.

This Day the Right Hon. Arthur Mohun, Lord Viſc. Doneraile, ſat firſt in Parliament, upon the Death of his Father Arthur late Lord Viſc. Doneraile, and delivered his Writ in the accuſtomed Manner, and came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

The Lord Tullamore reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and, with an Amendment, agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, return your Majeſty our moſt ſincere and hearty Thanks for your Majeſty's gracious Intentions of promoting the Happineſs and Welfare of this Kingdom, which we have experienced upon every Occaſion. And at the ſame time earneſtly intreat your Majeſty to believe, that we will uſe our beſt Endeavours, that they may, on our Part, be effectually anſwered.

With Hearts full of Joy, we congratulate your Majeſty, on the late encreaſe of your royal Family, which affords us the ſureſt and moſt pleaſing Proſpect, of having the Effects of thoſe Virtues, which ſo conſpicuouſly appear in your Majeſty, continued to our lateſt Poſterity, under a Succeſſion of Princes of your Majeſty's royal Houſe.

The preſent Situation of Affairs in Europe, having made it neceſſary for your Majeſty ſtrongly to exert your Power for the Protection of our Trade and Commerce abroad, we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that our Lives and Fortunes are not ſo dear to us, as the Support of your Majeſty's Government and the Proteſtant Religion: And your Majeſty may, with Confidence, depend upon our utmoſt Zeal at Home, in Caſe any Perſons can be ſo daring as to attempt to diſturb the Peace and Tranquillity we at preſent ſo happily enjoy.

Being

Being ſenſible of the Advantages we have a Proſpect of receiving from an Act of Parliament, lately paſſed in Great Britain, in relation to exporting Wool and Woollen Manufactures from this Kingdom into ſeveral Ports of Great Britain; we think it incumbent upon us, to endeavour, as far as in us lies, that this Act may have its full Effect for the Advantage of both Kingdoms; and for that Purpoſe, will take into our moſt ſerious Conſideration what Methods will be moſt likely to prevent the clandeſtine and illegal Exportation of thoſe Commodities into foreign Parts, which, in the End, muſt prove detrimental both to Great Britain and Ireland, whoſe true Intereſts are moſt certainly inſeparable.

The Encouragement your Majeſty has been graciouſly pleaſed to give to our Linen and Hempen Manufactures, has raiſed them to their preſent flouriſhing Condition, and your Majeſty's kind Aſſurances of your royal Favour and Protection, in the improving and extending to the utmoſt, a Trade ſo beneficial to this Nation, ſhall ever meet with all the Acknowledgments that are due from the moſt grateful People to a Prince, ſo deſirous of the Welfare of his Subjects.

We cannot here omit returning our Thanks to your Majeſty, for continuing his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire in the Government of this Kingdom: The Experience we have already had of his Grace in that Station, giving us the ſtrongeſt Aſſurance of all the Bleſſings this Nation can enjoy, under a wiſe and juſt Adminiſtration.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

The Lord Biſhop of Derry reported from the Lords' Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs of Thanks to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his Grace's Speech delivered Yeſterday from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace
WILLIAM Duke of DEVONSHIRE,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to L^d^ Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return our moſt hearty Thanks to your Grace, for your excellent Speech delivered from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, and with the utmoſt Sincerity to congratulate your Grace on your Return to this Kingdom.

Your Grace's inviolable Attachment to his Majeſty's Service, your Deſire and Care to promote the Happineſs of this Nation, and your known Prudence and Humanity, cannot fail to ſecure to us the Continuance of thoſe Advantages which we have already experienced from your mild and juſt Adminiſtration.

The tender and fatherly Concern which his Majeſty hath ſhewn for the Intereſts of his People, and the Protection of their Trade and Commerce, muſt fill our Hearts with Affection and Gratitude; and will engage us to exert our moſt vigorous Endeavours in the Support of his Majeſty's Government and the Proteſtant Religion, againſt the Attacks of thoſe who envy us the Proſperity which we enjoy under them. And we cannot without the higheſt Satisfaction obſerve, that our Zeal in this Cauſe will the moſt effectually appear by a ſtrict Adherence to thoſe Principles, by which your Grace and your Family have been ſo remarkably diſtinguiſhed.

We perceive the good Effects of your Grace's Influence, in having the Duties on our Woollen-Yarn taken off, and the Opportunities of carrying our Woollen Manufactures into Great Britain inlarged. And we will, on our Part, take proper Methods to prevent all illegal Exportations, which are attended with Conſequences prejudicial to the Trade of both Kingdoms.

Theſe, and the many Inſtances which we have felt, of his Majeſty's royal Bounty and Favour to us, in the extending the Trade of our Linen and Hempen Manufactures, give us the greateſt Reaſon to hope that we ſhall become a flouriſhing and a happy Nation.

We want no other Aſſurance of your Grace's favourable Intentions to this Country, than what may be found in your Conduct towards us, which hath been to recommend only thoſe things to our Care, which it is manifeſtly both our Duty and our Intereſt to promote.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know, when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Grace.

Reſolution for Congratulatory Meſſage to the Prince and Princeſs of Wales.

A Reſolution being propoſed, that a congratulatory Meſſage be ſent to their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, on her Royal Highneſs having been happily delivered of two Princes, ſince the laſt Meeting of this Houſe.

And the previous Queſtion being put, That the ſaid Queſtion be now put;

It was reſolved in the Negative.

DISSENTIENT,

Proteſt.

1. BECAUSE this Houſe, having congratulated his Majeſty on the Birth of their Royal Highneſſes' two Sons, one Heir apparent, to the Crown of theſe Realms, in their Addreſs the other Day, a bare Meſſage of Compliment to their Royal Highneſſes on this Increaſe of their own Family, can no ways derogate from the Honour of the Crown, and that this Refuſal may be miſconſtrued, as an Indignity offered to the Family of thoſe very Princes, on whoſe account we lately teſtified ſo much Joy.

2. Becauſe the Want of a Precedent in this Caſe, can no ways juſtify the Negative put upon this Queſtion, if otherwiſe proper; ſince the Caſe of a Prince of Wales having an eldeſt Son born in the Life-time of his Father, has never happened before, ſince Ireland has enjoyed her preſent Conſtitution.

3. Becauſe the Houſe of Peers of Great Britain (whoſe Examples, in point of Form, are generally followed here) have chalked us out this parliamentary Method of paying the proper Honours to their Royal Highneſſes, and have ſhewn us, by the Perſons with whom they intruſted their Meſſage, that they thought the paying this Piece of Reſpect to the principal Branch of the Royal Family, no ways inconſiſtent with his Majeſty's Service.

4. And as I think this Compliment proper in itſelf, ſo more eſpecially at this Juncture, leſt it ſhould be ſurmiſed without Doors, that this Houſe ſhould have ſo far deſcended from the Dignity of the Great Council of the Nation, as to have allowed a private local Order of the Lord Chamberlain of England, the leaſt Weight in her Deliberations.

Lord Bellfield's Petition, relative to Patronage.

A Petition of the Right Hon. Robert Lord Bellfield, ſetting forth, that he is adviſed and apprehends himſelf to be the undoubted Patron of the Living of Rathconrath in the Dioceſe of Meath, and accordingly about the Month of June, 1738, (upon the Death of the late Incumbent) preſented the Rev. Mr. Michael M'Kinlie to the ſaid Living.

That the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Meath refuſed to accept of the Petitioner's Clerk, and at the ſame time deſired that the Petitioner's Title might be laid before him for his Lordſhip's Conſideration, which was accordingly done; and, after many Conferences and ſome time ſpent therein, his Lordſhip was pleaſed to declare, that he would conteſt ſaid Title: But withal ſaid, that he hoped that the Proceedings on both Sides would be amicably carried on, and was likewiſe pleaſed to give Aſſurances, that no unneceſſary Delay ſhould be made uſe of.

That the Petitioner, in proper time, was obliged to commence a Suit againſt his Lordſhip in Quare impedit, who had collated the Rev. Mr. Smyth to the ſaid Living.

That the Perſons employed by the ſaid Lord Biſhop, have uſed all Means, by the Courſe of the Common-Law Courts, to delay the Petitioner's Proceedings on the ſaid Quare impedit. And the ſaid Lord Biſhop does not only ſupport the ſaid Smyth in the ſaid Living by the ſaid Delays, but inſiſts upon his Privilege, whereby a Stop is put to any further Proceedings in the ſaid Cauſe; which is not only a manifeſt Prejudice to the Petitioner, by depriving him of trying his Right, whilſt his Witneſſes are living, who are old and infirm, and by which he may be wholly deprived of ſupporting his ſaid Title; but alſo by keeping the ſaid Smyth in Poſſeſſion of the Profits of the ſaid Living, to the manifeſt Prejudice of the Petitioner's Clerk:

And praying their Lordſhips will be pleaſed to grant him ſuch Relief, as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom and Juſtice, ſhould ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe and read.

A Motion being made, that the Queſtion might be put, Whether a Biſhop, claiming as Patron, has any Privilege of Parliament in a Writ of Quare impedit; Motion thereon.

And a Debate ariſing thereon,

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Debate ſhall be adjourned till Wedneſday Morning next. Debate adjourned.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

Heads of a Bill for the better Regulation of Partnerſhip, to encourage the Trade and Manufactures of this Kingdom, were read a ſecond time.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall be put into a Committee on Monday next, to take the ſaid Heads of a Bill into Conſideration.

The Lord Biſhop of Ferns and Leighlin, according to Order, made a Report from the Lords' Committees, appointed to inſpect into the State of the Publick Offices of Record in this Kingdom, and in what Manner and Place the ſame are now kept, which was read at the Table, Paragraph by Paragraph, and with ſome Amendments, agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Report on State of Publick Offices.

THE Lords' Committees thought they could not be any way ſo well informed of the State of the Publick Offices, as by viſiting the Principal of them.

Their Lordſhips adjourned, firſt, to the Rolls' Office in the King's Inns, in which are kept the Inrollments of all Grants and Charters of the Crown, the original Acts of Parliament, the Pleadings and Decrees of the High Court of Chancery, and ſeveral other very valuable Records. Theſe Records they think to be of the laſt Conſequence both to the Property and Liberties of the Nation; they could not therefore, without the utmoſt Concern, ſee them lodged in a Place ſo expoſed to Accidents, which may utterly deſtroy them.

The Lords' Committees found the whole Building of the Inns, in a decayed and ruinous Condition, and the Floors and Cielings of the Room where the Rolls are kept, and of another Room called the Pleading-Office, ſupported by Props: And the Clerk attending informed their Lordſhips, that ſome time ago the Surveyor-General, or Perſons employed by him to examine this Part of the Building, found the Timber of it in many Places decayed, and the Ends of the Beams rotten, and ſtarted from the Walls; and the whole in ſo dangerous a Condition, as to make theſe Props abſolutely neceſſary to prevent the Fall of the Floors. If any of the Props ſhould fail, or if a Defect in the Timber ſhould have paſſed unobſerved, their Lordſhips think there is great Reaſon to apprehend, that all the Records of this Office, would be buried in Rubbiſh, and many of them deſtroyed or irretrieveably defaced.

The Lords' Committees found ſeveral Rooms, in two Sides of the Building, inhabited by very low, poor People. In theſe Rooms, there are many Fire-places, the Hearths of which are narrow and broken, and ſome of them are raiſed above the Floor.

There are alſo thin Deal Partitions, Straw-Beds and other combuſtible Stuff. If through the Careleſſneſs or Villainy of thoſe People, a Fire ſhould break out in any of their Chambers, as there is a Communication between them, and the Office where the Rolls and Pleadings are lodged, their Lordſhips think they would run a manifeſt Hazard of being burnt to the Ground. And this Hazard they apprehend to be greater, becauſe theſe Inns are reputed a privileged Place, though in reality they are not; and the Inhabitants of theſe Rooms, are generally ſuch as Drunkenneſs and other Vices have made neceſſitous, who fly thither for Sanctuary from a Gaol.

Beſides this Danger from within, the Lords' Committees obſerved this Building to be very much expoſed to the Hazard of Fire from the Houſes and Yards adjoining; and their Lordſhips were informed, that within a few Years, two Fires have broken out very near it.

The firſt happened about twelve Years ago, in an Houſe then inhabited by the Lady Dunne. The Houſe was burnt to the Ground, and the Inns were preſerved by blowing up a Stack of Cloſets, the Remains of which ſhew the cloſe Communication they had with them; but this Houſe having never been rebuilt, there is at preſent no Danger from this Quarter.

The other Fire happened laſt Summer: It began in Church-Street, and burned ſome Houſes, which almoſt joined the Inns, and between the Fire and the Rolls' Office, there was only one Room, called the Rolls' Chapel, the Timber of which has a Communication with that of the Office. The Clerk attending informed the Lords' Committees, that the Office was thought to be at this time, in ſo great Danger, that the Maſter of the Rolls had made all neceſſary Preparations for removing the Records; but, by GOD's good Providence, the Fire was extinguiſhed, and they were a ſecond time preſerved, as well from the Flames, as from that terrible Confuſion, which a precipitate Removal of them muſt neceſſarily have occaſioned.

The Lords' Committees obſerved new Houſes built on the ſame Ground, and as near the Inns, as thoſe lately burned: They therefore think, that the Hazard of Fire from that Quarter continues. Their Lordſhips alſo obſerved, that the North Side of this Building, almoſt joins Pill-Lane, a very cloſe Part of the City, where there are Publick Inns, and large Stacks of Hay, one of which they took Notice of cloſe to an old Wall of the Inns, and appearing above it: The bare Mention of this Situation is ſufficient to point out the Danger of it.

From the King's Inns, the Lords' Committees proceeded to inſpect the other Offices of Record, which they thought to be of greateſt Conſequence to the Nation, and ſome of them they found in the cloſeſt Parts of the City, and in Lanes ſo very narrow, that their Coaches could not get into them. This Situation their Lordſhips think to be extremely inconvenient, becauſe, in Caſe of a Fire, there is not Room either for Men to work or Engines to play, extinguiſh it; and all Attempts to remove the Records, would probably, for the ſame Reaſon, prove ineffectual.

The King's-Bench Office is in School-Houſe-Lane, one of the narroweſt in the City of Dublin. The Clerk informed the Lords' Committees, that about two Years ago a Fire broke out very near the Office, which gave them a great Alarm, and there is now an old Cage-work Houſe, within ſo ſmall a Diſtance as to make its Situation very dangerous.

In this Office are kept ſeveral Outlawries and Attainders, theſe particularly of Papiſts, on Account of the Rebellions in 1641 and 1688. If theſe ſhould be burned, the Lords' Committees fear, that the Proteſtant Poſſeſſors would, at beſt, be expoſed to vexatious Law-Suits, to defend and eſtabliſh their Titles to many forfeited Eſtates.

The Prothonotary of the Common-Pleas has his Office in Wine-Tavern-Street; an old Cage-work Houſe, now an Ale-houſe, joins it on one ſide, and the Beams of the Houſe, on the other, are lodged in the Walls of the Office. At the Back, there is a Yard of about ten Feet ſquare, intirely ſurrounded with Houſes; in any of which, or in the Office itſelf, if a Fire ſhould break out, it would be ſcarce poſſible to uſe proper Means to preſerve either Houſes or Records.

Another Office belonging to the ſame Court, that of the Keeper of the Writs and Chirographer, is kept in Bride-ſtreet, in the Dwelling-Houſe of the Officer, which, tho' ſomewhat better ſituated than thoſe juſt mentioned, the Lords' Committees do not think to be as ſecure from Fire, as an Office of ſuch Conſequence to the Property of the whole Kingdom, ought to be: And the Clerk informed their Lordſhips, that by a Fire which broke out very near it ſome Years ago, the Office was in ſo much Danger, that he had all things in Readineſs for removing the Records.

In this Office, are the Writs of Covenants and other Records, relating to all Fines levied: And in the Prothonotary's Office, the Rolls of all Common-Recoveries, ſuffered in this Kingdom. And as Fines and Common-Recoveries are the uſual Support of Settlements and Conveyances, if either of theſe Offices ſhould be burned, the Lords' Committees are very apprehenſive, that many Purchaſers for the higheſt Conſiderations would be in Danger of loſing their Eſtates.

The Pleas-Office of the Court of Exchequer is in Caſtle-ſtreet, where the Breadth of the Street makes the Situation, in one reſpect, leſs inconvenient; but Houſes join the Office on both Sides, and on one Side there are ſome of Cage-work, near it; on which accounts, the Lords' Committees think it too much expoſed to Accidents from Fire.

In this Office and thoſe of the King's-Bench and Common-Pleas, are the Titles of almoſt all the Judgment Creditors. The Lords' Committees beg Leave to obſerve to your Lordſhips, that Judgments, being one of the common Securities of this Kingdom, the Deſtruction of the Records of any one of theſe Offices, would leave a Multitude of Creditors, intirely at the Mercy of their Debtors.

The Office of the Chief Remembrancer of the Court of Exchequer, in which ſeveral Inquiſitions concerning Lands, which belonged to outlawed and attainted Perſons, and all the Decrees, and other Proceedings in the Equity-ſide of that Court are kept, is in Kennedy's-Lane; at the Back, and on one Side, the Houſe ſtands open, but on the other, it joins the Buildings of the Lane, which are ſo cloſe, and the Lane is ſo extremely narrow, that ſhould a Fire break out in any one Houſe, it would probably extend itſelf to them all.

The Lords' Committees are unwilling to take up more of your Lordſhips' Time, with particular Remarks on other Offices: But they beg Leave to inform your Lordſhips, that, except the Offices belonging to the Parliament, the Council and Regiſtry-Offices, and ſome others which are kept within the Precincts of the Caſtle of Dublin, they have not found one, the Situation of which is, in their Opinion, ſafe and commodious; and their Lordſhips ſee this with the more Uneaſineſs, becauſe this Kingdom has already, in one Inſtance, felt the Evil, which there is ſo great Reaſon to fear in others. The Damage ſuſtained by the Fire which ſome Years ago conſumed the Council-Office, can never be repaired.

The Lords' Committees think it their Duty, upon this Occaſion, to obſerve to your Lordſhips, that all the Offices, except thoſe of Parliament, the Rolls, and thoſe in the Caſtle of Dublin, are kept in private Houſes, hired by the Officers. By which Means, publick Records, which concern the Property of the whole Kingdom, are liable to be diſtrained for Rent; and upon the Death of the Officers, they muſt, for a Time, be intirely in the Power of their Heirs or Executors, who, ſhould they prove corrupt or negligent, might in a few Hours, deſtroy a Multitude of them.

Their Lordſhips beg Leave to add this ſhort Obſervation, that theſe Offices are diſperſed through the ſeveral Parts of this great City, which they think to be very inconvenient, both to the Suitors and the Practitioners in the Courts.

All which is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Report, and lay the ſame before his Grace.

Viſcount Netterville's Petition.

A Petition of the Right Hon. Nicholas Lord Viſc. Netterville, ſetting forth, that on the 1ſt Day of March, 1731, he intermarried with Catherine Burton, now Lady Viſcounteſs Netterville, only Daughter of Samuel Burton, Eſq; deceaſed, and on the 16th of the ſame Month, the Petitioner executed Articles for the Conſiderations therein mentioned, whereby he covenanted with the ſaid Samuel Burton to ſettle the ſeveral Manors, Towns and Lands therein mentioned, together with the Reverſion and Reverſions, Remainder and Remainders, Rents, Iſſues and Profits of all the ſaid Manors, Towns and Lands, to the Uſe of himſelf for Life; and, after his Death, chargeable with an Annuity of £600 a Year, as a Jointure for the ſaid Catherine for Life, with Remainder to the firſt and every other Son of the ſaid Marriage in Tail-Male; and, for want of ſuch Iſſue, to his right Heirs:

And praying, for the Reaſons therein contained, that Leave may be given to bring in Heads of a Bill to enable him to charge the ſaid Lands compriſed in the ſaid Marriage-Articles, with ſuch Sum as in the ſaid Petition is ſet forth, and to ſettle other Lands of greater Value to the ſame Uſes, which the ſaid Lands, compriſed in the ſaid Articles, were agreed to be ſettled; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill, according to the Prayer of the ſaid Petition.

Petition of Dr. Bland and others.

A Petition of Nathaniel Bland, Eſq; Doctor of Laws; Elizabeth Heaton otherwiſe Bland his Wife; William Armſtrong, Eſq; Mary Armſtrong otherwiſe Heaton his Wife; Thomas Lumm, Eſq; Sarah Lumm otherwiſe Heaton his Wife; and the Rev. William Gore, and Grizell Gore otherwiſe Heaton his Wife; which ſaid Elizabeth, Mary, Sarah and Grizell are the Daughters and Co-heireſſes of Francis Heaton, late of Mount-Heaton in the King's-County, Eſq; deceaſed, ſetting forth: That the ſaid Francis Heaton, dying poſſeſſed of a conſiderable real Eſtate in Lands, ſubject to ſome Incumbrances, and leaving four Daughters as aforeſaid, who were each of them intitled to one-fourth Part thereof, and poſſeſſed the ſame as Tenants in common.

That the Petitioners, being willing to avoid all Controverſies and Diſputes, that might ariſe between the ſaid ſeveral Parties, in Caſe they ſhould continue to hold their ſaid ſeveral fourth Parts of the ſaid Eſtate in common, entered into an Agreement for making a Partition thereof, ſo as each Party may ſeverally hold their reſpective fourth Part, ſubject to an equal Share of the Incumbrances affecting the ſame; and the Petitioners did accordingly divide the ſaid Eſtate, or Lands, into four Shares or Diviſions, as equal as was poſſible.

That it will not only be greatly for the Benefit of the Petitioners and their Children, but alſo for all Perſons intereſted in the ſaid Lands, to have the ſaid Partition eſtabliſhed and confirmed, which cannot be done, without the Aid of Parliament.

And praying their Lordſhips may give Leave that Heads of a Bill be brought in for confirming and eſtabliſhing the ſaid Partition, ſubjecting the ſame to an equal Proportion of the Incumbrances affecting the ſaid Lands; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill according to the Prayer of the ſaid Petition.

The Judges, according to Order, made a Report as follows, viz.

My Lords,

Judges' Report on temporary Statutes.

IN Obedience to your Lordſhips' Order of the 31ſt of October laſt, whereby the Judges were directed to inquire what Laws are lately expired or near expiring; the Judges cannot find any Acts that have lately expired; but find, that the following Acts are near expiring:

An Act for the real Union and Diviſion of Pariſhes, paſſed in the 2d Year of King George I. Chap. 14, and of Force for 10 Years, from the 24th of June, 1717; and by the Statute 10 George I. Chap. 6, intitled, An Act for explaining and amending an Act, intitled, An Act for the real Union and Diviſion of Pariſhes, and for confirming an Exchange made of a Piece of Ground, whereon the Pariſh-Church and Vicarage-Houſe of the Pariſh of St. Anne in the Suburbs of the City of Dublin, was, by a former Act of Parliament, directed to be built, for another Piece of Ground, and for appropriating ſuch other Piece of Ground to the ſame Uſes: Both the ſaid Acts are continued for ten Years, from the 2d of February, 1723, and to the End of the then next Seſſion; and by the Statute 7 George II. Chap. 7, both theſe Statutes are continued to the 25th of March, 1740, and to the End of the then next Seſſion.

An Act for the more eaſy Recovery of Tythes and other eccleſiaſtical Dues of ſmall Value, paſſed in the firſt Year of King George II. Chap. 12, of Force for three Years only, and to the End of the then next Seſſion, continued for two Years, and to the End of next Seſſion, with ſome Alterations, by the Statute 5 George II. Chap. 6, for continuing ſeveral temporary Statutes made in this Kingdom, and now near expiring, and for the Amendment of the Statutes therein mentioned; and by the Statute of 7 George II. Chap. 7, intitled, An Act for continuing ſeveral temporary Statutes, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned. Both the ſaid Statutes, 1 George II. Chap. 12, and the Alterations by the ſaid Statute, 5 George II. Chap. 6, are further continued to the 25th of March, 1740, and to the End of the then next Seſſion.

An Act for the better ſecuring the Rights of Advowſon and Preſentation, to eccleſiaſtical Benefices, paſſed 1 George II. Chap. 23, to continue for ſeven Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion; and further continued until the 25th of March, 1740, and to the End of the then next Seſſion, by the Act for continuing ſeveral temporary Statutes, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, paſſed 7 George II. Chap. 7.

An Act for the more effectual preventing and further Puniſhment, of Forgery, Perjury and Subornation of Perjury, and to make it Felony to ſteal Bonds, Notes or other Securities for Payment of Money. And for the more effectual tranſporting Felons, Vagabonds and others, paſſed 3 George II. Chap. 4, for three Years from the firſt of May, 1730, and to the End of the then next Seſſion, continued till the 25th of March 1740, and to the End of the then next Seſſion, by an Act for continuing ſeveral temporary Statutes, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, paſſed 7 George II. Chap. 7. But by an Act for continuing and amending ſeveral Statutes now near expiring, paſſed 9 George II. Chap. 6, the ſaid Statute, as far as relates to the tranſporting Felons, Vagabonds and others, continued to the 25th of March, 1757. In an Act paſſed the 3d George II. Chap. 9, intitled, An Act for the further explaining and amending ſeveral Statutes for prohibiting Under-Sheriffs and Sheriffs Clerks from officiating as Sub-Sheriffs or Sheriffs Clerks more than one Year, and to render more effectual, an Act to prevent Fees being taken in certain Caſes; and to take away the pretended Office of Barony-Clerk, and to oblige Sheriffs to appoint Deputies for granting Replevins, and alſo for diſcharging of of Priſoners, unable to pay their Fees; in which ſaid Act there is a Clauſe, whereby Informers may prefer Bills of Diſcovery againſt High-Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, Sheriffs' Clerks or County-Clerk, and others, to diſcover any Truſts, contrary to the ſaid Acts; to which Bills no Plea or Demurrer is to be allowed; which ſaid Clauſe is, by the ſaid Act, to continue in Force to the 1ſt of March 1733, and to the End of the then next Seſſion; which ſaid Clauſe is by an Act for continuing ſeveral temporary Statutes, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, continued to the 25th of March, 1740, and to the End of the then next Seſſion, paſſed 7 Geo. II. Chap. 7.

An Act for the more ſpeedy and effectual Repair of Bridges in the ſeveral Counties of this Kingdom, paſſed 1 Geo. II. Chap. 3, in force for three Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion, continued for ſeven Years, from the End of that Seſſion, and to the End of the then next Seſſion, by an Act, paſſed 5 Geo. II. Chap. 6, intitled, An Act for continuing ſeveral temporary Statutes, made in this Kingdom, and now near expiring, and for Amendment of the Statutes therein mentioned.

An Act for the more effectual puniſhing Stealers of Lead or Iron-Bars fixed to Houſes, or any Fences belonging thereunto, paſſed 5 Geo. II. Chap. 10, in force for two Years from the 25th of March, 1732, and to the End of the then next Seſſion, continued to the 25th of March, 1740, and to the the End of the then next Seſſion, by an Act, intitled, An Act for continuing ſeveral temporary Statutes, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, paſſed 7 Geo. II. Chap. 7.

An Act for the better regulating of Juries, paſſed the 9th Geo. II. Chap. 3, to be in force till the 29th of September, 1739, and to the End of the then next Seſſion.

An Act to prevent Frauds and Abuſes in Bay-yarn, exported to Great Britain, paſſed the 7th Geo. II. Chap. 9, to be in force to the 1ſt of Auguſt, 1736, continued to 1ſt of November, 1741, and to the End of the then next Seſſion, by the Act 11 Geo. II. Chap. 13, intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing, explaining and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

An Act for the further Improvement and Encouragement of the Fiſhery of this Kingdom, paſſed 11 Geo. II. Chap. 14, to continue for three Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion.

An Act, paſſed in the 8th Year of his late Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the further Amendment of the Laws, in relation to Butter and Tallow Caſks, Hides and other Commodities of this Kingdom; and for the preventing the Deſtruction of Salmon, which Act was continued and amended by an Act, made in the 10th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for continuing and amending the Laws in relation to Butter and Tallow, and the Caſks in which ſuch Goods are to be made up, and in relation to the curing of Hides, and making up of Beef and Pork for Exportation; and for the preventing the Deſtruction of Salmon; which ſaid Act was explained and amended by another Act, made in the 12th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for explaining and amending an Act, intitled, An Act for continuing and amending the Laws in relation to Butter and Tallow; and the Caſks in which ſuch Goods are to be made up, and in relation to the curing of Hides, and making up of Beef and Pork for Exportation; and for the preventing the Deſtruction of Salmon: Which ſaid Acts, by an Act paſſed in the 5th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for continuing ſeveral temporary Statutes, made in this Kingdom, and now near expiring, and for the Amendment of the Statutes therein mentioned, were continued for the Space of ſeven Years, from the End of the then preſent Seſſion of Parliament, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

Order thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Report ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to a ſelect Committee, and that all the Lords preſent be the ſaid Committee, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come, are to have Voices therein, and the Judges to aſſiſt.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet this Day ſe'n-night, at Ten o'clock in the Forenoon, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Proceedings on Lord Tyrawly's Complaint.

The Journal of this House of the 25th of February, 1737, in relation to the Complaint made by the Lord Tyrawly, against Charles Atkinson, and the Order for taking the said Atkinson into Custody thereupon, being by Order read, and the Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod being then examined concerning the same;

Charles Atkinson ordered into Custody.

IT is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliamont assembled, that the Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod attending this House, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Body of the said Charles Atkinson, and keep him in safe Custody, until further Order of this House; and this shall be a sufficient Warrant in that behalf.

To Henry Cavendish, Esq; Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that the several Orders of this House for taking any Person into Custody, who has absconded, and has not been taken, shall be renewed and are hereby of full Force.

Resolved, upon the Question, nem. con. that after this present Session of Parliament, this House will not receive any Petition for Private Bills, unless Notice be posted in the Four-Courts or the Tholsel of the City of Dublin, two Kalendar Months before the Session of Parliament, and upon the Doors of this House eight Days before the bringing in such Petition.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the House, that, in Obedience to their Lordships' Order of the 30th of November last, he had attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the Report agreed to by this House, in relation to the Publick Offices of Record; and his Grace was pleased to give this Answer:

Answer concerning Publick Offices.

"I am very sensible of what Importance "the Preservation of the publick Records is "to this Kingdom, and shall forthwith lay "this Report before his Majesty."

Committee relative to Nuisances.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that the Earl of Cavan, and all the Lords present shall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to inquire into the Conduct of the Lord Mayor and other Magistrates of the City of Dublin, in relation to the several publick Nuisances in the Streets of the said City; and all Lords who shall please to come to the said Committee, are to have Voices therein; and their Lordships have Power to send for Persons, Papers and Records, in order to their proceeding on the said Inquiry.

Their Lordships, or any five of them, to meet in the Committee-Chamber, near the House of Peers, on Monday Morning next, at Ten o'clock, adjourn as they please, and report.

Heads of Viscount Netterville's Bill,

The Lord Visc. Valentia, according to Order, presented to the House, Heads of a Bill for vesting Part of the Estate of the Right Hon. Nicholas Lord Visc. Netterville, in Trustees, to be sold for Payment of Debts, and for settling other Lands in Lieu thereof; which were received, and read a first time.

Ordered, that the said Heads of a Bill be now read a second time.

The said Heads of a Bill were then read a second time.

committed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that the Consideration of the said Heads of a Bill shall be, and is hereby, committed to a select Committee, and that the Lord Viscount Valentia, and all the Lords present be the said Committee; whose Lordships are to inquire whether all Persons concerned in the Consequences thereof have consented thereunto, and report.

Report on Nuiſances, &c. in Dublin.

The Earl of Cavan reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to inquire into the Nuiſances and Grievances of this City, and the Liberties thereunto adjoining, and more particularly into the Abuſes committed by the Regraters, Foreſtallers and Retailers of Coals, Corn, Meal and other Proviſions; that they had come to the following Reſolution, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that John Simpſon, Maſter of the Phœnix, has been guilty of a moſt flagrant Breach of his Contract, entered into with the Lord Mayor of the City of Dublin for Coals, to the great Oppreſſion of the Poor of this City; and that Patrick Whyte his Burſar, has been privy to, and aſſiſting therein; and that the ſaid John Simpſon and Patrick Whyte have notoriouſly prevaricated in their Examination before the Lords' Committees.

The ſaid Report being then read at the Table.

The Queſtion was put, Whether the Houſe do agree with the Committee in the ſaid Reſolution?

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

J. Simpſon ordered into Cuſtody.

IT is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Body of the ſaid John Simpſon, for his notorious Prevarication before the ſaid Lords' Committees, and keep him in ſafe Cuſtody, until further Order of this Houſe; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant in that behalf.

To the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

P. Whyte ordered into Cuſtody.

IT is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Body of the ſaid Patrick Whyte, for his notorious Prevarication before the ſaid Lords' Committees, and keep him in ſafe Cuſtody, until further Order of this Houſe; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant in that behalf.

To the Keeper of his Majeſty's Gaol of Newgate.

Report on Earl of Inchiquin's Complaint.

The Earl of Cavan reported from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, to whom the Complaint of the Right Hon. the Earl of Inchiquin was referred; that they had conſidered thereof, and upon the Examination of Denis Fcord, after having been ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe, it appeared, that by Virtue of a Power to the ſaid Fcord by Bryan O'Brien, Agent to the ſaid Earl of Inchiquin, on the 26th Day of September laſt, he diſtrained ſeveral Stacks of Oats and Barley on the Lands of Mohirtrilohy in the Barony of Buren and Co. Clare, the Eſtate of the ſaid Earl of Inchiquin, for Arrears of Rent due to his Lordſhip, and that the ſaid Diſtreſs was forceably reſcued by Andrew Kervan, Paul Kinane and James Kinane, being within the Time, and contrary to the Privilege, of Parliament: And upon the Examination of Malachy Loghlin, after having been ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe, it appeared to the ſaid Lords' Committees, that the ſaid And. Kervan, Paul Kinane and James Kinane, were duly ſerved with a Summons to appear before the ſaid Lords' Committees, the 29th Inſt. to anſwer the ſaid Breach of Privilege, which they have thought proper to diſobey; which was ſubmitted to their Lordſhips.

Perſons ordered into Cuſtody.

UPON the Report this Day made from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, to whom the Complaint of the Right Hon. the Earl of Inchiquin, againſt Andrew Kervan, Paul Kinane, and James Kinane, was referred; It is ordered, by by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Bodies of the ſaid Andrew Kervan, Paul Kinane and James Kinane, and keep them in ſafe Cuſtody, until further Order of this Houſe; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant in that behalf.

The Lord Visc. Strabane reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Address to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, pursuant to their Lordships' Resolution of Yesterday; that they had prepared the same, which he read in his Place, and being afterwards read at the Table, was agreed to by the House, as follows, viz.

To his Grace William Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Grace,

Address to L˜ Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, beg Leave, before the Conclusion of this Session, to make the most grateful Acknowledgments to your Grace, for your wise and just Administration.

The Continuance of your Grace in the Government of this Kingdom, is a most valuable Proof of his Majesty's paternal Regard for the Happiness of his Subjects of Ireland; and we should think ourselves unworthy of so great a Favour, if we did not, on our Part, use our utmost Endeavours, to make your Administration as easy to your Grace, as it is happy to the People.

We are persuaded, that a steady Loyalty to his Majesty, and a constant Adherence to the true Interest of our Country, must be the only Means to recommend us to your Grace's Approbation; as we have always acted upon these Principles, we humbly hope, that your Grace will make favourable Representations to his Majesty of the Unanimity with which this House has dispatched the Business that came before us this Session.

We think ourselves, at this time, obliged to repeat our most sincere Assurances, that we will be ready, upon all Occasions, zealously to defend and support his Majesty's Person and Government; and that we will heartily contribute every thing in our Power towards the Security and Prosperity of his Kingdoms.

Resolved, that the said Address be presented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole House.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will please to be attended by this House with their Address to his Grace.

Report relative to List of Protestant House-keepers.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the House, that, in obedience to their Lordships' Order of Yesterday, he had waited upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, with the Resolution and Address of this House, to desire his Grace would be pleased to give Directions to the proper Officers to return to this House the Names of all Protestant House-keepers within their respective Districts, distinguishing each County, Barony and Parish; and his Grace was pleased to make this Answer, That he would give Directions accordingly.

The House was resumed: And the Lord Bishop of Meath reported from the Committee, that they had made some Progress, and that he was directed to move the House for Leave to sit again.

Resolved, that this House shall be put into a Committee To-morrow Morning, to take the said Bill into further Consideration.

A Message was brought from the House of Commons, by Mr. Attorney-General and others, with the Address to his Majesty, sent down by their Lordships, and to acquaint this House, that they have agreed to the same, without any Amendment.

Which Address is as follows, viz.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in Parliament assembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms, under the Command of Vice-Admiral Vernon, at Portobello.

Address to the King, on Success at Portobello.

We are highly sensible, that next under GOD, we owe this Success to your Majesty's wise and steady Conduct, and we cannot doubt, but that by the Continuance of His Blessings on your Majesty's Councils and Arms, you will secure for ever those just Rights which belong to your Majesty's Subjects, and for which you have shewn such a princely Concern.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know, what Time he will be pleased to appoint to be attended with the Address of both Houses to his Majesty.

The Lord Viſc. Valentia, from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, made the following Report:

My Lords,

Report on Earl of Barrymore's and V. Valentia's Complaint.

It having appeared to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, to whom the Complaint made by the Earl of Barrymore, and the Lord Viſc. Valentia, for putting their Lordſhips Names to ſeveral Letters, without their Privity or Conſent, was referred; that by the Teſtimony of James Mills, the Name Angleſey was forged to a Letter, dated Dublin, February 26th 1739-40, ſigned William Lyndſay, and directed to Mr. James Lyndſay, in General Whitham's Regiment, in Major Wilmore's Company, lying in the City of Canterbury, by Samuel Vouſden, now in the Four-Courts Marſhalſea: Whereupon the Lords' Committees came to the following Reſolutions:

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that James Mills, now in the Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms, be releaſed from the Reſtraint he lies under.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that his Majeſty's Attorney-General do proſecute Samuel Vouſden, for the ſaid Forgery.

Order for diſcharging Ja. Mills, from Cuſtody

UPON Report made this Day from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that James Mills, now in Cuſtody of the Serjeant at Arms, ſhall be releaſed from the Reſtraint he lies under; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant in that behalf.

To the Serjeant at Arms attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

S. Vouſden to be proſecuted.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Majeſty's Attorney-General do proſecute Sam. Vouſden, upon the Report made this Day from the Lords' Committees for Privileges for the ſaid Offence.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I HAVE with great Satisfaction obeyed his Majeſty's Commands, in giving the Royal Aſſent to the many uſeful Bills, which you have prepared; and I aſſure myſelf, you need not be put in Mind, how neceſſary it will be, in order to reap the full Benefit of them, to carry them into a due and impartial Execution.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

THE Chearfulneſs and Unanimity with which you granted the uſual Supplies, and for which I am to return you his Majeſty's Thanks, are freſh Inſtances of your Affection and Zeal for his Majeſty's Perſon and Government; as the ſeaſonable Proviſion which you have made, for arming the Militia, is of your Attention to the Preſervation of the publick Peace and Tranquillity of this Kingdom.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is with much Pleaſure I obſerve, from the Addreſſes of both Houſes, that my Adminiſtration, has been agreeable to you; and as I ſhall always have the Welfare of this Kingdom at Heart, you may depend upon my beſt Endeavours for your Service; and I ſhall continue truly and faithfully to repreſent to his Majeſty, the Affection, Loyalty and Zeal of his Majeſty's Subjects of Ireland.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Grace's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

they enter. And the Houſe of Commons being come, they, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech. HIS Majeſty, from his paternal Regard for the Welfare of this Kingdom, hath commanded me to meet you again in Parliament, in order to concert ſuch Meaſures as may moſt effectually conduce to the Happineſs and Proſperity of this Nation; and the Experience I have had in two former Seſſions, leaves me no room to doubt, but that you come fully reſolved to give freſh Inſtances of your Zeal for the Publick Service, and of your inviolable Attachment to his Majeſty's royal Perſon and Government.

The Sickneſs, which hath proved ſo mortal in ſeveral Parts of the Kingdom, and is thought to have been principally owing to the Scarcity of wholeſome Proviſions, muſt very ſenſibly affect his Majeſty, who hath a moſt tender Concern for all his Subjects, and cannot but engage your ſerious Attention, to conſider of proper Methods to prevent the like Calamity for the future; and to this deſirable End, the Increaſe of Tillage, which would at the ſame time uſefully employ the induſtrious Poor, may greatly contribute.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the proper Officers to lay before you the Accounts and Eſtimates.

It is with much Satisfaction I can obſerve to you, that during a War in which his Majeſty is neceſſarily engaged for the Protection of the Trade of all his Dominions, there hath been no Increaſe in the Charge of the Eſtabliſhment.

I doubt not, but that you will, with great Readineſs, raiſe ſuch Supplies as are neceſſary to ſupport his Majeſty's Government with Honour, and provide for the National Debt; and you may be aſſured Care ſhall be taken, that what is raiſed, be duly applied to the Uſes for which it is intended. But as it hath been found by Experience, that the Laws now in being, are not ſufficient to ſtop the iniquitous Practice of the clandeſtine running of Goods, it will be well worthy of your Zeal for the Publick, to provide ſuch Remedies as may effectually protect the Fair Dealer, and prevent the Loſs of any Part of thoſe Duties, which you ſhall think proper to grant for the publick Service.

I gave immediate Directions for providing the twenty-thouſand Firelocks and Bayonets for the Militia, purſuant to your Addreſs of the laſt Seſſion: A conſiderable Quantity hath been already purchaſed, but the Demand for Arms hath been ſo general throughout all Europe, that it hath not hitherto been practicable to procure the Whole: However, I ſhall uſe my Endeavours to compleat the Number with the utmoſt Expedition.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I AM fully perſuaded, that you will improve this Opportunity of our Meeting, and ſecond his Majeſty's gracious Intentions for the Proſperity of his People of Ireland, by taking into your Conſideration what Laws may yet be wanting for the Good of the Publick, and particularly whether ſome further Regulations may not be neceſſary for the increaſing and extending the Hempen and Linen Manufactures, which his Majeſty is deſirous to protect and encourage to the uttermoſt.

On my Part, I ſhall, with the greateſt chearfulneſs, continue to contribute every thing in my Power to promote the Intereſt and Welfare of this Kingdom.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech; and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech to be printed. It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed; and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to his Majeſty. Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to return our moſt ſincere and hearty Thanks, for his Majeſty's paternal Regard for the Welfare of this Kingdom, which we have ever happily experienced; to aſſure his Majeſty, that we ſhall make it our conſtant Care to deſerve the Continuance of his Favour, by our Zeal for the Publick Service, and our inviolable Attachment to his royal Perſon and Government.

Ordered, that the Earl of Meath and all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee, to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolution for Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs of Thanks be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his gracious Speech delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament; and to teſtify the great Honour and Regard we have for his Grace's Perſon; the Satisfaction we receive from his Return to the Government of this Kingdom; and to give our zealous and unfeigned Thanks for the many Benefits derived to us from his Grace's wiſe and juſt Adminiſtration.

Ordered, that the Lord Biſhop of Down and all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and they are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at half an Hour after Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 23d Inſt. being an Anniverſary Thankſgiving for the Deliverance of the Proteſtants in this Kingdom, from the Popiſh Maſſacre in 1641.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Leighlin and Ferns ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 5th of November next, being appointed a Day of Thankſgiving for the happy Deliverance of the three Eſtates of England from the intended Maſſacre by Gunpowder; and alſo for the happy Arrival of his late Majeſty King William III. of Glorious Memory, on this Day, for the Deliverance of our Church and theſe Nations.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Earl of Meath reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return our moſt ſincere and hearty Thanks to your Majeſty, for your Majeſty's paternal Regard for the Welfare of this Kingdom, which we have ever happily experienced; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall make it our conſtant Care to deſerve the Continuance of your Favour, by our Zeal for the publick Service, and our inviolable Attachment to your royal Perſon and Government.

We cannot but be ſtrongly moved by the Mortality, which hath ſpread itſelf in ſeveral Parts of this Kingdom, as well as excited by your Majeſty's tender Concern for your Subjects, to uſe our beſt Endeavours to find out the propereſt Means of preventing the like Calamity for the future, one of which, we are ſenſible, is the Improvement of our Tillage, as it will not only uſefully employ the induſtrious Poor, but alſo ſecure (by the Bleſſing of Divine Providence) ſuch a certain and wholeſome Proviſion, as may contribute to hinder the Return of the like contagious Diſtempers.

The Importance of the Hempen and Linen Manufactures to the Proſperity of Ireland, is too viſible, not to be the Object of our ſerious Attention; and we ſhall not fail to conſider what farther Regulations may be neceſſary for increaſing and extending thoſe valuable Branches of our Trade, ſo as to enjoy the full Benefit of your Majeſty's royal Protection and Encouragement, to which we are ſenſible how greatly we are indebted for their preſent Succeſs, and the Proſpect of their future Perfection.

We ſhall moſt heartily apply ourſelves to the Conſideration of ſuch other Laws as may be neceſſary, and with all Readineſs give our Concurrence to whatever Meaſures may be moſt conducive to the publick Good, being under the ſtrongeſt Obligations to improve, to the beſt Advantage, this Opportunity of our Meeting, by ſeconding, in every Inſtance in our our Power, your Majeſty's gracious Intentions for the Proſperity of your People of Ireland.

We take the Liberty of returning your Majeſty our moſt humble Thanks, for continuing his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire in the Government of this Kingdom, who, we are by Experience convinced, will ſteadily uſe the Power committed to him, according to your Majeſty's Royal Example, for the Good of your People.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

The Lord Biſhop of Down reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace
WILLIAM Duke of DEVONSHIRE,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to L^d^ Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Grace our humble Thanks for your Speech from the Throne, and to congratulate your Grace on your ſafe Return to the Government of this Kingdom.

The profound Tranquillity this Nation has enjoyed during the Courſe of your Grace's Government, muſt imprint on our Minds the higheſt Honour and Regard for your Perſon, and at the ſame time give us the moſt pleaſing Conviction of his Majeſty's Goodneſs and paternal Care for the Welfare of this Kingdom, in ſending your Grace to be the Chief Governor of this his faithful and loyal People: And we aſſure your Grace, that we will endeavour to ſhew the grateful Senſe we have of the many Benefits which your wiſe and juſt Adminiſtration hath procured to us, by a ready and zealous Concurrence with all your Grace's Deſigns for the publick Good.

The compaſſionate Concern your Grace expreſſes for the Miſeries of the People, occaſioned by the late Sickneſs and Scarcity of Proviſions, as it is a noble Inſtance of the Goodneſs and Generoſity of your Mind, ſo we ſhould prove ourſelves utterly void of all publick Spirit, if we did not, by the moſt diligent and ſerious Conſideration of the Methods your Grace has recommended to us, ſtudy, by all Means in our Power, to prevent theſe dreadful Evils for the future: And your Grace may be aſſured, that we are heartily diſpoſed to improve the Opportunity of this our preſent Meeting in Parliament, and to ſecond his Majeſty's gracious Intentions for the Proſperity of his People of Ireland, by preparing any new Laws that may be wanting for the Good of the Publick, by amending thoſe already in being, and by propoſing any Regulations that may be thought adviſeable, to increaſe and extend the Hempen and Linen Manufactures of this Kingdom, and to make the Protection and Encouragement his Majeſty is graciouſly inclined to give to the induſtrious Endeavours of his People, as extenſive and effectual, as his Majeſty, in his great Goodneſs, deſires it to be.

As your Grace's Adminiſtration has been a continued Series of wiſe and good Actions, by which you have manifeſted the moſt ſincere Deſire to render us a happy and flouriſhing People, ſo we promiſe your Grace, that we, on our Parts, will obſerve ſuch a Conduct in all our Actions and Deliberations as ſhall fully convince the World, that we are really determined to be as happy a People, as his Majeſty, by ſending us ſuch a Chief Governor, intended to make us.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know, when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Grace.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

To the KING's most excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

Address to the King.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return our most humble Thanks for your Majesty's most gracious Answer to our late Address. We shall endeavour, by all our Conduct, to deserve the Continuance of that royal Support and Protection, on which your Majesty so graciously assures us we may depend; and we are persuaded, we can by no Means more effectually intitle ourselves to your Majesty's Favour, than by an unwearied Diligence, in promoting the Interest and Advantage of our Country.

Your Majesty will graciously permit us, on this Occasion of Joy to all your faithful Subjects, to congratulate your Return to Great Britain; and we beg Leave to repeat the Assurances of our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Royal Family, and of our Zeal for the Honour of your Majesty's Government.

Resolved, that the said Address be presented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole House, in order to have the same laid before his Majesty.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will please to be attended by this House with the said Address.

Report of Petition of Debtors at Cork.

The Lord Southwell reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared the ſame, which he read in his Place, and the ſaid Addreſs being afterwards read at the Table, was agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace William Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave, before a Period is put to this Seſſion, to congratulate your Grace upon the remarkable Unanimity and Temper with which it has been carried on, and the happy Concluſion to which it now approaches, which we doubt not, will be as agreeable to his Majeſty, as it is beneficial to his faithful People.

The Zeal with which this Kingdom has always diſtinguiſhed itſelf for the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, cannot but be acceptable to a Perſon of your Grace's known Attachment to his Majeſty's Service and Government, and we muſt ever acknowledge his Majeſty's great Goodneſs in giving us ſo deſirable a Proof of his gracious Acceptance of our Duty and Loyalty to his ſacred Perſon, as the continuing your Grace in the Government of this Kingdom, the Intereſt of which you have in ſo diſtinguiſhed a Manner promoted.

We therefore rely upon your Grace's Goodneſs, that when you return to his Majeſty's Royal Preſence, you will make ſuch Repreſentations of the ſteady Loyalty and Affection of his Subjects of Ireland, as may incline his Majeſty to think us not unworthy of the Continuance of his Royal Favour and Protection.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Grace.

Report on Petition of Officers, &c. of Houſe.

The Earl of Cavan reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Petitions of the Clerk of the Parliaments, Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and Serjeant at Arms, in behalf of themſelves and the other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, and alſo the Petition of Deputy Ulſter King of Arms, were referred; that they had come to the following Reſolutions, viz.

committed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Bill ſhall be committed to a ſelect Committee; and that the Earl of Cavan, and all the Lords preſent, be the ſaid Committee; who are to inquire whether all Perſons, concerned in the Conſequences thereof, have conſented thereto; and compare the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and ſee that it exactly agrees therewith.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet on Monday Morning next, at Ten o'clock, in one of the Committee-Chambers, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Report on E. of Meath's Complaint.

The Earl of Cavan, from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, made the following Report, viz.

My Lords,

THE Lords' Committees for Privileges, to whom the Complaint made by the Earl of Meath, againſt Quaile Somervile and Thomas Read, Sheriffs of the City of Dublin, Henry Conran, and Terence Kerin their Clerks, Richard Daly, Chriſtopher Eves and James Goff, Bailiffs, was referred; having examined into the ſaid Matter of Complaint, have directed me to report to your Lordſhips, that ſeveral Warrants upon Actions for Debt, ſigned by Quaile Somervile and Thomas Read, High-Sheriffs of the City of Dublin, have been executed in the Liberty of Thomas-Court, belonging to the Earl of Meath, and lying within the County of the ſaid City, in the Months of November and January laſt, and this preſent February, without the proper and cuſtomary Application to the Seneſchal of the ſaid Manor, in Breach of the Privileges of this Houſe: But the ſaid Sheriffs, having, upon their Examinations before the Lords' Committees, declared, that they ſigned the ſaid Warrants in the common Courſe of their Buſineſs, without any particular Examination of the Contents, or the leaſt Intention to infringe the Liberties of the ſaid Manor; the Lords' Committees are of Opinion, that whatever Cenſure or Puniſhment your Lordſhips are pleaſed to inflict for this high Offence, ought not to fall upon them, but upon their Clerks, Henry Conran and Terence Kerin, who knowingly and deſignedly iſſued the ſaid Warrants; and on their Bailiffs, Chriſtopher Eves and James Goff, who executed them, and who have, beſides their Breach of the Privileges of this Houſe, added this further Contempt, of not appearing before the Lords' Committees, in obedience to the Summons iſſued to them for that Purpoſe.

In the Courſe of the Examination of this Complaint, it appeared to the Lords' Committees, that John Thompſon an Under-Clerk in the Office of Quaile Somervile, Eſq; did take upon himſelf to execute a Warrant againſt the Goods and Chattles of John Meares of Pimlico, Dyer, within the ſaid Manor of Thomas-Court, although the ſaid Warrant was not directed to him; and that, to cover this, he inter-lined in the ſaid Warrant, after its being ſigned and ſealed by the ſaid Sheriffs, the Name of Richard Daly, a Porter, whom he employed to keep the ſaid Goods and Chattles, after the ſaid John Thompſon had ſeized them, which is ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

The ſaid Report, being afterwards read at the Table, was agreed to by the Houſe.

H. Conran ordered into Cuſtody.

A Motion being made, and the Queſtion put, that Henry Conran ſhall, for the ſaid Offence, be taken into the Cuſtody of the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod;

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

IT is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Body of the ſaid Henry Conran, and keep him in ſafe Cuſtody, until further Order of this Houſe; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant in that behalf.

To Henry Cavendiſh, Eſq; Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

T. Kerin,

A Motion being made, and the Queſtion put, That Terence Kerin ſhall, for his Offence, be taken into the Cuſtody of the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod;

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

A Motion

C. Eves,

A Motion being made, and the Queſtion put, That Chriſtopher Eves, Bailiff, for his ſaid Offence, and alſo for his Contempt in not appearing before the Lords' Committees for Privileges, in obedience to the Summons iſſued to him for that Purpoſe, be taken into Cuſtody of the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod;

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

A Motion being made, and the Queſtion put, that James Goff, Bailiff, for his ſaid Offence, and alſo for his Contempt in not appearing before the Lords' Committees for Privileges, in obedience to the Summons iſſued to him for that Purpoſe, be taken into the Cuſtody of the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod;

J. Goff,

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

IT is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, his Deputy or Deputies, do forthwith attach the Bodies of the ſaid Chriſtopher Eves and James Goff, and keep them in ſafe Cuſtody, until further Order of this Houſe; and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant in that behalf.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

THE Buſineſs of the Seſſion being now ended, you have an early Opportunity of returning to your reſpective Countries; and as I am perſuaded, that the ſame Regard to the Publick Good will influence you in your ſeveral Stations at home, which you have ſhewn in all your Proceedings in Parliament, I can with the greater Confidence recommend to you, beſides, that due and impartial Execution of the Laws, on which the Happineſs of the Nation muſt always depend, a more than ordinary Attention at this time to the Behaviour of thoſe over whom we can never be too watchful; that ſo the War with Spain and the preſent Situation of Affairs abroad, may not give our Enemies the leaſt Advantage to the Prejudice of his Majeſty's Government, or our happy Conſtitution.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I RETURN you Thanks, in his Majeſty's Name, for the Supplies which you have granted with a remarkable Unanimity.

It is very agreeable to his Majeſty, to obſerve the Care you have taken to eaſe your Fellow-Subjects, with a due Regard, at the ſame time, to Parliamentary Credit, by reducing the Intereſt of a conſiderable Part of the National Debt, and by raiſing what was neceſſary for the publick Service at a lower Rate of Intereſt, than hath been hitherto known in this Kingdom.

" My Lords and Gentlemen,

YOUR Readineſs, on all Occaſions, to make my Adminiſtration eaſy, particularly engages me to continue my beſt Endeavours for the Intereſt and Welfare of this Kingdom; and the repeated Proofs you have given of your Zeal for his Majeſty's Service, will oblige me to lay hold of every Opportunity, at my Return into the Royal Preſence, to repreſent you to his Majeſty, as his truly loyal and faithful Subjects.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Grace's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 23d Day of March next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 23d Day of March next.

His Grace William Duke of Devonſhire, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe, with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Roſs carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Mount Alexander, the Cap of Maintenance; three Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Grace the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint them, that it is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

And the Houſe of Commons being come, they, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies. they enter.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

MY long Experience of your firm Attachment to his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, of your ſteady Zeal and Unanimity in ſeconding his royal Care of the Proſperity of this Kingdom, and for your obliging Regard on all Occaſions, to the Eaſe of my Adminiſtration, greatly heightened the Pleaſure with which I received his Majeſty's Commands to meet you again in Parliament.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the proper Officers to lay before you the Accounts and Eſtimates.

The Part which his Majeſty hath ſo greatly taken for the Preſervation of the Liberties of Europe, hath occaſioned ſome Alterations in his Armies; but as they are far from increaſing the Expence of this Kingdom, I have nothing new in Command from his Majeſty to aſk: And I aſſure myſelf, from your former Conduct, that you will, with the greateſt Chearfulneſs, provide for the National Debt, and continue to ſupport the King's Government with Honour.

The Arms for the Uſe of the Militia being all provided, the Account of the Money diſburſed for the Service, ſhall be laid before you.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The contagious Diſtemper which rages ſo violently in the ſeveral Countries abroad, calls upon you to take into your Conſideration what Proviſions may be moſt effectual to ſecure this Kingdom from Infection; or if any Part of it ſhall be ſo unhappy to be viſited by that dreadful Calamity, to ſtop its further Progreſs.

It will naturally fall under your Obſervation, that any further Methods which ſhall be thought proper to prevent the iniquitous Practice of the clandeſtine running of Goods, muſt at the ſame time greatly tend to the Preſervation of the Lives and Health of his Majeſty's Subjects.

Your Attention to the further extending and improving of the Flaxen and Hempen Manufactures, and every other Meaſure which may conduce to the Trade, Security and Welfare of this Kingdom, will be the moſt agreeable Inſtance of your Duty and Affection to his Majeſty, who is the common Father of all his People.

You may be aſſured, that I ſhall, with the higheſt Satisfaction, concur with you in every thing that may promote the Publick Good, and upon all Occaſions, contribute my beſt Endeavours for advancing the Happineſs and Proſperity of the People of Ireland.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech; and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed; and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to congratulate him on the Part he hath greatly taken for the Preſervation of the Liberties of Europe, and on the Succeſs with which GOD hath been already pleaſed to bleſs the Arms of his Majeſty and his Allies; and to thank him for his Goodneſs, in providing that no new Expenſe be laid upon this his Kingdom.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we will, with the greateſt Chearfulneſs, concur in all Meaſures that may conduce to the Trade, Security and Welfare of this his Majeſty's Kingdom, as the moſt agreeable Inſtance of our Duty and Affection to his Majeſty, and as the ſureſt Means of ſupporting his Majeſty's Government with Honour.

That we ſhall apply our moſt ſerious Thoughts to the providing moſt effectually for the Security of this Kingdom, from the Infection of the contagious Diſtemper now raging in ſeveral Countries abroad; and for ſtopping that Infection, if it ſhould unhappily viſit any among us; and that to that end, we will particularly conſider of all further Methods for preventing the iniquitous Practice of the clandeſtine running of Goods, which, beſides the Ruin of Trade, is the readieſt Inlet to peſtilential Diſeaſes.

To thank his Majeſty, for ſending again to the Government of this Kingdom, his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, from whoſe experienced Prudence, Integrity and Honour, we have the fulleſt Aſſurance of being truly repreſented to his Majeſty, as his moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, and thereby of receiving from his Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs, every thing that may promote the Publick Good, and advance the Happineſs and Proſperity of this Nation.

Ordered, that his Grace the Lord Primate, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee, to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolution for Addreſs to L^d Lieutenant

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs of Thanks be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his Grace's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Boyne and all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and they are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at half an Hour after Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Biſhop of Oſſory introduced.

The Rev. Mic. Cox, Doctor of Divinity, being by Letters Patents, dated the 14th Day of April in the 16th Year of George II. created Biſhop of Oſſory, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Meath, and the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Kildare, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the original Roll of his Lordſhip's Patent preceding: His Lordſhip preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave it to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which was read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Biſhops' Bench.

His Grace the Lord Primate reported from the Lords' Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Part your Majeſty hath greatly taken for the Preſervation of the Liberties of Europe, and on the Succeſs with which GOD hath been already pleaſed to bleſs the Arms of your Majeſty and your Allies; and to thank your Majeſty for your Goodneſs, in providing that no new Expenſe be laid upon this your Kingdom.

We ſhall uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to provide moſt effectually for ſecuring this Kingdom from the Infection of the contagious Diſtemper now raging in ſeveral Countries abroad, and for ſtopping that Infection, if any among us ſhould unhappily be viſited by it; and to that end, we will particularly conſider of all further Methods for preventing the iniquitous Practice of the clandeſtine running of Goods, which, beſides the Ruin of Trade, is the readieſt Inlet to peſtilential Diſeaſes.

We cannot but return our moſt ſincere Thanks to your Majeſty, for ſending again to the Government of this Kingdom, his Grace the Duke of Devonſhire, from whoſe experienced Prudence, Integrity and Honour, we have the fulleſt Aſſurance of being truly repreſented to your Majeſty, as your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, and thereby of receiving from your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs every thing that may promote the Publick Good, and advance the Happineſs and Proſperity of this Nation.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

The Lord Viſcount Boyne reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace
WILLIAM Duke of DEVONSHIRE,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to L^d Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, preſent to your Grace, our moſt humble Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

We ſincerely congratulate, with the whole People of Ireland, on your Grace's happy Return, and eſteem it a diſtinguiſhing Mark of his Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs, that he hath again committed the Government of this Kingdom to your Grace's long-experienced Fidelity and Wiſdom.

Your Grace's Approbation of our former Conduct, lays us under an additional Obligation to continue our juſt Regard to the Eaſe of an Adminiſtration, which hath been invariably directed to the Happineſs and Proſperity of this Kingdom.

The great and generous Plan, which his Majeſty is purſuing, in Maintenance of the Liberties of Europe, even at the Hazard of his Royal Perſon, cannot fail to inſpire all his Majeſty's loyal Subjects with the higheſt Veneration of his princely Virtues, ſo nobly exerted for the Good of Mankind, and muſt animate them with the moſt ardent Zeal for the Security and Honour of his Government.

We ſhall be greatly wanting to ourſelves, if we do not, in the beſt manner, improve this Opportunity to the Service of our Country, particularly by making all ſuch Proviſions as may beſt preſerve us, with GOD's Bleſſing, from the dreadful Calamity of the Plague.

We ſhall uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to extend and improve the Flaxen and Hempen Manufacture, and to promote every other Meaſure that may conduce to the Trade, Security and Welfare of this Kingdom.

We have the juſteſt Senſe of your Grace's watchful Care and Goodneſs, in recommending theſe important Subjects to our Conſideration; and are fully convinced, that by a zealous Purſuit of all ſuch Methods as will promote the Safety and Happineſs of this Nation, we ſhall beſt expreſs our Duty and Affection to his Majeſty, the common Father of all his People.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know, when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Grace.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 23d Inſt. being an Anniverſary Thankſgiving for the Deliverance of the Proteſtants in this Kingdom from the Popiſh Maſſacre in 1641.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Down ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 5th of November next, being appointed a Day of Thankſgiving for the happy Deliverance of the three Eſtates of England from the intended Maſſacre by Gunpowder, and alſo for the happy Arrival of his late Majeſty King William III. of glorious Memory, on this Day, for the Deliverance of our Church and theſe Nations.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

His Grace the Lord Primate reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Saturday laſt; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and with an Amendment, agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly preſent our Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Return to Great Britain.

The Safety of a Prince, who hath ever eſteemed it his true Glory to protect the Liberty, maintain the Rights, and advance the Proſperity of his People, muſt be at all times dear and valuable to his faithful Subjects: But our preſent Joy is greatly heightened by the Conſideration of your Majeſty's having eſcaped thoſe imminent Dangers to which you have expoſed your Royal Perſon in Support of your Allies, and of the common Cauſe of Europe.

We ſincerely rejoice in the Succeſs, which hath attended the Wiſdom and Intrepidity of your Majeſty's Councils and Conduct, and beſeech the Almighty to continue his gracious Protection to your Majeſty, and to proſper all your Meaſures, in Vindication of the Rights of your People and of Mankind.

We beg Leave to embrace this Opportunity of teſtifying our Joy on the ſafe Delivery of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Wales, of a Prince. The Increaſe of your Majeſty's Royal Family is an Acceſſion to the Happineſs of your People, as it affords a moſt pleaſing Proſpect, that their lateſt Poſterity will not want the Protection of a Prince, to whom the Glory of being deſcended from your Majeſty, will be a ſtrong Incitement to imitate your royal Virtues.

We farther beg Leave to congratulate with your Majeſty upon the Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Louiſa with the Prince Royal of Denmark.

This Alliance to a Crown, already ſo conſiderable in itſelf, and related to your Majeſty, cannot fail of being moſt acceptable to all who are engaged with your Majeſty in the ſame glorious Deſign of maintaining the Freedom of Europe.

Your Majeſty's Subjects, peculiarly happy in the full Enjoyment of Civil and Religious Liberty, muſt acknowledge, with proportionable Delight and Gratitude, your Majeſty's uniform Purſuit of the Publick Good. And we aſſure your Majeſty, that on our Part we will, by every Method in our Power, zealouſly promote the Eaſe, Stability and Glory of your Majeſty's moſt juſt and gracious Government.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with the ſaid Addreſs.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that in obedience to their Lordſhips' Order, he had waited upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he would pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe, with their Addreſs to his Majeſty; and his Grace was pleaſed to appoint this Day, at Two o'clock, at his Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin.

Petition of Lord Netterville.

A Petition of the Right Hon. Nicholas Lord Viſc. Netterville, ſetting forth, that at the laſt Aſſizes held in and for the Co. Meath, a Bill of Indictment was found againſt him for the Murder of one Michael Walſh, and that, purſuant to Recognizance entered into by his Lordſhip before the Judges of his Majeſty's Court of King's Bench laſt Trinity Term, he ſurrendered himſelf to the Judges of Aſſize at ſaid Aſſizes, who thereupon committed him to the Cuſtody of the Sheriff of the ſaid County.

That being afterwards removed, by Habeas Corpus, before the Right Hon. Thomas Marlay, Eſq; Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of King's-Bench, his Lordſhip, on the 5th Day of September laſt, committed the Petitioner to the Cuſtody of the Sheriffs of the City of Dublin.

That he hath ever ſince remained in the Cuſtody of the late and preſent Sheriffs of the ſaid City, under the ſaid Charge; and finding himſelf greatly impaired in his Health on account of the ſaid Confinement.

And praying that their Lordſhips would be graciouſly pleaſed to take his Caſe into Conſideration, and to give ſuch Directions, that he may be brought to his Trial or admitted to Bail, or to grant him ſuch other Relief, as their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom, ſhall think proper; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Petition ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, who are to conſider thereof, and report their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe. Order thereon.

Upon reading the Order for the Day, for putting the Houſe into a Committee upon Heads of a Bill for the Naturalization of Perſons profeſſing the Jewiſh Religion;

And a Debate ariſing thereupon,

The Queſtion was put, That this Houſe ſhall be put into a Committee to take into Conſideration the ſaid Heads of a Bill upon this Day two Months.

The Houſe divided; and the Lord Biſhop of Cork reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 18, and the Not-Contents within the Bar were 13, ſo that it was carried in the Affirmative.

Report from Committee for Privileges.

The Lord Tullamore reported from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, to whom the Conſideration of the Petition of Nicholas Lord Viſc. Netterville was referred; that it appeared to their Lordſhips, that at the laſt Aſſizes and General Gaol Delivery held at Trim, in and for the County of Meath, a Bill of Indictment was found againſt Nicholas Lord Viſc. Netterville, for the Murder of Mic. Walſh, which Indictment was afterwards removed by Certiorari into his Majeſty's Court of King's Bench, and that his Lordſhip was brought up by Habeas Corpus before the Lord Chief Juſtice of that Court, and committed by the ſaid Chief Juſtice to the Cuſtody of the Sheriffs of the City of Dublin, where he now remains.

And their Lordſhips are of Opinion, that the ſaid Nicholas Lord Viſc. Netterville, ſhould not be bailed, but that he ought to be committed Priſoner to the Conſtable of the Caſtle of Dublin, and that as ſhort a time as may be thought convenient, ſhould be appointed for his Trial.

To which the Houſe agreed.

Order to Sheriffs of Dublin to bring Lord Netterville to the Bar.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Sheriffs of the City of Dublin do bring the Body of Nicholas Lord Viſc. Netterville to the Bar of this Houſe To-morrow Morning, at Twelve o'clock.

Lord Netterville's Trial appointed.

The Lord Chancellor reported, that in obedience to their Lordships' Resolution, he had attended his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to acquaint him, that this House has appointed Wednesday the 18th Day of January next, for the Trial of Nicholas Lord Visc. Netterville, and humbly desire, that his Grace would please to appoint a proper Place for the said Trial; to which his Grace was pleased to give this Answer:

Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

"I WILL give Orders to have a convenient "Place fitted up for the Trial of the Lord "Visc. Netterville."

The Orders for the Day being read;

Defaulters called over.

The House proceeded to the Call of such Lords as made Default, and did not appear upon the Call of the House on the second Instant.

And all Lords who were in Great Britain or elsewhere out of this Kingdom, and those of the Popish Religion were excused.

Lords not excused again called over, &c.

Then the Names of such Lords as made Default, and not excused, were again called over; and several other Lords were excused.

E. Grandison not excused.

John Villiers, Earl of Grandison, being then called, and his Lordship not appearing, and not being excused, the Standing Orders of this House, N° 5, and N° 8, were then by Order read.

Motion thereupon.

A Motion being made, that John Villiers Earl of Grandison, for not attending the Service of this House, be taken into the Custody of the Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod.

Previous Question.

The previous Question was put, Whether the said Question shall be now put?

It was resolved in the Affirmative.

The Question was then put, That John Villiers Earl of Grandison, for not attending the Service of this House, be taken into the Custody of the Gentleman-Usher of the Black-Rod;

Trial of Nicholas Lord Viſc. Netterville.

This Day, according to Order, the Lords attended in their Robes, to receive the Lord High Steward appointed for the Trial of Nicholas Lord Viſc. Netterville.

William Hawkins, Eſq; Deputy to Ulſter King of Arms of all Ireland, being permitted to come to the Table, the Houſe was called over by the Clerk of the Parliaments; the ſaid Deputy King of Arms marking ſuch of the Lords as were preſent in a Liſt.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned, into the Court appointed for the Trial of Nicholas Lord Viſc. Netterville, whither the Officers, Attendants, Peers' Sons, Minor Peers and Lords, went in the Order directed; the Deputy King of Arms calling them in their due Places by a Liſt.

When the Lords were ſeated on their proper Benches, and the Lord High Steward upon the Wool-Pack, the Houſe was reſumed.

The Clerks of the Crown preſented the Commiſſion, upon their Knees, to the Lord High Steward.

Then Proclamation was made for Silence; and all the Lords ſtanding uncovered, the Commiſſion was read, as follows, viz.

Commiſſion. " GEORGE the Second, by the Grace of " God, of Great Britain, France and Ireland, " King, Defender of the Faith, and ſo forth: " To our right truſty and well-beloved, " Counſellor Robert Baron Newport of New- " port, our Chancellor of our ſaid Kingdom " of Ireland, greeting, WHEREAS Nicholas " Viſc. Netterville of Dowth, late of New- " Grange in our County of Meath, was in- " dicted at a General Aſſizes and General " Gaol-Delivery, held at Trim in and for our " ſaid County of Meath, on Monday the 1ſt " Day of Auguſt, in the 17th Year of our " Reign, before Thomas Marlay, Eſq; Chief " Juſtice of our Court of Chief-Place, of our " ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, and Michael Ward, " Eſq; Second Juſtice of our ſaid Court of " Chief-Place, by Virtue of our Commiſſion " under the Great Seal of our ſaid Kingdom " of Ireland, bearing date at Dublin the 21ſt " Day of June, in the 17th Year of our Reign, " for that he, wilfully, feloniouſly, traitorouſly " and of his Malice, Fore-thought, killed and " murdered one Michael Walſh, which Indict- " ment we have cauſed to be removed before " us, in our preſent Parliament, in our ſaid " Kingdom of Ireland. We, conſidering that " Juſtice is an excellent and moſt deſirable " Virtue, and pleaſing to the Almighty, and " which, above all things, we will, ſhould be " adminiſtered; and being willing, that the " ſaid Nicholas Viſc. Netterville, before us in " our ſaid Parliament, according to the Laws " and Cuſtoms of our ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, " ſhould be heard, examined, ſentenced and " adjudged, and that all other things proper " on this Occaſion ſhould be duly performed " and done. AND FORASMUCH as the Office " of High Steward of our ſaid Kingdom of " Ireland, as we are informed, is now vacant: " And whereas the Peers and Nobles of our " ſaid Kingdom of Ireland have humbly re- " queſted us to appoint an High Steward " upon this Occaſion; We, very much con- " fiding in the Fidelity, unbiaſſed Judgment " and

" and prudent Circumſpection of you the ſaid " Robert Baron Newport, of Newport, of our " ſpecial Grace, certain Knowledge and mere " Motion, by and with the Advice and Con- " ſent of our right truſty and right entirely- " beloved Couſin and Counſellor William " Duke of Devonſhire our Lieutenant General " and General Governor of our ſaid Kingdom " of Ireland, and according to the Tenor and " Effect of our Letters under our Privy Signet " and Sign-Manuel, bearing Date at our Court " at St. James's the 23d Day of January, 1743, " in the 17th Year of our Reign, HAVE " ordained and conſtituted, and by theſe " Preſents We do ordain and conſtitute You, " upon this Occaſion, our High Steward of our " ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, to perform, occupy " and exerciſe that Office, for this Turn, only, " with all things belonging and appertaining " to the ſaid Office in that behalf. And " therefore we command you, that you " diligently attend about the Premiſes, and " do, execute and perform, for this Turn, all " and ſingular other things which belong and " appertain to the ſaid Office of High Steward " of our ſaid Kingdom of Ireland in this " behalf. IN WITNESS whereof we have " cauſed theſe our Letters to be made " Patent. Witneſs our aforeſaid Lieutenant " General and General Governor of our ſaid " Kingdom of Ireland, at Dublin, the 3d Day " of February, in the 17th Year of our Reign.

" DOMVILE."

Which being ended, the Serjeant at Arms ſaid, " GOD bleſs the King's Majeſty."

Then the Deputy King of Arms and the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod preſented the Staff, on their Knees, to his Grace the Lord High Steward.

Proclamation was made for all Perſons, but Peers, to be uncovered.

The Certiorari was then read by the Clerk of the Crown of the King's-Bench, as follows, viz.

Certiorari.

" GEORGE the Second, by the Grace of " GOD of Great Britain, France and Ireland, " King, Defender of the Faith, and ſo forth: " To our truſty and well-beloved Thomas " Marlay, Eſq; our Chief Juſtice aſſigned to " hold Pleas before us in Ireland, greeting: " We command you, that you forthwith " deliver, together with this Writ to us, in " our preſent Parliament, a certain Indict- " ment of Treaſon and Murder, found againſt " Nicholas Viſc. Netterville of Dowth, late of " New Grange in the Co. Meath, at the laſt " Aſſizes and general Gaol Delivery, held at " Trim in and for the Co. Meath, and which " ſaid Indictment has ſince been removed by " our Writ of Certiorari, as we are informed, " in our Court, before us at the King's Courts " in Dublin, and which ſaid Indictment " remains in your Power in our ſaid Court, " with all things relating thereto, that we " may inſpect the ſaid Indictment, together " with all things relating thereto, and cauſe " to be done whatever of Right, and accord- " ing to the Laws and Cuſtoms of our King- " dom of Ireland, ought to be done. Witneſs " our Lieutenant General and General " Governor of our ſaid Kingdom of Ireland, " at Dublin, the 7th Day of December, in the " 17th Year of our Reign.

" DOMVILE."

Then the Lord High Steward removed from the Wool-Pack to the Chair appointed for his Grace, which was placed upon an Aſcent, juſt before the uppermoſt Step of the Throne, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair.

Proclamation was made for bringing the Priſoner to the Bar, according to the Order of the Houſe of Lords, who being come, and kneeling;

His Grace the Lord High Steward deſired his Lordſhip to riſe, and acquainted him on what Account he was brought thither, and that he had it in Commands from the Lords to let his Lordſhip know, that he was not to hold up his Hand at the Bar, and that his Lord- ſhip and all other Perſons who might have Occaſion to ſpeak to the Court, were to addreſs themſelves to the Lords in general, and not to the Lord High Steward.

Then the Clerk of the Crown of the King's-Bench read the Indictment, and after his Lordſhip was arraigned, he was aſked, Whether he was guilty of the Felony, Treaſon and Murder, whereof he ſtands indicted, or not guilty? He ſaid, He was not guilty: and being aſked, By whom he would be tried? He ſaid, By GOD and his Peers.

Proclamation was then made for the Witneſſes to be brought into Court.

Then Mr. Prime-Serjeant Malone opened the Indictment, and Mr. Attorney-General, and Mr. Solicitor-General were likewiſe heard on his Majeſty's behalf.

A Writ of Habere facias Poſſeſſionem being offered to be given in Evidence on behalf of his Majeſty, the ſame was objected to by the Priſoner; and his Counſel were heard there- upon.

Then the Houſe was adjourned to the Houſe of Peers; and the Lords and the Attendants went back in the ſame Order as they came.

The Lords being come to the Houſe of Peers, the Lord High Steward reſumed the Houſe; and the Lords debated upon their reading of the ſaid Writ.

Then the Lords agreed, that the ſaid Writ ſhould be read; and ordered the Lord High Steward upon their Lordſhips' Return to the Place of Trial, to acquaint the Priſoner and his Counſel therewith.

Ordered that his Grace the Lord Arch- biſhop of Tuam ſhall have Leave to be abſent from the Trial.

Ordered, that the Lord Biſhop of Oſſory ſhall have Leave to be abſent from the Trial.

Then the Houſe was adjourned into the Court appointed for the Trial; and the Lords and the Attendants went in the ſame Order as before.

The Lords being come into the Court appointed for the Trial, the Lord High-Steward reſumed the Houſe.

The Lord High Steward then acquainted the Priſoner and his Counſel, that the Lords had agreed that the ſaid Writ of Habere facias Poſſeſſionem ſhould be read.

Then the ſaid Writ was read accordingly.

It being then moved by his Majeſty's Counſel, that the Warrant upon the Back of the ſaid Writ might be read, and the ſame being objected to by the Priſoner, his Lordſhip's Counſel were heard thereupon.

Then the Houſe was adjourned to the Houſe of Peers; and the Lords and the Attendants went back in the ſame Order as they came.

The Lords being come to the Houſe of Peers, the Lord High Steward reſumed the Houſe.

Then the Houſe went into Debate upon reading the ſaid Warrant upon the Back of ſaid Writ; and after ſome time ſpent therein, the following Queſtion was agreed to be put to the Judges in the Court appointed for the Trial of Nicholas Lord Netterville, viz.

Queſtion to Judges.

'Whether on a Trial on an Indictment for 'Murder, a Writing indorſed on a Writ of 'Habere facias Poſſeſſionem, purporting to be a 'Warrant on the ſaid Writ from the Sheriff of 'the County to whom the Writ is directed, 'may be proved by Similitude of Hands to 'be the Hand-Writing of the Sub-Sheriff 'deceaſed?'

Then the Houſe was adjourned into the Court appointed for the Trial, and the Lords and the Attendants went in the ſame Order as before.

The Lords being come into Court, the Lord High Steward reſumed the Houſe.

Then the Lord High Steward put the Queſtion to the Judges, as ordered by the Houſe.

The Judges having conferred together, delivered their Opinion by the Lord Chief Juſtice of his Majeſty's Court of King's-Bench, as follows, viz.

Judges Anſwer.

'We are of Opinion, That on a Trial on 'an Indictment for Murder, a Writing in-'dorſed on a Writ of Habere facias Poſſeſſionem, 'purporting to be a Warrant on the ſaid Writ 'from the Sheriff of the County to whom the 'ſaid Writ is directed, may be proved by a 'Similitude of Hands to be the Hand-Writing 'of his Sub-Sheriff deceaſed.'

The ſaid Warrant was then read.

Then the Counſel on behalf of his Majeſty produced the Capias, Alias and Plures, that iſſued upon an Indictment found againſt Nich. Lord Viſc. Netterville of New Grange, in order to introduce the reading of the Examinations of Owen Whelan and Edward Buckley, who were dead; to the reading of which Writs the Priſoner objected, as he was not the Perſon named in the ſaid Indictment: His Lordſhip's Counſel, as alſo the Counſel on behalf of his Majeſty, were heard thereupon.

Then the Houſe was adjourned to the Houſe of Peers; and the Lords and the Attendants, went back in the ſame Order they came.

The Lords being come to the Houſe of Peers, the Lord High Steward reſumed the Houſe; and the Lords debated upon the ſaid Writs of Capias, Alias and Plures.

Then his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Armagh, for himſelf and the reſt of the Biſhops, delivered in a Proteſtation, which they deſire may be entered, which was read, as follows:

Lords Spiritual. proteſt.

"THE Lords Spiritual of the Houſe of Peers do deſire the Leave of this Houſe to be abſent from the Trial of the Lord Viſc. Netterville, by Proteſtation, ſaving to themſelves and their Succeſſors all ſuch Right in Judicature as they have by Law, and of Right ought to have."

Then their Lordſhips aſked Leave to withdraw:

Which was granted.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lords went into further Debate upon the Objection made againſt the reading of the ſaid Writs.

The Houſe was adjourned into the Court, appointed for the Trial of the Lord Viſc. Netterville; and the Lords and the Attendants went in the ſame Order, as before.

The Lords being come into Court, the Lord High Steward reſumed the Houſe.

Proclamation was made for Silence.

Then the Lord High Steward acquainted the Counſel on behalf of his Majeſty, That they were to proceed.

The Counſel on behalf of his Majeſty proceeded further upon the foregoing Objection, and Evidence was heard thereupon.

Then the Lord High Steward aſked their Lordſhips, Whether they were then ready to give their Judgment, as to the reading of the ſaid Writs? Or, Whether their Lordſhips would pleaſe to adjourn to their own Houſe?

Then ſome Lords gave their Opinion, That the ſaid Writs ſhould not be read.

To which the Houſe agreed.

Then the Lord High Steward acquainted the Counſel on the behalf of his Majeſty, That the Lords are of Opinion, that the ſaid Writs are not to be given in Evidence againſt the noble Lord at the Bar.

The Houſe was adjourned to the Houſe of Peers; and the Lords and the Attendants went back in the ſame Order they came.

The Lords being come to the Houſe of Peers, the Lord High Steward reſumed the Houſe.

Then

Then the Lord High Steward ſummed up the whole Evidence given in relation to the Examination of Owen Whelan, and the Arguments of the Counſel on both Sides, for and againſt the reading the ſaid Examination in the Court appointed for the Trial of Nicholas Lord Viſc. Netterville.

A Motion was made, and the Queſtion put, Whether the Examination of Owen Whelan ſhould be read on the Trial of Nicholas Lord Viſc. Netterville?

It was reſolved in the Negative, nem. con.

Then the Houſe was adjourned into the Court appointed for the Trial; and the Lords and the Attendants went in the ſame Order as before.

The Peers being come into the Court appointed for the Trial, the Lord High Steward reſumed the Houſe.

The Lord High Steward then ſaid, "Gentlemen of Counſel for his Majeſty, I am to "let you know, that the Lords have agreed, "that the Examination of Owen Whelan, as "it ſtands circumſtanced, cannot be read."

Then the Lord High Steward aſked his Majeſty's Counſel, Whether they had any other Evidence to offer againſt the Priſoner at the Bar?

To which Mr. Prime-Serjeant replied, We have no other Evidence to offer that can affect the Priſoner at the Bar.

Then the Houſe was adjourned to the Houſe of Peers; and the Lords and the Attendants went back in the ſame Order as they came.

The Lords being come to the Houſe of Peers, the Lord High Steward reſumed the Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Strangford, being in Holy Orders, ſhall be excuſed his further Attendance on the Trial of Nicholas Lord Viſc. Netterville.

Ordered, that the Lord Blayney, being in Holy Orders, ſhall be excuſed his further Attendance on the Trial of Nicholas Lord Viſc. Netterville.

Then the Houſe was adjourned into the Court appointed for the Trial; and the Lords and the Attendants went in the ſame Order as before.

The Peers being come into the Court appointed for the Trial, the Houſe was reſumed: And after Proclamation for Silence, the Lord High Steward ſaid, "The Houſe having "heard all the Evidence, the Queſtion was," Whether Nicholas Lord Viſc. Netterville is guilty of the Felony, Treaſon and Murder, whereof he ſtands indicted, or not guilty?

Then the Lord High Steward ſtood up, and by a Liſt called over every Peer then preſent by his Name, beginning with the youngeſt Baron; and put the Queſtion to every Lord to know what his Judgment was, Whether Nicholas Lord Viſc. Netterville was guilty of the Felony, Treaſon and Murder whereof he ſtands indicted, or not guilty? And the Lord to whom he called, ſtood up in his Place uncovered, and laying his right hand upon his Breaſt, delivered his Judgment:

"Not guilty, upon my Honour."

Then the Lord High Steward, ſtanding up uncovered, putting his right hand upon his Breaſt, ſaid, "My Lord Viſc. Netterville is not guilty, upon my Honour:" And then declared, That their Lordſhips were unanimouſly of Opinion, that my Lord Viſc. Netterville is Not guilty of the Felony, Treaſon and Murder whereof he ſtands indicted.

Then the Lord Viſc. Netterville, being by Order brought to the Bar, the Lord High Steward let his Lordſhip know, That he was indicted for the Murder of Michael Walſh, and that he having put himſelf upon his Peers for his Trial, declared, That the Peers, by their Judgment, had unanimouſly found him, Not guilty of the Felony, Treaſon and Murder whereof he ſtood indicted; and that therefore his Lordſhip is diſcharged.

And then the White-Staff being delivered to his Grace the Lord High Steward, he ſtood up, and holding it in both his hands broke it in two, and then leaving the Chair, came down to the Wool-Pack, and ſaid, Is it your Lordſhips' Pleaſure to adjourn to the Houſe of Peers?

Which was agreed to by the Houſe.

The Houſe being adjourned to the Houſe of Peers, the Lords, and the Attendants went back in the ſame Order as they came.

The Lords being come to the Houſe of Peers, the Houſe was reſumed.

Ordered, that all Orders for To-morrow, be adjourned till Monday Morning next.

Adjourned till Monday Morning next, at Eleven o'clock.

The Lord Viſc. Maſſareene reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of the 2d Inſt. that they had prepared the ſame, which he read in his Place; and the ſaid Addreſs being afterwards read at the Table, was agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace
WILLIAM Duke of DEVONSHIRE,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to L^d Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, think ourſelves bound by the higheſt Gratitude, before an End is put to this Seſſion, to acknowledge the great Obligations that we are under to your Grace, for your moſt prudent and wiſe Adminiſtration.

The Unanimity and Diſpatch with which the Service of his Majeſty and the Buſineſs of the Nation have been carried on in this Seſſion of Parliament, will be laſting Proofs of the Juſtice and Prudence of your Grace's Adminiſtration, through the whole Courſe of which it hath appeared, that you have had no other View, but the promoting his Majeſty's Service and the real Intereſt and Welfare of this Kingdom.

His Majeſty's great Wiſdom, and his paternal Care of his Subjects of Ireland, have been in no Inſtance more conſpicuous, than in continuing your Grace in this Government, as we find, from repeated Experience, that the ſame Qualifications which have ſo juſtly recommended your Grace to his Majeſty's Favour, have alſo gained you the univerſal Eſteem and Affection of this People.

Our true Senſe of the many Advantages already conveyed to us, through your Grace, leaves us no room to doubt, that upon your Return to his Majeſty's Royal Preſence, your Grace will repreſent Us, as his moſt loyal Subjects, full of that Duty and Affection which we owe to ſo good and gracious a Prince.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant humbly to know, when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Grace.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the House, that in obedience to their Lordships' Order of Yesterday, he had waited upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to know when he would please to be attended by this House with their Lordships' Address to his Grace; and his Grace was pleased to appoint this Day, at half an hour after Two o'clock, at the Castle.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

Mr. Nicholson's Charity Bill,

Hodie secunda vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act for regulating and rendering more effectual the charitable Donations of Edward Nicholson, Clerk, deceased.

committed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that the Consideration of the said Bill shall be committed to a select Committee, and that his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Dublin, and all the Lords present, be the said Committee; whose Lordships are to inquire whether all Persons concerned in the Consequences thereof have consented thereto, and compare the same with the original Transmiss, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and see that it exactly agrees therewith.

Their Lordships, or any three of them, to meet immediately in the Committee-Chamber, near the House of Peers, adjourn as they please, and report.

The House was adjourned during Pleasure.

The House was resumed: And his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Dublin reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Consideration of an ingrossed Bill, sent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for regulating and rendering more effectual the charitable Donations of Edward Nicholson; Clerk, deceased, was committed; that they have gone through the said Bill, and find that all Persons concerned in the Consequences thereof have consented thereunto, and have agreed thereunto, without any Amendment, and think it fit to pass; and also have compared the said Bill, with the original Transmiss, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Mr. Nicholson's Charity Bill,

Hodie tertia vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act for regulating and rendering more effectual the charitable Donations of Edward Nicholson, Clerk, deceased.

The Question was put, Whether this Bill shall pass?

passed;

It was resolved in the Affirmative.

Message to Commons, with Concurrence.

A Message was sent to the House of Commons, by Dr. Wall and Mr. Smith, to acquaint them, that this House hath agreed to the said Bill, without any Amendment.

Quarantine-Bill,

Hodie secunda vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act to oblige Ships coming from Places infected, more effectually to perform their Quarantine, and for the better preventing the Plague being brought from foreign Parts into Ireland, and to hinder the spreading of Infection.

committed.

Resolved, that this House shall be put into a Committee immediately, to take the said Bill into Consideration, and to compare the same with the original Transmiss, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and see that it exactly agrees therewith.

Then the House was adjourned during Pleasure, and put into a Committee thereupon; and after some time spent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Viſc. Moleſworth reported from the Committee, that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment, and think it fit to paſs, and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be read a third time To-morrow Morning.

L^d^ Blayney Leave to wave Privilege.

Ordered, that the Lord Blayney (at his own Requeſt) ſhall have the Leave of this Houſe to wave his Privilege in any Suit or Suits which is or are, or may hereafter be, commenced in Law or Equity againſt his Lordſhip by Sir Robert Echlin, Bart.

Indictments and other Papers relating to Lord Viſc. Netterville's Trial, to be given to Crown-Solicitor.

Ordered, that the Indictments and other Papers relating to the Lord Viſc. Netterville, which were lodged with the Clerk of the Parliaments by Order of this Houſe, ſhall be by him given to the Crown-Solicitor, to be made uſe of on any Proſecution at the Suit of the Crown, and that the Clerk of the Parliaments do take his Receipt for the ſafe returning of the ſaid Indictments and Papers.

Lord Viſc. Valentia Leave to wave Privilege.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Valentia (at his own Requeſt) ſhall have the Leave of this Houſe to wave his Privilege in any Suit or Suits which is or are or may hereafter be commenced in Law or Equity againſt his Lordſhip by James Anneſley, Eſq;

Petition of Nathaniel Clements, Eſq; Deputy Conſtable of Caſtle.

A Petition of Nathaniel Clements, Eſq; Deputy-Conſtable of his Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin, ſetting forth, that he has been at a very conſiderable Expence during the Time of the Confinement of the Right Hon. Nicholas Lord Viſc. Netterville, late in his Cuſtody, by their Lordſhips Order, and that he is intitled to Fees on Account of his Lordſhip's Confinement, which amount to a conſiderable Sum:

And praying their Lordſhips to take his Caſe into Conſideration, and to grant him ſuch Recompenſe as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom and Goodneſs, ſhould ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that Lords' Committees be appointed to take the ſaid Petition into Conſideration, and that the Lord Tullamore, and all the Lords preſent, be the ſaid Committee. Order thereon.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Petition of Clerk of Parliaments.

And alſo, a Petition of the Clerk of the Parliaments and the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, in behalf of themſelves and the other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, ſetting forth that the Clerk of the Parliaments, and the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, are intitled to very conſiderable Fees upon the Trial of the Right Hon. Nicholas Lord Viſc. Netterville and the Conſequences thereof, and that the ſaid Petitioners and the other Officers and Servants attending this Houſe, have been at conſiderable Expenſe and great Trouble, in Conſequence of the ſaid Trial:

And praying their Lordſhips to take their Caſe into Conſideration, and to grant them ſuch Recompenſe as to their Lordſhips in their great Wiſdom and Juſtice ſhould ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Petition be referred to the Lords' Committees, to whom the Petition of Nathaniel Clements, Eſq; Deputy-Conſtable of the Caſtle is referred; whoſe Lordſhips are to report their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe.

Ordered, that all Orders for the Day, not proceeded upon, be adjourned till To-morrow Morning.

10. An Act to explain, continue, and amend and make more effectual, an Act, intitled, An Act for repairing the High-Road leading from the Town of Tomivarah in the Co. Tipperary, to the Town of Silver Mines; as alſo to the Town of Nenagh; and from the Towns of Nenagh and Silver Mines, by Shally Orchard, through the Town of Tulla in the ſaid County, to the City of Limerick.

To theſe Bills the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

"Le Roy le veult."

11. An Act for enabling the Right Hon. Will. Earl of Kerry to make good a Jointure of £600 a Year agreed by him to be ſettled on Gertrude Counteſs of Kerry, before his Intermarriage with her.
12. An Act for regulating and rendering more effectual the charitable Donations of Edward Nicholſon, Clerk, deceaſed.

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

IT is reaſonable that you ſhould enjoy the Benefit of the great Diſpatch, with which you have gone through the Buſineſs of this Seſſion, by an early Return to the Care of your private Affairs. I am perſuaded that you will all, in your ſeveral Stations, continue to employ your Weight and Influence, in ſuch manner as may beſt promote Loyalty to his Majeſty, unite and ſtrengthen the Proteſtant Intereſt, enforce Obedience to the Laws, and maintain the Peace and good Order of the Kingdom.

Amongſt the many good Laws, which have been paſſed in the Courſe of this Seſſion, I had a very particular Satisfaction in giving the Royal Aſſent to that for the better Performance of Quarantine, the Importance of which, towards ſecuring the Lives of his Majeſty's Subjects, is ſo great and viſible, that I cannot doubt but it will be duly and faithfully carried into Execution.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

BY his Majeſty's Command, I return you Thanks, in his Name, for the Supplies which you have granted with your uſual Cheerfulneſs and Unanimity: This is a freſh Inſtance of your known Affection to his Majeſty, and of your juſt Confidence in his Government.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I TAKE this Opportunity to return you my Thanks, as well for the very obliging Addreſſes of both Houſes, as for the great Readineſs which you have always ſhewn to facilitate the publick Service, during my Adminiſtration: I aſſure you, that I will not fail, upon my Return into the royal Preſence to make ſuch a Repreſentation to his Majeſty of his People of Ireland, as the repeated Proofs of their unſhaken Fidelity and Loyalty to his Majeſty juſtly demand. And as I ſhall always eſteem it the higheſt Honour to have been intruſted with the Government of this Kingdom; ſo I ſhall think myſelf happy, if I can, upon any Occaſion, contribute to its Proſperity.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Grace's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Parliament prorogued.

IT is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Thurſday the 1*ſt* Day of March next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thurſday the 1*ſt* Day of March next.

Ld Lieutenant preſent.

The Houſe was reſumed: And his Excellency Philip Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Roſcommon carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Antrim, the Cap of Maintenance; two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint them, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

They enter.

And the Houſe of Commons being come, they, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I AM honoured with the King's Commands to meet you here in Parliament, and to co-operate with you in whatever may tend to eſtabliſh, or promote, the true Intereſt of this Kingdom.

His Majeſty's tender Concern for all his Subjects, and your Zeal and Duty for him, have mutually been too long experienced for me now to repreſent the one, or recommend the other.

Your own Reflections will beſt ſuggeſt to you the Advantages you have enjoyed under a Succeſſion of Proteſtant Princes, by Nature inclined, and by legal Authority enabled, to preſerve and protect you; as your own Hiſtory, and even the Experience of ſome ſtill alive among you, will beſt paint the Miſeries and Calamities of a People, ſcourged, rather than governed, by blind Zeal and lawleſs Power.

Theſe Conſiderations muſt neceſſarily excite your higheſt Indignation, at the Attempt now carrying on in Scotland, to diſturb his Majeſty's Government, by a Pretender to his Crown, one nurſed up in Civil and Religious Error, formed to Perſecution and Oppreſſion in the Seat of Superſtition and Tyranny; whoſe groundleſs Claim is as contrary to the natural Rights of Mankind as to the particular Laws and Conſtitution of theſe Kingdoms; whoſe only Hopes of Support are placed in the Enemies of the Liberties of Europe in general; and whoſe Succeſs would conſequently deſtroy your Liberty, your Property and your Religion: But this Succeſs is little to be feared. His Majeſty's Subjects giving daily and diſtinguiſhed Proofs of their Zeal for the Support of his Government and the Defence of his Perſon; and a conſiderable Number of national Troops, together with Six Thouſand Dutch, chearfully furniſhed to his Majeſty by his good Allies the States General, being now on their March to Scotland: A Force more than ſufficient to check the Progreſs and chaſtiſe the Inſolence of a rebellious and undiſciplined Multitude.

The Meaſures that have hitherto been taken to prevent the Growth of Popery, have, I hope, had ſome, and will ſtill have a greater Effect: However, I leave it to your Conſideration, whether nothing further can be done, either by new Laws or by the more effectual Execution of thoſe in being, to ſecure this Nation againſt the great Number of Papiſts, whoſe ſpeculative Errors would only deſerve Pity, if their pernicious Influence upon Civil Society, did not both require and authoriſe Reſtraint.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the proper Officers to lay before you the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates; and I have the Pleaſure of acquainting you, that I have nothing to aſk, but the uſual and neceſſary Supplies, for the Support of the Eſtabliſhment.

The King, having thought it neceſſary at this time to ſend for two Battalions more from hence, has ordered, that immediately upon their landing in England, they ſhall be put upon the Britiſh Eſtabliſhment, and that the ſupplemental Increaſe of regular Forces for your Defence here, ſhall be made in the leaſt expenſive Manner, by additional Companies only: After which Augmentation, the Number of Troops will ſtill be within the uſual Military Eſtabliſhment.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is with the greateſt Satisfaction that I hear of the preſent flouriſhing State of your Linen Manufacture; and I moſt earneſtly recommend to you the Care and Improvement of ſo valuable a Branch of your Trade: Let not its Proſperity produce Negligence, and let it never be ſuppoſed to be brought to its utmoſt Extent or Perfection. Trade has always been the beſt Support of all Nations, and the principal Care of the Wiſeſt.

I perſuade myſelf, that the Buſineſs of this Seſſion will be carried on with that Temper and Unanimity which a true and unbiaſſed Regard for the Publick naturally produces, and which the preſent State of Affairs more particularly demands. For my own Part, I make you no Profeſſions; you will, you ought to judge of me, only by my Actions.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered, and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And being informed that the Lord Biſhop of Raphoe waited to be introduced, but that his Lordſhip had not his Patent, in which Caſe it was uſual to have the Inrollment thereof read.

Whereupon it is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Raphoe ſhall be introduced by the original Roll of his Lordſhip's Patent out of the Rolls' Office; and that the Clerk of the Rolls, or his Deputy, do attend therewith immediately.

Biſhop of Raphoe, introduced by Roll of Patent.

The Rev. William Barnard, Doctor in Divinity, being by Letters Patents, dated the 26th Day of June, the 18th of George II. created Biſhop of Raphoe, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Derry and the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Down and Connor, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and the Deputy to Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the original Roll of his Lordſhip's Patent from the Rolls' Office preceding: His Lordſhip preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave it to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which was read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes, and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Biſhops' Bench.

Biſhop of Leighlin and Ferns,

The Rev. Robert Downes, Doctor in Divinity, and Dean of Derry, being by Letters Patents, dated the firſt Day of Auguſt, the 18th of George II. created Biſhop of the united Biſhopricks of Leighlin and Ferns, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Derry and the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Down and Connor, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and the Deputy to Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the ſaid Letters Patents preceding: His Lordſhip preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Biſhops' Bench.

Biſhop of Killaloe, introduced.

The Rev. Richard Chenevix, Doctor in Divinity, being by Letters Patents, dated the 20th Day of May, the 18th of King George II. created Biſhop of Killaloe, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Derry and the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Down and Connor, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and the Deputy to Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the ſaid Letters Patents preceding: His Lordſhip preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Biſhops' Bench.

Biſhop of Dromore introduced.

The Rev. George Marlay, Doctor in Divinity, being by Letters Patents, dated the 30th Day of Auguſt, the 19th of George II. created Biſhop of Dromore, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Derry and the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Down and Connor, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and the Deputy to Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the ſaid Letters Patents preceding: His Lordſhip delivered the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which were read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Biſhops' Bench.

The Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech delivered this Day from the Throne, and the ſame being afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table;

Lord Lieutenant's Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to congratulate his Majeſty on his ſafe Return to his Britiſh Dominions, and to preſent our moſt hearty Thanks for the Continuance of his paternal Care to eſtabliſh and promote the true Intereſt of this Kingdom.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that his gracious Acceptance of our Duty and Zeal for his Service, and his tender Concern for all his Subjects, which we have ſo long and ſo happily experienced, cannot fail to animate us with freſh Vigour for his Support, at this time particularly, when we ſee with Aſtoniſhment and Indignation ſome of his Majeſty's Subjects ſo forgetful of the numberleſs Advantages derived to us from a Succeſſion of Proteſtant Princes, and of the Cruelties formerly exerciſed by lawleſs Power, inflamed by ſuperſtitious Zeal, as wantonly to forego the ineſtimable Bleſſings of a free Government, and conſpire to ſacrifice the Liberty, the Property and the Religion of their Country, to the revengeful Tyranny of a Popiſh and a long-abjured Pretender.

That, for our Parts, we do unanimouſly and ſolemnly devote ourſelves, our Lives and Fortunes, to the Preſervation of his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and undoubted Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, and to the Support of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in his royal and moſt illuſtrious Houſe.

To expreſs our Truſt in the Divine Providence, that the unnatural Rebellion in Scotland will ſoon receive its due Chaſtiſement, and that the Defection of thoſe infatuated Wretches will ſerve only to diſtinguiſh more eminently the inviolable Loyalty of his Majeſty's Subjects in general, and to eſtabliſh ſtill more firmly his Majeſty's Throne in the Hearts of a dutiful and grateful People.

To expreſs our Satisfaction at the ſeaſonable and chearful Aſſiſtance of the States General, and our intire Confidence in the Steadineſs and Wiſdom of his Majeſty's Councils, and his indefatigable Endeavours for the Publick Good; that ſuch effectual Meaſures will be concerted with them and his other faithful Allies, as may ſettle, upon ſolid and laſting Foundations, the Liberties of Europe, and eſtabliſh and perpetuate the Tranquillity and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms.

To congratulate his Majeſty on the invaluable Acquiſition of Cape Breton, which we doubt not will contribute greatly to that glorious Purpoſe, as it will open a new Channel of Trade and Wealth to his Majeſty's Subjects, and proportionably reduce the Power of that Crown, whoſe reſtleſs Ambition can be reſtrained by nothing, but the want of Power.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that as we ſeriouſly lament, that ſo great a Number of our Fellow-Subjects in this Kingdom ſtill remain enſlaved to the Errors of Popery, ſo we will zealouſly apply ourſelves to the Conſideration of ſuch ſalutary Methods as may moſt effectually guard us againſt the Dangers of a Superſtition, whoſe Influence is ſo remarkably pernicious to Civil Society.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we ſhall not neglect any Opportunity of cultivating, to its utmoſt Perfection and Extent, the Linen Manufacture, a Branch of Trade ſo valuable and ſo highly neceſſary to the Support of this Kingdom.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we will ſhew our true and unbiaſſed Regard for the Publick, by that Temper and Unanimity in our Proceedings, which are ſo particularly neceſſary in the preſent State of Affairs.

And to expreſs our great Thankſulneſs to his Majeſty, for his Goodneſs in placing over us, at this critical Juncture, his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, whoſe diſtinguiſhed Abilities, often and ſignally exerted in the Service of his Majeſty, ſo eminently qualify him for the important Truſt now repoſed in him by his Majeſty, for the Security and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Earl of Antrim and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolution for Addreſs to L^d Lieutenant

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, than an humble Addreſs of Thanks be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, for his Excellency's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

Ordered, that the Lord Caſtle Durrow, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at half an hour after Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Dromore ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 23^d Inſt. being an Anniverſary Thankſgiving for the Deliverance of the Proteſtants in this Kingdom from the Popiſh Maſſacre in 1641.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Prayers.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Viſc. Allen takes the Oaths, &c.

This Day the Right Hon. John Lord Viſc. Allen ſat firſt in Parliament, upon the Death of his Couſin John late Lord Viſc. Allen, and delivered his Writ in the accuſtomed Manner, and came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

The Houſe being informed, that the Lord Biſhop of Kildare waited to be introduced, but that his Lordſhip had not his Patent, in which Caſe it was uſual to have the Inrollment thereof read;

Whereupon it is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Kildare ſhall be introduced by the original Roll of his Lordſhip's Patent out of the Rolls' Office, and that the Clerk of the Rolls, or his Deputy, do attend therewith immediately.

Biſhop of Kildare introduced by Roll of Patent.

The Right Rev. Dr. Thomas Fletcher, late Lord Biſhop of Dromore, being by Letters Patents, dated the 14th Day of May, in the 18th Year of the Reign of his Majeſty King George II. tranſlated to the Biſhoprick of Kildare, and his Lordſhip, not having before ſat in Parliament, was this Day, in his Robes, introduced between the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Meath and the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Dromore, alſo in their Robes; the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod and the Deputy to Ulſter King of Arms, in his Coat of Arms, carrying the original Roll of his Lordſhip's Patent preceding: His Lordſhip preſented the ſame to the Lord Chancellor, on his Knee, at the Wool-ſack, who gave it to the Clerk of the Parliaments, which was read at the Table: His Writ of Summons was alſo read.

Then

Then his Lordſhip came to the Table, and took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes; and was afterwards conducted to, and took his Place on, the Biſhops' Bench.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Earl of Antrim reported from the Lords Committees appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to their Lordſhips' Reſolution of Yeſterday, that they had prepared the ſame accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave, to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and to preſent our moſt hearty Thanks for the Continuance of your paternal Care to eſtabliſh and promote the true Intereſt of this Kingdom.

Your Majeſty's gracious Acceptance of our Duty and Zeal for your Service, and your tender Concern for all your Subjects, which we have ſo long and ſo happily experienced, cannot fail to animate us with freſh Vigour for your Support, at this time particularly, when we ſee with Aſtoniſhment and Indignation, ſome of your Majeſty's Subjects ſo forgetful of the numberleſs Advantages derived to us, from a Succeſſion of Proteſtant Princes, and of the Cruelties formerly exerciſed by lawleſs Power, inflamed by ſuperſtitious Zeal, as wantonly to forego the ineſtimable Bleſſings of a free Government, and conſpire to ſacrifice the Liberty, the Property and the Religion of their Country to the revengeful Tyranny of a Popiſh and a long-abjured Pretender.

For our Parts, we do unanimouſly and ſolemnly devote ourſelves, our Lives and Fortunes to the Preſervation of your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and undoubted Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, and to the Support of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal and moſt Illuſtrious Houſe.

We truſt in the Divine Providence, that the unnatural Rebellion in Scotland will ſoon receive its due Chaſtiſement and that the defection of thoſe infatuated Rebels will ſerve only to diſtinguiſh more eminently the inviolable Loyalty of your Majeſty's Subjects in general, and to eſtabliſh ſtill more firmly your Majeſty's Throne in the Hearts of a dutiful and grateful People.

We reflect with great Satisfaction on the ſeaſonable and chearful Aſſiſtance of the States General, and have an intire Confidence in the Steadineſs and Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, and your indefatigable Endeavours for the Publick Good, that ſuch effectual Meaſures will be concerted with them and your other faithful Allies, as may ſettle upon ſolid and laſting Foundations, the Liberties of Europe; and eſtabliſh and perpetuate the Tranquillity and Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms. And we gladly lay hold of this Occaſion to congratulate your Majeſty on the invaluable Acquiſition of Cape Breton, which we doubt not will contribute greatly to theſe glorious Purpoſes, as it will open a new Channel of Trade and Wealth to your Majeſty's Subjects, and proportionably reduce the Power of that Crown, whoſe reſtleſs Ambition can be reſtrained by nothing, but the Want of Power.

As we ſeriouſly lament that ſo great a Number of our Fellow-Subjects in this Kingdom ſtill remain enſlaved to the Errors of Popery, ſo we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will zealouſly apply ourſelves to the Conſideration of ſuch ſalutary Methods as may moſt effectually guard us againſt the Dangers of a Superſtition, whoſe Influence is ſo remarkably pernicious to Civil Society.

We are fully perſuaded, that the beſt and moſt effectual Method to recommend ourſelves to your Majeſty's Favour, is and always will be to promote the true Intereſt of your People. We ſhall therefore neglect no Opportunity of cultivating, to its utmoſt Perfection and Extent, the Linen Manufacture, a Branch of Trade ſo valuable and ſo highly neceſſary to the Support of this Kingdom.

We aſſure your Majeſty, that we will ſhew our true and unbiaſſed Regard for the Publick, by that Temper and Unanimity in our Proceedings, which are ſo particularly neceſſary in the preſent State of Affairs.

We humbly beg Leave to expreſs our great Thankfulneſs to your Majeſty, for your Goodneſs, in placing over us, at this critical Juncture, his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, whoſe diſtinguiſhed Abilities, often and ſignally exerted in the Service of your Majeſty, ſo eminently qualify him for the important Truſt now repoſed in him by your Majeſty, for the Security and Happineſs of this Kingdom.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to deſire the ſame be laid before his Majeſty.

The Lord Caſtle Durrow reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency
PHILIP Earl of CHESTERFIELD,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency, our moſt hearty Thanks for your excellent Speech, delivered from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

We eſteem it as a ſingular Inſtance of his Majeſty's Favour and Goodneſs towards us, that he has been pleaſed to intruſt the Government of this Kingdom to your Excellency; and at this critical Juncture, to ſpare a Perſon of your Excellency's known and great Abilities from his Councils in Great Britain, for the Good and Advantage of this Nation.

We want Words to expreſs our Abhorrence of the unnatural Rebellion in Scotland againſt his moſt Sacred Majeſty, in favour of a Popiſh abjured Pretender: Our Hope and Truſt is, that by the Bleſſing of GOD on his Majeſty's Councils and Arms, this wicked Spirit will ſoon be quell'd, to the Diſappointment and Confuſion of all his Majeſty's Enemies.

We reſt aſſured, that our known Zeal and Fidelity have long ſince convinced his Majeſty, that we are intirely devoted to the Defence of his Sacred Perſon, and to the Support of his undoubted Right and Title to the Crown of theſe Realms, and of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in his illuſtrious and Royal Houſe: Our Religion, our Laws, our Liberties, the greateſt and deareſt Bleſſings any People can enjoy, which have been always the Object of the tender Care and Concern of our moſt gracious Sovereign, cannot fail to inſpire us with Zeal, and ſtrengthen all our Endeavours to ſupport them.

We return your Excellency our unfeigned Thanks for the great Satisfaction you expreſs at the flouriſhing State of the Linen Manufacture; that valuable Branch of our Trade is of too great Conſequence to this Nation, for us to neglect whatever may further promote the Increaſe and Improvement of it.

Though your Excellency has declined to make any Profeſſions, but leaves us to judge of you by your Actions, we are fully ſatisfied of your ſincere Intention to promote the Intereſt and Happineſs of this Kingdom to the utmoſt of your Power. We muſt therefore think it incumbent upon us, on all Occaſions, to give your Excellency the ſtrongeſt Proofs of our high Regard, and to carry on the Buſineſs of this Seſſion with ſuch Temper and Unanimity as will render your Excellency's Adminiſtration eaſy and ſucceſsful.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

Ordered, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill for the more effectual preventing his Majeſty's Subjects from entering into foreign Service; and that the Lords the Judges do prepare the ſame.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Kildare ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church on the 5th Day of November next, being appointed a Day of Thankſgiving for the happy Deliverance of the three Eſtates of England from the intended Maſſacre by Gunpowder, and alſo for the happy Arrival of his late Majeſty King William III. of glorious Memory, on this Day, for the Deliverance of our Church and theſe Nations.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the House, that in obedience to their Lordships' Order, he had waited on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he would please to be attended by this House with their Address to his Majesty, and the Address of this House to his Excellency; and his Excellency was pleased to appoint this Day, at Two o'clock, at the Castle.

Adjourned till Three o'clock this Afternoon.

The House met, according to Adjournment.

And the Lord Chancellor reported, that the House had attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with their humble Address, to be presented to his Majesty; and his Excellency was pleased to give this Answer, viz.

Lord Lieutenant's Answers.

"I WILL forthwith transmit this dutiful "and affectionate Address to his Majesty."

The Lord Chancellor also reported, that the House did, at the same time, present their Lordships' Address to his Excellency; to which he was pleased to give this Answer, viz.

"THE favourable Opinion you so early en- "tertain of me, is an additional Motive to "make me endeavour to deserve it. My only "Claims to it, are, my Zeal for his Majesty's "Service, and my sincere Wishes for the Pro- "sperity of this Kingdom."

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that the Address of this House, presented this Day to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and his Excellency's Answer thereunto, shall be forthwith printed and published; and that the Clerk of this House do appoint the printing of the said Address and Answer.

Address and Answer to be printed.

Report from Committee to prepare Aſſociation.

The Lord Tullamore reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to draw up an Aſſociation to be entered into by this Houſe, (upon the Reſolution of Yeſterday;) that they had drawn up an Aſſociation accordingly, which they had directed him to report to the Houſe, and he read the ſame in his Place, and afterwards delivered it in at the Table, where the ſame was again read by the Clerk; and afterwards read, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

Aſſociation againſt the Pretender.

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, having taken into our moſt ſerious Conſideration, the unnatural Rebellion now carried on in North Britain, cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of ſo wicked an Attempt.

When we reflect on the many Bleſſings we have enjoyed under the mild and juſt Reign of his preſent Moſt Excellent Majeſty King George, we muſt be convinced, by a long and happy Experience, that he has always made the Laws of the Land the Rule of his Government: On the other hand, when we conſider the preſent Invader of his Majeſty's Dominions, as educated at Rome, ſupported by France and Spain, and trained up in the Maxims of Superſtition and Tyranny: When we ſee him, in the firſt Inſtance of Power, breaking through the ſolemn Promiſes in his own Declaration, ſo lately publiſhed, taxing a free-born People, by no other Authority than his own Will, and inforcing his arbitrary Commands by Threats of military Execution; we muſt conclude, that every new Acquiſition of Strength, would afford freſh Inſtances of Oppreſſion, and that the inevitable Conſequence of his Succeſs, muſt be Popery and Slavery.

Wherefore, being called upon by Gratitude to his Sacred Majeſty King George, by our Regard for our Religion, our Laws, our Property, our Liberty, by every thing that is dear to Man, to exert ourſelves on the preſent Occaſion, We in the moſt ſolemn Manner engage ourſelves to one another, in the Preſence of Almighty God, that we will defend, with our Lives and Fortunes, our moſt gracious Sovereign King George, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion in his Royal Houſe; and that we will maintain his juſt and lawful Right to his Throne, againſt all Popiſh Pretenders, their Adherents and Abettors, and all other his Majeſty's ſecret and declared Enemies, at Home and Abroad.

And as we are all reſolved to Act in our publick Capacity with the greateſt Zeal and Unanimity, for the Eaſe and Safety of his Majeſty's Government, ſo each of us ſincerely promiſe, that in our private Stations, we will be moſt active and vigilant in purſuing all legal Methods for the Preſervation of that Religion and Liberty, which have been tranſmitted down to us by our Anceſtors, which were purchaſed with their Blood, and which we are determined never to part with, but with the laſt drop of our own.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, nem. con. that the ſaid Aſſociation do ſtand the Aſſociation of this Houſe.

Ordered to be ingroſſed.

Ordered, that the ſaid Aſſociation, as alſo a Duplicate thereof, be immediately ingroſſed, to be ſigned by the Lords of Parliament, and that the ſaid Aſſociation be intitled, "The "Aſſociation of the Lords Spiritual and Tem- "poral in Parliament aſſembled, entered into "the 25th Day of October, 1745."

Attendance of Judges to be diſpenſed with.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that this Houſe ſhall diſpenſe with the daily Attendance of all the Judges, and that two only be required daily to attend the Service of this Houſe, till further Order of this Houſe.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the House, that he had attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the Resolution of the Thanks of this House to his Majesty, for his Majesty's most gracious Answer to their Address of the 9th of October last; and his Excellency was pleased to make this Answer:

Lord Lieutenant's Answer.

"I WILL forthwith lay this Resolution of "the House of Lords before his Majesty."

Message from Commons.

A Message was brought from the House of Commons, by Col. John Bourke and others, with an ingrossed Bill, intitled, An Act to make it High-Treason to hold Correspondence with the Sons of the Pretender to his Majesty's Crown; and for attainting them of High-Treason, in Case they shall land or attempt to land in this Kingdom; and to give a Reward of £50,000 for every of them, to any Person or Persons who shall seize and secure them or any of them, if they or any of them shall land or attempt to land in this Kingdom; to which they desire the Concurrence of this House.

Bill to attaint Pretender's Sons, &c.

Hodie prima vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act to make it High-Treason to hold Correspondence with the Sons of the Pretender to his Majesty's Crown; and for attainting them of High-Treason, in Case they shall land or attempt to land in this Kingdom; and to give a Reward of £50,000 for every of them, to any Person or Persons who shall seize and secure them or any of them, if they or any of them shall land or attempt to land in this Kingdom.

Ordered, that the said Bill be now read a second time.

Hodie secunda vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act to make it High-Treason to hold Correspondence with the Sons of the Pretender to his Majesty's Crown; and for attainting them of High-Treason, in Case they shall land or attempt to land in this Kingdom; and to give a Reward of £50,000 for every of them, to any Person or Persons who shall seize and secure them or any of them, if they or any of them shall land or attempt to land in this Kingdom.

Resolved, that this House shall be put into a Committee on Friday Morning next, to take the said Bill into Consideration, and compare the same with the original Transmiss, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, to see that it exactly agrees therewith.

Petition of R. Warren, &c.

A Petition of Richard and Frances Warren, Minors, under the Age of seven Years, by their next Friend Frances Allen, Widow, their Grandmother; Wil. Paul Warren of Grangebegg in the Co. Kildare, Esq; and Frances his Wife; setting forth, that by a Deed, bearing Date the 9th Day of July, 1713, made upon the Intermarriage of the Petitioner William Paul Warren, Father of Richard Warren, with Mary Piercy, Daughter of Henry Piercy, Esq; deceased; the Petitioner William, on the Death of the said Richard Warren (which happened in the Year 1733) as the only Son of the said Marriage, became seized in Tail of the Lands of Grangebegg otherwise Warrens Grange, Hamlet de Loughboy and Rathargit, situate in the Co. Kildare; Loughtriny, situate in the County Dublin; Ballintrarny, Ballinbramell, Killbrackan, Graigbegg, Killgarran, Ballynemore, Ballytrahy, Killmocklin, Killconner, Ballyteig, Ballindarton, Fenough and Lumclone, situate, lying and being in the Co. Catherlough, subject to two yearly Rent-Charges of £150 to the Petitioner's Grandmother; and to £350 for the said Mary the Petitioner's Mother; as also to a Sum of £4000 for the Petitioner William Paul Warren's three Sisters, Susanna, Henrietta and Anne, payable at their respective Ages of eighteen or Days of Marriage; as also to a Sum of £500, which by the said Settlement the said Richard Warren had Power to charge the said Lands with, which he accordingly did, as by the said Deed of Settlement and Mortgage for the said £500 may appear.

That the Petitioner William, being a Minor of the Age of fourteen Years, at the time of the Death of his ſaid Father (the ſaid Richard Warren) the ſaid Petitioner's Mother Mary Warren was, by the Court of Chancery, appointed the ſaid Petitioner's Guardian.

That in the Month of March, 1738, the Petitioner William, being of the Age of nineteen Years, the Petitioner's Mother entered into a Treaty of Marriage for the ſaid Petitioner with the Hon. Robert Allen, late of the City of Dublin, Eſq; deceaſed, for his Daughter Frances Allen, which Treaty was concluded on the 1ſt Day of April, 1738, and accordingly the ſaid Marriage took Effect; but previous thereto, the ſaid Mary, as the Petitioner's Guardian, entered into Articles with the ſaid Robert Allen, bearing date the 1ſt Day of April 1738, whereby, in Conſideration of the ſaid intended Marriage, the ſaid Robert agreed to pay the Sum of £4000, to be applied by the Truſtees therein named, towards the Diſcharge of the Portions of the Petitioner's Siſters; and that Joſhua Lord Allen, the ſaid Robert's elder Brother, ſhould convey Lands of Inheritance in the Counties of Kildare or Wicklow, of the yearly Value of £100, according to the ſaid Articles; and it was thereby agreed, that the Petitioner, in ſix Months after he ſhould attain the Age of twenty-one Years, and when thereunto required, ſhould levy Fines and ſuffer Recoveries of the ſaid Premiſes, then of the yearly Value of £1098 : 19*s.* 2*d.* which were to be declared to the Uſes therein mentioned, except £100 a Year thereof, reſerved to the Petitioner in Fee.

And it was thereby further agreed, that in Caſe the ſaid Frances ſhould ſurvive the Petitioner William, and have Iſſue by the Petitioner, that ſhe ſhould have a Jointure of £500 yearly; and if no Iſſue, £600 yearly; and that a Sum of £8000 ſhould be raiſed for the Portions of the younger Children of the ſaid Marriage; and if but one younger Child, a Sum of £6000, as by the ſaid Articles may appear.

That at the ſame time, the ſaid Joſhua Lord Allen and the ſaid Robert Allen perfected a Bond, with Warrant of Attorney for confeſſing Judgment thereon, to the Truſtees in the ſaid Articles mentioned, in the Penalty of £10,000, conditioned for the Payment of the ſaid £4000, and to convey Lands of the yearly Value of £100, on which Judgment was entered.

That the Petitioner William, on the Proſpect of getting the ſaid Fortune in order to improve and raiſe his Eſtate in the yearly Value thereof, did, ſince his ſaid Marriage, lay out and expend in making ſeveral laſting and valuable Improvements on his ſaid Eſtate to the Amount of £4108 : 9*s.* 9*d.* and upwards, and expended £800 and upwards on the recovering of the Town and Lands of Kilkey, Kilmocklin, Clonmores, Ryland, Deſkin, Cranaha, Cappagh, Coolfelibeen and Part of Clonbollogue, in the ſaid Co. Catherlough, which were with-held from him, and which are not included in the ſaid Articles; as alſo in buying in an old Leaſe of Part of the ſaid Premiſes, which increaſed the yearly Value of the Petitioner's Eſtate in the Sum of £483 : 16*s.* 10*d.* But the ſaid Jointures of the Petitioner's Grandmother, who died the 27th of October laſt, and of the Petitioner's Mother, and the Intereſt of the Portions of the Petitioner's Siſters, who are all married and Incumbrances affecting the Petitioner and his Eſtate, and the Non-performance of the ſaid Agreement, greatly ſtraitened the Petitioner, and not only retarded the Payment of the ſaid Incumbrances, but conſiderably increaſed the ſame, by the Petitioner's not being able to ſupport his Family, and to pay the ſaid Jointures, and keep down the Intereſt of the ſaid Incumbrances by or out of the annual Rents of the Petitioner's Eſtate.

That the ſaid Robert, by the Will of the ſaid John Lord Allen, dated 1ſt November, 1726, became intitled to Lands, to be ſet out of the Value of £600 yearly.

That the ſaid Robert Allen died in 1741, leaving no Iſſue-Male, the ſaid Articles not having been carried into Execution, leaving Frances his Widow, and two Daughters Mary, who in the Life-time of the ſaid Robert intermarried with Robert Boſwell of Ballycurry in the Co. Wicklow, Eſq; and the ſaid Frances the Petitioner's Wife and having made his Will, appointed Frances his Widow his only Executrix, as by the ſame may appear.

That the ſaid Joſhua departed this Life in the Year 1743, having ſome Years before his Death made his Laſt Will, and thereby deviſed all his real and perſonal Eſtate to his Relict the Right Hon. Margaret Lady Viſcounteſs Allen and her Heirs, and appointed her his only Executrix.

That the Petitioner being ſo circumſtanced, in order to ſecure to his Creditors the Money he had expended as aforeſaid, mortgaged his Eſtate for the Sum of £3500, and the Petitioner perfected Bonds, with Warrants of Attorney for confeſſing Judgments thereon, to his other Creditors, who obtained ſeveral Judgments againſt the Petitioner, the Principal, Intereſt and Coſts whereof will amount to the Sum of £12,838 : 9*s.* 2*d.* the 25th Day of December, 1745, which now affect the Petitioner and his Eſtate. The ſaid Petitioner William being a Minor when ſaid Articles were entered into, and the ſaid Articles not being regiſtered until the 9th of Auguſt, 1743, nor carried further into Execution, the ſaid Robert not having performed his Part of ſaid Articles.

That the ſaid Margaret Lady Viſcounteſs Allen, being deſirous to have her ſaid Eſtate diſcharged of the Judgment, and that the Petitioner ſhould have the ſaid Portion, hath exhibited her Bill in the Court of Chancery, thereby tendering the ſame Lands to the ſaid Frances Allen, the Widow of the ſaid Robert, to the ſaid Mary Boſwell and to the Petitioner's ſaid Wife, the Deviſees and Heirs at Law of the ſaid Robert Allen, as were tendered by the ſaid Joſhua Lord Allen to the ſaid Robert, and praying they may accept thereof, and that her ſaid Eſtate be diſcharged of the ſaid Judgment.

That

That the ſaid Frances Allen, being ſatisfied to diſcharge the ſaid Fortune according to the ſaid Articles, and that the ſaid £4000, and the Value of the ſaid £100 yearly, be applied to the Diſcharge of the ſaid Portions and Debts; and that the ſaid Sum of £8000, agreed by the ſaid Articles to be raiſed for the Proviſion of younger Children, be reduced to £6000, in Caſe the Petitioner ſhould have younger Children by his Wife; and if but one younger Child, that the ſame be reduced to £4000, as ſuch Reduction is become abſolutely neceſſary, from the Circumſtances of the Petitioner's Eſtate; and that in Caſe the Petitioner ſhould ſurvive his ſaid Wife, that he might have Power of ſettling a Jointure of £100 yearly only, on any after-taken Wife, the Power in the ſaid Articles being for £150, with Power of making Leaſes for thirty-one Years or three Lives, at the beſt-improved Rent, without Fine.

That the Petitioner William's Mother hath conſented to receive her ſaid Jointure out of the Remainder of the ſaid Petitioner's Eſtate, and to have ſuch Part of the Petitioner's Eſtate as ſhall be ſold, exonerated and diſcharged from her ſaid Jointure.

That the ſaid William is willing to carry the ſaid Articles into Execution, notwithſtanding they were entered into during his Minority, and to do every Act in his Power for the Preſervation of his ſaid Eſtate, for the Iſſue of the ſaid Marriage; but as the ſaid Articles cannot be carried into Execution, or a Sale made of the ſaid £100 a Year, or of any Part of the Petitioner William's Eſtate in the ſaid Articles mentioned, ſo as to be effectual, without the Aid of Parliament, the Petitioner William, his Wife and Children, will be reduced to Ruin and Miſery, unleſs relieved therein.

And praying their Lordſhips may give Leave, that Heads of a Bill be brought in for Sale of that Part of the Petitioner's Eſtate hereafter mentioned, to wit, the Towns and Lands of Graigbegg, Ballybramell, Lumclone, Ballydartan, Fenough, Rakreane, Clontouſe, Killgarran, Ballynamire, Collfellebeen, Cappagh, Clonbollogue, Killkey, Clonmores, Cranaha, Ryland and Deſkin, ſituate in the Co. Catherlough, and the Town and Lands of Kathargit in the County Kildare, which are of the yearly Value of £513, or as much thereof as will be ſufficient to pay his Siſter's Portions and his Debts, and that the Remainder of his Eſtate, amounting to £1069 : 16*s*. be ſettled as aforeſaid, to the Uſes in ſaid Articles, and alſo to impower and to enable Sir Richard Butler and Richard Warburton, the Truſtees in the ſaid Marriage-Articles, or the Survivor of them, and the Heirs of ſuch Survivor, to receive the ſaid Sum of £4000, and the Value of the ſaid £100 yearly, agreed to be paid and conveyed by the ſaid Articles, from the Right Hon. Margaret Lady Viſcounteſs Allen, and to releaſe and diſcharge her therefrom; and that the ſaid Truſtees, and the Survivor of them, and the Heirs of ſuch Survivor, may apply the ſame according to the Uſes in the ſaid Articles, and for the Payment of the ſaid Debts; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill, according to the Prayer of the ſaid Petition. Leave to bring in Heads of Bill.

Defaulters called.

Upon reading the Order for the Day, the Houſe proceeded to call over the Names of ſuch Lords as made Default upon the former Call of the Defaulters, and ſeveral Lords having appeared;

Committee on Bill to attaint Sons of the Pretender.

Ordered, that the Names of ſuch Lords as made Default this Day upon the Call of the Defaulters, be again called over on this Day ſe'n-night.

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon an ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act to make it High-Treaſon to hold Correſpondence with the Sons of the Pretender to his Majeſty's Crown, and for attainting them of High-Treaſon in Caſe they ſhall land or attempt to land in this Kingdom; and to give a Reward of £50,000 for every of them, to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſeize or ſecure them or any of them, if they or any of them ſhall land or attempt to land in this Kingdom; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Viſc. Mountjoy reported from the Committee, that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, and agreed thereto, without any Amendment, and think it fit to paſs; and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be read a third time on Monday next.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Petition of J. Simpſon &c.

A Petition of John Simpſon and Hellen his Wife, ſetting forth, that William late Earl of Clanrickard, by Deeds of Leaſe and Releaſe, dated the 8th and 9th of October, 1680, mortgaged the Lands of Ballylee and other Lands in the Co. Galway, to Walter Burke for £1000.

That ſaid Walter Burke, by Deeds of Leaſe and Releaſe, dated the 6th and 7th of October, 1687, mortgaged the ſame Lands to Francis Rice, Merchant, for £400.

That ſaid Walter Burke was attainted of High-Treaſon, on account of the Rebellion of 1688 in this Kingdom, and John Lord Bophin, afterwards Earl of Clanrickard, and Ulick Lord Galway, two of the Sons of the ſaid Earl William, were alſo attainted on account of ſaid Rebellion, and the Equity of Redemption of ſaid mortgaged Premiſes, being limited by Settlement to the ſaid Lords Bophin and Galway, the ſaid mortgaged Premiſes, by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made in England in the 11th and 12th Years of his late Majeſty King William III. of glorious Memory, became veſted in certain Truſtees, in ſaid Act named.

That Francis Mahon of the City of Dublin, Merchant, being Adminiſtrator of the Goods unadminiſtred of the ſaid Francis Rice, did, purſuant to a Clauſe in the ſaid Truſtee-Act, enter his Claim before the ſaid Truſtees on the ſaid Mortgage, and was decreed to the Sum of £658: 15*s*. 8*d*. Principal and Intereſt, and Earl John was afterwards, by ſeveral Acts of Parliament made in England, reſtored to his Eſtate, ſubject to the ſeveral Decrees of the ſaid Truſtees.

That the ſaid Earl John, on the 13th of Auguſt, 1703, directed ſaid Francis Mahon to apply apply to the Tenants of ſaid mortgaged Premiſes, in order to receive his Money; and he accordingly did continue to receive Part of the Rents thereof, until the 13th of Auguſt, 1713, at which time he was turned out by the Management of Michael Lord Dunkellin, then Son and Heir Apparent of ſaid Earl John, ſaid Lord Michael having, before that time, got the Management of all the Clanrickard Eſtate into his Hands, and put Gerald Burke, Eſq; his Counſel, who got a Leaſe of Part of ſaid Lands, in Poſſeſſion thereof.

That Edward Eyre, Eſq; purchaſed the Remainder of the Benefit of ſaid £1000 Mortgage from the Corporation for making Hollow Sword-Blades in England, who purchaſed the ſame, among other things, from the ſaid Truſtees, in Truſt for Lord Dunkellin.

That ſaid Francis Mahon, in 1716, filed his Bill in the High Court of Chancery in Ireland, which Lord Dunkellin did not anſwer, until May, 1722.

That Earl John died in 1722, leaving ſaid Michael Lord Dunkellin his eldeſt Son and Heir, who then became Earl of Clanrickard, and ſaid Earl Michael died in 1726, leaving the Right Hon. Smith now Earl of Clanrickard his only Son and Heir, who is now in Poſſeſſion of the ſaid mortgaged Premiſes, or a great Part thereof.

That ſaid Francis Mahon died about the 24th of Auguſt, 1735, but before made his Will, and appointed the Petitioner Hellen, who was his Wife, ſole Executrix and reſiduary Legatee.

That the Petitioner Hellen, in 1736, filed her Bill againſt ſaid Earl Smith and others, to be decreed to the Money due to her on the ſaid Mortgage, and in ſometime after intermarried with the Petitioner John Simpſon.

That the Petitioners were prevailed upon to ſtop Proceedings on the ſaid Bill, by the Perſuaſions of the Hon. Thomas Burke, Eſq; (the ſaid Earl's Uncle) and by the ſaid Earl's Law-Agent, who in the Year 1741, applied to the Petitioners, to have all Differences depending between the Petitioners and the ſaid Earl Smith ſettled in an amicable way, and the ſaid Thomas Burke, aſſuring the Petitioners, that he had no Papers relative to the Petitioners' Demand, requeſted the Petitioners to furniſh him with ſuch Papers and Pleadings as was relative to it in their Hands, and to give him the Petitioners' Account of the Money received, and the Balance due to the Petitioners, in order to prepare him for the Arbitration propoſed, as he alledged, which the Petitioners accordingly did, and furniſhed the ſaid Burke with an Account, wherein they gave the ſaid Earl upwards of £700 Credit, being all the Money received out of ſaid mortgaged Premiſſes by the ſaid Mahon, though they believe ſaid Earl could not prove one Shilling received on that Account.

That the ſaid Earl Smith, having come into this Kingdom in the Year 1742, the Petitioner John waited on his Lordſhip, to have Matters ſettled in the amicable Manner propoſed by the ſaid Earl's Uncle; to which his Lordſhip anſwered, That he was a ſtranger to his Affairs in general, and referred all to his Lordſhip's Uncle the ſaid Thomas Burke.

That the ſaid Thomas Burke, having got the ſaid Papers into his Poſſeſſion, and received all the Information the Petitioners could give him, then declined the ſaid Arbitration.

That the Petitioners, not being performed with, as the Agents and Managers of the Earl promiſed, and ſome of the Parties to the ſaid Bill having died, the Petitioners, on the 10th of November, 1742, filed a Bill of Revivor againſt ſaid Earl Smith and ſeveral other Perſons; and ſaid Earl, having anſwered ſaid Bill, he ſoon after propoſed referring the Matter and entered into a Submiſſion with the Petitioners, which was made the Order of the ſaid Court of Chancery; but the Petitioners could never prevail on the ſaid Earl, or his Managers, to meet, purſuant to ſaid Submiſſion, and by that means delayed the Petitioners a long time.

That ſome others of the Parties to the ſaid Bill, having died in the mean time, the Petitioners were obliged, on the 6th of April, 1745, to amend their ſaid Bill, by inſerting the Repreſentatives of ſuch as died in their ſaid Bill.

That the Petitioner John, having a ſmall Eſtate in the City of Dublin, was obliged to mortgage the ſame, and to prevent the Mortgagees from foreclоſing their Mortgages, the Petitioner John put the ſaid Mortgagees into the actual Poſſeſſion of his Eſtate (except one Houſe, wherein he now dwells) and the Petitioner is not now in the Poſſeſſion of one Shilling a Year, either to ſupport himſelf or Family.

That the Petitioner John, on the 4th Day of July laſt, acquainted the ſaid Earl of the Difficulties he laboured under, and begged his Lordſhip to give the Petitioner two or three hundred Pounds, in Part of ſaid Demand, in order to diſcharge ſome ſmall Debts, which were extremely troubleſome to the Petitioner, by frequent Confinements and Arreſts laid on him: His Lordſhip anſwered, He did nothing in his Affairs, but referred the Petitioner to his ſaid Uncle, who would not give the Petitioner one Penny, unleſs the Petitioner would take £300 in full for the Petitioners' ſaid Demand, though, in Fact, there is now due to the Petitioners near £3000 Sterl. and declared, Unleſs the Petitioners would take the ſaid £300 in full for their Demand, that they might try what they could get by Law.

That the Petitioner John, being ſo diſappointed, intreated the ſaid Earl, that, as his Lordſhip did formerly enter into a Submiſſion with the Petitioners, in order to have all Matters amicably adjuſted, and as nothing could be done now but by Law, that his Lordſhip would be pleaſed to give the Petitioners Liberty to proceed, by waving his Lordſhip's Privilege, which his Lordſhip refuſed, and ſaid That he would not give up any thing that would either delay or diſappoint the Petitioners in the ſaid Suit.

That the Petitioners, from the ſeveral Diſappointments before mentioned, and the Tedioufneſs of carrying on ſuch a Suit, are threatened by the Petitioners' Creditors to foreclofe, by which means the Petitioners and Family will be reduced to a moſt miſerable Condition, the Petitioner John in danger of lying in a Gaol, and his little Eſtate ſold; though, if he had the Money due from ſaid Earl, it would pay his Debts, ſupport the Petitioners, and make Proviſion for their Children.

And praying their Lordſhips to take the Premiſes into their Conſideration, and to make ſuch Order therein for the Petitioners Relief, as to their Lordſhips ſhall ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Petition ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges, who are to conſider thereof, and examine ſuch Perſons concerned in the ſame as they ſhall think fit, and report their Opinion thereupon to the Houſe.

Bill to attaint Sons of the Pretender.

Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act to make it High-Treaſon to hold Correſpondence with the Sons of the Pretender to his Majeſty's Crown, and for attainting them of High-Treaſon, in Caſe they ſhall land or attempt to land in this Kingdom; and to give a Reward of £50,000 for every of them, to any Perſon or Perſons who ſhall ſeize and ſecure them or any of them, if they or any of them ſhall land in this Kingdom.

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

paſſed;

It was reſolved in the Affirmative.

Meſſage to Commons with Concurrence.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Juſtice Ward and Mr. Baron Mountney, to acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And

His Excellency Philip Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Roſcommon carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Antrim, the Cap of Maintenance; three Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint them, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter.

And the Houſe of Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then the Clerk of the Crown read the Title of a Bill to be paſſed, as follows, viz.

Royal Aſſent given to one Bill.

An Act to make it High-Treaſon to hold Correſpondence with the Sons of the Pretender to his Majeſty's Crown, and for attainting them of High-Treaſon, in Caſe they ſhall land or attempt to land in this Kingdom; and to give a Reward of £50,000 for every of them, to any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall ſeize and ſecure them or any of them, if they or any of them ſhall land or attempt to land in this Kingdom.

To this Bill, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, in theſe Words, viz.

"Le Roy le veult."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed.

Report from Judges of temporary Laws. The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that the Judges according to Order, had prepared a Report of the ſeveral temporary Laws now expired or near expiring, which he preſented to the Houſe, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

IN obedience to your Lordſhips' Order, whereby we are to inquire what Laws are expired or near expiring, we have examined the ſeveral temporary Laws now expired or near expiring, and find no other Acts expired or near expiring, except

The Act made in the 2^{d} Year of his late Majeſty King George I. intitled, An Act to make the Militia of this Kingdom more uſeful, which was continued by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts, and by an Act made in the 11th Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and explaining and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, continued to the 29th of September, 1744, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

And an Act made in the 11th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty, intitled, An Act for continuing and amending an Act, intitled, An Act for the better Regulation of the Pariſh-Watches, and amending the High-Ways in this Kingdom, and for the preventing the Miſapplication of Publick Money, and alſo for eſtabliſhing a regular Watch in the City of Dublin; and to prevent Miſchiefs which may happen by graving Ships in the River Liffey, which for ſo much as relates to the City of Dublin and Liberties thereof and the Liberties thereto adjoining, is continued by an Act made in the 11th Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and explaining and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, until the 29th Day of September in the Year of our Lord 1744, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

And

And an Act made in the 10th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty, intitled, An Act for regulating Abuſes committed in buying and ſelling of Cattle and Sheep in the ſeveral Markets in this Kingdom, which by the aforeſaid Act, made in the 11th Year of his preſent Majeſty, is continued until the ſaid 29th Day of September in the ſaid Year of our Lord 1744, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

And an Act made in the 11th Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for the buying and ſelling of all Sorts of Corn and Meal, and other things therein mentioned, by Weight, and for the more effectual preventing the Frauds committed in the buying and ſelling thereof; and for regulating the Price and Aſſize of Bread, and for better regulating the Markets, was to be and continue in Force for ſeven Years from the 1ſt Day of Auguſt, 1738, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

And an Act made in the 9th Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for the better regulating of Juries, which by an Act made in the 13th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to continue and amend An Act made in the 9th Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for the better regulating of Juries is continued to the 25th Day of March, in the Year of our Lord 1744, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

And an Act made in the ſaid 9th Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act to prevent the Evil ariſing by the Retailers of Beer, Ale, Brandy, Rum, Geneva, Aquavitæ and other ſpirituous Liquors, giving Credit to Servants, Day-Laboures and other Perſons, who uſually work or ply for Hire or Wages, is by the aforeſaid Act, made in the 11th Year of his preſent Majeſty intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and explaining and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, and for other Pupoſes therein mentioned, continued until the 29th Day of September, in the Year our Lord 1744, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

And an Act made in the ſaid 9th Year of his preſent Majeſty intitled, An Act for preventing Frauds and abuſes committed in the making and vending unſound, adulterated and bad Drugs and Medicines, is by the aforeſaid Act of the 11th of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, continued until the 29th Day of September, in the Year of our Lord 1744, from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

And an Act made in the 11th Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for the better Preſervation of the Game, to be in force for the Space of ſeven Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

And an Act made in the 13th Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for the further Improvement of the Hempen and Flaxen Manufactures of this Kingdom, gives four Years from the Year 1740, to ſell and export Linen Cloths, under the Set of Ten Hundred, though not Twenty-two Inches and an half broad.

And an Act made in the 17th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to prevent the pernicious Practice of burning Land, and for the more effectual deſtroying of Vermin, to continue in Force for the Term of two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

And we likewiſe find, that an Act, made in the 2d Year of his late Majeſty, intitled, An Act to reſtrain Papiſts from being High or Petty Conſtables, and for the better regulating the Pariſh-Watches, was to continue and be in Force for three Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer; and that the ſaid Act has not been ſince continued.

And that an Act, made in the 3d Year of his late Majeſty, intitled, An Act for the further explaining and amending of ſeveral Statutes for prohibiting Under-Sheriffs and Sheriffs' Clerks from officiating as Sub-Sheriffs or Sheriffs' Clerks more than one Year; and to render more effectual an Act to prevent Fees being taken in certain Caſes; and to take away the pretended Office of Barony-Clerk, and to oblige Sheriffs to appoint Deputies for granting Replevins; and alſo for diſcharging of Priſoners unable to pay their Fees; by which Act ſo much of the ſaid Act as relates to the preferring of any Bill or Bills in the Courts of Chancery or Exchequer for the Diſcovery of any Offence againſt the ſaid Act, or the Act of the 10th of her late Majeſty Queen Anne, and obliging any Perſon to anſwer the ſame at large, without pleading or demurring thereto; ſhould be and continue in Force to the 1ſt Day of March, which ſhould be in the Year of our Lord 1733, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer, was by an Act, made 7th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty, intitled, An Act for continuing ſeveral temporary Statutes, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, continued until the 25th Day of March, 1740, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer; and that the ſaid Act has not been ſince continued.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Report ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to a ſelect Committee, and that all the Lords preſent be the ſaid Committee, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee ſhall have Voices therein; and the Judges to aſſiſt.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet on Thurſday Morning next, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Ordered, that the Orders of the Day for To-morrow, be adjourned till Friday Morning next.

Petition of Sir L. Parſons &c.

A Petition of Sir Laurence Parſons, Bart. Wiliam Parſons, a Minor, his Son, by Catherine Sprigge his Grandmother and next Friend, and Thomas Burgh, Eſq; ſetting forth, that William Sprigge, late of Clonivoe in the King's County, Eſq; deceaſed, being in his Life-time ſeized of and in the Towns and Lands of Clonivoe and Clonad, with the Mills of Clonivoe, Clonſaſt, Killdrummin otherwiſe Derrymullin, Cloonlyon, Liſclogh, Feddanmore, Feddanbegg, Clonbanagh and Liſclooney, ſituate in the King's County; the Towns and Lands of Cloneſhell, Clonard, Killinetagart and Ballagh, ſituate, lying and being in the Co. Weſtmeath; the Towns and Lands of Killrathmurray and Clonard-Bridge, and the Decoy thereon; and the Town and Lands of Packer's Lott in Moon, ſituate, lying and being in the Co. Kildare, and being alſo poſſeſſed of a long Term of Years yet to come of and in the Town and Lands of Ballagh otherwiſe Grange Sarcinſtown in the ſaid Co. Weſtmeath and Tiſſaran in the ſaid King's County, did by quinquepartite Deed, lately executed, and bearing Date on or about the 4th Day of September, 1730, and made or mentioned to be made between Sir William Parſons of Parſonſtown in the King's County, Bart. and Laurence Parſons, Eſq; Grandſon and Heir apparent of the ſaid Sir William Parſons of the firſt Part; Robert Perſe of Roxborough in the Co. Galway, Eſq; and William Purefoy, jun. of Eyre Court in the Co. Galway, Eſq; of the ſecond Part; Emanuel Pigott of Chetwynd in the County of the City of Cork, Eſq; and George Warburton of the City of Dublin, Merchant, of the third Part; William Moore of the City of Dublin, Eſq; and Henry Palmer of Parſonſtown aforeſaid, Gentleman of the fourth Part, and William Sprigge of Clonivoe in the King's County, Eſq; and Mary Sprigge eldeſt Daughter of the ſaid William Sprigge of the fifth Part, in Conſideration of a Marriage then intended to be had between the ſaid Laurence Parſons and Mary Sprigge, Covenant, that the ſaid William Sprigge and his Heirs ſhould ſtand and be ſeized of the Reverſion of all the ſaid Lands of Inheritance, and poſſeſſed of the Remainder of all the ſaid Terms for Years, to the Uſes and upon the Truſts following, and none other, that is to ſay, after the Death of the ſaid ſaid William Sprigge without Iſſue-Male, and leaving only the ſaid Mary and Margaret Sprigge his other Daughter, and none other, as to a Moiety of the Reverſion of all the ſaid Lands and Premiſes, to the Uſe of and in Truſt for the ſaid Laurence and Mary, for and during their natural Lives and the Life of the longeſt Liver of them; Remainder to the ſaid Robert Perſe and William Purefoy and their Heirs, to preſerve contingent Remainders; Remainder to the firſt and every other Son of the ſaid Laurence, by the ſaid Mary, to be begotten in Tail-Male; and for Want of ſuch Iſſue-Male, to the Uſe of and in Truſt for the right Heirs of the ſaid Mary for ever, but ſubject to a Proportion of £300 a Year Jointure, ſettled upon Catherine Sprigge, Wife of the ſaid William Sprigge, in which Deed there is a Power reſerved to the ſaid William Sprigge to charge the ſaid Moiety by Deed or Will, in Writing, with any Sum not exceeding two thouſand Pounds.

That the ſaid Marriage was ſoon afterwards had, and the ſaid Mary ſometime in the Year 1731, died, leaving Iſſue of the ſaid Marriage one Son, William Parſons, now a Minor, between the Age of fourteen and fifteen Years old, and no other Child.

That ſaid William Sprigge, by a quinquepartite Deed, bearing Date the 19th Day of December, in the Year 1734, made between Thomas Burgh of Naas in the Co. Kildare, Eſq; of the firſt Part; Mary Burgh his Mother, of the ſecond Part; the ſaid William Sprigge and Margaret Sprigge his Daughter, of the third Part; Anthony Foſter of Dunleer in the Co. Lowth, Eſq; and Thomas Bolton of Knockbridge in the ſaid County, Eſq; of the fourth Part; and William Purefoy of Eyrecourt in the Co. Galway, Eſq; and Robert Holmes of Johnſtown in the Co. Tipperary, Eſq; of the fifth Part, did, in Conſideration of a Marriage then intended to be had between the ſaid Thomas Burgh and Margaret Sprigge and other the Conſiderations therein mentioned, in like manner covenant, that he the ſaid William Sprigge ſhould ſtand and be ſeized of the Reverſion of all the ſaid Lands of Inheritance, and poſſeſſed of the Remainder of all the ſaid Terms for Years, to the Uſes and upon the Truſts following, and none other, that is to ſay, after the Death of the ſaid William Sprigge without Iſſue-Male, and leaving only the ſaid Margaret and no other Daughter, as to a Moiety of the Reverſion of all the ſaid Lands and Premiſes, ſubject nevertheleſs to a Proportion of the ſaid Rent-Charge or Jointure, which the ſaid Catherine Sprigge, Wife of the ſaid William Sprigge, is intitled unto, to the Uſe of and in Truſt for the ſaid Thomas Burgh and Margaret Sprigge, for and during their natural Lives and the Life of the longeſt Liver of them; and from and after the Determination of that Eſtate, to the Uſe of the ſaid Anthony Foſter and Thomas Bolton, to ſupport contingent Remainders; Remainder to the Uſe of the firſt and every other Son of the ſaid Thomas by the ſaid Margaret, to be begotten in Tail-Male; and for Want of ſuch Iſſue, to the Uſe of the right Heirs of the ſaid Margaret for ever.

That the ſaid Marriage ſoon after took Effect.

That the ſaid William Sprigge died ſometime in the Year 1735; but before his Death, duly executed his Laſt Will and Teſtament, and therein reciting the ſaid Power reſerved to him in the Settlement on the Marriage of the ſaid Laurence with the ſaid Mary, to charge the Moiety of the ſaid Lands, ſo ſettled on the ſaid Laurence and Mary, with the ſaid £2000, he the ſaid William Sprigge did thereby charge the ſaid Moiety of the ſaid Lands, ſo as aforeſaid ſettled, upon the ſaid Laurence and Mary with the ſaid Sum of £2000, to be paid to his ſaid Daughter Margaret.

That by Indenture, bearing Date on or about the 2d Day of November, 1736, and made or mentioned to be made between the ſaid Thomas Burgh and Margaret his Wife, of the one Part, and the ſaid Anthony Foſter and Thomas Bolton of the other Part, the ſaid Thomas Burgh and Margaret his Wife covenanted to and with the ſaid Anthony Foſter and Thomas Bolton, that they the ſaid Thomas Burgh and Margaret his Wife, would, before the End of the then next Michaelmas Term, levy one or more Fine or Fines of the undivided Moiety of the ſaid Eſtate, ſo ſettled on the Intermarriage of the ſaid Thomas with the ſaid Margaret, and thereby declared, that the Uſes of ſuch Fine or Fines, when levied, ſhould be and enure to the Uſe of the ſaid Thomas and Margaret, for and during their natural Lives and the life of the longeſt Liver of them; Remainder to the Iſſue of the ſaid Thomas by the ſaid Margaret; and for Want of ſuch Iſſue, to the Survivor of the ſaid Thomas and Margaret, and the Heirs of the Survivor for ever.

That accordingly the ſaid Thomas and Margaret, in Michaelmas Term in the ſaid Year 1736, levied ſeveral Fines of the ſaid Lands, to the Uſes in the ſaid laſt-recited Deed mentioned.

That the ſaid Margaret, ſometime in the Year 1744, died without Iſſue.

That the Petitioner Laurence Parſons, now Sir Laurence Parſons, is ſeized of an undivided Moiety of all the ſaid Lands for the Term of his Life, with a Remainder to the ſaid William Parſons his Son, in Tail-Male, with a Remainder in Fee to ſaid William Parſons, and that the Petitioner hath no Power reſerved to him by the Settlement, ſo as aforeſaid made on his Intermarriage, to make Leaſes of any Part of the Premiſes for any Term whatever.

That the Petitioner Thomas Burgh is now ſeized, in Fee-Simple, of one other undivided Moiety of all the ſaid Lands and Premiſes.

That the Petitioners Sir Laurence Parſons and Thomas Burgh, having found many Inconveniencies ariſing from their being Tenants in common, as aforeſaid, of all the ſaid Lands and Premiſes; and from a Want of Power in the Petitioner Sir Laurence, to make a Leaſe of any Part of the ſaid Premiſes for any longer Term than his own Life; and being fully ſatisfied, that it would greatly tend to the Improvement of the ſaid Eſtate, and to the Benefit of the Petitioners, and all others any way intereſted therein, that an equal Partition and Diviſion ſhould be made between the Petitioners of all the ſaid Lands, the Petitioners therefore have cauſed an equal Diviſion to be made of the ſaid Eſtate, and have drawn Lots for the ſame, and have agreed to a Partition, purſuant thereto: But inaſmuch as the Petitioner Sir Laurence is only Tenant for Life, and the ſaid William Parſons, who has an Eſtate in Tail, immediately expectant on the Death of the Petitioner Sir Laurence, in an undivided Moiety of all the ſaid Lands, is now a Minor, under the Age of twenty-one Years, ſuch Partition and Diviſion cannot be rendered effectual, without the Aid and Authority of Parliament.

And praying their Lordſhips to give the Petitioners Leave to bring in Heads of a Bill to eſtabliſh and confirm the ſaid Partition, and to enable the Petitioner, Sir Laurence, to make a Leaſe or Leaſes of three Lives or thirty-one Years in Poſſeſſion, and not in Reverſion, at the beſt improved Rent that can be had for the ſame, of all or any Parts of his ſaid Moiety; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Leave to bring in Sir L. Parſons' Heads of Bill.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill according to the Prayer of the ſaid Petition.

Thanks for Sermon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Thanks of this Houſe ſhall be, and are hereby, given to the Lord Biſhop of Cork and Roſs, for his Sermon preached before this Houſe Yeſterday, at Chriſt-Church, and his Lordſhip is hereby deſired to print and publiſh the ſame.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Raphoe ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 30th of January next, being the Day of the Martyrdom of King Charles I.

Heads of Sir Laurence Parſons' Bill.

The Lord Viſc. Maſſareene preſented to the Houſe, Heads of a Bill for eſtabliſhing and confirming a Partition of certain Lands in the King's County, Counties of Kildare and Weſtmeath, late the Eſtate of William Sprigge of Clonivoe in the King's County, Eſq; deceaſed, agreed to be made between Sir Laurence Parſons of Parſonſtown in the ſaid King's County, Bart. and Thomas Burgh of Oldtown in the ſaid Co. Kildare, Eſq; which were received, and read a firſt time.

Ordered, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be now read a ſecond time.

The ſaid Heads of a Bill were then read a ſecond time.

committed.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Heads of a Bill ſhall be, and is hereby, committed to a ſelect Committee, and that the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene and all the Lords preſent, be the ſaid Committee, whoſe Lordſhips are to inquire whether all Perſons concerned in the Conſequences of the ſame, have conſented thereunto, and report.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Ordered, that two of the Judges do aſſiſt the ſaid Lords' Committees, who are to conſider the ſaid Heads of a Bill.

Witneſſes ſworn.

Dr. Boyle Travers, Andrew Sheppard, John Kathrens, Stephen Mullen, Michael Ruth and Theobald Bourke, were by Order called in, and ſeverally ſworn at the Bar, in order to give their Teſtimony before the ſaid Lords' Committees, in relation to the ſaid Heads of a Bill.

Laughlin Donovan, being by Order called in, was ſworn at the Bar, in order to give his Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees appointed to inquire into the State and Condition of the ſeveral Gaols.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Petition of C. Phipps, Esq;

A Petition of Constantine Phipps, Esq; setting forth, That by the Death of the Right Hon. Arthur late Earl of Anglesey and Viscount Valentia in this Kingdom, which happened on or about the 1st Day of April in the Year 1737, the Petitioner, who is Grandson and Heir at Law of the Right Hon. James late Earl of Anglesey, and also Heir at Law of John and the said Arthur Earls of Anglesey and Viscounts Valentia, became intitled to several Estates in this Kingdom, whereof the said Earl James died seized in Fee in the several Counties of Wexford, Meath, Armagh, Tyrone, County of Dublin, City of Dublin, King's County, Queen's County, Counties of Cork, Catherlough, Cavan, Kerry, Clare, Tipperary, County of the Town of Drogheda, County of Kilkenny, and several other Counties in this Kingdom.

That the Petitioner was a Minor at the time of the Death of the said Earl Arthur, and did not arrive at the Age of twenty-one Years, until the 5th Day of August, in the Year 1743, and resided in England from the time of his Birth, until very lately.

That the Right Hon. Richard Earl of Anglesey and Visc. Valentia, and Charles Annesley of the City of Dublin, Esq; upon the Death of the said Earl Arthur, taking Advantage of the Petitioner's Minority and Absence from this Kingdom, entered upon all the said Estates, by Virtue of or under some Agreement between them, and have received the Rents and Profits thereof, respectively, to their own Use; and are, or one of them is, now in the actual Possession and the Receipt of the Rents and Profits thereof; and respectively refuse to deliver the same to the Petitioner, or to account for the said Rents and Profits thereof, by them respectively received: But are respectively cutting down and destroying the Woods, Timber and ornamental Trees growing on the said Estates respectively, in their Possession as aforesaid.

That the Petitioner, on the 24th Day of May last, exhibited his Bill in the Chancery-side of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer in this Kingdom, against the said Richard Earl of Anglesey and Visc. Valentia, the said Charles Annesley and others, to be decreed to the said Estates, and for an Account of the Rents and Profits thereof, from the Death of the said Earl Arthur, and to restrain the said Richard Earl of Anglesey and Visc. Valentia, and the said Charles Annesley, and the said other Defendants, from cutting down the Timber-Trees growing on the said Estates, and from committing Waste thereon, as by the said Bill remaining as of Record in the said Court may more fully and at large appear.

That the said Richard Earl of Anglesey and Visc. Valentia, on the 25th Day of May aforesaid, was duly served with a Letter Missive and Subpœna out of the said Court, at his Lordship's House, near Bray in the Co. Dublin, at the Petitioner's Suit, to answer the said Bill; and also the said Richard Earl of Anglesey and Visc. Valentia was, at the same time, served with an attested Copy of the said Bill: And the said Charles Annesley was, on the same Day, duly served with a Subpœna, at the Petitioner's Suit, at his House in Henry-Street, in the City of Dublin; and his Lordship, by his Attorney, entered an Appearance thereto on the 10th Day of June last; and on the 17th Day of June last, his Lordship obtained a Fortnight's time to answer; and on the 1st Day of July last, a Week's further time to answer: And the said Charles Annesley, having appeared by his Attorney, on the 31st Day of May last, filed an Answer to the Petitioner's said Bill on the 26th Day of November last; to which the Petitioner hath filed Exceptions; notwithstanding which, his Lordship hath declined putting in an Answer to the said Bill, as by the said Letter Missive, Subpœnas, Orders and Proceedings of the said Court may more fully and at large appear.

That the said Charles Annesley is in Possession and in Receipt of the Rents and Profits of the whole or the greatest Part of the Estates above mentioned, of some Part thereof under some Agreement between him and the said Richard Earl of Anglesey and Visc. Valentia, for dividing the said Estates; and of the rest, by Virtue of a Sequestration obtained by the said Charles Annesley against the said Earl, out of the High Court of Chancery in this Kingdom; and as the said Possession of the said Charles Annesley is wholly derived from, and founded upon, the Title alledged by the said Richard Earl of Anglesey and Visc. Valentia, to the said Estates, and the Rents and Profits thereof; the Petitioner cannot proceed in the said Cause to obtain Justice therein, against the said Charles Annesley, although he is no Member of either House of Parliament, without the Liberty of proceeding at the same time in his said Cause, against the said Earl of Anglesey and Viscount Valentia: And forasmuch as the Petitioner is afraid of incurring the Displeasure of this Hon. House, in Case he should proceed in his said Cause against the said Earl, without their Lordships' Permission.

And praying their Lordships to take the Petitioner's Case into Consideration; and in Regard to the said Visc. and the said Charles Annesley, under his Title as aforesaid, are in the actual Possession of the said Estates, as aforesaid, and receive the Rents and Profits thereof; and have cut down most of the Woods, Timber, ornamental and other Trees, growing on the said Estate, and are now destroying the Remainder of the said Trees, and are committing great Waste on the said Lands, to grant the Petitioner such Relief, as to their Lordships shall seem meet, so as that he may be at Liberty to proceed in his said Suit against the said Viscount, and the said other Defendants, in such Manner as not to incur the Displeasure of this Hon. House; was presented to the House, and read.

Viſcount Valentia to attend.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Viſc. Valentia do attend in his Place in this Houſe, Tueſday Morning next.

Call of Defaulters adjourned.

Upon reading the Order of the Day, for calling over the Names of ſuch Lords as made Default upon the laſt Call of the Defaulters; It is ordered, that the ſame be adjourned, till the firſt Tueſday after the Receſs.

Upon reading the Order of the Day, for reading over the Standing Orders of this Houſe; It is ordered, that the ſame be adjourned, till the firſt Wedneſday after the Receſs.

Report on temporary Laws,

His Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of the Report made by the Judges, of the Laws which are expired or near expiring, was referred; that they had come to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act made in the 11th Year of his late Majeſty King George I. intitled, An Act for continuing and amending an Act, intitled, An Act for the better Regulation of the Pariſh Watches, and amending the High-ways in this Kingdom; and for the preventing the Miſapplication of Publick Money; and alſo for eſtabliſhing a regular Watch in the City of Dublin; and to prevent Miſchiefs which may happen by graving Ships in the River Liffey, which for ſo much as relates to the City of Dublin and Liberties thereof, and the Liberties thereto adjoining, was continued by an Act made in the 11th Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and explaining and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, until the 29th Day of September in the Year of our Lord 1744, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ought to be continued, until the 29th Day of September in the Year of our Lord 1746, and to the End of the following Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act made in the 10th Year of his ſaid late Majeſty, intitled, An Act for regulating Abuſes committed in buying and ſelling of Cattle and Sheep in the ſeveral Markets in this Kingdom, which by the aforeſaid Act, made in the 11th Year of his preſent Majeſty is continued until the ſaid 29th Day of September, in the ſaid Year of our Lord 1744, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ought to be continued until the 29th Day of September, in the Year of our Lord 1746, and from thence to the End of the following Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act made in the 11th Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for the buying and ſelling of all Sorts of Corn and Meal and other things therein mentioned by Weight, and for the more effectual preventing the Frauds committed in the buying and ſelling thereof, and for regulating the Price and Aſſize of Bread, and for better regulating the Markets, was to be and continue in Force for ſeven Years, from the 1ſt Day of Auguſt, 1738, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer, ought to be continued for ſeven Years, from the 1ſt Day of Auguſt, 1746, and from thence to the End of the following Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act made in the 9th Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for the better regulating of Juries, which by an Act made in the 13th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to continue and amend an Act made in the 9th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act for the better regulating of Juries. is continued to the 25th Day of March, in the Year of our Lord 1744, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer, is fit to be continued for two Years, and to the End of the following Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act made in the ſaid 9th Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act to prevent the Evil ariſing by the retailing of Beer, Ale, Brandy, Rum, Geneva, Aquavitæ and other ſpirituous Liquors, giving Credit to Servants, Day-Labourers, and other Perſons who uſually work or ply for Hire or Wages, is by the aforeſaid Act, made in the 11th Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for reviving, continuing and explaining and amending ſeveral temporary Statutes, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, continued until the 29th Day of September, in the Year of our Lord 1744, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ought to be continued for fourteen Years.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that an Act made in the ſaid Year of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for preventing Frauds and Abuſes committed in the making and vending unſound, adulterated and bad Drugs and Medicines is by the aforeſaid Act of the 11th of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, continued until the 29th Day of September, 1744, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, is fit to be continued for ſeven Years, and to the End of the following Seſſion of Parliament.

Address to L^d Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, attend your Excellency this Day, to congratulate You on the approaching happy Conclusion of the Session, and to express our intire Satisfaction in your Conduct, in every Part of it, as well as in the Course of your whole Administration.

We eſteem it a very ſignal Inſtance of his Majeſty's Care and Concern for his moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, that he was pleaſed to ſend your Excellency to preſide over us, at a Time which required a Perſon of the moſt diſtinguiſhed Talents to hold the Reins of Government, and which has given your Excellency ſo frequent Occaſions of exerting thoſe Talents for the Service of his Majeſty, by providing effectually for the Peace and Security of this Kingdom.

The happy Effects we have ſeen and feel, while almoſt every other Part of Europe has been filled with Arms, and our neighbouring Kingdom has been vexed and harraſſed by an impious and obſtinate Rebellion, we have enjoyed undiſturbed Tranquillity; your Excellency's Prudence and ſteady Conduct guarding us with unwearied Care from all real Danger; and the abſolute Confidence of all Orders and Degrees of Men in your Vigilance, Wiſdom and calm Firmneſs, baniſhing or moderating all anxious Fears and Apprehenſions. It is ſcarce poſſible for a People to be ſo bleſſed, without being moved, on every Occaſion, to the ſtrongeſt Profeſſions of dutiful Affection to his Majeſty, who, under GOD, has been the Cauſe; and of Gratitude to your Excellency, the glorious Inſtrument, of ſo great Publick Happineſs.

But we chooſe not to indulge ourſelves in ſuch Profeſſions: We deſire your Excellency may judge of us, as you have directed us to judge of You, by our Actions: Should they, at any time, fall ſhort of what the warmeſt Sentiments of Loyalty and Veneration are apt to inſpire, your Excellency (whom, with the utmoſt Pleaſure, we have obſerved ever attentive, even to the moſt minute Concerns of this Kingdom, and therefore know to be thoroughly acquainted with the State of it, in all its Parts) will, we humbly hope, impute this to be the true Cauſe. Permit us, with all Humility, juſt to intimate, that if by your Excellency's free and candid Report to his Majeſty of our Condition and Circumſtances, we ſhould, in more quiet times, receive any Acceſſion of Strength, Wealth or Power, we ſhall conſider ſuch Acceſſion as valuable chiefly on this Account, that it will enable us, on all Occaſions, to exert ourſelves more vigorouſly and effectually in Defence of his Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, the only ſure Support of our Religious and Civil Rights, againſt foreign and domeſtick Violence, againſt the ambitious Attempts of the great Diſturbers of Mankind abroad, and the Madneſs of rebellious, deluded Subjects at home.

Theſe, my Lord, are our Sentiments, and not our's only, but thoſe of all his Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects of Ireland. May your Excellency return to cultivate and improve them in us, and continue long an Ornament to your own Country, and a Bleſſing to this Nation.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Excellency.

Meſſages from Commons, with Bills.

A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. David Bindon and others, with an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act for Relief of the Creditors and younger Children of Cæſar Colclough of Mocorry in the County of Wexford, Eſq; and for ſettling a Maintenance on Veſey Colclough, Grandſon of the ſaid Cæſar, and for other Purpoſes; to which they deſire the Concurrence of this Houſe.

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

THE Buſineſs of the Seſſion being now concluded, I believe you cannot be unwilling to return to your reſpective Countries, as you muſt be ſenſible, that the many good Laws which you have paſſed will receive an additional Weight by your Authority, in executing, and by your Example in obſerving, them.

The almoſt unprecedented Temper and Unanimity with which you have carried on the the Publick Buſineſs; your unſhaken Fidelity to the King; your inviolable Attachment to the preſent happy Conſtitution; and your juſt Indignation at the Attempts lately made to ſubvert it; will advantageouſly diſtinguiſh this Seſſion in the Journals of Parliament: And the concurrent Zeal and active Loyalty of all his Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects of all Denominations throughout this Kingdom, prove, at once, how ſenſible and how deſerving they are of his Care and Protection, even thoſe deluded People who ſcarcely acknowledge his Government, ſeem by their Conduct, tacitly to have confeſſed the Advantages they enjoy under it. At my return to his Majeſty's Preſence, I ſhall not fail moſt faithfully to report theſe Truths, ſince the moſt faithful will be at the ſame time the moſt favourable Repreſentation.

The Rebellion, which rather diſturbed, than endangered, the King's Government, has been defeated, though not yet totally ſuppreſſed; but as thoſe flagitious Paricides, who were abandoned enough to avow, and deſperate enough to engage, in the Cauſe of Popery and Tyranny, have already been repulſed and purſued by the Valour and Activity of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, there is the ſtrongeſt Reaſon to believe, that he will ſoon compleat the Work which he has ſo glorioufly begun, and reſtore the Tranquillity of the Kingdom. This Attempt therefore to ſhake his Majeſty's Throne, will ſerve to eſtabliſh it the more firmly; ſince all Europe muſt now know the unanimous Zeal and Affection of his Subjects for the Defence and Support of his Perſon and Government. And thoſe Hopes are at laſt extinguiſhed, with which the Pretender has ſo long flattered, and (as it now appears) deceived himſelf: Even the Manner in which he has been aſſiſted by thoſe Powers, who encouraged him to the Attempt, muſt convince him, that he has now been what he ever will be, only the occaſional Tool of their Politicks, not the real Object of their Care.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE the King's Commands to thank you, in his Name, for the Unanimity and Diſpatch with which you have granted the neceſſary Supplies for the Support of the Eſtabliſhment; you may depend upon their being applied with the utmoſt Exactneſs and Frugality.

I muſt not omit my own Acknowledgments for the particular Confidence you have placed in me, by leaving to my Care and Management the great Sum that you voluntarily voted for National Arms, and for the fortifying of the Harbour of Cork. The conſiderable Saving, which will appear upon thoſe two Articles, as well in the Intereſt upon the Loan, as in the Application of the Principal, will, I hope, prove that I have been truly ſenſible of the Truſt repoſed in me.

The Aſſiſtance which you have given to the Proteſtant Charter-Schools, is a moſt prudent as well as a moſt compaſſionate Charity; and I do very earneſtly recommend to your conſtant Protection and Encouragement that excellent Inſtitution, by which ſuch a conſiderable Number of unhappy Children are annually reſcued from the Miſery that always, and the Guilt that commonly, accompanies uninſtructed Poverty and Idleneſs.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THOUGH Great Britain has, in the Courſe of this Century, been often moleſted by Inſurrections at home, and Invaſions from abroad, this Kingdom has happily and deſervedly enjoyed that uninterrupted Tranquillity which Trade and Manufactures, Arts and Sciences, require for their Improvement and Perfection: Nature too has been peculiarly favourable to this Country, whoſe temperate Climate and fruitful Soil do invite, and would reward, Care and Induſtry: Let me therefore moſt ſeriouſly recommend to you, in your private as well as in your publick Capacities, the utmoſt Attention to thoſe important Objects, which at once enrich, ſtrengthen and adorn a Nation. They will flouriſh wherever they are cultivated; and they are always beſt cultivated by the Indulgence, the Encouragement, and above all, by the Example of Perſons of ſuperior Rank.

I cannot conclude, without repeating my heartieſt Thanks to you for your kind Addreſſes, in which you expreſs your Approbation of my Conduct: My Duty to the King, who wiſhes the Intereſt and Happineſs of all his Subjects, called for my utmoſt Endeavours to promote Your's; and my Inclinations conſpired with my Duty: Theſe Sentiments ſhall, I aſſure you, be the only Motives of all my Actions, of which your Intereſt muſt conſequently be the only Object.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 20th Day of May next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 20th Day of May next. Parliament prorogued.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed.

His Excellency William Earl of Harrington, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Antrim carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Kildare, the Cap of Maintenance; two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint them, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

And the Houſe of Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech. I AM come from the King's Preſence, by his royal Command, to meet you here in Parliament: And I do it with ſo much the greater Satisfaction to myſelf, as I am honoured with the Commiſſion of declaring the Continuance of his paternal Regard and Affection to a dutiful and loyal People.

You, with the reſt of the King's Subjects, have had long and abundant Proof, that the favourite and unwearied Maxim of his Majeſty's Government is to procure the Happineſs of his Kingdoms; you cannot therefore doubt of his Majeſty's Readineſs to give the Royal Aſſent to ſuch Laws as ſhall tend to promote your real Intereſt, and to increaſe your preſent Proſperity.

Though ſo many Months have paſſed ſince the total Suppreſſion of the late horrid Rebellion, I cannot yet think it too late to congratulate you upon it. The King ſaw with Pleaſure the Zeal which you then ſhewed for the Support of our happy Conſtitution; and your Indignation againſt that execrable Attempt to ſubvert it: And his Majeſty depends upon your continuing conſtantly to exert the ſame good Conduct and Vigilance, which, under GOD, prevented the Communication of ſo dangerous an Infection to this Kingdom.

The Education of your poor Youth in the Proteſtant Charter-Schools will be, with the Bleſſing of GOD, a happy Expedient towards eradicating, without Violence, thoſe deſtructive Principles to our Religious and Civil Liberties, on which alone the Hopes of a Pretender, bred up in the Maxims of Slavery, as well as Popery, are or can be founded.

You may depend upon my Zeal to protect and promote ſo uſeful an Inſtitution; and to concur in every other proper Meaſure for the Preſervation of your domeſtick Tranquillity, and for the Advancement of true Religion, Induſtry, Knowledge and Virtue.

I need not exhort you to a particular Attention to your Linen Manufacture; you know the great Importance of it to this Nation; I only deſire, that you will conſider me, as equally ſenſible of its Value, and equally inclined to promote its Progreſs and Succeſs; and I hope you will ſoon find the beneficial Effects of the Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament in Great Britain, continuing the Bounties on the Exportation of Britiſh and Iriſh coarſe Linens.

Gentlemen

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE nothing in Command from his Majeſty to aſk, but the uſual and neceſſary Supplies for the Support of the Eſtabliſhment; and I have ordered the proper Officers to prepare the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates to be laid before you.

I have likewiſe given Directions, that an Account of the Sums which have been taken up and expended upon the Purchaſe of Arms for the Uſe of the Militia of this Kingdom, and of Cannon, towards the Defence and Security of the Harbour of Cork, be laid before you. And I believe you will be ſatisfied, that thoſe Services have been performed with all poſſible Oeconomy.

With reſpect to the Harbour of Cork; ſome Difficulties having occurred as to the Ground proper for the erecting of Batteries; the Execution of that uſeful Deſign has been hitherto retarded; but you may be aſſured, that I ſhall not fail to do every thing in my Power towards the Completion of it.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I AM perſuaded we are met together with the ſame View and Intention of promoting his Majeſty's Service and the Happineſs of his People. I do not preſs you to Unanimity, Temper and Diſpatch in your Deliberations, becauſe your former Behaviour ſhews, that you need no Exhortations of that Kind.

For myſelf, I cannot but deſire, that you will repoſe ſome Confidence in me; but no farther, however, than you ſhall yourſelves judge from my Conduct, that it is for your own ſakes, and for the Publick Good, that I deſire it.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne, and the ſame being afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to congratulate his Majeſty on the Suppreſſion of the late unnatural Rebellion. Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

To expreſs our juſt Indignation againſt thoſe who have endeavoured to deſtroy our happy Conſtitution, by introducing Popery and arbitrary Power, in the ſtead of our true Religion and Liberties.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we conſider the Support of his Sacred Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion in his Royal Houſe, as the only Security of our Civil and Religious Rights.

To acknowledge, with the higheſt Gratitude, the Royal Bounty and Protection ſhewn to the Proteſtant Charter-Schools in this Kingdom.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we will uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to improve the Linen Manufacture, which is of ſo great Importance to this Kingdom.

To return our moſt grateful Thanks to his Majeſty, for committing the Government of this Kingdom to his Excellency the Earl of Harrington, whoſe great Abilities have diſtinguiſhed him in Stations of the higheſt Truſt.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Earl of Kildare and all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare an Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that an humble Addreſs of Thanks be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, for his Excellency's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament. Reſolution for Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant Ordered, that his Grace the Lord Primate and all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at half an Hour after Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Earl of Kildare reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to their Lordſhips' Reſolution of Yeſterday; that they had prepared the ſame accordingly, which he read in his Place; and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and, with an Amendment, agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the entire Suppreſſion of the late unnatural Rebellion raiſed in favour of a Popiſh Pretender, and ſupported by a neighbouring Prince, the conſtant Enemy of the Liberties of Europe.

Our juſt Indignation cannot be ſufficiently expreſſed againſt thoſe, who have endeavoured to ſubvert our happy Conſtitution, and introduce Popery, with its neceſſary Attendant, Arbitrary Power, inſtead of that true Religion and thoſe Liberties which we enjoy, under a King, whoſe diſtinguiſhed Glory it is ever to have kept united the Freedom of the Subject with the Royalty of the Sovereign, the peculiar Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms.

We ſhould be as much wanting to our Intereſt, as our moſt indiſpenſible Duty, if we omitted any Opportunity of giving your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances, that we conſider the Support of your Sacred Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe, as the laſting Security, under GOD, of our Civil and Religious Rights, which ineſtimable Bleſſings we are unanimouſly reſolved, as far as in us lies, to tranſmit to our lateſt Poſterity.

We muſt ever, with Gratitude, acknowledge the Royal Bounty and Protection given to the Proteſtant Charter-Schools of this Kingdom; and we cannot but hope, that this wiſe Inſtitution, by reſcuing many from the Miſeries of Sloth and Idleneſs, will be an effectual Means of promoting among us the Bleſſings of Labour and Induſtry; and by a careful Education of the Youth in the true Principles of the Proteſtant Religion and juſt Notions of their Civil Liberties, muſt utterly defeat the vain Hopes of an abjured Pretender, bred up in the Maxims of Popery and Tyranny.

As we are firmly perſuaded, that promoting the Proſperity of your People, is a Part of our Duty the moſt acceptable to your Majeſty, we ſhall continue our utmoſt Endeavours to improve and extend the Linen Manufacture, the great Importance of which has been long experienced in this Kingdom.

We are truly ſenſible of your Majeſty's great Attention to the Welfare of this Nation, in committing the Government thereof to his Excellency the Earl of Harrington, whoſe eminent Virtues and Abilities have diſtinguiſhed him in Stations of the higheſt Truſt, and whoſe firm Attachment to your royal Perſon and Family muſt ſtrongly induce us to render his Adminiſtration eaſy, by our Unanimity and Diſpatch in all our Deliberations.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to deſire the ſame may be laid before his Majeſty.

His Grace the Lord Primate reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an humble Addreſs of Thanks to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant for his Excellency's Speech delivered from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place; and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To

To his Excellency
WILLIAM Earl of HARRINGTON,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return our moſt hearty Thanks to your Excellency, for your Speech, delivered from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament; and at the ſame time to expreſs our ſincere Congratulation on your Excellency's happy Arrival in this Kingdom.

We have received innumerable Proofs of his Majeſty's paternal Regard and Affection to his Subjects of Ireland, but none more acceptable, than his committing the Government of it to your Excellency, from whoſe approved Abilities and Wiſdom we may juſtly promiſe to ourſelves every Advantage.

His Majeſty's gracious Acceptance of our Zeal for the Support of his Government, during the late horrid Attempt to ſubvert it, fills us with unſpeakable Satisfaction: And your Excellency may, on all Occaſions, depend upon our ſteady Adherence to the ſame Principles, by which we were then animated, and to which we are bound by the ſtrongeſt Ties of Intereſt, Duty and Gratitude.

Your Excellency has ſhewn your real Concern for our Welfare, in recommending to our Care the Inſtitution for educating of Popiſh Children in the Proteſtant Charter-Schools; which we hope may in time, with the Bleſſing of GOD, bring them under the Influence of true Religion, and the Habits of Induſtry, Order and Sobriety: Perſuaſive and gentle Applications are the Means we are moſt deſirous to employ towards reclaiming thoſe unhappy People; and we ſhall proceed in them with the greater Confidence, ſince they have received your Excellency's Approbation.

Our immediate Intereſt calls upon us to promote, with all poſſible Care, the Linen Manufacture: And your Excellency has convinced us of your affectionate Regard to our Happineſs, by propoſing thoſe things only to our Conſideration, on which our own Proſperity depends: We already feel the beneficial Effects of the Bounty lately continued by Great Britain to that valuable Branch of our Trade; and we have a full and juſt Senſe of the early and effectual Proof, that your Excellency on that Occaſion gave of your favourable Attention to it. Unanimity, Temper and Diſpatch in our Deliberations, are the natural Reſults of thoſe Sentiments of Loyalty, which we have conſtantly profeſſed to the beſt of Kings; and the Dignity and Weight of your Excellency's Character, the Solidity of your Judgment, your Truth, Candour and Integrity, Qualities univerſally known and acknowledged, always the Objects of our Eſteem, and now the Grounds of our Confidence, will prove additional Motives and Aſſiſtances to the Endeavours we ſhall, on our Part, ſtrenuouſly exert for the promoting the true Service of his Majeſty, the Security and Happineſs of his People, and the Eaſe and Honour of your Excellency's Government.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be pleaſed to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Killaloe ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 23d Inſt. being an Anniverſary Thankſgiving for the Delivery of the Proteſtants in this Kingdom from the Popiſh Maſſacre in 1641.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Ferns and Leighlin ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 5th Day of November next, being appointed a Day of Thankſgiving for the happy Deliverance of the three Eſtates of England from the intended Maſſacre by Gun-Powder, and alſo for the happy Arrival of his late Majeſty King William III. of glorious Memory, on that Day, for the Deliverance of our Church and theſe Nations.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Maguire*, ſhould direct; and entered in the Offices of the Sheriffs of the City and County of Dublin.

The Lords' Committees beg Leave to obſerve to your Lordſhips, that in theſe Papers and Entries, there are but three which ſeem to be Originals: The Letter of Attorney from the Lord Viſc. Doneraile to Charles O'Hara, Eſq; a Letter, ſigned Boyne; and the Letter, ſigned Netterville, above reported. The reſt are Copies either of written Protections or of Entries of them, made in the ſeveral Offices; and the High-Sheriff of the County of Dublin and his Clerk, the High-Sheriffs of the City of Dublin, and their Sub-Sheriff and the Town-Clerk, being ſeverally examined, Whether they could take upon them to ſay, that the Papers from whence the ſaid Copies and Entries were made, were the proper Hand-writing or Signature of the Lords? They all, ſeverally, anſwered in the Negative.

The Lords' Committees find, that theſe Protections, thus entered and filed, have produced the bad Effects which muſt always ariſe from witten Protections: And are therefore humbly of Opinion, that the moſt effectual Methods ought to be uſed to prevent the giving, filing or entering any ſuch Protections for the future; but how far the Evidence now before your Lordſhips may be ſufficient to ground a Cenſure of any Lords, whoſe Names or Titles appear in the Copies and Entries now before this Houſe, is humbly ſubmitted to your Lordſhips.

Ordered, that the ſaid Report ſhall be taken into further Conſideration on Monday next; and that all the Lords in about the Town be ſummoned to attend the Service of this Houſe on that Day. Report to be further conſidered.

Whereas Wedneſday Morning next, was appointed for calling over this Houſe; It is ordered, that the ſame be adjourned till Monday Morning next, and that the Houſe ſhall be then called over.

A Complaint being made to the Houſe, againſt Thomas Edwards and Thomas Moore, for arreſting James Reily, Domeſtick Servant to the Right Hon. the Earl of Roſs, at the Suit of the ſaid Edwards, within the Time, and contrary to the Privilege, of Parliament; Complaint on Breach of Privilege.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Matter of Complaint ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to the Lords' Committees for Privileges; who are to conſider thereof, and report their Opinion therein to the Houſe. Order thereon.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Witneſſes ſworn.

James Reily, Hugh Madden and William Wallace, being by Order called in, were ſeverally ſworn at the Bar, in order to give their Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees for Privileges, on the behalf of the Earl of Roſs, upon his Lordſhip's Complaint againſt Thomas Edwards and Thomas Moore.

Mr. Hutchinſon's Petition.

A Petition of Hartley Hutchinſon, Eſq; William Lingen, James Pierce and Michael Jones, Eſq'rs. Executors of the laſt Will and Teſtament of Charles Powell, Eſq; deceaſed.

Setting forth, that Edward Walſh, Eſq; deceaſed, being ſeized in Fee of the Lands of Shanganagh and Hamlets of Killtuck otherwiſe Killturk and Black Shanganagh, and other Lands in the County of Dublin, did by Leaſe and Releaſe, bearing Date the 1^{ſt} and 2^{d} Days of June, 1694, limit and ſettle the ſaid Eſtate to the Uſe of the ſaid Edward for Life; Remainder to his Brother John Walſh for Life; Remainder to the firſt and every other Son and Sons of the Body of the ſaid John Walſh, in Tail-Male, with ſeveral Remainders over.

That ſaid John, after the Death of ſaid Edward, became ſeized of an Eſtate for Life and had Iſſue-Male Edward Walſh, Eſq; now living.

That ſaid Edward Walſh, in Purſuance of a Power in the ſaid Settlement, did, in the Year 1698, make his Laſt Will and Teſtament, in Writing, and thereby deviſed the ſaid Lands to Truſtees for Twenty-one Years, to commence after the Death of his Mother Dame Catherine Dowdall, that the ſaid Truſtees ſhould, out of the Rents and Profits thereof, raiſe £1000, to be paid to his Brothers Daniel Dowdall, and James Dowdall; and between his Siſters Thomaſin, Mary and Lucretia Dowdall.

That £500 of the ſaid £1000, was paid by the ſaid John in the Life-time of the ſaid Dame Catherine, and the remaining £500 was veſted in the ſaid Daniel Dowdall and James Dowdall.

That the Intereſts of the ſaid Daniel and James, in the ſaid £500, were by Deeds conveyed by them to Sir William Fownes, Bart. ſince deceaſed, who, in the Year 1734, made his Will, and appointed Robert Cope, Eſq; and Elizabeth his Wife, Executors, who proved the ſaid Will, and brought an Ejectment in his Majeſty's Court of Common-Pleas, in the Name of Mary Byrne their Leſſee, who was Executrix of Gregory Byrne, who was the ſurviving Truſtee of the ſaid Term of Twenty-one Years, for the Recovery of the ſaid Lands, and obtained Judgment, and an Habere facias poſſeſſionem iſſued, and the ſaid Cope put into Poſſeſſion.

That the ſaid Edward Walſh attained the Age of Twenty-one Years ſome time in the Beginning of January, 1732; and the ſaid John, being then indebted to ſeveral Perſons in ſeveral Sums of Money, they the ſaid John and Edward came to an Agreement to levy a Fine and ſuffer a common Recovery of all the Lands then veſted in them; and they, on the 30th Day of January 1732, in Purſuance of Deeds of Leaſe and Releaſe by them executed, bearing Date the 23^{d} and 24th Days of January, 1732, upon the Credit of which the Petitioner Hutchinſon advanced to the ſaid John and Edward Walſh ſeveral Sums on ſeveral Mortgages and Judgments; and in the Year 1735, there was due and owing to him thereon the Sum of £2359:16*s*. and alſo advanced to them ſeveral other Sums on Bonds and Judgments, and alſo became bound for the ſaid Edward in the Sum of £200: Upon all which ſeveral Securities there is due and owing to the Petitioner Hutchinſon, the Sum of £4000 and upwards, for Principal, Intereſt and Coſt.

That in 1738, the ſaid John and Edward Walſh applied to the ſaid Michael Jones to advance as much Money as would pay off what was due to the ſaid Cope and his Wife: And accordingly the Petitioner Jones advanced on the ſaid Security £1023; and they and the ſaid Mary Byrne, at the Requeſt of the ſaid Cope, and at the Requeſt of the ſaid John and Edward Walſh, by Deed duly executed, conveyed all their Intereſt, together with the Benefit of the ſaid Ejectment and Execution thereon, which was aſſigned to the Petitioner Jones; and for better ſecuring the ſaid Sum, Sum, the ſaid John and Edward Walſh demiſed to ſaid Jones all the ſaid Lands, after the Expiration of the ſaid Term of Twenty-one Years, for the Term of Ninety-nine Years; and the Petitioner Jones, by Deed, dated the 12th Day of March, 1741, aſſigned all his Intereſt therein to Charles Powell, Eſq; deceaſed, who made his Laſt Will and Teſtament, and thereby deviſed the ſaid Securities among other his perſonal Eſtate, and Part of his real Eſtate, to the ſeveral charitable Uſes in ſaid Will expreſſed; and thereof appointed the Petitioners William Lingen, James Pierce and Michael Jones his Executors; upon which ſaid Securities there is due to the ſaid Executors £1230 Sterling, and upwards.

That the ſaid John and Edward Walſh did by Deed, dated the 29th Day of October, 1739, wherein it was recited, that there was then due to the Petitioner Hutchinſon the ſaid Sum of £2359: 16*s*. and to the Petitioner Jones, the Sum of £1023. And further reciting, that ſaid John, being ſeized for Life only of the ſaid Premiſſes, with Remainders in Tail to the ſaid Edward, with divers Remainders over, he the ſaid Edward had, at the Inſtance and Requeſt of the ſaid John, joined with him in levying a Fine and ſuffering a common Recovery of all the ſaid Lands, in order to bar the ſaid Eſtate-Tail, and the ſaid other Remainders, and hath alſo joined with him in the ſaid ſeveral Mortgages to the Petitioners, in order to ſecure the Payment of the ſeveral Sums therein ſpecified to be due to the Petitioner Hutchinſon.

That the ſaid John Walſh, in the Year 1743, died, and the ſaid Edward Walſh, in the Month of April laſt, fled this Kingdom, in order to defraud the Petitioners of their juſt Debts, and gave out that the ſaid John Walſh, in the Year 1720, conveyed the Premiſes to Francis Harriſon, Eſq; and his Heirs, who have the legal Eſtate in them; whereby the ſaid Recovery was not well ſuffered, and is void: Whereas it appears by an Inſtrument under the Hand and Seal of the ſaid Harriſon, bearing Date the 8th Day of March, 1721, that the ſaid John Walſh had, by Deed, duly executed by him to the ſaid Harriſon, ſettled one Annuity or yearly Rent-charge of £150 by the Year to be iſſuing and payable out of the Premiſes, for and during the Term of three Years; and after the Expiration of that Term, then to hold the Premiſes for the Payment of a Rent-Charge of £200 a Year for the Term of Twenty-one Years, if the ſaid John Walſh ſhould ſo long live, which ſaid Deed the ſaid Edward Walſh, by Art and Management, has got into his Hands.

That by virtue of ſaid Deed, the ſaid Harriſon entered the Premiſes, and received the ſaid Annuity of £150, or moſt Part thereof, till the time of his Death, which happened in the Month of July 1725.

That the Petitioners, being fair and juſt Creditors for Money really and truly lent and advanced as aforeſaid; therefore, to prevent all Doubts that may hereafter ariſe relating to the Validity of the levying the ſaid Fine and ſuffering the ſaid common Recovery:

And humbly praying, that Leave may be given to bring in Heads of a Bill for eſtabliſhing the Fine ſo acknowledged and ſaid Recovery ſuffered; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Ordered, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill, according to the Prayer of the ſaid Petition.

Petition of Gorges Lowther.

A Petition of Gorges Lowther of Killrew in the Co. Meath, Eſq; ſetting forth that in the Month of April, 1738, the Petitioner intermarried with Judith Uſher, with whom the Petitioner cohabited until on or about the 1^ſt Day of December, 1745, during which time the ſaid Judith had ſeveral Children, two of whom are now living, to wit, a Son and a Daughter.

That the ſaid Judith for ſome Days before the ſaid 1^ſt Day of December, 1745, was guilty of Adultery with two ſeveral Coachmen, that at different times lived with the Petitioner; and the ſaid Judith being detected in the Fact with Thomas Simpſon, who was the Petitioner's Coachman, on the ſaid 1^ſt Day of Dec. 1745, the Petitioner had the ſaid Simpſon arreſted and taken upon an Action out of the Court of Common-Pleas for £5000; and the Petitioner having declared againſt the Simpſon, in the ſaid Action, for having carnal Knowledge of the ſaid Judith the ſaid Petitioner's Wife, the ſaid Simpſon pleaded thereto, and the ſame was brought to Trial in the County of Meath, in Summer Aſſizes, 1746, and the ſaid Cauſe was accordingly tried before the Hon. Richard Mountney, Eſq; one of the Juſtices of ſaid Aſſize, by a Jury of ſome of the principal Gentlemen of the ſaid County; when and where, after a long Defence made by or on behalf of the ſaid Thomas Simpſon, upon full and plain Evidence, the Petitioner obtained a Verdict for £5000 Damages againſt the ſaid Thomas Simpſon, upon which Judgment hath been ſince obtained.

That the Petitioner inſtituted a Cauſe of Divorce or Separation from Bed and Board in the Conſiſtorial and Metropolitical Court of the Dioceſe of Dublin againſt the ſaid Judith, in which the Petitioner was put to very great Expence and all imaginable Delays given him in the Proſecution thereof; and after many Days taken up in the hearing thereof, the Petitioner at length, on or about the 8^th Day of July laſt paſt, obtained a Sentence for a Divorce or Separation from Bed and Board.

That the ſaid Judith appealed from the ſaid Sentence to his Majeſty, and the Cauſe was brought to hearing in his Majeſty's High Court of Delegates: But the ſaid Judith, being conſcious of her Guilt, and ſenſible that the ſaid Sentence or Decree of Divorce ought ought to be confirmed, did not appear; whereupon, on the 23d Day of November laſt paſt, the ſaid Cauſe was remitted, and the ſaid Sentence now ſtands affirmed:

And praying their Lordſhips will give Leave that Heads of a Bill may be brought in, to diſſolve his ſaid Marriage with the ſaid Judith Uſher, and to enable him to marry again; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Ordered, that the ſaid Petition ſhall be taken into Conſideration on Tueſday Morning next, and all the Lords in and about the Town be ſummoned to attend the Service of this Houſe on that Day.

Heads of Meſſ. Walſh's Bill.

Heads of a Bill for eſtabliſhing a Fine acknowledged and a Recovery ſuffered by John Walſh, Eſq; and Edward Walſh, Eſq; his Son and Heir apparent in Hilary Term, 1732, were, according to Order, read a ſecond time.

Ordered, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Heads of a Bill ſhall be, and is hereby, committed to a ſelect Committee, and that the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene, and all the Lords preſent, be the ſaid Committee; whoſe Lordſhips have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records; and two of the Judges to aſſiſt. committed.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet on Monday Morning next, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Adjourned till Monday Morning next, at Eleven o'clock.

Report on Temporary Statutes' Bill.

The Lord Viſc. Maſſareene reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to inquire what temporary Laws are expired or near expiring, and which of them may be thought fit to be revived or continued, as follows, viz.

My Lords,

THE Lords' Committees appointed to inquire what temporary Laws are expired or near expiring, and which of them may be thought fit to be revived or continued, having called the Lords the Judges to their Aſſiſtance, are of Opinion, that an Act, paſſed in the 2d Year of King George I. to make the Militia of this Kingdom more uſeful, to continue until the 24th of June 1718; continued by the 14th of George I. for two Years; and by the 8th of George I. for two Years, from the 25th of December, 1721; and by the 10th of George I. for two Years, from the 25th of December, 1723; and it is, in like manner, continued by other Acts; and by 11th George II. continued to the 29th of September, 1744, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 19th of George II. it is amended, and that Act, and the Act of the 19th of George II. are to continue for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, is fit to be continued.

An Act to prevent the ingroſſing and regrating of Coals, paſſed the 6th of George I. to continue for ſeven Years, from the 1ſt of November, 1719, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, is fit to be revived.

An Act for the better regulating the Pariſh-Watches and amending the High-Ways in this Kingdom, and for preventing the Miſapplication of Publick Money, paſſed the 6th of George I. this Act and all and every Clauſe, Article and Proviſoe therein contained, ſo far as the ſame relates to any County, Counties of Cities, Boroughs, Towns Corporate, Pariſhes and other Places in the ſeveral Counties in this Kingdom, other than what relates to, and may concern, the Pariſh-Watches of the City of Dublin and Liberties of of the ſaid City, was continued for two Years, from the 25th of March, 1722, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament by the 8th of George I. and the ſaid 8th of George I. amends the Part, which relates to the City of Dublin, and the 10th of George I. makes the Act of the 6th of George I. as to what relates to all the Counties in the Kingdom, except Dublin, perpetual, and continues the Act of the 8th of George I. as to what relates to the City of Dublin, for ſeven Years, from 1ſt of March, 1723; and the 3d of George II. continues it to the 25th of March, 1737; and the 11th of George II. continues it to the 29th of September, 1744, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and the 19th of George II. continues it to the 29th of September, 1746, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, is fit to be continued.

An Act for veſting in his Majeſty the Lands whereon the Barracks are built, paſſed the 4th of George I. ſo much of the ſaid Act as relates to the Power to iſſue Commiſſions, &c. is by an Act, paſſed the 10th George I. continued from the 25th of December, 1724, for ſeven Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament; and by this Act the Licenſes for Coaches, &c. are continued from the 1ſt of May, 1725, until the End of the next Seſſion after; this Act is further continued by the 3d of George II. till the 25th of December 1737; and by the 11th of George II. to the 24th of June, 1758, is fit to be continued.

An Act for regulating Abuſes in buying and ſelling of Cattle, paſſed the 10th of George I. was for two Years continued, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 12th of George I. continued to the 1ſt of December, 1728, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and by the 11th of George II. to the 29th of September, 1744, and by the 19th of George the II. to the 29th of September, 1746, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, is fit to be continued.

An Act for quieting all Perſons in Offices, paſſed the 6th of George I. and the 12th of George I. continues the ſaid Act: And enlarges the Time for taking the Oaths to the 1ſt of Auguſt, 1726, it is continued, by ſeveral ſubſequent Acts for that Purpoſe; and by the 17th of George II. it is enlarged to the 1ſt of Auguſt, 1744; and by the 19th of George II. it is enlarged to the 25th of March, 1748, is fit to be continued.

An Act for explaining and amending ſeveral Statutes, for prohibiting Under-Sheriffs and Sheriffs' Clerks from officiating as Sub-Sheriffs, &c. paſſed the 3d of George II. ſo much of that Act as relates to the preferring of any Bill for the Diſcovery of any Offence againſt that Act or againſt an Act of the 10th of Queen Anne, intitled, An Act for explaining and amending ſeveral Statutes for prohibiting Under-Sheriffs, &c. and obliging Perſons to anſwer the ſame, &c. to be in Force to the 1ſt of March, 1733, continued by the 7th of George II. to the 25th of March, 1740, and is revived and continued for two Years, from the 25th of March, 1746, by the 19th of George II. is fit to be continued.

An Act for buying and ſelling Corn, &c. by Weight, paſſed the 7th of George II. for one Year, from the 29th of September, 1734, and the 11th of George II. for buying and ſelling Corn by Weight, for ſeven Years, from the 1ſt of Auguſt, 1738, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ſo much of that Act as is not altered by the Act of the 19th of George II. is by the ſaid Act continued for two Years, from the 25th of March, 1746, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, is fit to be continued.

An Act for preventing Frauds, &c. in the making and vending bad Drugs, paſſed the 9th of George II. for three Years and continued by the 11th of George II. to the 29th of September, 1744, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, was further continued by the 19th of George II. for ſeven Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, is fit to be continued. And are of Opinion, that the Clauſe in the ſaid Act, impowering the Viſitors to examine, on Oath, the Servants of Apothecaries, &c. to the Quantities, &c. of the Drugs, &c. ought to be repealed.

An Act to prevent burning of Land, paſſed the 17th of George II. to continue for two Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion is by the 19th of George II. continued for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, is fit to be continued.

The ſaid Report, being read by the Clerk at the Table, was agreed to by the Houſe. Report agreed to

Then the Houſe, according to Order, was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, upon an ingroſſed Bill, ſent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for licenſing Hawkers and Pedlars, and for the Encouragement of Engliſh Proteſtant Schools; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Caſhel reported from the Committee, that they had gone through the ſaid Bill, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment, and think it fit to paſs; and alſo compared the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be read a third time on Friday Morning next.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Viſc. Maſſareene, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare and bring in Heads of a Bill for amending the ſeveral Acts for the better regulating of Juries; and the Judges to aſſiſt.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

The Decree of Divorce, the Exemplification of the Remittal of the Delegates, and the Copy of the Judgment, produced this Day at the Bar by Mr. Mark Whyte, Agent to Gorges Lowther, Eſq; lying on the Table, were then, by Order, ſeverally read by the Clerk.

Ordered, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill to diſſolve the Marriage of Gorges Lowther of Killrew in the County of Meath, Eſq; with Judith Uſher, and to enable him to marry again, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, and that the Lord Biſhop of Meath do prepare and bring in the ſame.

Heads of Mr. Lowther's Bill.

Then the Lord Biſhop of Meath, according to Order, preſented to the Houſe, Heads of a Bill to diſſolve the Marriage of Gorges Lowther of Killrew in the Co. Meath, Eſq; with Judith Uſher, and to enable him to marry again, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned; which were received, and read a firſt time.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill ſhall be read a ſecond time on this Day ſe'n-night, and that Notice thereof ſhall be affixed on the Doors of this Houſe, and that all the Lords be ſummoned to attend the Service of this Houſe on that Day, and that the ſaid Gorges Lowther may be heard by his Counſel at the ſaid ſecond reading, to make out the Truth of the Allegations of the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and that the ſaid Judith Uſher alias Lowther, ſhall be ſerved with a Copy of the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and that Notice ſhall be given to the ſaid Judith Uſher alias Lowther of the ſaid ſecond reading, and that ſhe may be heard by her Counſel to what ſhe has to offer againſt the ſaid Heads of a Bill, at the ſaid ſecond reading.

Ordered, that the Report from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, in relation to Protections, ſhall be taken into further Conſideration on Saturday Morning next, and that all the Lords in and about the Town be ſummoned to attend the Service of this Houſe on that Day.

A Petition of Richard Earl of Roſs, in Cuſtody of the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, by Order of this Houſe, ſetting forth his Sorrow for his Offence, and praying to be diſcharged from the Reſtraint he lies under; was preſented to the Houſe, and read. Petition of Earl Roſs.

IT is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Right Hon. Richard Earl of Roſs, now in Cuſtody of the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, ſhall be, and is hereby, diſcharged from the Reſtraint he lies under (paying his Fees;) and this ſhall be a ſufficient Warrant on that behalf. Order thereon.

To the Hon. William Fitzwilliam, Eſq; Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, attending this Houſe, his Deputy or Deputies, and every of them.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that Benjamin Bowen, Nicholas Clinton and Robert Thorp, do attend at the Bar of this Houſe on Monday Morning next, that they may be ſworn, in order to give their Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees, to whom Heads of a Bill for eſtabliſhing a Fine acknowledged and a Recovery ſuffered by John Walſh, Eſq; and Edward Walſh, Eſq; his Son and Heir apparent in Hilary Term, 1732, is committed.

Heads of Temporary Statutes Bill.

The Lord Viſc. Maſſareene acquainted the Houſe, that the Judges, according to Order, had prepared Heads of a Bill for reviving and continuing ſeveral temporary Statutes, which he preſented to the Houſe, and the ſaid Heads of a Bill were, by Order, read a firſt and ſecond time.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall be put into a Committee on Monday Morning next, to conſider of the ſaid Heads of a Bill; whoſe Lordſhips ſhall have Power to receive a Clauſe or Clauſes.

Upon reading the Order for the Day, the Houſe proceeded to take into further Conſideration the Report from the Lords' Committees for Privileges, in relation to Protections, and the ſaid Report being then read by the Clerk at the Table;

A Letter of Attorney, ſigned Doneraile, and a Letter ſigned Netterville, and alſo a Letter ſigned Boyne, were then, by Order, read.

Viſcount Netterville, and

The Lord Viſc. Netterville, having informed the Houſe, that one or more Letters of Attorney by him granted to Perſons concerned in the Management of his Affairs, were without his Knowledge entered in the Sheriffs and Tholſel Office of the City of Dublin, and that as ſoon as he knew that they were ſo entered, he immediately ordered them to be withdrawn, and having alſo declared himſelf truly ſenſible of the ill Effects of granting or entering ſuch Letters of Attorney; and aſſured the Houſe that he would be more cautious of granting any for the time to come, was then ordered to withdraw.

Reſolved, that the Lord Viſc. Netterville's Submiſſion be accepted.

Viſc. Boyne make Submiſſion to Houſe.

The Lord Viſc. Boyne, having obſerved to the Houſe, that this was the firſt Seſſion in which he had ſat in this Houſe, and declared that he was an abſolute Stranger to the Orders of this Houſe againſt written Protections, and that he was heartily ſorry for having offended againſt ſaid Orders, was then ordered to withdraw.

Reſolved, that the Lord Viſc. Boyne's Submiſſion be accepted.

Ordered, that the Lord Biſhop of Kilmore ſhall have the Leave of this Houſe to go into the Country for ſix Weeks upon extraordinary Occaſions, leaving his Proxy.

Petition of N. Clinton.

A Petition of Nicholas Clinton, Gent. was preſented to the Houſe, and read, and ordered to lie on the Table.

Witneſſes ſworn.

Benjamin Bowen, Nicholas Clinton, Robert Thorp and John Pierſe, being by Order called in, were ſeverally ſworn at the Bar, in order to give their Teſtimony before the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of Heads of a Bill for eſtabliſhing a Fine acknowledged and a Recovery ſuffered by John Walſh, Eſq; and Edward Walſh, Eſq; his Son and Heir apparent, in Hilary Term, 1732.

Upon reading the Order for the Day,

Committee on Heads of Temporary Statutes Bill.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, to take into Conſideration Heads of a Bill for reviving and continuing ſeveral temporary Statutes; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Viſc. Strangford reported from the Committee, that they had made ſome Progreſs in the Conſideration of the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and that he was directed to move the Houſe for Leave to ſit again.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall be put into a Committee To-morrow Morning, to take the ſaid Heads of a Bill into further Conſideration.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to robe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And his Excellency William Earl of Harrington, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Antrim carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Kildare, the Cap of Maintenance; three Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy; all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for:

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint them, that it is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter.

The Houſe of Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies, where Mr. Speaker, after a ſhort Speech, read the Titles of the two Money-Bills, which he acquainted his Excellency the Commons had prepared, and which they humbly preſented to his Excellency for the Royal Aſſent.

Royal Aſſent given to three Bills.

The ſaid Bills were then delivered at the Bar, by Mr. Speaker, to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought them to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Titles, as follow:

1. An Act for granting and continuing to his Majeſty, an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Wine, Tobacco, Hides, and other Goods and Merchandizes therein mentioned; and for prohibiting the Importation of all Gold and Silver Lace, except of the Manufacture of Great Britain.
2. An Act for granting to his Majeſty an additional Duty on Wine, Silk, Hops, China, Earthen, japann'd or lacquered Ware, and Vinegar; and alſo a Tax of four Shillings in the Pound on all Salaries, Profits of Employments, Fees and Penſions, to be applied to pay an Intereſt of £5 ℔ Cent. ℔ Ann. upon ſuch Part of the Sum of £100,000, Part of the Sum of £300,000, formerly raiſed, and to pay an Intereſt of £4 ℔ Cent. ℔ Ann. upon ſuch Part of the Sum of £250,000, alſo formerly raiſed, as ſhall remain unpaid on the 25th Day of December, 1747; as alſo to pay an Intereſt of £4 ℔ Cent. ℔ Ann. for ſuch Part of the Sum of £70,000, as hath been, or ſhall be, borrowed, purſuant to an Act, paſſed the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, and towards the Diſcharge of the ſaid Principal Sums.

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

"Le Roy remercie ſes bons Sujets, accepte leur "Benevolence, et ainſi le veult."

3. An Act for licenſing Hawkers and Pedlars, and for the Encouragement of Engliſh Proteſtant Schools.

To this Bill, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, in theſe Words, viz.

"Le Roy le veult."

Then his Excellency was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed.

Heads of Mell. Walsh's Bill,

The Lord Visc. Massareene reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Consideration of Heads of a Bill for establishing a Fine acknowledged and a Recovery suffered by James Walsh and Edward Walsh, Esq; his Son and Heir apparent, in Hilary Term, 1732, was committed; having heard Counsel as well on behalf of John Walsh, a Minor, as Counsel on behalf of the said Heads of a Bill, had gone through the said Heads of a Bill, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment.

The said Heads of a Bill were then, by Order, read a third time.

ordered to L^d Lieutenant

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, that the Lord Visc. Massareene do attend his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the said Heads of a Bill, and desire the same may be transmitted into Great Britain, in due Form.

Heads of Bill for regulating Juries,

The Lord Visc. Massareene presented to the House, Heads of a Bill for amending the several Acts for the better regulating of Juries, which were received, and read a first and second time.

committed.

Resolved, that this House shall To-morrow Morning, be put into a Committee, to take the said Heads of a Bill into Consideration.

Witnesses sworn.

Edward Gregory, being by Order called in, was sworn at the Bar, and proved the Service of Mrs. Lowther with a Copy of Heads of a Bill to dissolve the Marriage of Gorges Lowther of Killrew in the Co. Meath, Esq; with Judith Usher, and to enable him to marry again, and for other Purposes therein mentioned; and also with a Copy of the Order for reading the said Heads of a Bill a second time.

The said Heads of a Bill were then, by Order, read a second time.

Resolved, that the Consideration of the said Heads of a Bill shall be committed to a Committee of the whole House.

A Petition

Petition of Mrs. Lowther

A Petition of Judith Lowther, Wife of Gorges Lowther of Killrew in the County of Meath, Eſq; ſetting forth, that the Petitioner's Huſband did inſtitute a pretended Cauſe of Divorce and Separation from Bed and Board againſt the Petitioner, in the Conſiſtorial and Metropolitical Court of the Dioceſe of Dublin, for a pretended Act of Adultery pretended to have been committed by her, and on or about the 8th Day of July laſt, he obtained a Sentence of Divorce and Separation from Bed and Board againſt the Petitioner.

That the ſaid Court, during the Dependency of ſaid Cauſe, reſtricted the Petitioner to one Doctor of Laws, though the ſaid Gorges Lowther had ſeveral Advocates for him, and though the Petitioner, by her Proctors, earneſtly intreated to be allowed a ſecond Advocate, or a Lawyer, and by reaſon of her Poverty, was not able to employ another Advocate or Lawyer to appear for her in ſaid Cauſe: And having been adviſed, and thinking ſhe was much aggrieved by ſaid Sentence, the Petitioner therefore appealed to his Majeſty, in his High Court of Chancery, and a Commiſſion of Delegates was granted to hear and determine the ſaid Appeal in this Kingdom.

That the Petitioner being fatherleſs, and deſtitute of Friends, and reduced to very low Circumſtances, and meeting with a powerful Oppoſition by her ſaid Huſband, was not able to proſecute the ſaid Appeal in ſuch manner as the ſame required, and the ſaid Gorges Lowther hath ſerved the Petitioner with Heads of a Bill to diſſolve his Marriage with the Petitioner, and to enable him to marry again, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned.

That the ſaid Gorges Lowther, previous to his Marriage with the Petitioner, and in Conſideration of nine thouſand Pounds, the Marriage-Portion of the Petitioner, executed a Marriage-Settlement, whereby the Petitioner, in Caſe ſhe ſurvived him, was, after his Deceaſe, to have and receive five hundred Pounds yearly, as a Jointure.

That the ſaid Gorges did, on or about the 6th Day of December, 1745, being about ſix Days after the pretended Act of Adultery, alledged to have been committed by the Petitioner, cauſe the Petitioner to be brought from Killrew in the Co. Meath, where ſhe then was, to the Houſe of Mr. Chriſtopher Ruſſell, in Ruſſell's Court in Church-ſtreet, Dublin, where the Petitioner was by her ſaid Huſband's Directions, as ſhe believed, kept cloſe confined, and guarded by the Servants of the ſaid Gorges Lowther, who not only refuſed to permit the Petitioner to ſee or converſe with any one but ſuch as they thought proper, but frequently inſulted and abuſed the Petitioner.

That ſoon after the Petitioner was brought to Dublin, as aforeſaid a Friend of ſaid Gorges Lowther, by his Directions, as ſhe believed, came to the Petitioner, and made ſeveral Profeſſions of Friendſhip to her, and told her, that the ſaid Gorges Lowther's Servants would ſwear againſt the Petitioner, and that her ſaid Huſband had ſufficient Proof, and would certainly ſue for and obtain a Divorce; and that then the Petitioner would not be intitled to any thing; but that her ſaid Huſband had, by great Perſuaſion, conſented to ſettle one hundred Guineas a Year on the Petitioner, to keep her from Want during Life, in caſe ſhe would give up her ſaid Jointure, or at leaſt three hundred Pounds a Year of it, and adviſed the Petitioner, by all means, ſo to do; and the ſaid Petitioner, being in great Diſtreſs and Anxiety of Mind, and having no Opportunity of conſulting her Friends or any one capable of adviſing her, except ſuch as her ſaid Huſband thought proper, and apprehending ſhe would not be able to vindicate herſelf againſt the Power and Influence of her ſaid Huſband, and deſpairing of any Relief, other than by complying with the ſaid Terms propoſed to her, the Petitioner, was drawn in and prevailed upon to execute a Deed, and to acknowledge a Fine before ſuch Commiſſioners as were appointed by her ſaid Huſband for that Purpoſe, whereby the Petitioner granted all her Right and Title to the ſaid Jointure of five hundred Pounds a Year, in Lieu of one hundred Guineas a Year, as a Maintenance for the Petitioner, during the Life of the ſaid Gorges Lowther, and two hundred Pounds a Year after his Deceaſe, in Caſe ſhe ſurvived him:

And praying their Lordſhips to take into Conſideration what Maintenance the Petitioner ought to be allowed by the ſaid Gorges Lowther, during his Life, and whether ſhe ought to be concluded by the ſaid Fine, and to grant her ſuch Relief as the Nature and Circumſtances of her Caſe may require, and as their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom, ſhall think proper; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Petition ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Conſideration of the Heads of a Bill to diſſolve the Marriage of Gorges Lowther of Killrew in the Co. Meath, Eſq; with Judith Uſher and to enable him to marry again, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned is committed.

Meſſage to Commons for leave that Mr. Sterling be examined.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Dr. Stopford and Dr. Wall, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to deſire, that they will give Leave that Edward Sterling, Eſq; a Clerk of that Houſe, may be ſworn at the Bar of this Houſe, in order to give his Teſtimoney before the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Conſideration of Mr. Lowther's Heads of a Bill is committed.

Commons' Anſwer.

The Meſſengers reported, that the Houſe of Commons gave Leave that Mr. Sterling ſhould be examined, as was deſired.

Witneſſes ſworn.

Alice Croaſdail, Elizabeth Kennan, Thomas Gormley, John Field, Morgan Byrne, Mary Byrne, George Lyndon, Ann Adamſon, Mary Moran, Edward Gregory, George Berford, Hamilton Gorges and Edward Sterling, were then then by Order called in, and ſeverally ſworn at the Bar, in order to give their Teſtimony before the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Conſideration of Mr. Lowther's Heads of a Bill is committed.

Committee on Mr. Lowther's Heads of Bill.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Upon reading the Order of the Day, for calling over the Names of ſuch Lords as made Default upon the Call of the Houſe, the ſame was adjourned till this Day ſe'n-night.

Petition of George Lowther, Eſq; &c.

A Petition of George Lowther and Mary Sophia Lowther, Minors, and Children of Gorges Lowther, Eſq; by Judith Lowther otherwiſe Uſher his Wife, by their next Friend now in this Kingdom, Arthur French of Headford in the Co. Galway, Eſq; ſetting forth, that the Petitioner George (under a Settlement entered into, previous and in Conſideration of the Intermarriage of the ſaid Gorges and Judith and of nine thouſand Pounds, the Marriage-Portion of the ſaid Judith) is intitled to a Remainder in Tail-Male, ſubject to an Eſtate for Life to his ſaid Father, and to ſeven thouſand Pounds for the Portion of the other Petitioner, as alſo to a Jointure of five hundred Pounds a Year to the ſaid Judith.

That the ſaid Judith having, in the Opinion of her ſaid Huſband, miſbehaved, was prevailed upon by a Deed, bearing Date the 10th Day of December, 1745, and by a Fine, to confirm and eſtabliſh the ſame, to grant unto the ſaid Gorges, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, three hundred Pounds a Year of her ſaid Jointure, in Caſe ſhe ſhould ſurvive him.

That the ſaid laſt-mentioned Deed was obtained from the ſaid Judith, without the Knowledge or Approbation of ſaid Arthur French, or any other of her Friends, as Petitioners believe.

That by the ſaid Settlement of Intermarriage, the ſaid Gorges had a Power reſerved to him, in Caſe of the Death of the ſaid Judith, to appoint a Jointure of three hundred Pounds a Year for any after-taken Wife.

That there are now Heads of a Bill depending before their Lordſhips, to diſſolve the Marriage of the ſaid Gorges and Judith, and to enable the ſaid Gorges to marry again, as if the ſaid Judith had been actually dead.

That if the ſaid Heads of a Bill (as now framed) ſhould paſs into a Law, the Petitioner George, inſtead of being liable to five hundred Pounds a Year to the ſaid Judith, his Mother, or to three hundred Pounds a Year to any after-taken Wife, may be made liable to the Sum of eight hundred Pounds a Year during the ſaid Judith's Life; that is to ſay, two hundred Pounds a Year to the ſaid Judith, three hundred Pounds a Year to the Aſſignees, Executors or Adminiſtrators of the ſaid Gorges, and three hundred Pounds a Year to any after-taken Wife of the ſaid Gorges:

And praying their Lordſhips to take the Petitioners' Caſe into Conſideration, and if their Lordſhips ſhall think it reaſonable, to paſs the ſaid Heads of a Bill, or any other Bill, to enable the ſaid Gorges to marry any other Woman, that their Lordſhips will appoint a reaſonable Maintenance for the Petitioners; and impower the Lord Chancellor, for the time being, to appoint Guardians for them; ſuch Maintenance and Guardians to commence immediately from and after ſuch future Marriage, or otherwiſe to make ſuch further Proviſion for the Petitioners, and to grant them ſuch other Relief as the Nature and Circumſtances of their Caſe ſhall require, and as to their Lordſhips, in their great Wiſdom ſhall ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Petition ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Conſideration of the ſaid Heads of a Bill is committed, and that the Petitioners may be heard by their Counſel (if they ſhall think fit) before the ſaid Committee of the whole Houſe, againſt the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and that the ſaid Committee may, at the ſame time, hear Counſel for Gorges Lowther, Eſq; in Support of the ſaid Heads of a Bill. Order thereon.

Alſo a Petition of Judith Lowther, Wife of Gorges Lowther of Killrew in the Co. of Meath, Eſq; Mrs. Lowther's Petition.

Humbly praying, for the Reaſons therein contained, that their Lordſhips will permit her to be heard by her Counſel, and to examine Witneſſes on her behalf, touching the ſeveral Matters in the ſaid Petition mentioned, and to grant her ſuch other Relief, as the Nature and Circumſtances of her Caſe require; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon. It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the ſaid Petition ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Conſideration of Heads of a Bill to diſſolve the Marriage of Gorges Lowther of Killrew in the Co. Meath, Eſq; with Judith Uſher, and to enable him to marry again, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, is committed, and that the Petitioner may be heard by her Counſel, and examine ſuch Witneſſes as ſhe ſhall think fit, in Support of her ſaid Petition; and that the ſaid Committee may, at the ſame time, hear Counſel for the ſaid Mr. Lowther, in Support of the ſaid Heads of a Bill.

Committee on Heads of Mr. Lowther's Bill. Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, on Heads of a Bill to diſſolve the Marriage of Gorges Lowther of Killrew in the Co. Meath, Eſq; with Judith Uſher, and to enable him to marry again, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Biſhop of Clonfert reported from the Committee, that they had made ſome Progreſs in in the ſaid Heads of a Bill, and that he was directed to move the Houſe for Leave to ſit again.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall be put into a Committee on Wedneſday Morning next, to take the ſaid Heads of a Bill into further Conſideration.

Upon reading the Order for the Day,

Heads of Jury Bill, The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, and put into a Committee, on Heads of a Bill for amending the ſeveral Acts for the better regulating of Juries; and after ſome time ſpent therein,

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Tullamore reported from the Committee, that they had gone through the ſaid Heads of a Bill, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereunto, with ſome Amendments, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame were again read, and ſeverally agreed to by the Houſe.

The ſaid Heads of a Bill were then, by Order, read a third time.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

Report on Mr. Lowther's Bill.

The Lord Biſhop of Clonfert reported from the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Conſideration of Heads of a Bill to diſſolve the Marriage of Gorges Lowther of Killrew in the Co. Meath, Eſq; with Judith Uſher, and to enable him to marry again, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned, was committed; that they had gone through the ſaid Heads of a Bill, Paragraph by Paragraph, and having heard Counſel and examined Witneſſes, as well againſt the ſaid Heads of a Bill, as in Support thereof, have agreed to the ſame, with the following Amendments.

At the End of the 4th Line in the 8th Sheet, after the Word "Marriage" the whole Clauſes and Proviſoes in the ſaid Heads of a Bill to the End thereof, are expunged, and the following Clauſes are inſerted in the Place of the Clauſes, ſo expunged, viz.

" In which ſaid Deed is contained a Proviſo, " whereby the ſaid Gorges Lowther is im- " powered (in Caſe he ſurvives the ſaid " Judith) to ſettle a Jointure, by way of " Rent-charge, not exceeding three hundred " Pounds ℔ Ann. on any after-taken Wife. " May it alſo pleaſe your Moſt Excellent Ma- " jeſty, that it may be further enacted, that the " ſaid Judith Uſher otherwiſe Lowther ſhall " and may be barred of and from all Right " and Title of Dower and Thirds, into and " out of any of the Manors, Lands, Tenements " and Hereditaments of the ſaid Gorges Low- " ther; and of and from all Jointures, Rent- " charges and Annuities, affecting the ſame or " any Part thereof. And that all the Eſtates, " Uſes, Powers, Proviſoes and Limitations in " the ſaid Deed of Settlement of the 1^{ſt} Day of " April, 1738, or any other Deed or Settle- " ment made on, previous or ſubſequent to, " the Marriage of the ſaid Gorges and Judith, " ſo far as the ſame concern the raiſing or " ſecuring any Jointure, Rent-charge or An- " nuity, or any yearly Sum of Money, to or in " Truſt, or for the Uſe or Benefit of the ſaid " Judith, ſhall henceforth ceaſe, determine and " be utterly void and of none Effect, and ſhall " be, and be taken and conſtrued as if the ſaid " Judith was actually dead; and that in Lieu " and full Satisfaction thereof, the ſaid Judith " ſhall have and be intitled to one Annuity or " yearly Rent-charge of one hundred and " thirteen Pounds fifteen Shillings yearly, " during the joint Lives of her the ſaid Judith " and Gorges, and Jane Lowther, Mother of " ſaid Gorges, to commence from the 22^{d} Day " of November laſt, to be charged upon and " payable out of all and ſingular the Manors, " Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, on " which the ſaid Annuity of five hundred " Pounds a Year is charged and made payable " by the ſaid recited Deed of Settlement of " the 1^{ſt} Day of April, 1738, to be paid by four " equal quarterly Payments, on every 22^{d} Day " of February, 22^{d} Day of May, 22^{d} Day of " Auguſt, and 22^{d} Day of November; and in " Caſe of Non-payment thereof, at the End " of ten Days after the ſaid reſpective Days of " Payment, that the ſaid Judith ſhall have full " Power and Authority to levy the ſame by " Diſtreſs on all or any Part of ſaid Lands " chargeable therewith, together with all ſuch " Coſts and Charges as ſhe ſhall be put to in " the Recovery thereof; and that from and " after the Death of the ſaid Gorges or Jane " Lowther, which ſhall firſt happen, the ſaid " Judith Uſher otherwiſe Lowther, ſhall, during " her natural Life, have and receive one An- " nuity or yearly Rent-charge of two hundred " Pounds, to commence from the Death of the " ſaid Gorges or Jane Lowther, which ſhall firſt " happen, and hereby charged upon and pay- " able out of all and ſingular the Manors, " Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments " whereon the ſaid Annuity of five hundred " Pounds ℔ Ann. is charged by the ſaid Set- " tlement of the 1^{ſt} Day of April, 1738, and " to be paid by four equal quarterly Pay- " ments, to commence from the Day of the " Death of the ſaid Gorges Lowther or Jane his " Mother, which ſhall firſt happen; and in " Caſe of Non-payment thereof, within ten " Days after any of the Days whereon the " ſame is to be paid, that the ſaid Judith ſhall " have full Power to levy the ſame by Diſtreſs " on all or any Part of ſaid Lands chargeable " therewith,

" therewith, together with all ſuch Coſts and " Charges as ſhe ſhall be put to in the Reco- " very thereof: And that one Deed, bearing " Date the 10th Day of December, 1745, where- " by a Proviſion of one hundred Guineas " p Ann. was made or intended to be made " for ſaid Judith, by way of ſeparate Mainte- " nance during her and the ſaid Gorges' joint " Lives, and two hundred Pounds a Year after " ſaid Gorges' Death, and all the Powers, Pro- " viſoes and Limitations therein contained, " ſhall be declared abſolutely null and void, " to all Intents and Purpoſes.

" And we pray, that it may be further " enacted, that in Caſe the ſaid Gorges Lowther " ſhall at any time hereafter marry or take to " Wife any other Woman or Women, it ſhall " and may be lawful to and for the Lord " Chancellor or Keeper of the Great Seal, for " the time being, upon proper Application to " him or them made, and upon full Proof of " ill Treatment or groſs Neglect of the ſaid " George and Mary Sophia, or either of them, " by the ſaid Gorges, to take the ſaid Children, " or either of them, out of the Care and " Guardianſhip of the ſaid Gorges, and to " appoint a proper Guardian or Guardians for " them, or either of them, with ſuch Mainte- " nance and Support ſuitable to their Family " and Fortune, as to him or them ſhall from " time to time appear reaſonable.

" Provided that nothing herein contained " ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend, to " affect or prejudice the Right and Title of " the ſaid Gorges Lowther or of the ſaid George " and Mary Sophia Lowther, by virtue of and " under the ſaid Deed of Releaſe of the 1ſt " Day of April, 1738; but that the ſaid Deed " of Settlement, ſo far as the ſame relates to " the ſaid Gorges, George and Mary Sophia, be, " and the ſame is hereby confirmed."

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Lord Visc. Hillsborough reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Address to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that they prepared the same, which he read in his Place; and the said Address being afterwards read at the Table, was agreed to by the House, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency
WILLIAM Earl of HARRINGTON,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellency,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament assembled, beg Leave, with Hearts full of Gratitude, to return your Excellency our most sincere Thanks for your prudent and equal Administration, in which your Excellency has manifested the highest Regard and warmest Zeal for the inseparable Interest of his Majesty and this Kingdom.

The Dispatch and Unanimity with which we have carried on the publick Business this Session of Parliament, are speaking Proofs of the high Opinion we had conceived of your Excellency's great Abilities, and of our being convinced, by Experience, how well grounded that Opinion was.

Your Excellency's Regard to our Trade, both before and since your Arrival in this Kingdom, and your Vigilance for its Defence against foreign and domestick Enemies, must always claim our most grateful Acknowledgments; and as we doubt not of your Excellency's being assured, that we are most loyal, dutiful and affectionate Subjects to his Majesty, truly sensible of the great Blessings which we enjoy under his just and mild Government, and ready to lay down our Lives and Fortunes in Support of his Majesty's Person, his Royal Family, and the present happy Establishment, we request your Excellency to represent us to his Majesty in this true Light.

We cannot but esteem it, my Lord, a peculiar Mark of his Majesty's tender Regard and Affection for his Subjects of this Kingdom, that he has been pleased to send so able a Minister to preside over us; and we humbly hope his Majesty will again think us deserving of the same Instance of his Royal Favour.

Resolved, that the said Address be presented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole House.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait on his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this House with their Address to his Excellency.

Upon reading the Orders for the Day,

To theſe Bills, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, in theſe Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

I CANNOT put an End to this Seſſion of Parliament, without expreſſing to you, in the ſtrongeſt Terms, the juſt Senſe I have, as well of your Duty and Loyalty to his Majeſty, as of that remarkable Temper and Unanimity, which have diſtinguiſhed all your Proceedings during the Courſe of it.

The ſeveral good Laws, to which I have given the Royal Aſſent, are at once Proofs of his Majeſty's moſt gracious Attention to your Welfare, and of your Zeal for his Majeſty's Service: And I cannot but be fully perſuaded of their having their deſired Effect, and proving a laſting Advantage to this Kingdom.

You will, I doubt not, carry the ſame Diſpoſitions, which have influenced your Deliberations here, into your reſpective Countries, and exert your utmoſt Endeavours to promote both, by your Example and Authority; a due Submiſſion to the Laws to preſerve the publick Peace, and to diſcourage all Irreligion and Immorality.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I AM commanded by the King, to return you Thanks for the Supplies, which you have ſo chearfully granted for the Support of the Eſtabliſhment.

The Confidence you have repoſed in me, with regard to the Barracks, is a freſh Proof of your Duty to the King: I have repreſented it in that Light to his Majeſty; and do aſſure you, that my only objects in the Execution, ſhall be thoſe, which you yourſelves propoſed, the more convenient Reception of his Majeſty's Forces, and the more effectual Security of this Kingdom.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Approbation of my Endeavours for the publick Service, expreſſed in the Addreſſes of both Houſes, has given me the moſt ſenſible Satisfaction, and deſerves my ſincereſt Acknowledgments.

I ſhould act contrary to my own Conviction, if I did not repreſent the King's Subjects of Ireland to his Majeſty, as a moſt loyal and dutiful People; and to my own Inclinations, if I ſhould not exert myſelf, to the utmoſt, upon all Occaſions, in promoting their Intereſt and Proſperity.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Parliament prorogued.

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 24th Day of May next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 24th Day of May next.

They enter.

And the Houſe of Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

HIS Majeſty, having honoured me with his Commands to meet you again in Parliament, it is with great Pleaſure that I congratulate you on the Re-eſtabliſhment of the publick Tranquillity, and I am perſuaded that you are duly ſenſible of his Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs in procuring the honourable Peace which has been happily concluded ſince the laſt Seſſion, to the manifeſt Advantage of his Subjects of this Kingdom, in common with thoſe of his other Dominions.

In order to contribute to the more effectual ſecuring the Continuance of that ineſtimable Bleſſing, his Majeſty has judged it neceſſary to regulate his Forces in this Kingdom, in ſuch a manner as to be ſpeedily prepared in all Events, to defeat any Attempt which may be made to diſturb our preſent Happineſs.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates to be laid before you, and have a particular Satisfaction in acquainting you, that I have nothing in command from his Majeſty to aſk, but the uſual Supplies.

The Batteries, which have been thought neceſſary for the Defence of the Harbour of Cork, are in conſiderable Forwardneſs; and a new Diſpoſition of the Barracks, for the more convenient Reception of his Majeſty's Troops, and for the publick Security, has been proceeded upon, in purſuance of your Addreſs to me of the laſt Seſſion, with as much Expedition as the nature of that Service would admit; an Account of the Expenſe of each of thoſe Works ſhall likewiſe be laid before you.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE Encouragement lately given to your Linen Manufacture, by the Legiſlature of Great Britain, calls upon you, in the ſtrongeſt manner, to attend to the Advantages of that great Source of national Induſtry and Wealth; and their favourable Diſpoſition to promote the general Welfare of this Kingdom, muſt incline you to cultivate, by all ſuitable Returns, that reciprocal Confidence and Harmony, which will at all times be found eſſentially neceſſary to the Intereſt of Ireland: Every audacious Attempt to create a Jealouſy between the two Kingdoms, and to diſunite the Affections of his Majeſty's common Subjects, ſo cloſely connected by the ſame Civil and Religious Intereſts, muſt excite the higheſt Indignation in all true Lovers of their Country.

You have abundant Reaſon to depend upon the Continuance of his Majeſty's Protection and Favour, and your paſt Conduct leaves no room to doubt, that you will gratefully teſtify your Loyalty and Duty, by repoſing a juſt Confidence in his Majeſty, and exerting a ſteady Zeal for the Security and Honour of his Government.

Duty and Inclination will, upon all Occaſions, equally engage me to concur with you in every Meaſure which may tend to increaſe the Welfare and Proſperity of this Kingdom.

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed: And the Lord Chancellor reported his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table;

Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty:

To teſtify our Joy upon the happy Reeſtabliſhment of the publick Tranquillity, and gratefully to acknowledge it the Effect of his Majeſty's Wiſdom, that we enjoy the ineſtimable Bleſſings of an honourable Peace, which we truſt will be effectually ſecured by his royal Vigilance, and remain a laſting Monument of his Majeſty's paternal Affection to his People.

To acknowledge it to be the moſt acceptable Return to his Majeſty, as well as the beſt Uſe we can make of our preſent Happineſs, to cultivate the Arts of Peace, by a due Attention to encourage Induſtry, and improve our Linen Manufacture, the moſt certain Source of national Wealth and Proſperity.

To expreſs our Satisfaction and Thankfulneſs, on the late Continuance of the Britiſh Bounty upon the Exportation of our coarſe Linens; a juſt Senſe of this favourable Diſpoſition in the Legiſlature of Great Britain, to promote our Welfare, and of the mutual Advantages, which muſt ever ariſe from a good Correſpondence between the two Kingdoms, will ſtrongly bind us to maintain that reciprocal Confidence and Harmony, which are ſo manifeſtly conducive to the Peace and Happineſs of his Majeſty's Government, and ſo eſſentially neceſſary to the Intereſt of Ireland.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we hold ourſelves obliged to reſent, with the utmoſt Indignation and Abhorrence, every Attempt to raiſe groundleſs Jealouſies, and to diſunite the Affections of his Majeſty's common Subjects, whoſe great Felicity it is to be connected together by the ſame Civil and Religious Intereſts.

To give his Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances, that we are ready, on all Occaſions, to demonſtrate our unſhaken Attachment to his Majeſty, by a chearful Concurrence in every Meaſure which can contribute to the Security, Honour and Eaſe of his Reign.

To return our Thanks to his Majeſty, for continuing the Government of this Kingdom to his Excellency the Earl of Harrington, whoſe great Abilities and Inclination to promote his Majeſty's Service and the Welfare of his faithful Subjects, we have happily experienced.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices.

His Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to their Lordſhips' Reſolution of Yeſterday; that they had prepared the ſame accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to embrace this firſt Opportunity of teſtifying our Joy upon the happy Re-eſtabliſhment of the publick Tranquillity and gratefully acknowledge it the Effect of your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs, under the Divine Aſſiſtance, that we enjoy the ineſtimable Bleſſing of an honourable Peace, which we truſt will be effectually ſecured by your royal Vigilance, and remain a laſting Monument of your Majeſty's paternal Affection to your People.

It will be the moſt acceptable Return to your Majeſty, as the beſt Uſe we can make of our preſent Happineſs, to cultivate the Arts of Peace, by a due Attention to encourage Induſtry, and improve our Linen Manufacture, the moſt certain Source of national Wealth and Proſperity.

We reflect with Gratitude on the late Continuance of the Britiſh Bounty upon the Exportation of our coarſe Linens; a juſt Senſe of this favourable Diſpoſition in the Legiſlature of Great Britain to promote our Welfare, and of the mutual Advantages which muſt ever ariſe from a good Correſpondence between the two Kingdoms, will ſtrongly bind us to maintain, by all ſuitable Methods, that reciprocal Confidence and perfect Harmony, which are ſo manifeſtly conducive to the Peace and Safety of your Majeſty's Government, and ſo eſſentially neceſſary to the Intereſt of Ireland.

We hold ourſelves obliged, as Lovers of our Country, to reſent, with the utmoſt Indignation and Abhorrence, every Attempt to raiſe groundleſs Jealouſies between the two Kingdoms, and to diſunite the Affections of your Majeſty's common Subjects, whoſe great Felicity it is to be connected together by the ſame Civil and Religious Intereſts.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are ready, on all Occaſions, to demonſtrate our unſhaken Attachment to your Majeſty, by a chearful Concurrence in every Meaſure which can contribute to the Security, Honour and Eaſe of your Reign.

We eſteem it a great Mark of your royal Favour, that your Majeſty has been pleaſed to continue the Government of this Kingdom to his Excellency the Earl of Harrington: His Abilities and Inclination to promote your Majeſty's Service, and the Welfare of your faithful Subjects, we have happily experienced; and upon his known Candour we rely, for a juſt Repreſentation to your Majeſty of our ever loyal and dutiful Affections.

Reſolved,

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

The Lord Viſc. Limerick reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday; that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency
WILLIAM Earl of HARRINGTON,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg leave to return your Excellency our moſt humble Thanks, for your Speech delivered from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament; and to congratulate your Excellency on your happy Return to this Kingdom, which has given us the greateſt Joy and Satisfaction, as we eſteem it to be a ſignal Inſtance of his Majeſty's paternal Affection for his People of Ireland.

The eminent Abilities and Integrity, with which your Excellency had filled the chief Employments under the Crown, had juſtly raiſed our Hopes and Expectations on your being appointed to this your high Office; nor have our Hopes been vain: For we have ſeen your Excellency maintain the Honour and Intereſt of the Crown with great Dignity, and at the ſame time conſult and promote the Welfare and Happineſs of this Kingdom, with the moſt conſtant Zeal.

The repeated Marks of Protection which your Excellency has been pleaſed to give to the Staple Manufacture of this Country, and the Succeſs attending your generous Endeavours, demand the ſincereſt Returns of Thanks to your Excellency, and of Gratitude to the Britiſh Legiſlature.

We beg Leave to expreſs to your Excellency our moſt dutiful Senſe of his Majeſty's royal Goodneſs and Favour; and to aſſure your Excellency, that we are truly ſenſible of the Happineſs of our Situation, under the Protection of the Crown of Great Britain: That we eſteem the Strength of Great Britain to be our Glory, and that we look upon her true Intereſts, as inſeparably connected with thoſe of this Kingdom.

We think ourſelves, therefore, bound by the moſt ſacred Ties, to cultivate all reciprocal Returns of Confidencc and Affection between the two Kingdoms; and ſhall always be ready to ſuppreſs every audacious Attempt to ſeparate their common Intereſts.

We have nothing now left to wiſh, but that your Excellency may long continue to cement this happy Union between Great Britain and Ireland, ſo beneficial to both, and on which we are ſenſible, that our Peace and Proſperity intirely depend.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Excellency.

Committees

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that all the Lords preſent ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee for Religion; and that all the Lords of this Houſe, who are not named of this Committee, and ſhall come, are to have Voices therein; and have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, in order to their proceeding on any Affair that ſhall come before them.

His Excellency William Earl of Harrington, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, being arrayed in Royal Robes, entered the Houſe with the uſual Ceremonies of Grandeur; the Earl of Clanrickard carrying the Sword of State, and the Earl of Kildare, the Cap of Maintenance; two Noblemen's Sons bearing the Train of the Royal Robe: His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, making his Congé to the Throne, aſcended the ſame, and ſeated himſelf in the Chair of State under the Canopy, all the Lords Spiritual and Temporal ſtanding robed in their Places, uncovered, till their Lordſhips took their Seats.

Commons ſent for: The Lord Chancellor, kneeling, conferred with his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to ſignify to the Commons, that it was his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter. And the Houſe of Commons, with their Speaker, being come, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies, where Mr. Speaker, after a Speech to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, in relation to the Money-Bills, delivered them to the Clerk of the Parliaments, who brought them to the Table, where the Clerk of the Crown read the Titles, as follow, viz.

Royal Aſſent given to two Bills.

1. An Act for granting and continuing to his Majeſty an additional Duty on Beer, Ale, ſtrong Waters, Wine, Tobacco, Hides, and other Goods and Merchandizes herein mentioned; and for prohibiting the Importation of all Gold and Silver Lace, except of the Manufacture of Great Britain.
2. An Act for Payment of the Principal Sums of £70,000 and £58,500, in diſcharge of ſo much of the National Debt; and for granting to his Majeſty an additional Duty on Wine, Silk, Hops, China, Earthen, japann'd or lacquered Ware, and Vinegar; and alſo a Tax of four Shillings in the Pound on all Salaries, Profits of Employments, Fees and Penſions, to be applied to diſcharge the Intereſt of the ſaid Principal Sums, until the ſame ſhall be paid; and alſo to pay an Intereſt of £4 ℔ Cent. ℔ Ann. for the Sum of £250,000, which will remain due after the Payments aforeſaid; and an Intereſt of £4 ℔ Cent. ℔ Ann. for ſuch further Sums as may hereafter be borrowed, purſuant to an Act, paſſed in the 19th Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, and towards the Diſcharge of the ſaid Principal Sum of £250,000.

To theſe Bills the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, ſeverally, in theſe Words, viz.

" Le Roy remercie ſes bons Sujets, accepte leur
" Benevolence, et ainſi le veult."

Then his Excellency was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

The Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that he had attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the Reſolution of this Houſe of the 15th Inſt. and his Excellency was pleaſed to make this Anſwer:

" My Lords,

Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

" I WILL forthwith conſider what Meaſures " may be moſt expedient, and by GOD's Aſſiſt- " ance effectual, to ſecure this Kingdom from " the Diſtemper which rages ſo fatally amongſt " the Horned Cattle in Great Britain and other " Parts; and will give the ſtricteſt Orders for " carrying them into Execution: And your " Lordſhips may be aſſured, I ſhall think my- " ſelf happy, if any Endeavours of mine can " contribute to ſo important an End."

The Lord Biſhop of Clonfert reported from the Committee of the whole Houſe, to whom the Conſideration of Heads of a Bill to provide for Begging Children, and for the better regulation of Charity-Schools, was committed; that they had gone through the ſaid Heads of a Bill, Paragraph by Paragraph, and had agreed thereunto, with ſeveral Amendments, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame were again read, and agreed to by the Houſe.

Ordered, that the ſaid Heads of a Bill be read a third time on Friday Morning next.

Heads of Marriage-Bill

His Grace the Lord Primate preſented to the Houſe, Heads of a Bill for the explaining and making more effectual an Act, intitled, An Act for the more effectual preventing clandeſtine Marriages; which were received, and read a firſt and ſecond time.

committed.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall be put into a Committee on Friday Morning, next, to take the ſaid Heads of a Bill into Conſideration.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that the Judges, according to Order, had prepared a Report of what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, which he preſented to the Houſe, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

Report on temporary Laws, &c.

IN obedience to your Lordſhips' Order, whereby we are to inquire what Laws are lately expired, or near expiring, we have examined the ſeveral temporary Laws lately expired, or near expiring, and find no other Acts lately expired, or near expiring, except

An Act of the 1ſt Seſſion in the 2d of Queen Anne, C. 10, for the Exchange of Glebes, &c. to be in Force for 21 Years, and was continued by the 10th George I. C. 4. to the 21ſt September, 1731, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and by the 5th George II. C. 6, for 21 Years more.

An Act of the 7th Gul. III. C. 21, for the better ſuppreſſing Tories, Robbers and Rapparees, and for preventing Robberies, Burglaries and other heinous Crimes, to continue for 3 Years, and to the End of the 1ſt Seſſion of the next Parliament, after the ſaid 3 Years; and an Act of the 9th Gul. C. 34, to ſupply the Defect, and for the better Execution of an Act, paſſed this preſent Seſſion of Parliament intitled, An Act for the better ſuppreſſing Tories and Rapparees, &c. ut ſupra. This Act, and the former Act, to continue for 7 Years, from 6th November, 1697, and to the End of the next Seſſion; both thoſe Acts are by the 1ſt Seſſion of the 2d of Queen Anne, C. 13, continued for 7 Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and by the 6th George I. C. 12, continued for 7 Years, from the laſt Day of that Seſſion of Parliament, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion. By the 12th George I. C. 6, thoſe Acts, as altered and amended, are continued for 11 Years, from the 25th of December, 1726, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and by the 7th George II. C. 6, they are continued to the 25th March, 1757, and to the End of the next Seſſion. By the 4th George I. C. 9, the Act of the 9th of King William, which gives a Pardon to any who convicts two Tories, is altered, and gives it to any who convicts one.

Note: This Law is not temporary; and yet the Act of the 6th George I. C. 12, continues so much of the Act of the 4th, in relation to that Matter. Quære de eo.

An Act of the 2d George I. C. 9, to make the Militia of this Kingdom more useful, to continue until 24th June, 1718, continued by 4th George I. C. 9, for two Years, and by 8th George I. C. 6, for two Years, from 25th December, 1721; and by the 10th George I. C. 4, for two Years, from 25th December, 1723; and it is, in like Manner, continued by other Acts; and by the 11th George II. C. 13, it is continued to the 29th September, 1744, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament; and by the 19th George II. C. 9, it is amended; and that Act and the said Act of the 19th of George II. C. 9, are to continue for two Years, and to the End of the then next Session: The said Act of the 2d George I. C. 9, and of the 19th George II. C. 9, are, by the 21st George II. C. 9, continued for two Years, and to the End of the next Session.

An Act of the 2d George I. C. 10, to restrain Papists from being Constables, &c. for three Years, and to the End of the next Session: We have not met with any Act which continues it.

An Act of the 6th George I. C. 2, to prevent the ingrossing and regrating of Coals, for seven Years, from the 1st of November, 1714, and to the End of the next Session: We have not met with any Act which continues it; but this Act is by 21st George II. C. 7, revived and continued for seven Years, from the 1st Day of May, 1748, and to the End of the then next Session.

An Act of the 6th George I. C. 8, to prevent the running of Goods, &c. continued by 8th George I. C. 6, for two Years, from 25th December, 1721; and by the 10th George I. C. 4, for seven Years; and by the 3d George II. C. 5, to the 25th March, 1730, and by the 9th George II. C. 6, for two Years; and by the 11th George II. C. 3, for two Years; and by the 15th George II. C. 3, for two Years; and by the 17th George II. C. 7, for two Years, from the Expiration of that and other Acts, continued by the 19th George II. C. 4, for two Years; and by 21st George II. C. 4, for two Years, from the Expiration of that and other Acts therein mentioned.

An Act of the 6th George II. C. 10, for the better regulating the Parish Watches; and amending the High-ways in this Kingdom; and for preventing the Misapplication of Publick Money. This Act and all and every Clause, Article and Proviso therein contained, so far as the same relates to any County, County of City, Boroughs, Towns-Corporate, Parishes, and other Places in the several Counties in this Kingdom, other than what relates to and may concern the Parish Watches of the City of Dublin, and the Liberties of the said City, was continued for two Years, from 25th March, 1722, and from thence to the End of the next Session of Parliament; but the 8th George I. C. 10, amends the said Part which relates to the City of Dublin; and the 10th George I. C. 3, makes the Act of the 6th of George I. C. 10, as to what relates to all the Counties in the Kingdom, except Dublin, perpetual; and continues the Act of the 8th George I. C. 10, as to what relates to the City of Dublin, for seven Years, from the 1st of March, 1723; and the 3d George II. C. 5, continues it to the 25th March, 1737; and the 11th George II. C. 13, continues it to the 29th September 1744, and to the End of next Session; and 19th George II. C. 15, continues it to the 29th September, 1746, and to the End of the then next Session of Parliament; and 21st George II. C. 7, continues it to the 29th of September, 1749, and to the End of the then next Session.

An Act of the 6th George I. C. 11, for the better securing the Rights of Advowsons, &c. for seven Years, and to the End of the next Session.

We have not met with any Act which continues it.

Note: That the Act of the 6th George I. C. 11, is expired, but there is an Act of 1st George II. C. 23, to the same Purpose with that of the 6th George I. C. 11, which is made perpetual by an Act of 13th George II. C. 4.

An Act of the 8th George I. C. 7, for Amendment of the Law in relation to Butter-Casks, &c. was continued and amended by an Act of the 10th of George I. and that Act was explained and amended by an Act of the 12th George I. and was afterwards by 5th George II. C. 6, continued for seven Years, from the End of that Session, and from thence to the End of the then next Session; and by the 13th George II. C. 12, to the 25th March, 1747, and to the End of the then next Session: The said several Acts, with several Alterations and Amendments, were by the 21st George II. C. 7, continued till 29th September, 1769, and to the End of the next Session after.

Note: The Alteration made by the said Act of 21st George II. were the appointing Weigh-Masters for Cork, a Penalty for having false Brands for Butter-Casks, and to oblige all Butter to be brought to the Weigh-Houses, &c. And this Act obliges all Hides and Calves-Skins to be sold by Weight, &c. and directs how salted Hides are to be sold.

An Act of the 10th George I. C. 4. By this Act so much of the Act of the 4th George I. for vesting in his Majesty the Lands whereon the Barracks are built, as far as relates to the Power to issue Commissions, &c. continued from 25th December, 1724, for seven Years, and to the End of the next Session; and by this Act the Licenses for Coaches, &c. are continued from the 1st May, 1725, until the End of the next Session after: This Act is continued by the 3d George II. C. 5, till the 25th December, 1737, and by the 11th George II. C. 13, to the 24th June, 1758.

Note: That the said Act of the 11th George II. C. 13, likewise contains a Clause relating relating to Hoſpitals for ſick Soldiers, which paſſed in an Act of the 3d George II. C. 5, to the 24th June, 1758. The 21ſt George II. C. 9, impowers Tenants for Life, Years, Infants, &c. to ſell Lands for to erect new Barracks on, and is to continue to the 24th June, 1758.

An Act of the 10th George I. C. 10, for regulating Abuſes in the buying and ſelling of Cattle, was for two Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and was, by 12th George I. C. 6, continued to the 1ſt December, 1728, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and by 11th George II. C. 13, to the 29th September, 1744; and by the 19th George II. C. 15, to the 29th September, 1746, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion; and by 21ſt George II. C. 7, to the 29th September, 1749, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament.

An Act of the 12th George I. C. 2, to prevent the fraudulent and clandeſtine Importation of Goods, to continue to the 25th March, 1728; continued by 1ſt George II. C. 17, to the 25th March, 1730, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and by the 3d George II. C. 5, to the 25th March, 1737; and by the 11th George II. C. 3, for two Years; and by the 13th George II. C. 3, for two Years; and by 15th George II. C. 3, for two Years; and by 17th George II. C. 7, for two Years, and to the End of the next enſuing Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 19th George II. C. 4, for two Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 21ſt George II. C. 4, for two Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament.

An Act of the 12th George I. C. 6, continues the Act of the 6th George I. for enlarging the Time to all Perſons in Offices, &c. for taking the Oaths, to the 1ſt Auguſt, 1726: And there has been an Act every Seſſion ſince for that Purpoſe; and by 21ſt George II. C. 5, it is enlarged to the 25th March, 1749.

An Act of the 1ſt George II. C. 3, for the more ſpeedy and effectual Repair of Bridges, for three Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion, continued by 5th George II. C. 6, for ſeven Years; and by 13th George II. C. 4, to the 25th March, 1757.

An Act of the 1ſt George II. C. 12, for the more eaſy Recovery of Tythes, &c. for three Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion; continued by 5th George II. C. 6, for two Years; and by 7th George II. C. 7, to the 25th March, 1740; and by 13th George II. C. 4, for four Years from ſaid 25th March, 1740; and by 15th George II. C 6, for eleven Years, from the 25th March, 1742.

An Act of the 1ſt George II. C. 16, for regulating the Price and Aſſize of Bread and Markets for two Years, from 1ſt June, 1728, and to the End of the next Seſſion, continued by 3d George II. C. 5, to the 25th March, 1751, and to the End of the next Seſſion.

An Act of the 3d George II. C. 3, for the Encouragement of Tillage, &c. gives the Duties in this Act for twenty-one Years, from 25th March, 1730.

An Act of the 3d George II. C. 4, for the more effectual preventing and further Puniſhment of Forgery, &c. for three Years, from the 1ſt May, 1730, and to the End of the next Seſſion, continued by the 2d George II. C. 7, to the 25th March, 1740; and by the 9th of George II. C. 6, to the 25th March, 1757, ſo far as it relates to the tranſporting of Felons, &c. and by the 13th George II. C. 4, the intire Act continued to 25th March, 1757.

An Act of the 3d George II. C. 7, for the better Diſcovery of Judgments, &c. for two Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion, continued by 5th George II. C. 6, for ſeven Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and by 15th George II. C. 6, for eleven Years, from 25th March, 1748.

An Act of the 3d George II. C. 9, for explaining and amending ſeveral Statutes for prohibiting Under-Sheriffs and Sheriffs' Clerks from officiating as Sub-Sheriffs, &c. as much of that Act as relates to the preferring of any Bill for Diſcovery of any Offence againſt that Act, or againſt an Act of the 10th Queen Anne, intitled, An Act for explaining and amending ſeveral Statutes for prohibiting Under-Sheriffs, &c. and obliging Perſons to anſwer the ſame, &c. to be in Force to the 1ſt March, 1733, continued by 7th George II. C. 7, to the 25th March, 1740, and is revived and continued for two Years, from 25th March, 1746, and to the End of the then next Seſſion, by 19th Geo. II. C. 15; and is continued for two Years longer, by the 21ſt George II. C. 7, and to the End of the next Seſſion. Note: There is, we believe, a Miſtake in the Act of the 19th George II. C 15, for that Act ſays, That the Act of the 3d George II. C. 9, was continued by an Act, made the 17th George II. which ſhould have been the 7th and not the 17th.

An Act of the 1ſt George II. C. 6, for the more effectual preventing ſeveral Frauds and Abuſes committed in his Majeſty's Cuſtoms and Exciſe, and for ſettling the Rates of certain Goods and Merchandizes, not particularly valued in the Book of Rates; and the Act of the 3d George II. C. 3, for the better receiving and collecting his Majeſty's Revenue, were made to continue till the 25th Day of March, 1733, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, ſuch Parts of the ſaid Acts as are not altered or repealed by an Act, made in the 3d Year of George II. intitled, An Act for the Encouragement of Tillage, &c. and by an Act made in the 7th George II. C. 3, are by the ſaid 7th George II. C. 3, continued until the 25th March, 1735, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and ſuch Parts of the ſaid Act of the 7th George II. C. 3. as are not altered by an Act of the 11th George II. C. 3, are continued by 19th George II. C. 4; and by 21ſt George II. C. 4, for two Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and ſuch Parts of the 9th Geo. II. C. 6, as are not altered or repealed by the 21ſt George II. C 4, are by the ſaid Act of the 21ſt

George II. C. 4, continued for two Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament; and ſuch Parts of the 1ſt George II. C. 6, as are not altered or repealed by the 3d George II. C. 3, and ſuch Parts of the 5th George II. C. 3, as are not altered or repealed by 7th George II. C. 3, and ſuch Parts of the 11th George II. C. 3, as are not altered by the 13th George II. C. 3, and ſuch Parts of the ſaid 13th George II. C. 3, as are not altered by the 15th George II. C. 3, and the ſaid Act of the 15th George II. C. 3, and of the 17th George II. C. 7, and of the 19th George II. C. 4, are by the 21ſt George II. C. 4, continued for two Years, from the reſpective Expirations of the ſaid ſeveral Acts, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion: And the new enacting Parts of the ſaid Act of 21ſt George II. C. 4, are to continue for two Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion.

An Act of the 5th George II. C. 14, grants Three-pence in the Pound for the Work-Houſe for twenty-one Years, from 1ſt May, 1728, and to the End of the next Seſſion after ſaid twenty-one Years.

An Act of the 7th George II. C. 7, fol. 78, revives and continues the Act of the 3d of George II. which enabled his Majeſty to purchaſe the Houſes adjoining the Parliament-Houſe, until the 25th March, 1735.

An Act of the 7th George II. C. 9, to prevent Frauds in Bay-Yarn to the 1ſt Auguſt, 1736, and to the End of the next Seſſion, continued by 11th George II. C. 13, to the 1ſt November, 1741, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and by 13th George II. C. 4, to the 25th March, 1757, and to the End of the next Seſſion.

An Act of the 7th George II. C. 15, for buying and ſelling Corn, &c. by Weight, for one Year, from 29th September, 1734, and the 11th George II. C. 11, for buying and ſelling Corn by Weight, for ſeven Years, from 1ſt Auguſt, 1738, and to the End of the next Seſſion, ſo much of that Act as is not altered by the Act of the 19th George II. C. 17, is by the ſaid Act of the 19th George II. continued for two Years from 25th March, 1746, and to the End of the next Seſſion. Note, That the Act of the 19th George II. C. 17, is perpetual.

Prayers.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

Petition of Dean and Chapter of Chriſt-Church.

A Petition of the Right Rev. Father in God, Thomas Lord Biſhop of Kildare, Dean of the Cathedral Church of the Holy Trinity Dublin, commonly called Chriſt-Church, and the Rev. the Chapter of the ſame, ſetting forth, That the Pariſh of St. Mary's in the Suburbs of Dublin, by the great Increaſe of Buildings, is become ſo large that many of the Inhabitants thereof cannot, for want of Room in the Pariſh-Church, repair thereto for Divine Service.

That the Petitioners, the true and undoubted Patrons of ſaid Church, being capitularly aſſembled, and taking the Spiritual Wants and Inconveniencies of ſaid Pariſhioners into ſerious Conſideration, upon the Death of the Rev. Dean Croſs, late Incumbent thereof, were of Opinion, that a Part ſhould be taken off from the Eaſt End of the ſaid Pariſh, not exceeding £120, in yearly Value, and that the ſame be erected into a ſeparate Pariſh, by the Name of the Pariſh or Rectory of St. Thomas, with a Rector having Cure of Souls, and with other Parochial Officers, in the uſual Manner; the Right of Patronage of ſuch Pariſh or Rectory being reſerved to the ſaid Dean and Chapter, and their Succeſſors for ever.

That the Petitioners are adviſed, the ſaid Diviſion cannot be made otherwiſe than by Act of Parliament.

That his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Dublin and the Rev. Mr. William Fletcher, preſent Incumbent of the ſaid Pariſh of St. Mary's, have conſented and do concur with the ſaid Dean and Chapter, that the new-erected Pariſh be ſeparated from the ſaid Pariſh of St. Mary's:

And praying Leave of their Lordſhips, that Heads of a Bill may be brought in for the Purpoſes therein mentioned; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Order thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that Leave be given to bring in Heads of a Bill, according to the Prayer of the ſaid Petition.

Heads of Bill for dividing St. Mary's Pariſh.

The Lord Biſhop of Clogher preſented to the Houſe, Heads of a Bill for dividing the Pariſh of St. Mary within the City and Suburbs of Dublin into two diſtinct Pariſhes; which were received, and read a firſt and ſecond time.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Heads of a Bill be committed to a ſelect Committee, and that the Lord Biſhop of Clogher, and all the Lords preſent, be the ſaid Committee; whoſe Lordſhips are to inquire whether all Perſons concerned in the Conſequence of the ſaid Heads of a Bill have conſented thereto; and alſo ſhall have Power to ſend for Perſons, Papers and Records, in order to their proceeding therein; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, ſhall have Voices therein; and two of the Judges to aſſiſt.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet on Wedneſday Morning next, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Petition of John Evans, Eſq;

A Petition of the Hon. John Evans of Bullgadin in the Co. Limerick, Eſq; ſetting forth, that the Right Hon. George late Lord Baron of Carbery, the Petitioner's Father, and the Right Hon. George now Lord Baron of Carbery, the Petitioner's Brother, joined in levying Fines and ſuffering Recoveries of the Lands of Bullgadin, Edy, Killmacdonoghduffe, Banemore, Culleen otherwiſe Civilleen otherwiſe Cuilibeen, Moneroe, Ballyntobber, Gortingrady, Moher, Gortmore, Kniligorman and Iniſhkean in the Co. Limerick, and of the Lands of Ballyne in the Co. Kerry, and alſo joined in ſuffering a Recovery of the Lands of Gormanſtown, Ballenkem, Tankardſtown, Ballynamona, Ballinvohir, Garranſailbrine and Ballygadin in the ſaid County Limerick, and joined in the Execution of a Deed or Deeds, declaring the Uſes of ſaid Fines and Recoveries, whereby the Fee of ſaid Lands were were veſted or agreed to be veſted in the ſaid late Lord Carbery; and the now Lord Carbery did, as the Petitioner is informed, covenant to make ſuch further Aſſurances as ſhould be required.

That by Deeds of Leaſe and Releaſe, dated the 2d and 3d Days of June, 1741, made between the ſaid late Lord and the Petitioner, and other Parties therein mentioned, on the Petitioner's Marriage with Grace Freke, in Conſideration of £5000, the Marriage-Portion of ſaid Grace, the ſaid late Lord ſettled all ſaid Lands on the Petitioner for Life, with Remainder to the firſt and every other Son of the Petitioner in Tail-Male, and provided a Jointure of £500 a Year for the Petitioner's ſaid Wife, and a Sum of £5000 for the younger Children of ſaid Marriage, charged upon the ſaid Lands; in which Settlement there is a Covenant, whereby the ſaid late Lord Carbery bound himſelf, his Heirs, Executors and Adminiſtrators to aſſure unto the Truſtees in ſaid Settlement, and for the Uſes thereof, an indefeazable Eſtate of Inheritance, free from all Incumbrances.

That the Petitioner's Wife is now living, and the Petitioner hath Iſſue of ſaid Marriage five Sons and one Daughter, alſo living.

That the ſaid late Lord was, at the time of executing the ſaid Settlement, greatly indebted to ſundry Perſons, by Bonds, Judgments and Mortgages, to the Amount of £1200 and upwards, which is ſtill due, and as the Petitioner is adviſed, affect, and are a Lien upon the ſaid Lands, ſo ſettled as aforeſaid on the Petitioner's Marriage.

That the ſaid late Lord, by his Laſt Will, deviſed a real Eſtate of the Value of £30,000 and upwards to Truſtees and their Heirs, upon Truſt, that they ſhould grant the ſame, or any Part thereof, to ſuch Perſon or Perſons for ſuch Eſtates, to ſuch Uſes, upon ſuch Truſts, and for ſuch Purpoſes as the ſaid George now Lord Carbery ſhould, by any Deed or Writing, appoint; and that they ſhould receive the Iſſues and Profits thereof, and pay the ſame over to the ſaid George now Lord Carbery, his Heirs and Aſſigns, and appointed him ſole Executor of ſaid Will, whereby he poſſeſſed himſelf of all the ſaid late Lord's perſonal Eſtate; and the Petitioner is adviſed, that the ſaid real and perſonal Eſtate is chargeable with the ſaid late Lord's Debts, and ſubject to all the Covenants contained in ſaid Deeds, declaring the Uſes of ſaid Fines and Recoveries, and the Covenants in the Petitioner's Settlement.

That the ſaid Lands of Ballygadin, Edy and Ballenkem, Part of the ſaid Lands ſo ſettled on the Petitioner, were, at the time of ſaid Settlement, mortgaged by the ſaid late Lord for £1000 Principal Money, carrying Intereſt at £8 by the £100 yearly: That ſaid Mortgage, by meſne Aſſignments, is veſted in Jonas Devonſhire of the City of Cork, Merchant, and the Intereſt and Principal due on ſaid Mortgage, amount to £1420 and upwards.

That the Petitioner became bound with the ſaid late Lord by Bond, dated the 2d Day of April, 1741, for the Sum of £507 : 17*s*. 0*d*. to Mr. George Hodges, and that the ſame and an Arrear of Intereſt is ſtill due and is the proper Debt of the ſaid late Lord, and the Petitioner, in the Life-time of the ſaid late Lord Carbery, lent the ſaid George now Lord Carbery £1287 : 1*s*. 5½*d*. which with the Intereſt amounts at this time to £1673 and upwards.

That the ſaid George now Lord Carbery, his Agent or ſome Perſon in Truſt for him, or for his Uſe, has in his Poſſeſſion or Power the Deed or Deeds declaring the Uſes of the ſaid ſeveral Fines and Recoveries, levied and ſuffered off the ſaid Lands ſo ſettled on the Petitioner's Marriage, and though the Petitioner has applied to the ſaid George now Lord Carbery for the ſame or atteſted Copies thereof, yet his Lordſhip has refuſed to comply with the Petitioner's Requeſt.

That the Petitioner hath not in his Power or Cuſtody any Copy or Counterpart of any of the ſaid Deeds, declaring the Uſes of the ſaid ſeveral Fines and Recoveries; and is adviſed his Title to ſaid Lands entirely depends on the ſaid Deeds, and on the due Execution of the ſaid Fines and Recoveries, ſome of which the Petitioner is adviſed are defective; and that the Petitioner cannot make out a Title to his ſaid Eſtate, if the ſaid Deeds are not produced, and that the Petitioner does not compel the ſaid George now Lord Carbery, to a ſpecific Execution of the Covenants in the ſaid Deed or Deeds contained, for further Aſſurance of the ſaid Lands during his Lordſhip's Life.

That the Petitioner has expected the ſaid George now Lord Carbery to diſcharge the Debt to the ſaid Jonas Devonſhire, and the ſaid Debt due to the ſaid George Hodges, which he has refuſed to do; and with reſpect to the Debt due to the Petitioner, his Lordſhip hath put off the Payment thereof by Delays, which the Petitioner's Circumſtances cannot bear.

That the ſaid George now Lord Carbery is only Tenant for Life of all his Eſtate, ſave ſuch as is deviſed as aforeſaid, and notwithſtanding the apparent Neceſſity the Petitioner is under of commencing a Suit, in order to have the ſaid ſeveral Matters cleared up and adjuſted in the Life-time of the ſaid Lord Carbery, the Petitioner is afraid to commence or proſecute any Suit againſt him, without their Lordſhips' Permiſſion, leſt, by ſo doing, he ſhould incur the Diſpleaſure of the Houſe:

And praying their Lordſhips to grant the Petitioner ſuch Relief as to their Lordſhips ſhould ſeem meet, ſo as the Petitioner may be at Liberty to commence and proſecute ſuch Suit or Suits as he ſhall be adviſed, are neceſſary in the Premiſes, againſt the ſaid Lord Baron of Carbery, in ſuch Manner as not to incur the Diſpleaſure of the Houſe; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Baron Carbery do attend in his Place in this Houſe, on the firſt Monday after the Receſs. Lord Carbery to attend.

Report on Temporary Laws.

The Lord Viſc. Maſſarene reported from the Lords' Committees, to whom the Conſideration of the Report from the Judges of what Laws are lately expired or near expiring was referred; that they had come to the following Reſolutions, viz.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Act of the 2d of Queen Anne, intitled, An Act for the Exchange of Glebes belonging to Churches in this Kingdom, which was to be in Force for 21 Years, and by the 10th of George I. C. 4, was revived and continued to the 1ſt of September, 1731, and to the End of the next Seſſion, and by the 5th George II. C. 6, was continued for 21 Years, from the End of that Seſſion of Parliament, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, after the Expiration of ſaid 21 Yeats, ought to be continued for four Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Act of the 2d of George I. C. 9, intitled, An Act to make the Militia of this Kingdom more uſeful, which was by ſeveral Acts continued to the 19th George II. and by an Act made that Year, C. 9, is amended, and both the ſaid Acts are to continue for two Years; and they are likewiſe continued for two Years by 21ſt George II. C. 7, and to the End of the next Seſſion, ought to be continued for four Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Act of the 6th of Geo. II. C 10, for the better regulating the Pariſh-Watches and amending the High-ways in this Kingdom, and for preventing the Miſapplication of publick Money, this Act and all and every Clauſe, Article and Proviſoe therein contained, ſo far as it relates to any County, Counties of Cities, Boroughs, Towns Corporate, Pariſhes and other Places in the ſeveral Counties in this Kingdom, other than what relates to and may concern the Pariſh-Watches of the City of Dublin and Liberties of the ſaid City, which was continued for two Years, from the 25th March, 1722, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, by the 8th of George I. C. 10; and that Act amends the Part which relates to the City of Dublin, by impowering the Pariſhioners to elect Directors of the Watch, &c. and the 10th George I. C. 3, makes the Act of the 6th Geo. I. C. 10, as to what relates to all the Counties in the Kingdom, except Dublin, perpetual; and continues the Act of 8th George I. C. 10, as to what relates to Dublin, for ſeven Years, and is afterwards continued by ſeveral Statutes; and the 21ſt George II. C. 7, continues to the 29th September, 1749, and to the End of the next Seſſion, ought to be continued for four Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Act of the 10th George I. C. 15, for regulating Abuſes in buying and ſelling of Cattle, which was for two Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and by ſeveral Statutes afterwards continued,; and by the 21ſt George II. C. 7, was continued to the 29th September, 1749, and to the End of the next Seſſion, ought to be continued for four Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Act of 1ſt George II. C. 6, for regulating the Price and Aſſize of Bread and Markets, which was for two Years, from 1ſt June, 1728, and by the 3d George II. C. 5, was continued to the 25th March, 1751, and to the End of the next Seſſion, ought to be continued for four Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Act of the 3d Geo. II. C. 9, which explains and amends ſeveral Statutes for prohibiting Under-Sheriffs and Sheriffs' Clerks from officiating as Sub-Sheriffs for more than one Year, &c. ſo much of that Act as relates to the preferring any Bill of Diſcovery of any Offence againſt that Act, or againſt an Act of the 10th Anne, which was to be in Force to the 1ſt March, 1733, is continued by ſeveral Statutes; and by 21ſt George II. C. 7, for two Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion, ought to be continued for four Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

Reſolved, that it is the Opinion of this Committee, that the Act of the 17th George II. C. 10, to prevent burning of Land, and for deſtroying of Vermin, which was for two Years, and afterwards continued for two Years, and by 21ſt George II. C. 7, the Part which relates to deſtroying Vermin (except Rooks and Herons) was continued to the 29th September, 1749, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and the other Part was continued to 29th September, 1760; that Part relating to Vermin, ought to be continued for four Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

To which Reſolutions, the Queſtion being ſeverally put, the Houſe did agree.

Petition of William Rochfort, Eſq;

A Petition of William Rochfort of the City of Dublin, Eſq; ſetting forth, that the Right Hon. Robert Rochfort, Eſq; late Lord Chief Baron of his Majeſty's Court of Exchequer in Ireland, deceaſed, the Petitioner's Grandfather, purchaſed from Peter Hughes, Eſq; deceaſed, the Fee and Inheritance of the Lands of Treaghmore, being a Sub-Denomination of the Lands of Mill Caſtle in the Co. Weſtmeath, ſubject to a Mortgage, in Fee, for four Hundred and fifty Pounds to Grace Spencer, deceaſed, and afterwards demiſed ſaid Lands for a long Term of Years to Charles Pollard Hampſon, Eſq; deceaſed.

That the ſaid Lord Chief Baron Rochfort, being ſeized in Fee of the Equity of Redemption of ſaid Lands, and ſeized of a conſiderable real and perſonal Eſtate, on the 3d of May, 1726, duly made and publiſhed his Laſt Will and Teſtament, in Writing, and thereby deviſed to his then Wife, during her Life, all ſuch Lands as he was ſeized and poſſeſſed of in the Co. Weſtmeath (except as by ſaid Will is excepted) and by the ſaid Will directed, that the Intereſt of the Money he owed Mrs. Grace Spencer, and which was then chargeable on the Lands which Mr. Hampſon held from him, him, ſhould be paid to her by his Son George Rochfort, out of an Eſtate in the Co. Meath, which he deviſed to his ſaid Son, and declared his Intention to be, that his ſaid Wife ſhould enjoy ſaid Lands in the Co. Weſtmeath, to which ſaid Hampſon was Tenant, free from ſaid Debt, and deviſed the Reſidue of his perſonal Eſtate to his ſaid Son, whom he appointed his ſole Executor.

That the ſaid Lord Chief Baron Rochfort died in the Year 1727, and his ſaid Wife ſurvived him ſeveral Years, and during her Life enjoyed ſaid Lands, and his ſaid Son George duly paid the Intereſt of ſaid Mortgage, but neglected to pay off the Principal Sum; and on the 5th Day of April, 1730, he duly made and publiſhed his Laſt Will and Teſtament, in Writing, and having then four Sons, namely, Robert now Lord Baron of Bellfield his eldeſt Son, and Arthur, George, and the Petitioner his younger Sons, he by ſaid Will, deviſed ſaid Lands of Treaghmore to Truſtees and their Heirs, to the Uſe of the Petitioner, his Heirs and Aſſigns, from and immediately after the Petitioner ſhould attain the Age of Twenty-five Years, and until the Petitioner's Brothers, Arthur and George, ſhould reſpectively attain the Age of Twenty-five Years; in Truſt, that the ſaid Truſtees, and the Survivors of them, ſhould pay and apply the Iſſues and Profits of ſaid Premiſes, amongſt other Lands therein mentioned, (over and above what ſhould be paid thereout to them reſpectively for their Maintenance, until they ſhould reſpectively attain their Age of Twenty-five Years) to and among his ſaid younger Sons, and three Daughters therein named; and deviſed to his ſaid eldeſt Son all the Reſidue of his real and perſonal Eſtates, and appointed his ſaid eldeſt Son and his Brother John Rochfort, Executors, and ſoon after died.

That the ſaid Lord Bellfield, by virtue of ſaid Will, poſſeſſed himſelf of his real and perſonal Eſtate, which was very conſiderable, and that the Proviſion made for the Petitioner, by the Will of his ſaid Father, was very ſmall when compared with the Fortune which he died poſſeſſed of; notwithſtanding which, after his Death, the ſaid Lord Bellfield refuſed to diſcharge the ſaid Mortgage affecting ſaid Lands of Treaghmore, which was ſo deviſed to the Petitioner, or even to pay the Intereſt thereof; and the Petitioner being then a Minor, the Rev. Kane Percival, Aſſignee of ſaid Mortgage, in the Year 1739, obtained a Decree for a Foreclоſure of the Equity of Redemption of ſaid mortgaged Premiſes, and for a Sale of ſaid Lands of Treaghmore, to ſatisfy ſaid Debt: And the Petitioner's Guardians, to prevent ſuch Sale, paid the Intereſt of ſaid Debt, until the Year 1741, when the Petitioner attained the Age of twenty-one Years.

That ſoon after, the Petitioner obtained a Commiſſion in his Majeſty's Land-Service, and was commanded to England, where he reſided till the Month of June, 1746, during which time he was unable to attend his Affairs in this Kingdom, and paid the Intereſt of ſaid Mortgage-Debt, to prevent ſuch Sale, as aforeſaid; but ſoon after his Return to this Kingdom, being adviſed by Counſel, that as well by virtue of the Will of his ſaid Father, as of his Grandfather, the ſaid Mortgage-Debt ought to be paid out of the perſonal Aſſets of his ſaid Grandfather or Father, the Petitioner, by Letter and otherwiſe, ſoon afterwards applied to ſaid Lord Bellfield, as Executor and Reſiduary-Legatee of Petitioner's Father, to diſcharge ſaid Debt, which he making a Difficulty of doing, the Petitioner was adviſed to lay a State of his Caſe before a Gentleman, eminent at the Bar, who was uſually employed by his Lordſhip, and who on the 10th of December, 1747, gave his Opinion in favour of the Petitioner; whereupon his Lordſhip declared he would ſubmit the ſaid Diſpute to a Reference, but that he would not be hurried, and muſt have Time to look over his Papers.

That the Petitioner, in the Month of April, 1743, intermarried with Henrietta Ramſay, Daughter of Colonel John Ramſay deceaſed, and by indented Articles of Agreement, previous to ſaid Intermarriage, which Articles were ſoon after regiſtered, the Petitioner, in Conſideration of ſaid then intended Marriage, and of ſaid Henrietta's Marriage-Portion, covenanted to ſettle ſaid Lands of Treaghmore, after Petitioner's Death, on the ſaid Henrietta, and the Iſſue of ſaid Marriage; and the Petitioner's ſaid Wife is ſtill living, and hath Iſſue by her, now living, five Children.

That the Petitioner, depending on his Lordſhip's Promiſe to refer ſaid Diſpute, has been delayed above two Years, and ſaid Kane Percival threatens to ſell ſaid Lands by virtue of ſaid Decree, unleſs he is immediately paid his Principal, Intereſt and Coſts, due on ſaid Mortgage and Decree; and his Lordſhip has lately declared, that he will not ſubmit to any Reference: By means whereof the Petitioner's ſaid Wife and Children are in Danger of loſing the Benefit of the aforeſaid Proviſion, and the Petitioner is put under the Neceſſity of inſtituting a Suit againſt his Lordſhip; but the Petitioner is afraid to proſecute ſuch Suit, without their Lordſhips' Permiſſion, leſt by ſo doing, he ſhould incur their Lordſhips' Diſpleaſure:

And praying their Lordſhips to grant to the Petitioner ſuch Relief as to their Lordſhips ſhould ſeem meet, ſo as the Petitioner may be at Liberty to commence and proſecute ſuch Suit or Suits, as he ſhall be adviſed are neceſſary in the Premiſes, againſt the ſaid Lord Baron of Bellfield, in ſuch Manner as not to incur the Diſpleaſure of this Hon. Houſe; was preſented to the Houſe, and received and read:

And a Debate ariſing thereupon; Debate thereon.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that Leave be given to withdraw the ſaid Petition.

And the ſaid Petition was accordingly withdrawn.

Petition of Lord Gowran

A Petition of John Lord Baron of Gowran ſetting forth, that on the 22d Day of January, laſt, a Petition of Capt. James Fitzpatrick, claiming the Title of Lord Baron of Upper-Oſſory, was received and read in this moſt Hon. Houſe.

That the Petitioner is deſcended from Barnaby Fitzpatrick, who in the 23d Year of King Henry VIII. was by Patent, created Lord Baron of Upper-Oſſory, to hold to him and the Heirs-Male of his Body; and has great Reaſon to think that he is the next Heir-Male of the ſaid Barnaby; but not knowing otherwiſe, than by the ſaid Petition, that the Outlawry and Attainder of Barnaby the ſeventh Lord Baron of Upper-Oſſory, for the Rebellion in 1688, were reverſed, he thought it of no Uſe to collect the Proofs, which he apprehends he always had, and ſtill has, in his Power to give of his Deſcent.

That the Petitioner humbly apprehends, that if the Prayer of the Petition of the ſaid Capt. James Fitzpatrick be granted, he ſhall for ever be precluded from aſſerting his Right to that ancient Barony:

And the Petitioner alledges, that the ſaid Capt. Fitzpatrick cannot prove that he is of the Blood of the ſaid Barnaby Lord Baron of Upper-Oſſory, or if he be, that he is the next Heir-Male,

The Petitioner therefore humbly prayed to be heard, in ſuch Manner as to their Lordſhips ſhall ſeem meet, againſt the Pretenſions of the ſaid James; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall take the ſaid Petition into Conſideration on Monday Morning next.

Upon reading the Order of the Day, for this Houſe to be put into a Committee, to take into further Conſideration an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act for explaining and making more effectual an Act, intitled, An Act for the more effectual preventing clandeſtine Marriages, and another Act, paſſed in the 12th Year of his late Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to prevent Marriages by degraded Clergymen and Popiſh Prieſts, and for preventing Marriages conſummated from being avoided by Pre-contracts, and for the more effectual puniſhing of Bigamy; the ſame was adjourned till To-morrow Morning.

Upon reading the Order of the Day,

Marriage-Bill

Hodie tertia vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for explaining and making more effectual an Act, intitled, An Act for the more effectual preventing clandeſtine Marriages, and another Act, paſſed in the 12th Year of his late Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to prevent Marriages by degraded Clergymen and Popiſh Prieſts, and for preventing Marriages conſummated from being avoided by Pre-contracts, and for the more effectual puniſhing of Bigamy.

The Queſtion was put, Whether this Bill ſhall paſs?

Debate thereon.

And a Debate ariſing thereupon,

The Houſe divided, and the Earl of Antrim reported, that the Contents below the Bar were 23, and the Not-Contents within the Bar, were 5.

Bill paſſed;

It was carried in the Affirmative.

DISSENTIENT.

Proteſt.

BECAUSE this Bill is, as we conceive, at beſt, inſignificant, and is become ſo by the Alterations made in the Heads of a Bill with a like Title, which paſſed this Houſe early in the Seſſion, particularly by the Omiſſion of two moſt material Clauſes, the Continuance of which would, in our Judgment, have made the Bill correſpond with the Title, and really effectual, for the preventing clandeſtine Marriages of Minors of Quality and Fortune, which Marriages generally bring Ruin on the Perſons married, and may occaſion the utmoſt Diſtreſs and Confuſion in the nobleſt Families in this Kingdom.

We freely and fully acknowledge the rightful Power of altering Heads of Bills; but we think that this Power, like all others veſted in the ſeveral Parts of our Legiſlature, ought ever in the Exerciſe, to be directed to the true, the only conſtitutional End of ſuch Powers, the publick Good: And it cannot, in our Opinion, be for the Publick Good, that Heads of Bills, wiſely framed for the Benefit of his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects of Ireland, and which in their Nature and Conſequences can affect this Kingdom only, without the leaſt Influence on any other Part of his Majeſty's Dominions, ſhould be rendered ineffectual, or leſs effectual, by any Alterations whatſoever.

Meſſage to Commons for Concurrence.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Doctor Stopford and Mr. Lill, two of the Maſters in Chancery, to acquaint them, that this Houſe hath paſſed the ſaid Bill, to which they deſire their Concurrence.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Petition of Lord Gowran

A Petition of John Lord Baron of Gowran ſetting forth, that on the 22d Day of January, laſt, a Petition of Capt. James Fitzpatrick, claiming the Title of Lord Baron of Upper-Oſſory, was received and read in this moſt Hon. Houſe.

That the Petitioner is deſcended from Barnaby Fitzpatrick, who in the 23d Year of King Henry VIII. was by Patent, created Lord Baron of Upper-Oſſory, to hold to him and the Heirs-Male of his Body; and has great Reaſon to think that he is the next Heir-Male of the ſaid Barnaby; but not knowing otherwiſe, than by the ſaid Petition, that the Outlawry and Attainder of Barnaby the ſeventh Lord Baron of Upper-Oſſory, for the Rebellion in 1688, were reverſed, he thought it of no Uſe to collect the Proofs, which he apprehends he always had, and ſtill has, in his Power to give of his Deſcent.

That the Petitioner humbly apprehends, that if the Prayer of the Petition of the ſaid Capt. James Fitzpatrick be granted, he ſhall for ever be precluded from aſſerting his Right to that ancient Barony:

And the Petitioner alledges, that the ſaid Capt. Fitzpatrick cannot prove that he is of the Blood of the ſaid Barnaby Lord Baron of Upper-Oſſory, or if he be, that he is the next Heir-Male,

The Petitioner therefore humbly prayed to be heard, in ſuch Manner as to their Lordſhips ſhall ſeem meet, againſt the Pretenſions of the ſaid James; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall take the ſaid Petition into Conſideration on Monday Morning next.

Upon reading the Order of the Day, for this Houſe to be put into a Committee, to take into further Conſideration an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act for explaining and making more effectual an Act, intitled, An Act for the more effectual preventing clandeſtine Marriages, and another Act, paſſed in the 12th Year of his late Majeſty's Reign, intitled, An Act to prevent Marriages by degraded Clergymen and Popiſh Prieſts, and for preventing Marriages conſummated from being avoided by Pre-contracts, and for the more effectual puniſhing of Bigamy; the ſame was adjourned till To-morrow Morning.

Meſſage from Commons, with Bill. A Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. Richard Boyle and others, with an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act for the more effectual amending and keeping in Repair the ſeveral Turnpike-Roads in this Kingdom, and for better ſecuring the Creditors of the ſaid Roads; to which they deſire the Concurrence of this Houſe.

The Lord Biſhop of Clogher preſented to the Houſe, a Bill, intitled, An Act for dividing the Pariſh of St. Mary within the City and Suburbs of Dublin, into two diſtinct Pariſhes; which was received, and ordered to be read.

Bill for dividing St. Mary's Pariſh. Hodie prima vice lecta eſt Billa, intitled, An Act for dividing the Pariſh of St. Mary within the City and Suburbs of Dublin, into two diſtinct Pariſhes.

Ordered, that the ſaid Bill be read a ſecond time on Monday Morning next.

Petition of Officers, &c. of Houſe. A Petition of Enoch Sterne, Eſq; Clerk of the Parliaments, the Hon. William Fitzwilliam, Eſq; Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, and Hartley Hutchinſon, Clerk Aſſiſtant, in behalf of themſelves and all the other Officers and Servants attending this moſt Hon. Houſe, ſetting forth:

That the Petitioners are intitled to Fees upon all Private Bills, to be paſſed in the Houſe of Lords.

That their Lordſhips were pleaſed, upon the Petition of the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop of Kildare, Dean of the Cathedral Church of the Holy Trinity of Dublin, commonly called Chriſt-Church, and the Rev. the Chapter of the ſame, to give Leave for Heads of a Bill to be brought in for dividing the Pariſh of St. Mary within the City and Suburbs of Dublin, into two diſtinct Pariſhes, and that the Rev. Dr. John Jebb, who ſigned the ſaid Petition and ſolicited the ſaid Heads of a Bill, diſputed the Payment of the Fees due upon paſſing the ſaid Heads of a Bill, inſiſting that the ſame ought, by a Clauſe in an Act of Parliament, paſſed in the 2^d Year of his late Majeſty's Reign, to be paſſed as a Publick Bill.

That the Petitioners conſented, that it ſhould be left to the Opinion of Eaton Stannard, Eſq; Whether Fees ought to be paid, or not, upon paſſing the ſaid Heads of a Bill? And the ſaid Dr. Jebb, for that Purpoſe, fee'd the ſaid Mr. Stannard, and laid before him a State of a Caſe, upon which the ſaid Mr. Stannard gave the following Opinion:

" I HAVE perused the Clause in the latter " End of the Act of the 2d of George I. C. 14, " and apprehend these Heads of a Bill are not " within the Words of that Clause; for this is " to divide a Parish: And the Act extends " only to uniting or disuniting Parishes, or " Parts of Parishes, or building particular " Churches. But the main Intention of these " Heads of a Bill, is to divide a Parish, intire " before, and not consisting of any Union, nor " tending to unite any Part of any Parish to " it: And I think they may demand Fees in " this Case.

EA. STANNARD."

This Case was omitted. February 8th 1749.

The said Dr. Jebb, notwithstanding the said Opinion, still refuses to pay the Fees due to the Petitioners.

The Petitioners therefore most humbly beseech their Lordships to order their said Fees for the said Heads of a Bill, and also the Fees for the Bill now depending before their Lordships, to be paid, before the said Bill do pass; was presented to the House, and read.

Order thereon.

Ordered, that Lords' Committees be appointed to take the said Petition into Consideration, and that the Lord Visc. Hillsborough, and all the Lords present, be the said Committee.

Their Lordships, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the House of Peers, adjourn as they please, and report, and all Lords who shall please to come to the said Committee, are to have Voices therein; and the Judges to assist.

Bill for Turnpike-Roads.

Hodie prima vice lecta est Billa, intitled, An Act for the more effectual amending and keeping in Repair the several Turnpike-Roads in this Kingdom, and for better securing the Creditors of the said Roads.

Ordered, that the said Bill be read a second time on Monday Morning next.

Petition of Earl of Clanrickard.

A Petition of the Right Hon. Smith Earl of Clanrickard, setting forth:

That the Petitioner and his Ancestors, by virtue of several Letters Patents, granted by several of his Majesty's Predecessors, Kings of England, being seized of all the Advowsons and Rights of Patronage of all and singular the Rectories, Vicarages, Chapteries and Prebendaries in the Territories of Clanrickard and Dunkellin, in the Province of Conaught, and particularly of the Vicarages of Killconnell, Killane, and Fohenagh, Clontuskert and the consolidated Rectory and Vicarage of Killmane, otherwise Killtomas in the Diocese of Clonfert and Kilmacduagh, and Territories of Clanrickard and Dunkellin.

That several of the Petitioner's Ancestors, pursuant to said Letters Patents, presented their Clerks to said Rectories and Vicarages, as often as they became vacant, who were instituted and inducted by the several Bishops of Clonfert and Kilmacduagh, as appears by the Records of the First-Fruits' Office, and of the Registry of the Archbishoprick of Tuam.

That the Vicarages of Killconnell, Killane and Fohenagh, and the consolidated Rectory and Vicarage of Killmane otherwise Killtomas became vacant on the Death of the Rev. Archdeacon Henry Wright, late Incumbent thereof, and now of Right belongs to the Petitioner, to present a Clerk thereto; and the said Vicarage of Clontuskert became vacant on the Death of the Rev. Dean Gyles Eyre, late Incumbent thereof, and now belongs to the Petitioner, of Right, to present a Clerk thereto.

That the Petitioner and his Clerk were put to great Expense and Delay, in Recovery of the Rectory and Vicarages of Loughrea, Killtiskill, Killnadeema and Killrickill in the Diocese of Clonfert, in the said Territories, one other of the said Livings mentioned in the said Patents, against the Clerk collated by the Right Rev. John Lord Bishop of Clonfert, Killmacduagh and Killfenora; and in Michaelmas Term, 1747, obtained Judgment against the said John Lord Bishop of Clonfert, in his Majesty's Court of Common-Pleas in this Kingdom, on a full Hearing, on a Trial at the Bar of said Court, where the said Lord Bishop insisted on his Title in Right of his See, and the Petitioner's Clerk was put into Possession, and enjoys the same.

That now the said Lord Bishop of Clonfert, (in Right of his See, claims a like Title to the said Livings, become vacant lately by the Death of the said Henry Wright and Gyles Eyre) refuses to admit, institute or induct the Clerks presented to him by the Petitioner to said Livings; and though his Lordship was served with his Majesty's Writ of Ne admittas, requiring him not to collate to said Livings, he refused obeying the same; and contrary thereto, has collated and inducted his Clerks to said Livings.

That the Petitioner had Application made to his Lordship on the 5th Day of this Inst. to wave his Privilege of Parliament, who desired two or three Days to return his Answer; and that his Lordship was pleased to delay returning an Answer, till the 18th Inst. and then refused to wave his Privilege.

That the Petitioner's Clerks dare not bring their Quare impedit for Recovery of said Livings, for fear of a Breach of the Privileges of this House, though the Petitioner is advised that it will be fatal to his Title, if the same is not brought, in six Months after the Plenarty of the Church, and the Clerks presented by his Lordship will continue in Receipt of the Profits of said Livings during the Contest, and the Petitioner be put to great Costs, Delay and Vexation, though his Lordship well knows that such Recovery was had against him, on the same Title in the Court of Common-Pleas, as aforesaid:

And

And therefore prayed their Lordſhips to take the Premiſes into Conſideration, and to make ſuch Order therein, for the Petitioner's Relief, as to their Lordſhips ſhall ſeem meet; was preſented to the Houſe, and read.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall take the ſaid Petition into further Conſideration on Monday ſe'n-night.

Lords to be ſummoned.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that all the Lords in and about the Town be ſummoned to attend the Service of this Houſe on Monday ſe'n-night.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall be put into a Committee, upon Monday Morning next, to take into Conſideration an ingroſſed Bill, lying on the Table, intitled, An Act to provide for Begging Children, and for the better Regulation of Charity-Schools, and for taking up vagrant and offenſive Beggars in the City of Dublin and Liberties thereof, and the Liberties thereto adjoining; whoſe Lordſhips are to compare the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and ſee that it exactly agrees therewith.

Reſolved, that this Houſe ſhall be put into a Committee on Monday Morning next, to take into Conſideration an ingroſſed Bill, lying on the Table, intitled, An Act for continuing ſeveral temporary Statutes, and to compare the ſame with the original Tranſmiſs, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, and ſee that it exactly agrees therewith.

A Meſſage was ſent to the Houſe of Commons, by Dr. Wall and Mr. Cuffe, to acquaint them, that this Houſe hath agreed to the ſaid Bill, without any Amendment.

Reſolution for Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to return his Excellency the Thanks of this Houſe for his prudent and equal Adminiſtration.

To aſſure his Excellency, that we look back with Indignation at that Spirit of Faction and Sedition which manifeſted itſelf before the opening of the Seſſion, and that we feel the ſtrongeſt Senſe of Gratitude, when we reflect on the careful Attention of his Excellency, in preventing the pernicious Effects of it, by the moſt conſtitutional and effectual Meaſures.

To aſſure his Excellency of our Approbation of, and Thankfulneſs for, his Oeconomy in the Management of the Publick Treaſure, by which this Kingdom has been relieved from a conſiderable Part of the Publick Debt.

To acknowledge our great Satisfaction in the effectual Proviſion his Excellency has obtained for the diſtreſſed Widows of Officers.

To aſſure his Excellency, that we do not doubt of being repreſented, at his Excellency's Return to the Royal Preſence, in the true Light of dutiful, loyal and affectionate Subjects; and that if his Majeſty's Councils ſhould not require his nearer Attendance, we ſhall think ourſelves happy to ſee him continued in the Government of this Kingdom.

Ordered, that the Lord Viſc. Hillſborough, and all the Lords preſent, be appointed Lords' Committees to prepare the ſaid Addreſs.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report; and all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee are to have Voices therein.

Ordered, that the Order for taking into further Conſideration the Petition of Smith Earl of Clanrickard this Day, be adjourned till To-morrow Morning.

Ordered, that the Order for all the Lords in and about the Town to attend the Service of this Houſe on this Day, be adjourned till To-morrow Morning.

Adjourned till To-morrow Morning, at Eleven o'clock.

Meſſage from Commons with Bill. And alſo, a Meſſage was brought from the Houſe of Commons, by Mr. John Gore and others, with an ingroſſed Bill, intitled, An Act for continuing and amending ſeveral Laws heretofore made relating to his Majeſty's Revenue, and for the more effectual preventing Frauds in his Majeſty's Cuſtoms and Exciſe; to which they deſire the Concurrence of this Houſe.

The Lord Viſc. Hillſborough reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that they had prepared the ſame, which he read in his Place, and the ſaid Addreſs being afterwards read at the Table, was agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Excellency
WILLIAM Earl of HARRINGTON,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

Addreſs to Ld Lieutenant. WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our unfeigned Thanks, for your prudent and equal Adminiſtration, not leſs diſtinguiſhed by your great Abilities, than by the judicious and vigilant Exertion of them.

We cannot look back without feeling the utmoſt Indignation at that Spirit of Faction and Sedition, which, before the opening of the Seſſion, manifeſted itſelf, in traducing and miſrepreſenting the Legiſlature, in contemning all Authority, and in endeavouring to excite Jealouſies and Miſunderſtandings between the Subjects of Great Britain and Ireland, firmly united by the indiſſoluble Tie of every Religious and Civil Intereſt; nor can we, on the other hand, reflect, but with the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude, on the careful Attention to the Publick Welfare, which your Excellency demonſtrated on that important Occaſion, in purſuing the moſt conſtitutional and effectual Meaſures to defeat the wicked Deſigns of thoſe who had audaciouſly attempted to foment Diviſions, deſtructive of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under his Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government.

We beg Leave, in the ſtrongeſt Manner, to expreſs our Approbation of, and Thankfulneſs for, the Oeconomy your Excellency has ſhewn in the Management of the Publick Treaſure, by which his Majeſty's Subjects of this Kingdom have been relieved from a conſiderable Part of the National Debt; an Example which, though hitherto rarely precedented, will we hope attract the Attention, and engage the Imitation, of future Chief Governors.

The effectual Proviſion, which, through your Excellency's Interceſſion, his Majeſty, ever ready to reward the Merits and to relieve the Diſtreſſes of his Subjects, has been graciouſly pleaſed to make for the unhappy Widows of Officers, who have died in the Service of their Country, is a convincing Proof, as well of your Excellency's great Humanity, as of your Wiſdom, in the Direction of Publick Beneficence, and is a Part of your Excellency's Adminiſtration, which, as it gives us the moſt pleaſing Satisfaction, cannot fail of exciting in us the ſtrongeſt Sentiments of Duty and Affection to his Majeſty, and of Gratitude and Regard to your Excellency.

Conſcious of that Duty and Affection to his Majeſty and to his Royal Family, and experienced in your Excellency's Candour and tender Concern for the Subjects of this Kingdom, we doubt not of being repreſented to his Majeſty, at your Return to the Royal Preſence, in the trueſt and moſt favourable Light; and we beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency, that if it ſhall pleaſe his Majeſty to continue your Excellency in the high Office you ſo greatly fill, we ſhall eſteem it an high Mark of his Majeſty's Paternal Goodneſs to us. But if his Majeſty's Councils ſhould require your Excellency's nearer Attendance, we ſhall part from the beſt of Governors with the leſs Regret, as it will be for the Service of the beſt of Kings.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Excellency.

Committee on insolvent Debtors Bill.

The House was adjourned during Pleasure, and put into a Committee, upon an ingrossed Bill, sent up by the Commons, intitled, An Act for the Relief of insolvent Debtors; and after some time spent therein,

The House was resumed: And the Lord Visc. Strangford reported from the said Committee, that they had gone through the said Bill, Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereunto, without any Amendment; and also compared the same with the original Transmiss, under the Great Seal of Great Britain, with which it exactly agrees.

Ordered, that the said Bill be read a third time on Saturday Morning next.

Report of Lord Lieutenant's Answer in favour of Judges.

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the House, that he had attended his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant with the Resolution of this House in favour of the Lord Chief Justice of his Majesty's Court of King's-Bench, and of the Lord Chief Justice of his Majesty's Court of Common-Pleas; to which his Excellency was pleased to give the following Answer:

Lord Lieutenant's Answers.

" I WILL lay this Resolution of the House " of Lords before his Majesty."

The Lord Chancellor also reported, that he did at the same time lay before his Excellency their Lordships' Resolutions in favour of the Officers and Servants attending this House; and he was pleased to give this Answer, viz.

" I WILL take Care to lay these Resolutions " of the House of Lords before his Majesty."

The Lord Chancellor also reported, that in obedience to their Lordships' Order of Yesterday, he had waited upon his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant; to know when he would please to be attended by this House with their Lordships' Address to his Excellency; and his Excellency was pleased to appoint this Day, at half an Hour after Two o'clock, at the Castle of Dublin.

To these Bills the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Assent, severally, in these Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il est desiré."

Then his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant was pleased to make a Speech to both Houses of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

THE Loyalty, Unanimity and Temper of your Proceedings during this Session, at once demonstrate your just Attachment to the true Interest of your Country, and your grateful Sense of the invaluable Blessings which you enjoy under his Majesty's most gracious Government.

I am persuaded it will be your constant Endeavour, in your respective Countries, to inspire your Fellow-Subjects with the same Principles by which your own Councils in Parliament have been directed, to promote and confirm in them a due Sense of their present Happiness, to encourage them in the Pursuit of Industry and useful Arts; and, above all, to maintain, by your Example and by your Influence, a just Reverence for Religion, and Obedience to legal Authority, without which the best Constitution must languish and decay.

Such a Conduct, on your Part, cannot fail to secure to you the Continuance of his Majesty's royal Favour and Protection, and to establish the Prosperity of this Kingdom upon a solid and lasting Foundation, by defeating the evil Designs of those, who, by the Infusion of groundless Jealousies, endeavour to alienate the Minds of his Majesty's loyal Subjects, and to disturb the Publick Peace.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I AM commanded by his Majesty, to return you Thanks for the Supplies, which you have granted with your usual Chearfulness.

The Reduction made in the National Debt is a signal Proof of his Majesty's invariable Purpose to ease his faithful Subjects upon all Occasions, so far as may be consistent with the Support of his Government, and their own Security.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT has been my Study, ever since the King was pleased to intrust me with the Government of this Kingdom, to act in such a Manner as might best answer his Majesty's gracious Intentions for the Benefit of his People; and I heartily thank you for the intire Approbation of my Conduct, which you have expressed in your Addresses to me, as well as for the repeated Instances you have given of your Regard to the Ease and Honour of my Administration: I desire you will be assured of my not failing to represent your dutiful Zeal to his Majesty in the truest Light, and that it shall be my constant Care to promote, upon every Occasion, to the utmost of my Power, the Credit, the Interest and the Prosperity of Ireland.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, said:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the 29th Day of May next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the 29th Day of May next. Parliament prorogued.

The Lord Chancellor, kneeling conferred with his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and then, ſtanding on the right hand of the Chair of State, commanded the Gentleman-Uſher of the Black-Rod to repair to the Houſe of Commons, and acquaint them, that it is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure they attend him immediately in the Houſe of Peers.

they enter.

And the Houſe of Commons being come, they, with their Speaker, were conducted to the Bar, with the uſual Ceremonies.

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant made a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I SHALL ever eſteem it the greateſt Honour and my particular Happineſs, that the ſame gracious Sovereign, who formerly placed me in this high Station, hath again commanded me to meet a Parliament, whoſe dutiful and affectionate Attachment to his Royal Perſon and Government I have ſo often experienced, and upon all Occaſions have faithfully repreſented to his Majeſty.

A ſincere Zeal for his Majeſty's Service and for your Proſperity, ſhall ever be the governing Principle of my Adminiſtration; and my perfect Knowledge of your Temper and Unanimity, aſſures me, that we all meet with equal Inclination to promote the Publick Welfare.

The zealous Concern which his Majeſty's faithful Subjects of Ireland have ſo eminently ſhewn for the Preſervation of the Crown in his illuſtrious Houſe, leaves me no room to doubt that you were deeply affected by the late publick Loſs, which theſe Nations have ſuſtained: And you muſt be filled with the warmeſt Sentiments of Reverence and Gratitude, when you conſider the Greatneſs and the Goodneſs of his Majeſty's Mind, who immediately propoſed thoſe ſalutary Proviſions, which have ſince paſſed into a Law, for guarding againſt every remote Danger, and for ſecuring his People, as far as human Wiſdom could reach, againſt the Conſequences of any fatal Event.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I HAVE ordered the proper Officers to prepare the ſeveral Accounts and Eſtimates to be laid laid before you, as alſo a particular Account of the Money expended in repairing, rebuilding or building Barracks, purſuant to your Addreſs in a former Seſſion of Parliament.

It gives me great Satisfaction to obſerve the extraordinary Produce of the Funds which you have formerly granted; and I have nothing now to aſk, but the uſual Supplies.

I am commanded by the King to acquaint you, that his Majeſty, ever attentive to the Eaſe and Happineſs of his Subjects, will graciouſly conſent and recommends it to you, that ſuch a Part of the Money now remaining in his Treaſury, as ſhall be thought conſiſtent with the Publick Service, be applied towards the further Reduction of the National Debt.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE two great Objects which demand your conſtant and moſt ſerious Attention, are the Security of the Proteſtant Intereſt, and the Advancement of your Trade: It muſt neceſſarily occur to you how much the Support of the Charter-Schools and the Encouragement of your Linen Manufactures will contribute to the Attainment of theſe important Ends; and what further Proviſions may be expedient, will be the Subject of your Deliberations.

My Conduct ſhall convince you, that nothing, on my Part, ſhall be wanting that may effectuate his Majeſty's gracious Intentions, to make his Subjects of Ireland as happy, as I know them to be dutiful and loyal.

Then his Grace the Lord Lietenant was pleaſed to withdraw, and was attended as he entered; and the Commons returned to their Houſe.

Then the Houſe was adjourned during Pleaſure, to unrobe.

The Houſe was reſumed.

The Lord Chancellor reported his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and the ſame being afterwards read at the Table;

Speech to be printed.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament, ſhall be forthwith printed and publiſhed, and that the Clerk of this Houſe do appoint the printing thereof.

Reſolution for Addreſs to the King.

Reſolved, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty:

To aſſure his Majeſty of our zealous and affectionate Attachment to his Royal Perſon and Government.

To return our Thanks for the many gracious Inſtances of his Majeſty's conſtant Attention to our Welfare and Happineſs.

To acknowledge, with the utmoſt Thankfulneſs, that his Majeſty hath not not only made the Laws the Standard of his Government through the whole Courſe of his Reign, but but has extended his Royal Care to the Preſervation of our happy Conſtitution to ſucceeding Ages.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we were deeply affected with the great publick Loſs which theſe Nations have of late ſuſtained, and to declare our Reverence of the Greatneſs and Goodneſs of his Majeſty's Mind, that though he was engaged in all the Offices of Humanity and Tenderneſs upon that late melancholy Occaſion, his Majeſty, even then, made the future Safety of his People the immediate Object of his Concern.

To expreſs our earneſt Wiſhes, that we may be long bleſſed with the Continuance of his Majeſty's precious Life, and that the Crown may be perpetuated in his illuſtrious Houſe, to the lateſt Poſterity.

To return his Majeſty Thanks for committing, a ſecond time, the Government of this Kingdom to his Grace the Duke of Dorſet.

To aſſure his Majeſty, that we are ſolicitous for the Security and Advancement of the Proteſtant Intereſt, and the Trade of this Kingdom, and particularly attentive to the Support of the Charter-Schools and the Linen and Hempen Manufactures, and that we will chearfully concur in every Meaſure that may promote the Publick Good, and contribute to the Eaſe, Stability and Honour of his Majeſty's Reign.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Earl of Grandiſon, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and that all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

Reſolved, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that an humble Addreſs of Thanks be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, for his Grace's Speech, delivered this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament. Reſolution for Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant.

Ordered, that the Lord Tullamore, and all the Lords preſent, ſhall be, and are hereby, appointed a Committee to prepare the ſaid Addreſs, purſuant to the foregoing Reſolution, and that all Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, are to have Voices therein.

Their Lordſhips, or any five of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Armagh ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church, on the 23d Inſt. being an Anniverſary Thankſgiving for the Delivery of the Proteſtants of this Kingdom from the Popiſh Maſſacre in 1641.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Lord Biſhop of Derry ſhall be, and is hereby, deſired to preach before this Houſe at Chriſt-Church on the 5th Day of November next, being appointed a Day of Thankſgiving for the happy Deliverance of the three Eſtates of England from the intended Maſſacre by Gun-powder and alſo for the happy Arrival of his late Majeſty King William III. of Glorious Memory, on this Day, for the Deliverance of our Church and theſe Nations.

PRAYERS.

Ordered, that the Judges be covered.

The Earl of Grandiſon reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Majeſty, purſuant to their Lordſhips' Reſolution of Yeſterday; that they had prepared the ſame accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe as follows, viz.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

Addreſs to the King.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, humbly beg Leave to renew our ſolemn Aſſurances of the moſt zealous and affectionate Attachment to your Majeſty's royal Perſon and Government.

We muſt ever be deeply affected at any melancholy Event in your, Majeſty's royal Family, and embrace this firſt Opportunity to preſent our ſincere Condolence on the great Loſs lately ſuſtained by theſe Nations.

Your Majeſty, upon that ſolemn Occaſion, of publick Grief, engaged in all the Offices of paternal Affection and Tenderneſs, (to which alone few Minds could have been equal) even then made the future Safety of your People the principal, the immediate Object of your Concern.

It is your Majeſty's Glory, not only to have made the Laws the Standard of your Government, and the Eaſe and Happineſs of your Subjects the conſtant Object of your Attention through the whole Courſe of your auſpicious Reign, but to have generouſly extended your royal Care to the Preſervation of our happy Conſtitution to ſucceeding Ages.

We want Words ſufficiently to expreſs the Reverence and Gratitude with which our Hearts are filled, when we conſider the Greatneſs and Goodneſs of your Majeſty's Mind.

May the Divine Providence long bleſs us with the Continuance of your precious Life, and perpetuate the Crown of theſe Realms in your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe, for the Security and Happineſs of our lateſt Poſterity!

We eſteem it a particular Mark of your Majeſty's Goodneſs, that you have been pleaſed, a ſecond time, to commit the Government of Ireland to his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, whoſe Zeal for your Majeſty's Service, and the Proſperity of this Kingdom, we ſtill happily experience, in the beneficial Effects of his Grace's former Adminiſtration.

A juſt Regard to the Welfare of our Country, muſt make us ever ſolicitous for the Security and Advancement of the Proteſtant Intereſt, and the Trade of this Kingdom: We ſhall therefore be particularly attentive to the Support of the Charter-Schools, and the Improvement of our Linen Manufacture; and beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will chearfully concur in every Meaſure which may promote the Publick Good, and contribute to the Eaſe, Stability and Honour of your Majeſty's Reign.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe, in order to have the ſame laid before his Majeſty.

Mr. John King, being appointed by the Clerk of the Parliaments, Reading Clerk to the Houſe of Lords, and Demetrius James, Eſq; being appointed Yeoman-Uſher of the Black-Rod, this Day, at the Table, took the Oaths, and made and ſubſcribed the Declaration, and alſo took and ſubſcribed the Oath of Abjuration, purſuant to the Statutes.

Reading Clerk and Yeoman-Uſher take the Oaths, &c.

The Lord Tullamore reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, purſuant to the Reſolution of this Houſe of Yeſterday, that they had prepared an Addreſs accordingly, which he read in his Place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the ſame was again read, and agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace
LIONEL Duke of DORSET,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Grace our moſt humble Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

Addreſs to the L^d^ Lieutenant

We look upon it as a freſh and ſignal Inſtance of his Majeſty's paternal Regard for our Happineſs, that he has again placed your Grace in the high Station, which you formerly filled with ſuch diſtinguiſhed Honour to yourſelf, and Advantage to this Kingdom; and we moſt gratefully acknowledge the happy Effects of thoſe faithful Repreſentations which your Grace has, upon all Occaſions, made to his Majeſty, of our dutiful and affectionate Attachment to his royal Perſon and Government.

The ſincere Zeal for his Majeſty's Service and for our Proſperity, which we have ever experienced to be your Grace's governing Principle, lays us under the ſtrongeſt Obligations of promoting, with Temper and Unanimity, whatever tends to the Publick Welfare, and the Eaſe of your Grace's Adminiſtration.

His

His Majeſty's faithful Subjects of Ireland are too zealous for the Preſervation of the Crown in his illuſtrious Houſe, not to have been deeply affected by the late publick Loſs; and the Greatneſs and the Goodneſs of his Majeſty's Mind, in immediately propoſing thoſe ſalutary Proviſions, which have ſince paſſed into a Law, fill us with the warmeſt Sentiments of Reverence and Gratitude: But though we are ſecured, as far as human Wiſdom can reach, againſt the Conſequences of any fatal Event, yet we muſt offer up our ſincereſt Prayers for the Continuance of the ſacred Life of a Sovereign, who is not more watchful to prevent, than he has been powerful to defend us againſt, every Danger.

We are juſtly ſenſible of your Grace's Goodneſs, in recommending the Security of the Proteſtant Intereſt and the Advancement of our Trade, as the two great Objects which demand our conſtant and moſt ſerious Attention: The Proteſtant Schools, which were eſtabliſhed by a Charter obtained during your Grace's former Government, and the Linen Manufactures have already contributed greatly towards the Attainment of thoſe important Ends: And we will take into our earlieſt Deliberations, whatever may be neceſſary for their further Support and Encouragement.

Experience gives us the fulleſt Confidence in your Grace; and we reſt aſſured, that nothing will be wanting that may effectuate his Majeſty's gracious Intentions, to make his Subjects of Ireland happy, as we ſhall always continue moſt dutiful and loyal.

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will pleaſe to be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Majeſty, and alſo the Addreſs of this Houſe to his Grace.

Petition of G. Frend, Esq;

A Petition of George Frend, Esq; setting forth:

That the Petitioner, in the Year 1734, was married to Elizabeth Vanluen of the City of Dublin: That the Petitioner, at the Time of said Marriage, was a Student in Trinity-College Dublin, and a Minor, and that the said Marriage was had privately, without the Consent or Privity of the Petitioner's Guardian, and without the Knowledge of the Petitioner's Friends or Relations, though several of his very near Relations then lived in the City of Dublin, where the said Marriage was solemnized.

That the Petitioner and the said Elizabeth consummated the said Marriage, and that there was Issue of the said Marriage one Son, who was born on or about the 15th Day of December, 1735, and is still living.

That the Petitioner, in the Year 1736, went to the Island of Minorca, being then an Ensign in one of the Regiments in his Majesty's Service that were in Garrison in the said Island, and that the Petitioner, from the said Year 1736, continued in the said Island and other Parts beyond the Seas, and did not return to this Kingdom, until the Month of July, 1749, at which time the Petitioner came to this Kingdom, with the Regiment in which he is a Captain.

That the said Elizabeth constantly resided in this Kingdom during all the said time, and never was out of it from the Year 1736, to the said Month of July, 1749, and that she, during the said time, lived a scandalous, dissolute and adulterous Life, and bore several Children; and the Petitioner having been informed thereof, did, on the 12th Day of February, 1750, institute a Cause of Divorce or Separation from Bed, Board and mutual Cohabitation, against the said Elizabeth, by reason of Adultery, in the Consistorial Court of the Diocese of Dublin, in which Diocese said Elizabeth then resided; and the said Cause was fully heard, and on full Proof, Judgment was given, and a Decree pronounced by Alexander M'Aulay, Esq; Doctor of Laws, Judge of the said Court, on the 12th Day of July, 1751, for Divorce and Separation of the Petitioner and the said Elizabeth, from Bed, Board and mutual Cohabitation, as by the said Decree, under the Seal of the said Court, may appear.

Petitioner is advised, that notwithstanding the said Sentence, the said Marriage is still in Force, and that it cannot be annulled nor the Petitioner be at Liberty to marry any other Wife, during the Life-time of the said Elizabeth, without the Aid of Parliament:

And praying their Lordships, in tender Consideration of the Premises, to give Leave that Heads of a Bill may be brought in, to declare the several Children, born of the said Elizabeth during the Absence of the Petitioner as aforesaid, illegitimate, and to dissolve the Petitioner's said Marriage with the said Elizabeth, and to enable him to marry again; was presented to the House, and read.

Lords to be summoned.

Ordered, that the said Petition shall be taken into Consideration on Thursday Morning next, and that all the Lords in and about the Town be summoned to attend the Service of the House on that Day.

Heads of Bill for Recovery of Servants Wages,

Upon reading the Order for the Day, Heads of a Bill for the better adjusting and more easy Recovery of the Wages of certain Servants, and for the better Regulation of such Servants, and of certain Apprentices, and for the Punishment of all such Owners of Coal and their Agents, as shall knowingly employ and set at Work, Persons retained in the Service of other Coal-owners, and also that mutual Debts between Party and Party be set one against the other; were read a second time.

Resolved, that this House shall be put into a Committee on Thursday Morning next, to take the said Heads of a Bill into Consideration.

Ordered, that the said Committee shall have Power to receive a Clause or Clauses.

Report from Judges on temporary Laws,

The Lord Chancellor acquainted the Houſe, that the Judges, according to Order, had prepared a Report of what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, which he preſented to the Houſe, and the ſame was afterwards read by the Clerk at the Table, as follows, viz.

IN obedience to your Lordſhips' Order, whereby we are to inquire what Laws are lately expired or near expiring, we have examined the ſeveral temporary Laws lately expired or near expiring, and find no other Acts lately expired or near expiring, except,

An Act in the 1ſt Seſſion in the 2d of Queen Anne, C. 10, for the Exchange of Glebes, &c. to be in Force for 21 Years, and was continued by 10th George I. C. 4, to the 1ſt of September, 1731, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and by the 5th of George II. C. 6, for 21 Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 23d of George II. C. 8, the Act of the 2d Queen Anne, and ſuch Parts of the ſaid Act of the 5th of George II. which relates to the Act of the 2d of Queen Anne, are continued for four Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, after the Expiration of ſaid four Years.

By 4th George I. C. 9, the Act of 9th King William, which gives a Pardon to any who convicts two Tories, is altered, and gives it to any who convicts one.

Note: This Law is not temporary, and yet the Act of the 6th George I. C. 12, continues ſo much of the Act of the 4th as relates to that Matter, for ſeven Years.

2d George I. C. 10, to reſtrain Papiſts from being Conſtables, &c. for three Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion: We have not met with any Act which continues it.

6th George II. C. 10, for the better regulating the Pariſh-Watches, and amending the Highways in this Kingdom, and for preventing the Miſapplication of Publick Money: This Act and all and every Clauſe, Article and Proviſoe therein contained, ſo far as it relates to any County, Counties of Cities, Boroughs, Towns Corporate, Pariſhes, and other Places in the ſeveral Counties in this Kingdom, other than what relates to and may concern the Pariſh-Watches of the City of Dublin and Liberties of the ſaid City, was continued for two Years, from 25th March, 1722, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament.

But the 8th George I. C. 10, amends the ſaid Part which relates to the City of Dublin; and the 10th George I. C. 3, makes the Act of 6th George I. C. 10, as to what relates to all the Counties in the Kingdom, except Dublin, perpetual, and continues the Act of the 8th Geo. I. C. 10, as to what relates to the City of Dublin, for ſeven Years, from 1ſt March, 1723; and the 3d George II. C. 5, continues it to 25th March, 1737; and the 11th of George II. C. 13, continues it to 29th September, 1744, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament; and the 19th of George II. C. 15, continues it to the 29th September 1746, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and 21ſt George II. C. 7, continues it to the 29th September, 1749, and to the End of the then next Seſſion, and the 23d of George II. C. 8, continues it for four Years, and to the End of next Seſſion, after the Expiration of ſaid four Years.

The Act of the 11th Queen Anne, C. 4. for the more effectual preventing the ingroſſing, foreſtalling and regrating of Coals imported into this Kingdom, for ſeven Years, from 1ſt November, 1711, to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament: We do not find any Act by which it was continued longer.

10th George I. C. 10, for regulating Abuſes in the buying and ſelling of Cattle, was for two Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and was, by 12th George I. C. 6, continued to the 1ſt of December, 1728, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and by the 11th George II. C. 13, to the 29th September, 1744; and by the 19th George II. C. 15, to the 29th of September, 1746, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion; and by the 21ſt Geo. II. C. 7, to the 29th September, 1749, and to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament; and by the 23d George II. C. 8, for four Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament, after the Expiration of ſaid four Years.

12th George II. C. 6, continues the Act of the 6th of George I. for quieting all Perſons in Offices, and enlarges the Time for taking the Oaths, to the 1ſt of Auguſt, 1726; and there has been an Act every Seſſion ſince for that Purpoſe. And by 21ſt George II. C. 5, it is enlarged to the 25th of March, 1749; and by 23d George II. C. 7, to the 25th March 1751.

1ſt George

1st George II. C. 12, for the more eaſy Recovery of Tythes, &c. for three Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion, continued by 5th George II. C. 6, for two Years; and by 7th George II. C. 7, to 25th March, 1740; and by 13th George II. C. 4, for four Years, from ſaid 25th March, 1740; and by 15th George II. C. 6, for eleven Years, from 25th March, 1742.

3d George II. C. 7, for the better Diſcovery of Judgments, &c. for two Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion, continued by the 5th George II. C. 6, for ſeven Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and by the 15th George II. C. 6, for eleven Years, from 25th of March, 1742.

9th George II. C. 3, for regulating Juries to the 29th of September, 1739, and to the End of next Seſſion, continued by 13th George II. C. 5, to the 25th March, 1744, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion; and by the 19th George II. C. 10, the two foregoing Acts, ſo far as they are not altered by the ſaid Act of the 19th George II. C. 10, are continued to the 25th of March, 1753, and to the End of the next Seſſion.

11th George II. C. 12, for Preſervation of the Game, for ſeven Years, and to the End of the next Seſſion. This Act, except ſuch Parts as are altered by an Act, made in the 19th Geo. II. C. 14, is continued by the 19th George II. C. 15, for ſeven Years, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion.

13th George II. C. 11, gives four Years, from the Year 1740, to ſell and export, &c. Linen, under the Set of Ten Hundred, though 22½ Inches broad.

The Act of the 9th George II. for the better regulating of Juries, was by the 13th George II. C. 5, continued to the 25th of March, 1744, and to the End of the next Seſſion; and by the 19th George II. C. 10, the ſaid Acts of the 9th and 13th of George II. are continued to the 25th of March, 1753, and from thence to the End of the then next Seſſion of Parliament.

When theſe are continued, we apprehend it ſhould not be forgot to continue the Act of the 21ſt George II. C. 6.

An Act of the 23d George II. C. 15, for continuing and amending an Act of the 10th Year of George I. intitled, An Act for the regulating Abuſes committed in the buying and ſelling of Cattle and Sheep in the ſeveral Markets of this Kingdom, is for two Years, from the 1ſt of June, 1750, and to the End of the next Seſſion.

Note: That by this Act, the Act of the 10th George I. as far as it is not altered or amended by the ſaid Act of the 23d of George II. is likewiſe continued for the like Time; and we apprehend, that the Act of the 10th George I. is by the 23d George II. continued for two Years.

2d George I. C. 9, to make the Militia of this Kingdom more uſeful, to continue until the 24th of June, 1718, continued by 4th George I. C. 9, for two Years; and by the 8th George I. C. 6, for two Years, from the 25th of December, 1721; and by the 10th George I. C. 4, for two Years, from the 25th of December, 1723; and it is in like manner continued by other Acts: And by the 11th George II. C. 13, it is continued to the 29th of September, 1744, and from thence to the End of the next Seſſion of Parliament: And by the 19th George II. C. 9, it is amended; and that Act, and the ſaid Act of the 19th George II. C. 9, are to continue for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion.

The ſaid Act of the 2d George I. C. 9, and of the 19th George II. C. 9, are by the 21ſt Geo. II. C. 7, continued for two Years, and to the End of the then next Seſſion.

And by the 23d George II. C. 8, the Act of the 2d George I. and every Part of the ſaid Act of 2d George I. C. 9, which was not altered by the 19th George II. C. 19, and the ſaid Act of the 19th George II. C. 9, are continued for four Years, from the End of that Seſſion, to the End of the next Seſſion, after the Expiration of the four Years.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Conſideration of the ſaid Report ſhall be, and is hereby, referred to a ſelect Committee, and that all the Lords preſent ſhall be the ſaid Committee, and that all the Lords who ſhall pleaſe to come to the ſaid Committee, ſhall have Voices therein, and two of the Judges to aſſiſt. referred to Committee.

Their Lordſhips, or any three of them, to meet To-morrow Morning, at Ten o'clock, in the Committee-Chamber, near the Houſe of Peers, adjourn as they pleaſe, and report.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Rev. John Singleton, Clerk, Lieut. Mead Vanluen, Cecilia Carry, Ann Charlton and John Farran, Merchant, do appear at the Bar of this Houſe on Wedneſday ſe'n-night, as Witneſſes on behalf of George Frend, Eſq; in relation to Heads of a Bill now depending in this Houſe to diſſolve the Marriage of the ſaid George with Elizabeth Vanluen, and to enable him to marry again, and for other Purpoſes therein mentioned. Witneſſes to be ſummoned.

Order for Addreſs to the King.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that an humble Addreſs be preſented to his Majeſty, to teſtify our ſincere Condolence with his Majeſty on the Death of that moſt excellent Princeſs the late Queen of Denmark.

And to aſſure his Majeſty, that our Hearts are ſo intirely poſſeſſed with the warmeſt Duty and Affection to his Majeſty, that we muſt always feel the deepeſt Sorrow upon any melancholy Event which can happen to his Royal Family, every Branch of which we juſtly eſteem a Security and Pledge of the Publick Happineſs.

And that it is our conſtant and moſt earneſt Prayer, that his Majeſty's precious Life may be prolonged; that his gracious Reign may be attended with every Felicity to himſelf and his People; and that the Crown of theſe Kingdoms may deſcend, by an uninterrupted Succeſſion, in his Royal Houſe, to the lateſt Times.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do attend his Grace the Lord Lieutenant with the ſaid Addreſs, and deſire his Grace will pleaſe to lay the ſame before his Majeſty.

The Lord Viſc. Maſſareene reported from the Lords' Committees, appointed to prepare an Addreſs to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, that they had prepared the ſame, which he read in his Place, and the ſaid Addreſs being afterwards read at the Table, was agreed to by the Houſe, as follows, viz.

To his Grace
LIONEL Duke of DORSET,
Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of IRELAND;

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Grace,

Addreſs to Lord Lieutenant. WE the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, think it our Duty, before an End is put to this Seſſion, to expreſs, in the ſtrongeſt Terms, our ſincere and grateful Senſe of the Obligations we are under to your Grace, for your moſt prudent and juſt Adminiſtration.

The long uninterrupted Courſe of Favour, which your Grace has enjoyed under the beſt of Kings, with unblemiſhed Honour and Reputation, preſerved through the Exerciſe of the ſeveral Offices of the higheſt Truſt and Importance, which your Grace has ſo worthily and ſo eminently filled, will tranſmit your Name to Poſterity in the moſt amiable Light, and will remain a ſtanding Proof, that thoſe Virtues which dignify a private Life, are the ſureſt Guards in the Difficulties of publick Buſineſs and the trueſt Ornaments of the moſt exalted Stations.

Your Grace's exact and extenſive Knowledge of the State of this Kingdom, and your Inclination to promote its true Intereſt, manifeſted in your former Government, made your Return to us the moſt acceptable Pledge of his Majeſty's continued Favour to a dutiful and loyal People; and our moſt promiſing Expectations have been fully anſwered by your Grace's conſtant Care and Attention to every thing that could conduce to the Proſperity of this Kingdom; and by your ſupporting the Dignity and due Authority of the Crown, in ſuch a Manner as to ſhew, at the ſame time, the ſtricteſt Regard to the Liberties of the People.

We ſhould be wanting in Gratitude, and a juſt Confidence in your Grace, if we could doubt of your repreſenting our Duty and Affection to his Majeſty, in the trueſt and moſt favourable Light; and we ſhould be wanting to ourſelves and to our Country, did we not earneſtly wiſh, that your Grace may long continue to preſide over us: We beg Leave to aſſure your Grace, that we ſhall be always ready to contribute every thing in our Power to your Eaſe and Honour, and to the Support of your Government, being firmly perſuaded, that your Grace's many perſonal Virtues, and the real Benefits of your Adminiſtration, will be ſo ſenſibly felt, and make ſo deep and ſo laſting an Impreſſion, that your Grace cannot fail to be poſſeſſed of the univerſal Affections and Eſteem of all his Majeſty's faithful Subjects in this Kingdom.

Reſolved,

Reſolved, that the ſaid Addreſs be preſented to his Grace the Lord Lieutenant by the whole Houſe.

Ordered, that the Lord Chancellor do wait upon his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, humbly to know when he will be attended by this Houſe with their Addreſs to his Grace.

It is ordered, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, that the Judges do prepare Heads of a Bill to encourage the Improvement of barren and waſte Lands and Bogs, to be preſented to this Houſe next Seſſion of Parliament.

11. An Act for ſelling or leaſing certain Lands, Houſes and Edifices, with their Appurtenances, commonly called The King's Inns, ſituate in the County of the City of Dublin.

To this Bill, the Clerk of the Parliaments pronounced the Royal Aſſent, in theſe Words, viz.

"Soit fait comme il eſt deſiré."

Then his Grace the Lord Lieutenant was pleaſed to make a Speech to both Houſes of Parliament, as follows, viz.

My

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Lord Lieutenant's Speech.

THE extraordinary Length of your Attendance, and the advanced Seaſon of the Year, will, I am perſuaded, make it as agreeable to you, as it muſt be advantageous to your ſeveral Countries, that a Concluſion ſhould be now put to this Seſſion of Parliament.

The effectual Execution of the many uſeful Laws, to which the Royal Aſſent hath been given, will greatly depend upon your Authority and Example. And I particularly recommend to you, to exert your utmoſt Influence, to inforce Obedience to the Act now paſſed, which provides againſt that Diſgrace to Government, a tumultuary and violent Obſtruction, to the free Adminiſtration of publick Juſtice.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of Commons,

I RETURN you Thanks, in the King's Name, for the Supplies which you have granted with your uſual Chearfulneſs and Unanimity. The Declarations in your late Addreſs to his Majeſty, of your unfeigned Attachment to his royal Perſon and Government, of your Gratitude for the Protection and Support received at all times from the Crown of Great Britain, and of your Reſolution to cultivate a good Underſtanding and Harmony between the two Kingdoms, cannot but be extremely acceptable to his Majeſty, who will juſtly reſent, as the Father of all his People, any Attempts to propagate Jealouſies, or to diſunite the Affections of his common Subjects.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE many obliging Expreſſions in your Addreſſes to me, demand my repeated Thanks: Be aſſured I will not fail to repreſent to his Majeſty, in the trueſt Light, the Loyalty and Duty of his People of Ireland. I have long endeavoured, upon all Occaſions, to contribute to their Proſperity, and ſhall make it my conſtant Study to diſcharge the high Truſt, which his Majeſty hath graciouſly repoſed in me, by ſteadily purſuing thoſe Meaſures that may moſt effectually maintain the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, and promote the inſeparable Intereſt of his Majeſty, and his faithful Subjects of this Kingdom.

After which, the Lord Chancellor, by his Grace's Command, ſaid:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Parliament prorogued.

IT is his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Pleaſure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the 23d Day of June next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the 23d Day of June next.

☞ Memorandum: The Parliament being to ſit on the 23d Day of June, 1752; it was, before the appointed Time of Meeting, by Proclamation of the Lords Juſtices, dated the 15th Day of ſaid Month, further prorogued to the 11th Day of Auguſt, then next following.

☞ Memorandum: The Parliament being to ſit on the 11th Day of Auguſt, 1752; it was, before the appointed Time of Meeting, by Proclamation of the Lords Juſtices, dated the 3d Day of ſaid Month, further prorogued to the 5th Day of April, 1753.

☞ Memorandum: The Parliament being to ſit on the 5th Day of April, 1753; it was, before the appointed Time of Meeting, by Proclamation of the Lords Juſtices, dated the 23d Day of March, 1753, further prorogued to Tueſday the 28th Day of Auguſt, then next following.

☞ Memorandum: The Parliament being to ſit on Tueſday the 28th Day of Auguſt, 1753; it was, before the appointed Time of Meeting, by Proclamation of the Lords Juſtices, dated the 17th Day of Auguſt, 1753, further prorogued to Tueſday the 9th Day of October, next following, then to ſit for the Diſpatch of Buſineſs.
